N. B. The Figures against which Asterisks are placed are the general Average Prices of all England.

Published by Authority of Parliament,

JOHN JAMES CATHERWOOD, Receiver of Corn Returns.

THE AVERAGE PRICE OF SUGAR,

Computed from the RETURNS made in the Week ending the 9th Day of April, 1794, is Forty-eight Shillings and Ten Pence Farthing per HUNDRED WEIGHT,

Exclusive of the Duty of Customs paid or payable thereon, on the IMPORTATION thereof into GREAT BRITAIN.

By Authority of Parliament,

Grocers Hall,
April 12, 1794.

RICHARD WHALLEY BRIDGMAN,
Clerk of the Grocers Company.

Whitehall, April 1, 1794.

Whereas it has been humbly represented to the King, that, on or about the 22d Day of March last, Two Letters, of which the following are Copies, bearing the Post Mark of Alnwick, were received by William Yelder, Esq; Mayor of Newcastle upon Tyne, written by some evil-disposed Persons, with a View to create unfounded Alarms, and to disturb the Public Tranquillity, the Contents proving wholly untrue, and the Names of Two respectable Gentlemen of the County of Northumberland, appearing thereto, being forged, viz.

S I R,

I have only Time to inform your Worship that a Number of Men landed this Evening from some French Privateers cruising off this Coast, and have carried away all the Cattle they could seize, and I apprehend they will do more Mischief. If there are any armed Ships at Shields I hope you will send them for our Protection, otherwise we cannot tell how far the Evil may extend.

I am, S I R,

Your humble Servant,

HENRY GREY.

Bambro', March 19, 1794.

S I R,

I am extremely unhappy to trouble you with this Address, but the People in this Part of the Country are at present in such Consternation and Terror, that I have been requested by a great Number of my Neighbours to inform you, that a Descent was made this Evening near Bambrough, by a Number of armed

Men, from Three French Frigates cruising near the Coast, who have carried off all the Cattle and Sheep from my Estate, and from many of my Neighbours near the Sea; they still remain and seem to threaten further Depredation; and as we have no Military Force near us, we request that if it be in your Power to afford us any Protection, you will send it as speedily as possible; I have only just Time to send a Servant to Alnwick to meet the Mail, by which Conveyance I imagine it will reach you sooner than it would by an Express.

I am,

Your Worship's most obedient Servant,

THO. YOUNGHUSBAND.

Tuggal-Hall, near Bambro',
March 20, 1794.

His Majesty, for the better apprehending and bringing to Justice the Persons concerned in writing and sending the Letters above mentioned, is hereby pleased to promise His most gracious Pardon to any One of them, who shall discover his or her Accomplice or Accomplices therein, (except the Person or Persons who actually wrote the said Letters) so that he, she or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

And, as a further Encouragement, His Majesty is hereby pleased to promise a Reward of TWO HUNDRED POUNDS to any Person making such Discovery as aforesaid (except as before excepted) to be paid by the Right Honorable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury upon the Conviction of any One or more of the Offenders.

HENRY DUNDAS.
