WAR OFFICE,
23rd November 1914.

HIS MAJESTY THE KING has been graciously pleased to approve of the grant of the Victoria Cross to the under-mentioned Non-commissioned Officer for conspicuous bravery whilst serving with the Expeditionary Force:—

No. 7753 Lance-Corporal William Fuller, 2nd Battalion, The Welsh Regiment, for conspicuous gallantry on 14th September, near Chivy on the Aisne, by advancing about 100 yards to pick up Captain Haggard, who was mortally wounded, and carrying him back to cover under very heavy rifle and machine gun fire.

WAR OFFICE, 25th November 1914.

His MAJESTY THE KING has been graciously pleased to approve of the grant of the Victoria Cross to the undermentioned Officers, Non-commissioned Officers and Men for their conspicuous bravery whilst serving with the Expeditionary Force:—

Rank.	Name.	Corps, &c.	Action for which commended.
13814 Private	Sidney Frank Godley	4th Battalion The Royal Fusiliers, City of London Regiment.	For coolness and gallantry in fighting his machine gun under a hot fire for two hours after he had been wounded at Mons on 23rd August.
69960 Driver	Job Henry Charles Drain	37th Battery Royal Field Artillery	At Le Cateau, on 26th August, as volunteers, helping to save guns under fire from hostile infantry who were 100 yards away.
71787 Driver	Frederick Luke

Rank.	Name.	Corps, &c.	Action for which commended.
Major... ..	Charles Allix Lavington Yate (deceased)	2nd Battalion The King's Own (York- shire Light In- fantry)	Commanded one of the two Com- panies that remained to the end in the trenches at Le Cateau on 26th August, and, when all other officers were killed or wounded and ammunition exhausted, led his nineteen survivors against the enemy in a charge in which he was severely wounded. He was picked up by the enemy and has subsequently died as a prisoner of war.
9376 Lance- Corporal	Frederick William Holmes	2nd Battalion, The King's Own (York- shire Light In- fantry)	At Le Cateau on 26th August, carried a wounded man out of the trenches under heavy fire and later assisted to drive a gun out of action by taking the place of a driver who had been wounded.
Captain ...	Edward Kinder Bradbury (de- ceased)	"L" Battery Royal Horse Artillery	For gallantry and ability in organis- ing the defence of "L" Battery against heavy odds at Nery on 1st September.
Captain ...	William Henry Johnston	Royal Engineers ...	At Missy on 14th September under a heavy fire all day until 7 p.m., worked with his own hand two rafts bringing back wounded and returning with ammunition; thus enabling advanced Brigade to maintain its position across the river.
42617 Bom- bardier	Ernest George Har- lock (Now Sergeant)	113th Battery Royal Field Artillery	For conspicuous gallantry on 15th September, near Vendresse, when his Battery was in action under a heavy shell fire, in that, although twice wounded, he persisted on each occasion in returning to lay his gun after his wound had been dressed.

FRIENDS' PROVIDENT INSTITUTION.

(Incorporation of Friends' Provident Institution; Repeal of Existing Rules and Substitution of New Rules; Rights of Existing Members to be Governed by New Rules; Friendly Societies Acts to Cease to Apply to Institution; Definition of Objects and Powers of Institution and Qualification for Membership; Definition of Rights of Holders of Existing Assurances; Provisions as to Change of Name; Administration of Affairs of Institution: Appointment, Powers and Duties of Directors, Officers, Auditors and Others; Provisions as to Meetings; Investment of Funds, etc.; Vesting Property in Institution; Periodical Valuation of Assets and Application of Surplus; Limitation of Liability of Officers, Members and Others; Provisions as to Claims against Funds of Institution; Surrender of Policies; Arbitration; Appointment of Attorneys for Execution of Deeds outside United Kingdom; Repeal or Amendment of Provisions of Friends' Provident Institution Act, 1899; Provisions as to Alteration of Rules; General and Incidental Provisions.)

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament in the Session of 1914–1915 by or on behalf of the Friends' Provident Institution (hereinafter called "the Institution") for leave to bring in a Bill for the following or some of the following, among other purposes (that is to say):

To incorporate the Institution under the name or title of the "Friends' Provident Institution" or such other name or title as may be prescribed in the Bill, with perpetual succession and a common seal, and to make all such provisions for and with respect to such incorporation as may be deemed necessary or expedient.

To repeal, annul, alter or amend all or some of the provisions of the existing rules and regulations of and relating to the Institution, and to enact other provisions and prescribe other rules and regulations in lieu of all or some of the provisions, rules and regulations repealed or annulled, and to provide that the rules and regulations of the Institution as so enacted or prescribed, and as subsequently varied, shall be deemed to be the rules and regulations of the Institution, and shall govern the rights of existing members of the Institution.

To provide that all or some of the provisions of the Acts 10 Geo. IV., cap. 56; 4 and 5 Will. IV., cap. 40; 3 and 4 Vict., cap. 73; 9 and 10 Vict., cap. 27; 13 and 14 Vict., cap. 115; 15 and 16 Vict., cap. 65; 16 and 17 Vict., cap. 123, and 17 and 18 Vict., cap. 56, and of all or any other enactments relating to Friendly Societies shall cease to apply to the Institution.

