Copy of a Letter from the Honourable Captain Capel, of His Majesty's Ship La Hogue, to John Wilson Croker, Esq. dated at Halifax, June 11, 1813.

SIR,

IT is with the greatest pleasure I transmit you a letter I have just received from Captain Broke, of His Majesty's ship Shannon, detailing a most brilliant achievement in the capture of the United States' frigate Chesapeake, in fifteen minutes. Captain Broke relates so fully the particulars of this gallant affair, that I feel it unnecessary to add much to his narrative; but I cannot forbear expressing the pleasure I feel in bearing testimony to the indefatigable exertions and persevering zeal of Captain Broke, during the time he has been under my orders: placing a firm reliance on the valour of his officers and crew, and a just confidence in his system of discipline, he sought every opportunity of meeting the enemy on fair terms, and I have to rejoice with his country, and his friends, at the glorious result of this contest: he gallantly headed his boarders in the assault, and carried all before him. His wounds are severe, but I trust his country will not be long deprived of his services.

I have the honour to be, &c.

THOS. BLADEN CAPEL, Captain, and Senior Officer at Halifax.

SIR,

Shannon, Halifax, June 6, 1813.

I HAVE the honour to inform you, that being close in with Boston Light-House, in His Majesty's ship under my command, on the 1st instant, I had the pleasure of seeing that the United States' frigate Chesapeake (whom we had long been watching) was coming out of the harbour to engage the Shannon; I took a position between Cape Ann and Cape Cod, and then hove to for him to join us—the enemy came down in a very handsome manner, having three American ensigns flying; when closing with us he sent down his royal yards. I kept the Shannon's up, expecting the breeze would die away. At half past five P. M. the enemy hauled up within hail of us on the starboard side, and the battle began, both ships steering full under the topsails; after exchanging between two and three broadsides, the enemy's ship fell on board of us, her mizen channels locking in with our fore-rigging. I went forward to ascertain her position, and observing that the enemy were finching from their guns, I gave orders to prepare for boarding. Our gallant bands appointed to that service immediately rushed in, under their respective officers, upon the enemy's decks, driving every thing before them with irresistible fury. The enemy made a desperate but disorderly resistance.

The firing continued at all the gangways and between the tops, but in two minutes time the enemy were driven sword in hand from every post. The American flag was hauled down, and the proud old British Union floated triumphant over it. In another minute they ceased firing from below and called for quarter. The whole of this service was achieved in fifteen minutes from the commencement of the action.

I have to lament the loss of many of my gallant shipmates, but they fell exulting in their conquest.

My brave First Lieutenant, Mr. Watt, was slain in the moment of victory, in the act of hoisting the British colours; his death is a severe loss to the service. Mr. Aldham, the Purser, who had spiritedly volunteered the charge of a party of small-arm men, was killed at his post on the gangway. My faithful old clerk, Mr. Dunn, was shot by his side; Mr. Aldham has left a widow to lament his loss. I request the Commander in Chief will recommend her to the protection of my Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty.

My veteran boatswain, Mr. Stephens, has lost an arm. He fought under Lord Rodney on the 12th April. I trust his age and services will be duly rewarded.

I am happy to say, that Mr. Samwell, a midshipman of much merit, is the only other officer wounded besides myself, and he not dangerously. Of my gallant seamen and marines we had twenty-three slain and fifty-six wounded. I subjoin the names of the former. No expressions I can make use of can do justice to the merits of my valiant officers and crew; the calm courage they displayed during the cannonade, and the tremendous precision of their fire, could only be equalled by the ardour with which they rushed to the assault. I recommend them all warmly to the protection of the Commander in Chief.

Having received a severe sabre wound at the first onset, whilst charging a party of the enemy who had rallied on their fore-castle, I was only capable of giving command till assured our conquest was complete, and then directing Second Lieutenant Wallis to take charge of the Shannon, and secure the prisoners, I left the Third Lieutenant, Mr. Falkiner (who had headed the main deck boarders) in charge of the prize. I beg to recommend these officers most strongly to the Commander in Chief's patronage, for the gallantry they displayed during the action, and the skill and judgment they evinced in the anxious duties which afterwards devolved upon them.

To Mr. Etough, the acting master, I am much indebted for the steadiness in which he conn'd the ship into action. The Lieutenants Johns and Law, of the marines, bravely boarded at the head of their respective divisions.

