From Tuesday November 6, to Saturday November 10, 1798.

At the Court at St. James's, the 31st of October, 1798,

P R E S E N T,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Time limited by His Majesty's Order in Council of the Second of May last, prohibiting the transporting into any Parts out of this Kingdom any Pot-Ashes or Pearl-Ashes (except as in the said Order is mentioned) will expire upon the Seventh Day of November next; and whereas it is judged expedient, that the said Prohibition should be continued for some Time longer; His Majesty doth therefore, with the Advice of His Privy Council, hereby order, require, prohibit, and command, That no Person or Persons whosoever do, at any Time during the Space of Six Months, to commence from the said Seventh Day of November next, export, or attempt to export, transport, carry, or convey, or lade or lay on board of any Ship, Vessel, or Boat, in order to be exported, transported, carried, or conveyed out of this Kingdom, any Pot-Ash or Pearl-Ash, without Leave or Permission being first had and obtained from His Majesty or His Privy Council, upon Pain of incurring the Forfeitures inflicted by an Act passed in the Thirty-fourth Year of His Majesty's Reign, intituled, "An Act for indemnifying all Persons who have been concerned in advising or carrying into Execution an Order of the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury respecting the Exportation of Pot-Ashes or Pearl-Ashes; for preventing Suits in consequence of the same; for authorizing His Majesty to prohibit the Exportation or carrying Coastwise of Pot-Ashes or Pearl-Ashes, and for making further Provisions relative thereto;" but it is, nevertheless, His Majesty's Pleasure, that nothing herein contained shall extend, or be construed to extend, to prevent the Exportation of the said Articles to Ireland, or to His Majesty's Islands of Guernsey, Jersey, Alderney, Sark, or Man, or to His Majesty's Colonies or Plantations in America, or the West Indies, or to Newfoundland, or to His Majesty's Forts and Settlements on the Coast of Africa, or to the Island of St. Helena, or to the British Settlements or Factories in the East Indies: Provided that upon the Exportation of the said Articles to Ireland, or to His Majesty's Islands of Guernsey, Jersey, Alderney, Sark, or Man; or to His Majesty's Colonies or Plantations in America or the West Indies, or to the Island of Newfoundland, or to His Majesty's Forts and Settlements on the Coast of Africa, or to the Island of St. Helena, or the British Settlements or Factories in the East-Indies; the Exporters of the said Articles do first make Oath of the true Destination of the same to the Places for which they shall be entered Outwards, before the Entry of the same shall be made; and do give full and sufficient Security, by Bond, to the Satisfaction of the Commissioners of His Majesty's Customs, to carry the said Articles to the Places for which they are so entered Outwards, and none other; and such Bond shall not be cancelled, or delivered up, until Proof be made to the Satisfaction of the said Commissioners, by the Production, within a Time to be fixed by the said Commissioners, and specified in the Bond, of a Certificate or Certificates, in such Form and Manner as shall be directed by the said Commissioners, shewing that the said Articles have been all duly landed at the Places for which they were entered outwards: And the Right Honorable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, the Commissioners for executing the Office of Lord High Admiral of Great Britain, and the Lord Warden of the Cinque Ports, are to give the necessary Directions herein as to them may respectively appertain.

Admiralty-Office, November 10, 1798.

Extract of a Letter from Captain George Countess, Commander of His Majesty's Ship Ethalion, to Evan Nepean, Esq; dated in Plymouth Sound, November 8, 1798.

