St. James's, September 14, 1803.

THE following Addressees having been presented to the King; which Addressees His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously:

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

May it please your Majesty,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful Subjects, the Gentlemen, Clergy, Citizens, and Freeholders of the City and County of Londonderry, convened this Thirty-first Day of August One thousand eight hundred and three, in the Town-Hall of this City, by public Notice from the High-Sheriffs of this City and County, beg Leave humbly to approach your Majesty, and, with Sentiments of unfeigned Loyalty, to assure your Majesty of our Attachment to your Majesty's Royal Person and Family, and to the Constitution of the United Empire: And that in Defence of Objects so dear, your Majesty may rely with the utmost Confidence on our most zealous Exertions.

While we view with just Indignation the Aggressions and Menaces of an insidious Foe, we behold with Pride the ardent Loyalty of the Country so conspicuously manifested, and have the firmest Reliance on the Vigilance and Energy of your Majesty's Government, convinced that their Wisdom will so direct that Spirit of zealous Attachment to your Majesty and the Constitution, as to give Efficacy to its Exertions, and thereby enable your Majesty to bring the present arduous Contest to a glorious and happy Conclusion.

Thos. Paterson and W. D. Lecky, High-Sheriffs of the City and County of Londonderry.

[Presented by the Right Honorable Mr. Secretary Torke.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

WE, the Freeholders, Commissioners of Supply, Justices of Peace, and Lieutenantcy of the County of Bute, take the Opportunity of being convened in a Court of Lieutenancy, holden at Rothsay, the Eighth Day of September One thousand eight hundred and three, for carrying into Execution the late Acts of Parliament for Defence and Security of the Kingdom, humbly to approach the Throne with Sentiments of the most dutiful and loyal Affection for your Majesty's sacred Person, and patriotic Attachment to our Country; and to express to your Majesty our determined Readiness to come forward at all Times with our Lives and Fortunes in Defence of Objects so justly, and so very dear to us, more especially at this awful Crisis, when all are threatened by a powerful and enraged Enemy.

Signed in our Name and Presence, and by our Appointment, by

Arch. Moore, Vice-Lieutenant.

[Presented by the Right Honorable Mr. Secretary Torke.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

WE, the Gentlemen, Clergy, and Freeholders of the County of Clare, approach your Majesty with Sentiments of Duty, Loyalty, and Affection to your Royal Person and Family, conscious of the numerous Blessings we enjoy under your mild and beneficent Government.

At the same Time that we express our Horror and Detestation at the late daring Rebellion which has disgraced a Part of this Kingdom; we beg to assure your Majesty that you reign in the Hearts of a great Majority of the People of Ireland, who are ready and willing to shed their Blood in Defence of their glorious and unparalleled Constitution, against either the domestic Traitor who would plunge his native Land in Anarchy and Blood, or the foreign Tyrant who would consign this fair and improving Country to the Plunder and Devaluation of a ferocious and unprincipled Enemy.

Christopher Lyfegis, Sheriff.

[Presented by the Right Honorable Mr. Secretary Torke.]

To the KING's Most Sacred Majesty.

May it please your Majesty,