It is impossible to particularize every brilliant deed performed by my officers and men, but I must mention, when the ship's yard arms were locked together, that Mr. Cosnahan, who commanded in our main-top, finding himself screened from the enemy by the foot of the topsail, laid out at the main yard arm to fire upon them, and shot three men in that situation. Mr. Smith, who commanded in our fore-top, stormed the enemy's fore-top from the fore-yard arm, and destroyed all the Americans remaining in it. I particularly beg leave to recommend Mr. Etough, the acting master, and Messrs. Smith, Leake, Clavering, Raymond, and Littlejohn, midshipmen. This latter officer is a son of Captain Littlejohn, who was slain in the Berwick.

The loss of the enemy was about seventy killed, and one hundred wounded. Among the former were the four lieutenants, a lieutenant of marines, the master, and many other officers. Captain Laurence is since dead of his wounds.

The enemy came into action with a complement of four hundred and forty men; the Shannon having up picked some recaptured seamen, had three hundred and thirty.

The Chesapeake is a fine frigate, and mounts forty-nine guns, eighteens on her main deck, two and thirties on her quarter deck and fore-castle. Both ships came out of action in the most beautiful order, their rigging appearing as perfect as if they had only been exchanging a salute.

I have the honour to be, &c.

Copy of a Letter from Admiral Sir John Borlase Warren, Bart. and K. B. &c. to John Wilson Croker, Esq. dated at Bermuda, the 28th May, 1813.

SIR,

I REQUEST you will inform their Lordships, that after the capture of the American privateers on the 3d of April, by the boats of the squadron, I continued my course up the Bay, and being of opinion that a light flotilla of small vessels would be of essential use in cutting off the enemy's supplies, and destroying their foundries, stores, and public works, by penetrating the rivers at the head of the Chesapeake; I directed Rear-Admiral Cockburn to take under his orders the Maidstone, Fantome, Mohawk, Highflyer, and three of the prize armed schooners; and the Rear-Admiral having selected a detachment, composed of one hundred and eighty seamen and two hundred marines; from the naval brigade of the squadron, together with Lieutenant Robertson, of the royal artillery, and a small detachment of that corps, which General Horsford, the Lieutenant-Governor of Bermuda, had been so kind, at my request, to permit to serve with me in the squadron, the whole proceeded upon the abovementioned service.

I herewith inclose a report of the operations of the advanced squadron, from which their Lordships will observe, that the enterprize was conducted with distinguished ability and gallantry under Rear-Admiral Cockburn, and most zealously and bravely executed by the Captains Burdett, Lawrence, and Byng, their officers and men; and I trust, that when their Lordships consider that this service was performed in the interior of the enemy's country, where the detachment was frequently opposed by superior force, and in a difficult and unknown navigation, that the behaviour of the officers and men will entitle them to their Lordships' favour and approbation.

I have the honour to be, &c.

mander in Chief.

His Majesty's Sloop Fantome, in the Elk River, 29th April, 1813.

SIR,

I HAVE the honour to acquaint you, that having yesterday gained information of the depôt of flour (alluded to in your note to me of the 23d instant) being with some military and other stores, situated at a place called French Town, a considerable distance up the river Elk, I caused his Majesty's brigs Fantome and Mohawk, and the Dolphin, Racer, and Highflyer tenders, to be moored, yesterday evening, as far within the entrance of this river as could be prudently effected after dark, and at eleven o'clock last night the detachment of marines now in the advanced squadron, consisting of about one hundred and fifty men, under Captains Wybourn and Carter, of that corps, with five artillerymen, under First Lieutenant Robertson, of the artillery, (who eagerly volunteered his valuable assistance on this occasion), proceeded in the boats of the squadron, the whole being under the immediate direction of Lieutenant G. A. Westphall, First of the Marlborough, to take and destroy the aforesaid stores, the Highflyer tender, under the command of Lieutenant T. Lewis, being directed to follow, for the support and protection of the boats, as far and as closely as he might find it practicable.

