AN ESSAY on the VIRTUES of Dr. NORRIS'S DROPS for FEVERS, with the Particulars of 120 Cures, selected from a great Number of Cases, voluntarily addressed to Dr. Norris, with a View to benefit the Afflicted, given gratis at the Doctor's House, New Bridge-street, Black-friars, and by all other Venders of the Drops.

Experience has established this Medicine as the safest and most efficacious Remedy in every Kind of Fever, whether inflammatory, putrid, malignant, bilious, nervous, miliary, or hectic. They also relieve gouty and rheumatic Pains, and are a most incomparable Remedy in the Scurvy. In Lowness or Depression of Spirits, Complaints of the Stomach and Bowels, particularly the bilious and windy Cholick, they give almost immediate Relief; and, with a little Perseverance, never fail to work a Cure; and in Infirmities of advanced Life, its cordial and good Effects are singularly salutary. The above Essay will convince the most incredulous.

*** It is to be observed, that they are so gentle and mild in their Operation, they may be taken at any Time, and require no Confinement, except in desperate Cases, or Disorders that will not admit of going abroad.

Mr. Sawier, a Gentleman of Bristol, in a Letter to the Printer, published in the Gazette, in Recommendation of these Drops, after several Years Experience of their surprising Efficacy, and before he even knew Dr. Norris, declares them "The greatest Medical Blessing the World ever received."

The same Gentleman, in a Letter to Dr. Norris, on the Virtues and Efficacy of these Drops for Fevers, says, that in the Course of more than Seven Years, not one Instance came to his Knowledge of a Patient doing otherwise than well, who made a fair Trial of them.

And in another Letter on the Virtues of these Drops, he writes the Doctor thus: "I must not omit to mention, that, never-failing as your Drops have proved in Fevers, they are found equally sovereign in Complaints of the Bowels. The many Instances I have met with of Persons deplorably bad in the Bilious Cholick, relieved almost instantly, and cured in a few Hours, by this Medicine, induce me to make its Efficacy known as much as possible, for the Sake of Numbers who drag on a miserable Life, merely for Want of a proper Medicine."

As the making these Drops universally known may be of infinite Service to the Public, by saving the Lives of many Thousands annually, it is earnestly desired (as Example goes beyond Precept) that all who are cured by them, or have received great Benefit in old inveterate Complaints, will be so obliging, for the Good of others, as to send the Particulars of their Case and Cure, as Numbers have already done, to Dr. Norris, at his House in Bridge-street, Black-friars, London; or to any of the Persons appointed to sell these Drops in Town or Country.
