OFFICE OF HIS MAJESTY'S WORKS,
OCTOBER 6, 1780.

IN Consequence of an Address from the House of Commons to His Majesty, dated the 6th of July last, praying that He would be graciously pleased to order an Account to be taken of the Losses and Damages which any of His Subjects had sustained by Reason of the late rebellious Insurrections, a Copy of the said Address was transmitted to this Board by the Lords of the Treasury, with Directions to carry the same into Execution, and make a Report thereon to them, in order that it may be laid before Parliament: The Principal Officers of His Majesty's Works have accordingly received the Claims of a considerable Number of Sufferers, and have made a Progress in preparing their Report thereon, as it is possible there may remain still some Sufferers who, from being unacquainted that such Enquiry was making, or from other Causes, have not applied to this Office. Notice is hereby given, that such Persons may forthwith deliver in their Claims to the Secretary of the Board of Works, in order that they may be properly examined previous to this Report being delivered in to the Lords of the Treasury.

The Officers of His Majesty's Works will meet on Thursday the 12th and 19th Instant, for the above Purposes.

St. James's, October 7, 1780.

WHEREAS it has been humbly represented to the King, that John Jarvis, a Private Soldier in His Majesty's Forty-ninth Regiment of Foot, stands charged upon the Coroner's Inquest with the wilful Murder of Benjamin Jones, a Drummer in the said Regiment, by inhumanly cutting his Throat with a Knife, in the Parish of Alconbury with Weston, in the County of Huntingdon, on the 19th Day of August last; the Body of the said Benjamin Jones having been found the next Morning, with a bloody Knife lying near it, by the Side of the Great North Road between Alconbury and Bugden; and the Sum of Seven Pounds and upwards, which he had received, in Company with the said John Jarvis, on Account of his Father, a Serjeant in the said Regiment, for Subsistence, being missing:

His Majesty, for the better apprehending and bringing to Justice the said John Jarvis, and his Accomplices (if any) in the said Murder, is hereby pleased to promise His most Gracious Pardon to any one of them, (except the Person or Persons who actually committed the said Murder) who shall discover his or her Accomplice or Accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof. And His Majesty is hereby farther pleased to promise a Reward of ONE HUNDRED POUNDS to any Person, (except as before excepted) who shall apprehend, or cause to be apprehended, the said John Jarvis, or either of his Accomplices, so that he, she, or they, may be convicted of the Crime aforesaid, to be paid upon such Conviction, by the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury.

HILLSBOROUGH.

And, as a farther Encouragement, His Majesty's Justices assembled at the General Quarter Sessions of the Peace at Huntingdon, do hereby promise the additional Reward of TWENTY POUNDS, to any Person, (except as before excepted) who shall apprehend, or cause to be apprehended, the said Murderer, or either of his Accomplices, to be paid upon Conviction by the Treasurer of the said County of Huntingdon.

N. B. The said John Jarvis is about 24 Years of Age, 5 Feet 6 Inches high, of a swarthy Complexion, with black Hair, grey Eyes, having lost one or two Teeth from the Front of his upper Jaw. He wore a red Frock, faced with Green, without any Lace, lined with White, the Button-holes worked with green Twiss, plain white Metal Buttons, no Waistcoat, a Pair of Buckskin Breeches, white Thread Stockings, white narrow-rimmed Shoe-buckles, and a round Hat. He gave out that he was born at Hull in Yorkshire, followed the Business of a Horse Jockey, and enlisted at Huntingdon Races in the Month of July last, about which Time he was acquainted with a Journeyman Blacksmith, who worked at Alconbury, and lately came out of the North with him, and who called him Brother.