Being ignorant of the way, the boats were unfortunately led up the Bohemia River, instead of keeping in the Elk, and it being daylight before this error was rectified, they therefore did not reach the destined place till between eight and nine o'clock this morning, which occasioned the enemy to have full warning of their approach, and gave him time to collect his force and make his arrangements for the defence of his stores and town, for the security of which a six gun battery had lately been erected, and from whence a heavy fire was opened on our boats the moment they approached within its reach, but the launches, with their carronades, under the orders of Lieutenant Nicholas Alexander, First of the Dragon, pulling resolutely up to the work, keeping up at the same time a constant and well directed fire on it, and the marines being in the act of disembarking on the right, the Americans judged it prudent to quit their battery, and to retreat precipitately into the country, abandoning to their fate French Town and its depôts of stores; the whole of the latter, therefore, consisting of much flour, a large quantity of army clothing, of saddles, bridles, and other equipments for cavalry, &c. &c. &c. together with various articles of merchandize, were immediately set fire to, and entirely consumed, as were five vessels lying near the place; and the guns of the battery, being too heavy to bring away, were disabled as effectually as possible, by Lieutenant Robertson and his artillerymen; after which my orders being completely fulfilled, the boats returned down the river without molestation, and I am happy to add, that one seaman, of the Maidstone, wounded in the arm by a grape shot, is the only casualty we have sustained.

To Lieutenant G. A. Westphall, who has so gallantly conducted, and so ably executed this service, my highest encomium and best acknowledgements are due, and I trust, Sir, you will deem him to have also thereby merited your favourable consideration and notice. It is likewise my pleasing duty to acquaint you, that he speaks in the highest terms of the zeal and good conduct of every officer and man employed with him on this occasion; but particularly of the very great assistance he derived from Lieutenant Robertson, of the artillery, Lieutenant Alexander, of the Dragon, Lieutenant Lewis, of the Highflyer, and Captains Wybourn and Carter, of the royal marines.

I have now anchored the abovementioned brigs and tenders near a farm, on the right bank of this river, where there appears to be a considerable quantity of cattle, which I intend embarking for the use of the fleet under your command, and if I meet with no resistance or impediment in so doing, I shall give the owner bills on the Victualling Office for the fair value of whatsoever is so taken; but should resistance be made, I shall consider them as prize of war, which I trust will meet your approbation; and I purpose taking on board a further supply for the fleet to-morrow, on similar terms, from Spesuë Island, which lies a little below Havre de Grace, and which I have been informed is also well stocked.

I have the honour to be, &c.

Rear-Admiral.

His Majesty's Ship Maidstone, Tuesday night, 3d May 1813, at Anchor off Turkey Point.

SIR,

I HAVE the honour to inform you, that whilst anchoring the brigs and tenders off Spesuë island, agreeable to my intentions notified to you in my official report of the 29th ultimo, No. 10, I observed guns fired and American colours hoisted at a battery lately erected at Havre-de-Grace, at the entrance of the Susquehanna river; this of course immediately gave to the place an importance which I had not before attached to it, and I therefore determined on attacking it after the completion of our operations at the island; consequently having sounded in the direction towards it, and found that the shallowness of the water would only admit of its being approached by boats, I directed their assembling under Lieutenant Westphal, (first of the Marlborough) last night at twelve o'clock, alongside the Fantome, when our detachments of marines, consisting of about one hundred and fifty men, (as before) under Captains Wybourn and Carter, with a small party of artillerymen, under Lieutenant Robertson, of the artillery, embarked in them, and the whole being under the immediate direction of Captain Lawrence, of the Fantome, (who with much zeal and readiness took upon himself, at my request, the conducting of this service) proceeded towards Havre, to take up under cover of the night, the necessary positions for commencing the attack at dawn of day. The Dolphin and Highflyer tenders, commanded by Lieutenants Hutchinson and Lewis, followed for the support of the boats, but the shoalness of the water prevented their getting within six miles of the place. Captain Lawrence, however, having got up with the boats, and having very ably and judiciously placed them during the dark, a warm fire was opened on the place at daylight from our launches and rocket boats, which was smartly returned from the battery for a short time, but the launches constantly closing with it, and their fire rather increasing than decreasing, that from the battery soon began to slacken, and Captain Lawrence observing this, very judiciously directed the landing of the marines on the left, which movement, added to the hot fire they were under, induced the Americans to commence withdrawing from the battery, to take shelter in the town; Lieutenant G. A. Westphal, who had taken his station in the rocket boat close to the battery, therefore now judging the moment to be favourable, pulled directly up under the work, and landing with his boats crew, got immediate possession of it, turned their own guns on them, and thereby soon obliged them to retreat with their whole force to the furthest extremity of the town, whither (the marines having by this time landed) they were closely pursued, and no longer feeling themselves equal to a manly and open resistance, they commenced a teasing and irritating fire from behind the houses, walls, trees, &c. from which I am sorry to say, my gallant first lieutenant received a shot through his hand whilst leading the pursuing party; he, however, continued to head the advance, with which he soon succeeded in dislodging the whole of the enemy from their lurking places, and driving them from shelter to the neighbouring woods, and whilst performing which service, he had the satisfaction to overtake, and with his remaining hand to make prisoner, and bring in a captain of their militia. We also took an ensign and some armed individuals, but the rest of the force which had been opposed to us, having penetrated into the woods, I did not judge it prudent to allow of their being further followed with our small numbers, therefore after setting fire to some of the houses, to cause the proprietors (who had deserted them, and formed part of the militia who had fled to the woods,) to understand and feel what they were liable to bring upon themselves, by building batteries and acting towards us with, so much useless rancour, I embarked in the boats the guns from the battery, and having also taken and destroyed about one hundred and thirty stand of small arms, I detached a small division of boats up the Susquehanna, to take and destroy whatever they might meet with in it, and proceeded myself with the remaining boats under Captain Lawrence, in search of a cannon foundry, which I had gained intelligence of, whilst on shore in Havre, as being situated about three or four miles to the northward, where we found it accordingly, and getting possession of it without difficulty, commenced instantly its destruction, and that of the guns and other materials we found there, to complete which, occupied us during the remainder of the day, as there were several buildings and much complicated heavy machinery attached to it. It was known by the names of the Cecil or Principio Foundry, and was one of the most valuable works of the kind in America; the destruction of it, therefore, at this moment, will I trust prove of much national importance.

