Published by Authority.

From Saturday, January 18, to Tuesday, January 21, 1812.

By His Royal Highness the PRINCE of WALES, REGENT of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty.

A PROCLAMATION,

For a General Fast.

GEORGE P. R.

WE, taking into our most serious consideration the just and necessary war in which His Majesty is engaged, and putting our trust in Almighty God, that He will graciously bless His Majesty's arms, both by sea and land, have resolved, and do, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, and by and with the advice of His Majesty's Privy Council, hereby command, that a Public Day of Fasting and Humiliation be observed throughout those parts of the United Kingdom called England and Ireland, on Wednesday the Fifth Day of February next ensuing, that so both we and His Majesty's people may humble ourselves before Almighty God, in order to obtain pardon of our sins, and in the most devout and solemn manner send up our prayers and supplications to the Divine Majesty, for averting those heavy judgments which our manifold provocations have most justly deserved: and for imploring His blessing and assistance on His Majesty's arms, for the restoration of peace, and prosperity to His Majesty and his dominions: and we do strictly charge and command, that the said Public Fast be reverently and devoutly observed by all His Majesty's loving subjects in England and Ireland, as they tender the favour of Almighty God, and would avoid His wrath and indignation; and upon pain of such punishment as may be justly inflicted on all such as contemn and neglect the performance of so religious and necessary a duty: and for the better and more orderly solemnizing the same, we have given directions to the Most Reverend the Archbishops, and the Right Reverend the Bishops of England and Ireland, to compose a Form of Prayer suitable to this occasion, to be used in all churches, chapels, and places of public worship, and to take care that the same be timely dispersed throughout their respective dioceses.

Given at our Court at Carlton House, this Sixth day of January One thousand eight hundred and twelve, in the Fifty-second Year of His Majesty's Reign.

GOD save the KING.

By His Royal Highness the PRINCE of WALES, REGENT of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty.

A PROCLAMATION,

For a General Fast.

GEORGE P. R.

WE, taking into our most serious consideration the just and necessary war in which His Majesty is engaged, and putting our trust in Almighty God, that He will graciously bless His Majesty's arms, both by sea and land, have resolved, and do, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, and by and with the advice of His Majesty's Privy Council, hereby command, that a Public Day of Fasting and Humiliation be observed throughout that part of the United Kingdom called Scotland, on Thursday the Sixth day of February next ensuing, that so both we and His Majesty's people may humble ourselves before Almighty God, in order to obtain pardon of our sins, and, in the most devout and solemn manner, send up our prayers and supplications to the Divine Majesty, for averting those heavy judgments which our manifold provocations have most justly deserved; and for imploring His blessing and assistance on His Majesty's arms, for the restoration of peace, and prosperity to His Majesty and his dominions; and we do strictly charge and command, that the said Public Fast be reverently and devoutly observed by all His Majesty's loving subjects in Scotland, as they tender the favour of Almighty God, and would avoid his wrath and indignation, and upon pain of such punishment as may be justly inflicted on all such as contemn and neglect the performance of so religious and necessary a duty: our will is, therefore, and we charge, that this our Proclamation seen, ye forthwith proceed to the Market Cross of Edinburgh, and all other places needful, and there, in His Majesty's name and authority, make publication hereof, that none pretend ignorance: and our will and pleasure is, that His Majesty's Solicitor do cause printed copies hereof to be sent to the Sheriffs of the several Shires, Stewarts of Stewartries, and Bailiffs of Regalities, and their Clerks, whom we ordain to see the same published; and we do appoint them to send copies hereof to the several parish churches within their bounds, and that, upon the Lord's Day immediately preceding the Day above-mentioned, the same may be published and read from the pulpits, immediately after Divine Service.

Given at our Court at Carlton House, this Sixth day of January One thousand eight hundred and twelve, in the Fifty-second Year of His Majesty's Reign.

GOD save the KING.

AT the Court at Carlton House, the 6th of January 1812,

PRESENT,

His Hoyal Highness the PRINCE REGENT in Council.