To continue the objects of the Institution as at present authorized with such modifications (if any) as may be deemed necessary or expedient and to define or to alter, extend and enlarge such objects.

To define the persons or classes of persons who may effect assurances with and who are to be deemed members of the Institution and the terms on which such assurances may be effected, and to prescribe the circumstances in which assurances shall become void or forfeited, and (if and so far as may be deemed expedient) to vary and extend the qualifications for effecting assurances and becoming members of the Institution as now prescribed.

To define the powers of the Institution and particularly (but not exclusively) to confer powers with respect to the granting of assurances and annuities, the effecting of re-assurances and the undertaking of risks by way of re-assurance, the acquisition and holding of lands without licence in mortmain, the sale, exchange, mortgage, charging, leasing, maintenance, development and other dealings with and dispositions of lands and buildings, the erection and alteration of buildings, the borrowing of money, the entering into and carrying into effect of agreements for purchasing or amalgamating with other societies, associations or companies, and the undertaking, paying and performing of all or any of the assurances, annuities and engagements of other societies, associations or companies.

To define the rights of holders of existing assurances (including assurances granted to persons not for the time being qualified to be members of the Institution), and to make provisions as to the title of the Institution to property of any kind and as to the construction and effect of deeds and other documents, and as to pending actions, arbitrations and proceedings, and causes of action, arbitration or other proceedings.

To provide that the Institution may sue and be sued by its corporate name.

To enable the Institution to change its name and to prescribe the mode in which and the conditions subject to which any such change may be effected.

To make provision for the administration of the business and affairs of the Institution and the appointment and removal of officers, auditors, trustees, agents, and others, and to define the powers and duties of directors of the Institution and to make provisions as to their appointment, remuneration, retirement, vacation of office, number, qualification and liabilities.

To make provisions with respect to the general and special meetings of the Institution, the election of auditors and consulting actuaries, the regulation of the rates of contributions or premiums for assurances to be charged by the Institution, and as to the alteration of the tables of contributions or premiums, the inspection of books of the Institution by the directors and members, the execution or signature of deeds, policies, contracts, cheques, and other instruments, documents and papers and the authentication thereof.

To provide for the appointment and (if and so far as may be deemed necessary or expedient) define the powers and duties of auditors of the accounts of the Institution.

To define the rights of members of the Institution as to the conduct of the affairs of the Institution, and the powers of the Institution as to the investment of funds, and to alter, amend, extend or enlarge the provisions of the existing Acts, rules and regulations of or relating to the Institution with respect to such investments, and to confer powers upon the directors of the Institution as to the investment of funds, the keeping of banking accounts and the formation of special funds.

To vest or provide for the vesting in the Institution of all or any property real or personal, rights, interests, obligations, securities, things in action and powers vested in or held by trustees or others on behalf of the Institution or to continue in the hands of such trustees or other persons or transfer to and vest in other trustees or persons all or any such property, rights, interests, obligations, securities, things in action and powers, and to provide for and limit and prescribe the stamp duties to be paid in respect of any such vesting or transfer, and to make provision with respect to the rights, interests, liabilities and obligations of the Institution and trustees for the Institution and of members of the Institution and other persons or, if thought fit, to release and discharge such trustees from all or any of the obligations and liabilities arising out of or attaching to the office of a trustee of the Institution and to indemnify such trustees in respect of such obligations and liabilities.

To provide for the periodical valuation of the assets and liabilities of the Institution and as to the mode of application of any surplus, and to authorize and provide for the payment or assignment of bonuses and interim bonuses.

To define the extent of and to limit the liability of directors, officers, members and others of or connected with the Institution, and to indemnify the directors, trustees, officers, clerks and servants of the Institution against costs, charges, damages, losses and expenses incurred in the execution of their offices and duties.

To make provision with respect to claims against the funds of the Institution and the time and place of payment thereof, and as to the making of payments to executors, administrators, trustees, and other persons standing in a fiduciary or representative capacity and as to the payment of pensions.

To authorize the surrender of or other dealing with policies of assurance vested in any person, including mortgagees, trustees, and others holding in a fiduciary or representative capacity, and of bonus additions to any such policy.

To provide for the settlement by arbitration of disputes between the Institution and the members or persons claiming through members.

To define the rules and regulations of the Institution, and to authorize the alteration of such rules and regulations in such manner and in accordance with such conditions as may be specified in the Bill.

To authorize and provide for the appointment of attorneys for the execution elsewhere than in the United Kingdom of deeds and other documents, and to provide as to the validity of deeds and documents so executed.

To repeal, alter or amend all or some of the provisions of the Friends' Provident Institution Act, 1899, and (if and so far as may be deemed necessary or expedient) to continue or to re-enact with or without modification all or some of such provisions or to enact new provisions in lieu thereof.

To confer upon the Institution all such further or other powers, rights and privileges, and to enact all such further or other provisions as may be deemed necessary or expedient for or with respect to the business or affairs of the Institution or otherwise for the purpose of carrying into effect the objects of the intended Act.

To vary or extinguish all rights or privileges inconsistent with or which would interfere with or prevent the execution of the objects of the Bill, and to confer other rights and privileges.

Printed copies of the proposed Bill will be deposited in the Private Bill Office of the House of Commons, on or before the 17th day of December next.

Dated this 19th day of November, 1914.