In the margin* I have stated the ordnance taken and disabled by our small division this day, during the whole of which we have been on shore in the centre of the enemy's country, and on his high road between Baltimore and Philadelphia. The boats which I sent up the Susquehanna, returned after destroying five vessels in it, and a large store of flour; when every thing being completed to my utmost wishes, the whole division re-embarked and returned to the ships, where we arrived at ten o'clock, after being twenty-two hours in constant exertion, without nourishment of any kind, and I have much pleasure in being able to add, that, excepting Lieutenant Westphal's wound, we have not suffered any casualty whatever.

The judicious dispositions made by Captain Lawrence, of the Fantome, during the preceding night, and the able manner in which he conducted the attack of Havre in the morning, added to the gallantry, zeal, and attention shewn by him during this whole day, most justly entitle him to my highest encomiums and acknowledgements, and will, I trust, ensure to him your approbation; and I have the pleasure to add, that he speaks in the most favourable manner of the good conduct of all the officers and men employed in the boats under his immediate orders, particularly of Lieutenants Alexander and Reed, of the Dragon and Fantome, who each commanded a division: of Lieutenant G. A. Westphal; whose exemplary and gallant conduct it has been necessary for me already to notice in detailing to you the operations of the day, I shall only now add, that for a thorough knowledge of his merits (he having served many years with me as first lieutenant) I always, on similar occasions, expect much from him, but this day he even outstripped those expectations, and though in considerable pain from his wound, he insisted on continuing to assist me to the last moment with his able exertions, I therefore, Sir, cannot but entertain a confident hope that his services of to-day, and the wound he has received, added to what he so successfully executed at French Town (as detailed in my letter to you of the 29th ultimo), will obtain for him your favourable consideration and notice, and that of my Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty. I should be wanting in justice did I not also mention to you particularly the able assistance again afforded me by Lieutenant Robertson, of the artillery, who is ever a volunteer where service is to be performed, and always foremost in performing such service, being equally conspicuous for his gallantry and ability; and he also obliged me by superintending the destruction

* Taken from the battery at Havre-de-Grace—6 guns, twelve and six-pounders.

Disabled in the battery for protection of foundry—5 guns, twenty-four pounders.

Disabled, ready for sending away from foundry—28 guns, thirty-two pounders.

Disabled in boring-house and foundry—8 guns and 4 carriages, of different calibres.

