Gazettes

Services for Government and Compliance

Tracking public notices? Tracking legal notices?

- Keep on top of events
- Monitor trends
- Ensure compliance
- No more re-keying
- No more inaccuracy

Time and Format

Notices advertised in the London, Edinburgh and Belfast Gazettes comprise a key information resource for government. Information can be delivered in many forms, it is available free of charge on www.gazettes-online.co.uk or can be delivered in other forms such as PDF, Microsoft Excel, XML or RDFa – whichever is your preferred format

This data can often be delivered on the day or publication, the next day or aggregated weekly depending upon the urgency of your requirement. Historical data may also be available

The objectives of these services is to

- Proactively notify you of changes
- Bring you the data you need faster
- Eliminate inaccuracy
- Eliminate data entry cost
- Provide a structured library of records

Gazette Direct would also be pleased to bespoke datafeeds to exactly meet your organisation's needs. As the Gazettes are the official newspapers of government you can always be sure that the service and data is of exceptional quality.

Customers

Public sector customers for these services include The Insolvency Service, an Executive Agency of the Department for Business, Enterprise & Regulatory Reform who receive a specially developed XML datafeed relating to corporate insolvencies and Transport for London who take information on changes of speed limits within London (both consultations and made orders).

The span of data available is wide from notification of the estates of deceased persons through to applications for zoo licenses, pollution permits and bankruptcy orders.