I Have to request you will be pleased to inform my Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty, that since my Letter of 22d September by Captain White, of the Sylph, I continued to watch the Motions of the French Squadron in His Majesty's Ship under my Command, (having with me the Anson and Amelia,) until the 4th October at Noon, when a hard Gale of Wind coming on, we lost Sight of them in Lat. 53 Deg. 13 Min. North, and Long. 16 Deg. 15 Min. West, Sligo-Bay bearing North 77 East, Distance 91 Leagues. The Wind being off Shore we carried Sail to get in with the Land to give the necessary Information. The Amelia separated on the Night of the 8th. I had previously desired, in case of Separation, each Ship to make the best of her Way to give the Alarm. On the 11th we fell in with the Squadron under Sir John B. Warren, but it blowing strong, could not get on board to communicate any Intelligence; but seeing the Amelia with him, I was satisfied he had all the Information I could give. Soon after our joining the above Squadron, the Anson made the Signal for the Enemy, whom we discovered coming down, but they hauled to the Wind on observing us. We chased and kept close to them during the Night, and next Morning the Attack commenced, which no Doubt you have been fully informed of by Sir John Borkase Warren. After the Hoche struck, we pursued the Weathermost Frigate, who was making off, and sailed very fast. After a considerable Chace we came up with and engaged her; she made an obstinate Resistance for an Hour and Fifty Minutes, after we got a-breast of her, when she struck her Colours, most of her Sails having come down, and Five Feet Water in her Hold. She proved to be the Bellone, of Thirty-six Guns, Twelve Pounders, having Three Hundred Soldiers on board besides her Crew. The Squadron chased to Leeward, and of course we separated, being obliged to remain by the Prize, and have been under the Necessity of keeping the Sea ever since.

I cannot speak too highly of the Bravery and Conduct of all my Officers during the Action, as well as of their extreme Vigilance in watching them for Seventeen Days. Mr. Sayer, First Lieutenant, is in the Prize, and I can with Pleasure say, His Majesty has not a more zealous or a better Officer. We had One Man killed and Three wounded; The Enemy appear to have had Twenty killed.

London, November 10, 1798.

On Thursday last Sir Richard Carr Glynn, Knt. Lord Mayor Elect for the Year ensuing, was sworn at Guildhall; when the Chair and other Ensigns of Mayoralty were surrendered to him in the accustomed Manner.

Yesterday the new Lord Mayor, accompanied by the late Lord Mayor, the Aldermen, Recorder, and Sheriffs, in their Scarlet Gowns, went in their Coaches to the Water-side, the Sword and Mace being carried before them, and the City Officers attending; and from thence proceeded in the City Barge, attended by the several Companies in their respective Barges, adorned with Streamers and Pennants, to Westminister; and having walked round the Hall, and solemnly saluted all the Courts, they went to the Exchequer Bar, and the new Lord Mayor did there take the Oaths appointed; and having recorded Warrants of Attorney in the proper Courts, returned by Water to Black Friars, and from thence in Coaches, with the usual Solemnity, to Guildhall, where a magnificent Entertainment was provided; at which were present several of the Foreign Ministers, the Great Officers of State, divers of the Nobility, Lords of His Majesty's Most Honorable Privy Council, the Judges, and many other Persons of Quality and Distinction.

St. James's, November 7, 1798.

THE following Address of the Chancellor, Masters, and Scholars of the University of Cambridge has been presented to the King by the Vice Chancellor, Doctor Sumner, attended by the Right Honorable William Pitt, High Steward and One of the Representatives in Parliament for the said University; Earl Spencer, Right Honorable Sir Richard Pepper Arden, Sir W. W. Wynne, Bart. the Honorable Mr. Villiers, Rev. Dr. Belward, Dr. Cory, Dr. Ingle, Mr. Sheppard, Rev. Mr. Blackall, Rev. Mr. Michell, Rev. Mr. Vickers, Mr. Beverley, and several other Members of the University, being introduced by the Earl of Galloway, Lord in Waiting; which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Chancellor, Masters, and Scholars of the University of Cambridge.
Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, the Chancellor, Masters, and Scholars of your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal University of Cambridge beg Leave to approach your Throne, humbly to express our sincerest Congratulations upon a Series of brilliant and important Victories, obtained by your Majesty's Fleets, since the Commencement of this present War, over all our Enemies in various Seas, particularly on the most glorious Victory at the Mouth of the Nile.

The numerous and splendid Instances of Success, which, under the Direction of Divine Providence, have distinguished the eminent Exertions of your Majesty's Naval Commanders, have hitherto been observed by us with silent Admiration; but the recent signal Victories, so highly important to ourselves, and so beneficial to other Nations, will suffer us no longer to restrain our earnest Wishes of thus publicly manifesting to your Majesty the unfeigned Joy in which we equally participate with the most zealous of your Majesty's Subjects.