Total—51 guns, and 130 stand of small arms.

of the ordnance taken at the foundery. To Captains Wybourn and Carter, who commanded the marines and shewed much skill in the management of them, every praise is likewise due, as are my acknowledgments to Lieutenant Lewis, of the Highflyer, who, not being able to bring his vessel near enough to render assistance, came himself with his usual active zeal to offer his personal services. And it is my pleasing duty to have to report to you in addition, that all the other officers and men seemed to vie with each other in the cheerful and zealous discharge of their duty; and I have therefore the satisfaction of recommending their general good conduct on this occasion to your notice accordingly.

I have the honour to be, &c.

SIR,
His Majesty's Ship Maidstone, off the Sasafra River, May 6, 1813.

I HAVE the honour to acquaint you, that, understanding Georgetown and Frederickstown, situated up the Sasafra River, were places of some trade and importance, and the Sasafra being the only river or place of shelter for vessels at this upper extremity of the Chesapeake, which I had not examined and cleared, I directed last night the assembling of the boats alongside the Mohawk, from whence with the marines, as before, under Captains Wybourn and Carter, with my friend Lieutenant Robertson, of the artillery, and his small party, they proceeded up this river, being placed by me for this operation, under the immediate directions of Captain Byng, of the Mohawk.

I intended that they should arrive before the above-mentioned towns by dawn of day, but in this I was frustrated by the intricacy of the river, our total want of local knowledge in it, the darkness of the night, and the great distance the towns lay up it; it therefore unavoidably became late in the morning before we approached them, when, having intercepted a small boat with two of the inhabitants, I directed Captain Byng to halt our boats about two miles below the town, and I sent forward the two Americans in their boat to warn their countrymen against acting in the same rash manner the people of Havre de Grace had done, assuring them if they did, that their towns would inevitably meet with a similar fate, but on the contrary, if they did not attempt resistance, no injury should be done to them or their towns, that vessels and public property only, would be seized, that the strictest discipline would be maintained, and that whatever provisions or other property of individuals I might require for the use of the squadron, should be instantly paid for in its fullest value; after having allowed sufficient time for this message to be digested, and their resolution taken thereon, I directed the boats to advance, and I am sorry to say I soon found the more unwise alternative was adopted, for on our reaching within about a mile of the town, between two projecting elevated points of the river, a most heavy fire of musketry was opened on us from about four hundred men, divided and entrenched on the two opposite banks, aided by one long gun: the launches and rocket-boat smartly returned this fire with good effect, and with the other boats and the marines I pushed ashore immediately above the enemy's position, thereby ensuring the capture of his towns or the bringing him to a decided action; he determined, however, not to risk the latter, for the moment he discerned we had gained the shore, and that the marines had fixed their bayonets, he fled with his whole force to the woods, and was neither seen or heard of afterwards, though several parties were sent out to ascertain whether he had taken up any new position, or what had become of him; I gave him, however, the mortification of seeing, from wherever he had hid himself, that I was keeping my word, with respect to the towns, which (excepting the houses of those who had continued peaceably in them, and had taken no part in the attack made on us) were forthwith destroyed, as were four vessels laying in the river, and some stores of sugar, of lumber, of leather, and other merchandise; I then directed the re-embarkation of our small force, and we proceeded down the river again to a town I had observed, situated in a branch of it, about half way up, and here I had the satisfaction to find that what had passed at Havre, Georgetown, and Frederickstown, had its effect, and led these people to understand that they have more to hope for from our generosity than from erecting batteries and opposing us by means within their power; the inhabitants of this place having met me at landing, to say they had not permitted either guns or militia to be stationed there, and that whilst there I should not meet with any opposition whatever; I therefore landed with the officers and a small guard only, and having ascertained that there was no public property of any kind or warlike stores, and having allowed of such articles as we stood in need of being embarked in the boats, on payment to the owners of their full value, I again re-embarked, leaving the people of this place well pleased with the wisdom of their determination on their mode of receiving us; I also had a deputation from Charlestown, in the North-east River, to assure me that that place is considered by them at your mercy, and that neither guns or militia-men shall be suffered there, and as I am assured that all the places in the upper part of the Chesapeake have adopted similar resolutions, and as there is now neither public property, vessels, nor warlike stores remaining in this neighbourhood, I purpose returning to you with the light squadron to-morrow morning.