WHEREAS the time limited by the Order of His Royal Highness the Prince Regent in Council of the Nineteenth day of July last, for prohibiting the exportation out of this Kingdom, or carrying coastwise, Gunpowder or Salt Petre, or any sort of Arms or Ammunition, will expire upon the Eighth day of February next; and whereas it is judged expedient for His Majesty's service and the safety of this Kingdom, that the said prohibition should be continued for some time longer; His Royal Highness, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, and by and with the advice of His Majesty's Privy Council, doth therefore hereby order, require, prohibit, and command, that no person or persons whatsoever (except the Master-General of the Ordnance for His Majesty's service) do at any time during the space of Six Months (to commence from the said Eighth day of February next,) presume to transport into any parts out of this Kingdom, or carry coastwise, any Gunpowder or Salt Petre, or any sort of Arms or Ammunition, or ship or lade any Gunpowder or Salt Petre, or any sort of Arms or Ammunition, on board any ship or vessel, in order to transporting the same into any parts beyond the seas, or carrying the same coastwise, without leave or permission in that behalf first obtained from His Majesty, or His Privy Council, upon pain of incurring and suffering the respective forfeitures and penalties inflicted by an Act passed in the Twenty-ninth Year of His late Majesty's Reign, intituled, "An Act to empower His Majesty to prohibit the Exportation of Salt Petre, and to enforce the Law for empowering His Majesty to prohibit the Exportation of Gunpowder, or any Sort of Arms or Ammunition, and also to empower His Majesty to restrain the carrying Coastwise of Salt Petre, Gunpowder, or

"any Sort of Arms or Ammunition;" and the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury; the Commissioners for executing the Office of Lord High Admiral of Great Britain, the Lord Warden of the Cinque Ports, the Master-General and the rest of the principal Officers of the Ordnance, and His Majesty's Secretary at War, are to give the necessary directions herein, as to them may respectively appertain.

Jas. Buller.

AT the Court at Carlton House, the 6th of January 1812,

PRESENT,

His Royal Highness the PRINCE REGENT in Council.

WHEREAS the time limited by the Order of His Royal Highness the Prince Regent in Council of the Nineteenth day of July last, prohibiting, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, the transporting into any parts out of this Kingdom of any Pig Iron; Bar Iron, Hemp, Pitch, Tar, Rosin, Turpentine, Anchors, Cables, Cordage, Masts, Yards, Bowsprits, Oars, Oakum, Sheet Copper, or other Naval Stores, will expire upon the Eighth day of February next; and whereas it is judged expedient for His Majesty's service and the safety of this Kingdom, that the said prohibition should be continued for some time longer; His Royal Highness, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, and by and with the advice of His Majesty's Privy Council, doth therefore hereby order, require, prohibit, and command, that no person or persons whatsoever do at any time, for the space of Six Months from the said Eighth day of February next, presume to transport into any parts out of this Kingdom any Pig Iron, Bar Iron, Hemp, Pitch, Tar, Rosin, Turpentine, Anchors, Cables, Cordage, Masts, Yards, Bowsprits, Oars, Oakum, Sheet Copper, Sail-Cloth or Canvas, or other Naval Stores, or do ship or lade any Pig Iron, Bar Iron, Hemp, Pitch, Tar, Rosin, Turpentine, Anchors, Cables, Cordage, Masts, Yards, Bowsprits, Oars, Oakum, Sheet Copper, Sail-Cloth or Canvas, or other Naval Stores, on board any ship or vessel, in order to transporting the same into any parts beyond the seas, without leave or permission first being had and obtained from His Majesty or His Privy Council, upon pain of incurring the forfeitures inflicted by an Act passed in the Thirty-third Year of His Majesty's Reign, intituled, "An Act to enable His Majesty to restrain the Exportation of Naval Stores, and more effectually to prevent the Exportation of Salt Petre, Arms, and Ammunition, when prohibited by Proclamation or Order in Council." But it is nevertheless His Royal Highness's pleasure, that nothing herein contained shall extend, or be construed to extend, to any of His Majesty's ships of war, or any other ships or vessels or boats in the service of His Majesty, or employed or freighted by His Majesty's Board of Ordnance, or by the Commissioners of His Majesty's Navy; nor to prevent any ship or vessel from taking or having on board such quantities of Naval Stores as may be necessary for the use of such ship or vessel, during the course of her intended voyage, or by licence from the Lord High Admiral of Great Britain, or the Commissioners of the Admiralty for the time being; nor to the exportation of the said several articles to Ireland, or to His Majesty's Yards or Garrisons, or to His Majesty's Colonies and Plantations in America or the West Indies, or to Newfoundland, or to His Majesty's Forts and Settlements on the Coast of Africa, or to the Island of Saint Helena, or to the British Settlements or Factories in the East Indies; provided that, upon the exportation of any of the said articles for the purposes of trade to Ireland, or to His Majesty's Yards and Garrisons, or to His Majesty's Colonies and Plantations in America or the West Indies, or to the Island of Newfoundland, or to His Majesty's Forts and Settlements on the Coast of Africa, or to the Island of Saint Helena, or to the British Settlements or Factories in the East Indies, the exporters of such articles do first make oath of the true destination of the same to the places for which they shall be entered outwards, before the entry of the same shall be made, and do give full and sufficient security by bond (except as hereinafter excepted), to the satisfaction of the Commissioners of His Majesty's Customs, to carry the said articles to the places for which they are so entered outwards, and for the purposes specified, and none other; and such bond shall not be cancelled or delivered up, until proof be made to the satisfaction of the said Commissioners, by the production, within a time to be fixed by the said Commissioners and specified in the bond, of a certificate or certificates, in such form and manner as shall be directed by the said Commissioners, shewing that the said articles have been all duly landed at the places for which they were entered outwards. But it is His Royal Highness's pleasure, nevertheless, that the following articles, viz. Bar Iron, White and Tarred Rope, Tallow or Mill Grease, Tarpaulins for Waggon Covers, Pitch, Tar, and Turpentine, shall be permitted to be exported, upon payment of the proper duties, without bond being entered into by the merchant exporter, to any of the British Plantations in the West Indies, or to any of His Majesty's Settlements in South America; provided the merchant exporter shall first verify, upon oath, that the articles so exported are intended for the use of a particular plantation or settlement, to be named in the entry outwards, and not for sale, and that the said plantation or settlement has not before been furnished with any supply of the said articles during the same season; and provided also that the exportation of the said articles shall in no case exceed the value of Fifty Pounds Sterling for any given plantation or settlement, whether by one or more shipments within the same season: And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, the Commissioners for executing the Office of Lord High Admiral of Great Britain, and the Lord Warden of the Cinque Ports, are to give the necessary directions herein as to them may respectively appertain.