The very important Advantages arising to these Kingdoms from such happy Events, it is difficult for us to calculate; but whilst the Enemy, with unremitting Industry, has been endeavouring to spread Sedition in every Country, we have perceived, with the sincerest Satisfaction, that your Majesty's Subjects, sensible of the Blessings which they enjoy under your good and virtuous Government, have stood forth with an undaunted Zeal to defend your Throne, and repel the Insults of a haughty Foe.

Impressed with the strongest Sense of the anxious Care which your Majesty has uniformly shewn for the Welfare of your Subjects, and the Interests of Religion and Literature, allow us to add our most fervent Prayers to Almighty God, that your Majesty may enjoy a long and happy Reign; and that such a Spirit of Firmness and Loyalty may continue to animate your People as may enable your Majesty to maintain the Dignity of your Crown, and to preserve the good Order, Religion, and Prosperity of your Dominions.

Given under our Common Seal, this 31st Day of October, 1798.

To which Address His Majesty was pleased to return the following Most Gracious Answer:

I Receive with great Satisfaction this dutiful and loyal Address.

On an Event so glorious to the National Character, so important to the Success of the great Cause in which We are engaged for the Defence of all Our Civil and Religious Establishments, nothing can be more acceptable to Me than the Congratulations of those who are entrusted with the important Charge of public Education, and whose Studies are dedicated to the Advancement of sound Learning and Science, and to the Maintenance of Our Holy Religion.

The University of Cambridge may be assured of My uniform Support, Favour, and Protection.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

WE, the Mayor, Bailiffs, and Commonalty of the City of Oxford, in Common-Council assembled, ever anxious to evince our Loyalty to your Majesty, beg Leave to approach your Royal Person with our most sincere Congratulations upon the Victories lately obtained by your Majesty's Fleets over the Power of France.

So decisive have these Victories been, and so important will necessarily be their Consequences, that whilst we gratefully admire the almost unexampled Skill and Valour displayed by your Majesty's Forces on the glorious Occasions, we are induced also, with well-founded Confidence, to look forward, not only to the immediate Safety of the British Empire from the Attacks with which it hath been threatened and assailed by an implacable Foe, but in a more comprehensive View to regard, as further removed from impending Destruction, the System, so long established in Europe, of religious Belief and well-ordered Government. Animated by the successful Stand which your Majesty has made in Defence of the Independence and Rights of your Crown, we trust that other States will catch a similar Spirit, and exert a similar Degree of Perseverance.

We pray the Almighty that He will prosper with equal Favour your Majesty's Arms until it shall please Him to restore unto us, on a secure and permanent Basis, the Blessings of Peace: and that He will so far more peculiarly bless us your Majesty's Subjects, as to prolong, to a distant Period, your Majesty's Reign, under which we feel and know have been preserved inviolate our Civil and Religious Liberties, and in the fullest Perfection have been administered the invaluable Blessings of a free Constitution.

Given under our Common Seal, this 31st Day of October, 1798, and in the Thirty-ninth Year of your Majesty's Reign.

Signed by Order,

Taunton, Town Clerk.

[Presented by Francis Burton and Henry Peters, Esqrs; Representatives in Parliament for the said City.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,
The humble Address of the Mayor, Bailiffs, and Commonalty, of the City of Winchester.

WE, your Majesty's most loyal and faithful Subjects, the Mayor, Bailiffs, and Commonalty of the City of Winchester, presume to approach the Throne, and humbly to offer to your Majesty our Congratulations on the brilliant and important Successes with which it has pleased Almighty God to crown the gallant Exertions of your Majesty's Navy.

We beg Leave particularly to congratulate your Majesty on the recent Victory, achieved by the Skill, the Conduct, and the Intrepidity of the Fleet under the immediate Command of Admiral Lord Nelson; and we partake in the honest Pride and Exultation of every loyal Subject, on an Event so highly honorable to the British Name, so essential to the Prosperity and Security, and so important to the Commercial Interests of the Country.

We beg your Majesty to be assured that we are fully sensible of the Justice of the Contest in which we are engaged; that we consider it as the common Cause of Civilized Society; and that we shall cheerfully acquiesce, to the utmost Extent of our Efforts and Abilities, in such Measures of Vigor and Energy as the Wisdom of your Majesty and your Parliament may judge conducive to the favorable Issue of the War; till, by the Humiliation and Defeat of the Enemy, they are driven to embrace those Offers of Pacification, which we are confident the humane Propensities of your Majesty are disposed to afford them, on such Terms as alone can ensure Permanence to any Treaty or lasting Security to the established Governments of Europe.

