From Saturday, May 2, to Tuesday, May 5, 1812

At the Court at Carlton House, the 21st of April 1812,

PRESENT,

His Royal Highness the PRINCE REGENT in Council.

WHEREAS the Government of France has, by an Official Report, communicated by its Minister for Foreign Affairs to the Conservative Senate, on the 10th of March last, removed all doubts as to the perseverance of that Government in the assertion of principles, and in the maintenance of a system, not more hostile to the Maritime Rights and Commercial Interests of the British Empire, than inconsistent with the rights and independence of Neutral Nations, and has thereby plainly developed the inordinate pretensions which that system, as promulgated in the Decrees of Berlin and Milan, was from the first designed to enforce :

And whereas His Majesty has invariably professed his readiness to revoke the Orders in Council adopted thereupon, as soon as the said Decrees of the Enemy should be formally and unconditionally repealed, and the commerce of Neutral Nations restored to its accustomed course :

His Royal Highness the Prince Regent (anxious to give the most decisive proof of His Royal Highness's disposition to perform the engagements of His Majesty's Government) is pleased, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, and by and with the advice of His Majesty's Privy Council, to order and declare, and it is hereby ordered and declared, That if, at any time hereafter, the Berlin and Milan Decrees shall, by some authentic Act of the French Government, publicly promulgated, be absolutely and unconditionally repealed, then, and from thenceforth, the Order in Council of the seventh day of January one thousand eight hundred and seven, and the Order in Council of the twenty-sixth day of April one thousand eight hundred and nine, shall, without any further Order, be, and the same are hereby, declared from thenceforth to be wholly and absolutely revoked: And further, that the full benefit of this Order shall be extended to any ship or cargo captured subsequent to such authentic Act of Repeal of the French Decrees, although antecedent to such repeal such ship or vessel shall have commenced and shall be in the prosecution of a voyage which, under the said Orders in Council, or one of them, would have subjected her to capture and condemnation; and the claimant of any ship or cargo which shall be captured or brought to adjudication, on account of any alleged breach of either of the said Orders in Council, at any time subsequent to such authentic Act of Repeal by the French Government, shall, without any further Order or Declaration on the part of His Majesty's Government on this subject, be at liberty to give in evidence in the High Court of Admiralty, or any Court of Vice-Admiralty before which such ship or cargo shall be brought for adjudication, that such repeal by the French Government had been, by such authentic Act promulgated prior to such capture; and upon proof thereof, the voyage shall be deemed and taken to have been as lawful as if the said Orders in Council had never been made; Saving nevertheless to the captors such protection and indemnity as they may be equitably entitled to in the judgment of the said Court, by reason of their ignorance, or uncertainty as to the repeal of the French Decrees, or of the recognition of such repeal by His Majesty's Government at the time of such capture.

His Royal Highness, however, deems it proper to declare, that, should the repeal of the French Decrees, thus anticipated and provided for, prove afterwards to have been illusory on the part of the Enemy; and should the restrictions thereof be still practically enforced, or revived by the Enemy; —Great Britain will be compelled, however reluctantly, after reasonable notice, to have recourse to such measures of retaliation as may then appear to be just and necessary.

And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty, and the Judge of the High Court of Admiralty, and the Judges of the Courts of Vice-Admiralty, are to take the necessary measures herein as to them shall respectively appertain.

CHEWYND

AT the Council Chamber, Whitehall, the 17th of April 1812,

PRESENT,

The Lords of His Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council.

WHEREAS it hath been represented, that there is no longer any necessity for continuing the quarantine, which was laid by Order of the Lords of His Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council, bearing date the fourth day of October one thousand eight hundred and ten, on all ships and vessels coming directly or circuitously from, or having touched at, the Havannah, or any other port in the Island of Cubas; it is therefore ordered, that the said Order in Council, of the fourth day of October one thousand eight hundred and ten, be, and the same is hereby, revoked: And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, the Commissioners for executing the Office of Lord High Admiral of Great Britain, the Lord Warden of the Cinque Ports, the Master-General and the rest of the Principal Officers of the Ordnance, His Majesty's Secretary at War, and the Governors and Commanders in Chief for the time being of the Isles of Guernsey, Jersey, Alderney, Sark, and Man, are to give the necessary directions herein as to them may respectively appertain.

Chetwynd.

Lord Chamberlain's Office, May 4, 1812.

NOTICE is hereby given, that His Royal Highness the Prince Regent will hold a Levee at Carlton-House, on Friday next the 8th instant, at two o'clock.

THE following Address has been presented to His Royal Highness the Prince Regent; which Address His Royal Highness was pleased to receive very graciously:

To His Royal Highness the PRINCE REGENT.

WE, His Majesty's most dutiful and loyal subjects the Magistrates and Town Council of the Royal Burgh of Selkirk, in Council assembled, embrace this opportunity of approaching the throne with our most dutiful and sincere professions of unalterable loyalty and affectionate attachment to your Royal Highness's sacred person, family, and government.

We deeply deplore the melancholy cause which deprives these kingdoms of the benevolent exertions of our most illustrious and beloved Sovereign; and with unfeigned sorrow we sympathize with your Royal Highness for the severe indisposition with which the best and most virtuous of Kings is now afflicted. We do, however, assure your Royal Highness, that if any thing could yield consolation to a loyal and an afflicted people, it must be the pleasure which they feel in reflecting, that the Heir of His Majesty's crown inherits the virtues of His Royal Father; virtues, which every part of your Royal Highness's conduct, during the present melancholy, and trying occasion, has placed in the most conspicuous and dignified point of view. It would be presumptuous in us to particularize what we most admire; but we trust we shall be allowed to express our humble and unqualified approbation of your Royal Highness's government, and to mention the cordial satisfaction which it affords, that your Royal Highness should travel in the footsteps of your father; should be actuated by the principles, and emulate the virtues, which have secured to His Majesty the affections of his people for upwards of half a century.

We do most earnestly pray, that His Majesty may soon be enabled to attend the urgent concerns of his kingdoms, and personally to exercise his royal authority; and, at this eventful period, we ardently implore, that every blessing may attend your Royal Highness's person and government.

Signed by us, in name and by appointment of the Town Council; and the seal of the Burgh hereto appended, this 21st day of April 1812 years,

Jno. Anderson, Chief Magistrate; John Paterson, Bailie; Geo. Young, D. G.; and Wm. Lamb, Treasurer.

[Transmitted by His Grace the Duke of Buccleuch, and presented by the Right Honourable Mr. Secretary Ryder.]

His Royal Highness, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, in order to the discovery of and bringing to justice the persons guilty of the aforesaid felony, is graciously pleased to promise His Majesty's most gracious pardon to any one or more of the persons concerned therein (except those that actually fired) who will discover any one or more of his accomplices, so that he or they may be convicted thereof.