Jus. Baller.

Foreign Office, 21st January 1812.

HIS Royal Highness the Prince Regent, acting in the name, and on the behalf of His Majesty, has been pleased to cause it to be signified, by the Marquess Wellesley, His Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs, to the Ministers of Friendly Powers, residing at this Court, that the necessary measures have been taken, by the command of His Royal Highness, acting in the name, and on the behalf of His Majesty, for the blockade of the Islands of Corfu, Fano, and Paxo; and of Perga, on the coast of Albania; and that, from this time, all the measures authorized by the law of nations, will be adopted and executed, with respect to all vessels which may attempt to violate the said blockade.

War-Office, 18th January, 1812.

HIS Royal Highness, the Prince Regent, in the name, and on the behalf of His Majesty, has been graciously pleased to approve of His Majesty's 1st Regiment of Foot Guards, being permitted to inscribe on their colours and appointments, the words Corunna and Barrosa, in consequence of the distinguished gallantry displayed by the 1st and 3d battalions of that corps, in the action fought in front of Corunna, on the 16th January 1809, and by a detachment of the 2d battalion of the 1st Regiment of Foot Guards, in the battle of Barrosa, on the 5th March 1811.

Copy of a Letter from Captain Taylor, of His Majesty's Ship Apollo, addressed to Vice-Admiral Sir Edward Pellew, Bart. Commander in Chief in the Mediterranean, and transmitted by the latter to John Wilson Croker, Esq.

His Majesty's Ship Apollo, off Cape Mola, November 16, 1811.

SIR,
LAST night, Cape Mola bearing N. E. one hundred miles, after a chase of nine hours, we captured the Edouard French privateer, pierced for fourteen guns, had only six mounted, four of which were thrown overboard, a crew of one hundred and twenty-three men, and commanded by Jean F. Mordeille, a Knight of their empire; who, in former vessels, has been a very successful cruiser against our trade.

The privateer is eight days from Marseilles, quite new, copper-bottomed and fastened; had made no captures, but appears to sail remarkably fast.

I have the honour to be, &c.
