Gazettes

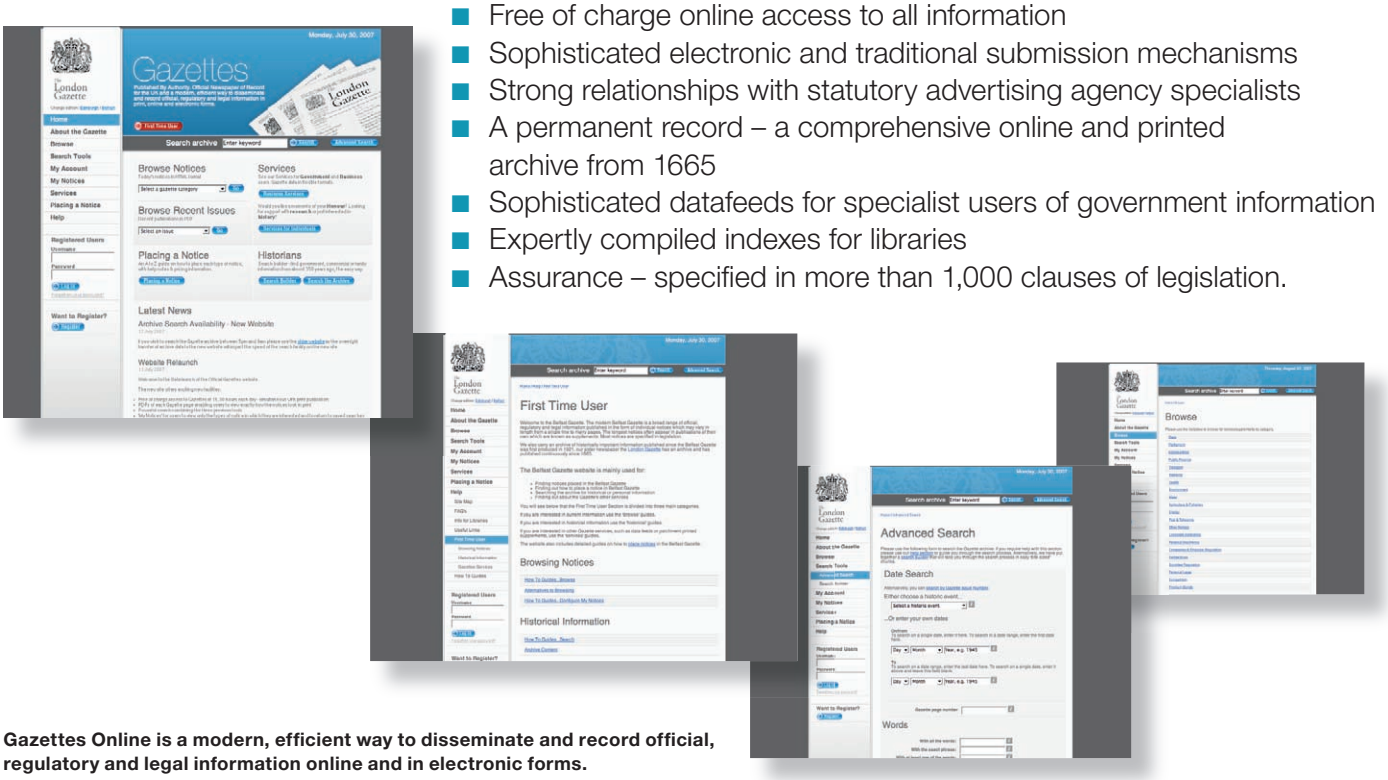
The Official Gazettes

The London, Edinburgh and Belfast Gazettes are published by Authority by TSO under the superintendence of the Controller of Her Majesty's Stationery Office.

The London, Edinburgh and Belfast Gazettes

The Gazettes provide:

- Ready-made infrastructure for making official information available
- Benefits of scale and capacity from a platform supporting 200,000 notices each year
- No cost to government
- Free of charge online access to all information
- Sophisticated electronic and traditional submission mechanisms
- Strong relationships with statutory advertising agency specialists
- A permanent record – a comprehensive online and printed archive from 1665
- Sophisticated datafeeds for specialist users of government information
- Expertly compiled indexes for libraries
- Assurance – specified in more than 1,000 clauses of legislation.



Gazettes Online is a modern, efficient way to disseminate and record official, regulatory and legal information online and in electronic forms.

Gazettes

Major areas of official and regulatory information published in the Official Gazettes include corporate, defence, environment, honours, insolvency, judiciary, personal legal (deed poll and Trustee Act), planning and transport.

Supporting Advertisers

The Official Gazettes exclusively publish official and statutory notices and offer many years expertise in helping advertisers to achieve the legal requirements for a notice – however technical they may be.

Dedicated staff and production facilities in London, Edinburgh and Belfast manage the process to local or national client requirements.

Available in the Heart of the Capitals

The Official Gazettes are available on the day of publication online, by subscription or order and for walk-in purchase from the Parliamentary Bookshop in London, TSO Scotland in Edinburgh and TSO Ireland in Belfast.

Accessible

Over one hundred and twenty public libraries throughout the United Kingdom subscribe to the Official Gazettes, many receiving it free of charge. Often they hold archives going back many years and offer free or low cost search and delivery services. The archive has been scanned and more than two million pages of historical Gazettes are available free of charge online.