Given under our Common Seal, in our Council Chamber, this 5th Day of November, in the Year of our Lord, 1798.

[Presented by Sir Henry Mildmay, Bart. Mayor, and Sir Richard Gamon, Bart. one of the Representatives in Parliament for the said City.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

THE Volunteer Corps of Portsdown, Petersfield, and Bere Forest Cavalry, the Gosport Artillery, the Havant, First Gosport, Portsmouth, Portsea, Second Gosport, Portchester, Portsmouth-Garrison, Wickham, Finchdean, Hambledon, Emfworth, and Gosport Riflemen Infantry, assembled this Day on Portsdown, for the Purpose of testifying their Joy at, and celebrating the late glorious Victory of your Majesty's Fleet, under the Command of Rear-Admiral Nelson, avail themselves of the Opportunity humbly to congratulate your Majesty on an Occasion, in which it has pleased the Almighty so eminently to bless the Arms of these Realms.

They also, at the same Time, most humbly beg Leave to offer to your Majesty their most solemn and sincere Assurances of a firm Determination to exert their utmost in Defence of your Majesty, and the glorious Constitution under which they have the Happiness to live.

Signed on Behalf of their respective Corps,

T. Croucher, Major-Commandant Portsdown Cavalry.

G. Cathery, Captain Second Troop of Petersfield Cavalry.

J. Tekell, Captain Bere Forest Rangers.

Robert Forbes, Captain Gosport Volunteer Artillery.

J. Butler, Captain commanding Havant Volunteers.

Tho. Whitcomb, Captain commanding the First Corps of Gosport Volunteer Infantry.

E. Arnaud, Major-Commandant of the Portsmouth Loyal Volunteers.

C. Grigg, Captain-Commandant of the Portsea Loyal Independent Volunteers.

John Whitcomb, Captain commanding the Second Gosport Volunteers.

John Holmwood, Captain commanding Royal Portchester Volunteers.

William Garrett, Major-Commandant Loyal Portsmouth Garrison Volunteers.

Rob. Newton Lee, Commanding Officer present of the Wickham Volunteers.

Henry Hood, Major-Commandant Finchdean Volunteers.

Tho. M. Palmer, Major-Commandant Hambledon Volunteers.

Rob. Harfield, Captain commanding Emfworth Volunteers.

Mat. March, jun. Captain of Alverstoke Rifle Corps Volunteers.

Portsdown, October 7, 1798.

St. James's, November 7, 1798.

THE following Addresses have been presented to the King; which Addresses His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Inhabitants of the Towns of Portsmouth, Portsea, and Neighbourhood, embrace the earliest Opportunity, humbly to address your Majesty with the most sincere Congratulations, that it has pleased the Almighty so eminently to bless and distinguish the Arms of these Realms in the late glorious Victory obtained by your Majesty's Fleet under the Command of Rear-Admiral Sir Horatio Nelson.

It is with inexpressible Joy and Exultation that we, your Majesty's loyal Subjects, reflect on the Importance of this Victory, which will, in its Effects, while it adds additional Lustre to your Majesty's Arms, be an irreparable Blow to the Naval Power of France, and completely defeat her ambitious Views, which were to destroy the Commerce and Independence of these Kingdoms.

Permit us, Most Gracious Sovereign, to avail ourselves of this Occasion, to assure you that we, your Majesty's faithful Subjects, the Inhabitants of these Towns and Neighbourhood, feel animated by the most zealous Ardour and warmest Sense of Duty and Affection to your Majesty and our Country, and that we will cheerfully contribute and exert our utmost Efforts to protect your Majesty's Sacred Person and August Family, and defend our present happy Constitution.

That a continued Series of Victory may accompany your Fleets and Armies, and Success attend your Councils, (as it has hitherto done,) so that our insolent, sanguinary, and imperious Foe be humbled, and the Blessings of Peace speedily restored to your Majesty's Dominions, is the ardent Prayer of your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects.

George Catbert, Chairman.

[Presented by Daniel Garrett, Esq; accompanied by Wm. Chute, Esq; one of the Representatives in Parliament for the County of Southampton.]
