From Tuesday September 19, to Saturday September 23, 1809.

AT the Court at the Queen's Palace, the 20th of September 1809,

P R E S E N T,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

IT is this Day ordered, by His Majesty in Council, that the Parliament, which stands prorogued to Thursday the Twenty-eighth Day of this instant September, be further prorogued to Thursday the Second Day of November next.

AT the Court at the Queen's Palace, the 20th of September 1809,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the Forty-eighth Year of His Majesty's Reign, intituled "An Act for further continuing, until Three Months after the Ratification of a Definitive Treaty of Peace, an Act, made in the Forty-fourth Year of His present Majesty, for permitting the Importation into Great Britain of Hides and other Articles in Foreign Ships;" it is enacted, that an Act, made in the Forty-fourth Year of His present Majesty, intituled "An Act for permitting, until the Fifth Day of May, One thousand eight hundred and five, the Importation of Hides, Calf-Skins, Horns, Tallow, and Wool, (except Cotton Wool,) in Foreign Ships, on Payment of the like Duties, as if imported in British or Irish Ships;" which, by an Act made in the Forty-fifth Year of His present Majesty, was revived and further continued until the Twenty-fifth Day of March One thousand eight hundred and six, and extended to Goat-Skins imported in Foreign Ships; and which was further continued by an Act made in the Forty-seventh Year of His present Majesty, until the Twenty-fifth Day of March, One thousand eight hundred and eight, shall be, and the same is thereby further continued until Three Months after the Ratification of a Definitive

Treaty of Peace: And whereas His Majesty was pleased, by His Order in Council of the Fifteenth Day of March last, pursuant to the Powers vested in His Majesty by the said Act, to allow, for the Space of Six Months from the Twenty-fifth Day of the said Month of March, the Importation in Foreign Ships of any Hides, Pieces of Hides, dressed or undressed, Calf-Skins, or Pieces of Calf-Skins, dressed or undressed, Horns, or Pieces of Horns, Tallow, and Wool, (except Cotton Wool,) and Goat-Skins, dressed or undressed, on the Terms specified in the said Order: And whereas it is judged expedient for His Majesty's Service, that the said Permission should be continued for some Time longer, His Majesty is thereupon pleased, by and with the Advice of His Privy Council, to allow, and doth hereby allow, for the Space of Six Months from the Twenty-fifth Day of this instant September, the Importation of any Hides, Pieces of Hides, dressed or undressed, Calf-Skins, or Pieces of Calf-Skins, dressed or undressed, Horns, or Pieces of Horns, Tallow, and Wool, (except Cotton Wool,) and Goat-Skins, dressed or undressed, in any Foreign Ship or Vessel; and His Majesty doth hereby order, that, on the Arrival at any Port of the United Kingdom of any Foreign Ship or Vessel, with any of the Articles above mentioned, the said Goods shall be admitted to Entry on Payment of the same Duties of Customs and Excise as are due and payable on the like Goods when imported in any British or Irish-built Ship or Vessel.— And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury are to give the necessary Directions herein accordingly.

First Marshal.

DEMERY.

M. SMIT, in his Capacity as First Marshal of the Honourable Court of Justice of Demery, advertises herewith for the First, Second, and Third Time, that he, by virtue of a certain Sentence decreed by the said Court on the 28th November 1808, and the subsequent Execution, shall expose and sell at public Execution Sales, in the Month of February 1810, the Cotton Plantation named Cottage, situated in Little Courabane, on the East Coast of this River, with all its Buildings and Cultivations, Slaves, and further Appurtenances thereof, belonging unto Brumell and Addison, in Behalf of Joseph Bell, Attorney to Ralph Addison, Triumphant of Execution.

The Inventory of the abovenamed Plantation is daily to be seen at the Counting-House of Mr. John Nodin, at Beer-Lane, London, and Messrs. P. T. Boddart and Co. Mid-delburg.

The Judicium of Price and Concurrence on the Neat Proceeds of Sales of said Estate will be held by the said Honourable Court of Justice Three Months after the Day of Sales.

Wherefore are herewith by me the First Marshal of the said Honourable Court of Justice all and every one who suppose to have any Right, Claim, or Title, on the Neat Proceeds, or otherwise on said Estate, summoned to appear themselves, or send their Attornies, towards the first Day of Law, which will be held here in the Month of March 1810, in order to lay their Claim in due Form, under the Penalty that against the Non-appears will be proceeded as the Law directs—Rio Demery 25th March 1809.

MARY SMIT, First Marshal.