I am sorry to say, the hot fire we were under this morning, cost us five men wounded, one only, however, severely; and I have much satisfaction in being able again to bear testimony to you, of the zeal, gallantry, and good conduct of the different officers and men serving in this division. To Captain Byng, of the Mohawk, who conducted the various arrangements on this occasion, with equal skill and bravery, every possible praise is most justly due; as well as to Captains Wybourn and Carter, Lieutenant Robertson, of the artillery, and Lieutenant Lewis, of the Highflyer; Lieutenant Alexander, of the Dragon, the senior officer under Captain Byng, in command of the boats, deserves also that I should particularly notice him to you for his steadiness, correctness, and the great ability with which he always executes whatever service is entrusted to him; and I must beg permission to seize this opportunity of stating to you how much I have been indebted since on this service, to Captain Burdett, of this ship, who was good enough to receive me on board the Maidstone, when I found it impracticable to advance higher in the Marlborough, and has invariably accompanied me on every occasion whilst directing these various operations, and rendered me always the most able, prompt, and efficacious assistance.

I have the honour to be, &c.

Admiralty-Office, July 10, 1813.

ADMIRAL Sir John Borlase Warren, has transmitted to John Wilson Croker, Esq. a letter from Captain Pigot, of His Majesty's ship Orpheus, to Captain Sir Thomas Hardy, of the Ramillies, giving an account of the destruction of the Wampoe, American letter of marque, of eight guns, by the boats of the Orpheus, under Lieutenant William Martin Collins, and acting Lieutenant Dance, on the 28th of April last, off Block Island. The vessel having been run on shore, was boarded and set on fire under a severe fire of musketry from the rocks, by which Lieutenant Collins (the only person hurt) was unfortunately mortally wounded.

The Admiral has also transmitted a letter from Captain Sir Thomas Hardy, stating the destruction by the Orpheus, of the Holkar American privateer of twenty guns, off Rhode Island, on the 11th of May.

And in a letter, dated the 16th May, Sir John Warren reports, the capture of an American schooner, called the Vesta, from Bourdeaux, attempting to pass up the James river, by the boats of the blockading squadron.

Admiralty-Office, July 10, 1813.

Copy of a Letter from Rear-Admiral Fremantle to John Wilson Croker, Esq. dated on board His Majesty's Ship Milford, at Lissa, May 1, 1813.

SIR,

I N having the honour of forwarding, for the information of the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty, Captain Black's report of his attack on an enemy's convoy near Spalatro, it is my duty to represent what his modesty has not allowed him to make an official report of, namely, that he is himself badly wounded by a musket-ball, which passed through his right hand, and now confines him.

Having made it my business to inquire and examine into all the particulars, I can have no hesitation in saying, that many would have undertaken the enterprise, but few vessels under such circumstances could have been extricated from such a force, and such difficulties as were opposed to them.

Much credit is due to Captain Black, his officers and ship's company, for their gallantry, as well as for their perseverance and steadiness on this occasion.

I have the honour to be, &c.

(Signed) THOS. FRAS. FREMANTLE.

His Majesty's Ship Weazle, Lissa,
April 26, 1813.

SIR,

I BEG leave to report to you, that while cruising in His Majesty's sloop under my command, in pursuance of your orders of the 10th instant, at daylight of the 22d; the island of Zirona, bearing W. S.W. distant about four miles, we discovered a convoy close to the main land, making for the ports of Trau and Spalatro, to which we immediately gave chase; as we came up they separated in different directions, the greater part, with ten gun boats, bore up for the Bay of Boscaline; these we continued chasing under all sail; at half past five, A. M. they anchored in a line about a mile from the shore, hoisted their French colours, and commenced firing at us; the wind blowing strong at S. E. directly into the bay, our sails and rigging were considerably damaged before we could close with them; and seeing the enemy erecting batteries on shore, I was at first unwilling to go close in, but at six we anchored with springs upon the cable, within pistol shot of the enemy, when the action immediately commenced on our part; they stood our fire for about twenty minutes, when the whole cut their cables, ran closer in, and again opened their fire; their increased distance was now too great for our carronades to have their proper effect, we cut the cable, ran within half pistol shot, and recommenced the action; the enemy now opened their fire upon us from three large guns, at the distance of thirty yards from each other, and two or three hundred musketry on the heights immediately over us; we continued closely engaged in this manner; at ten three of them struck their colours, two were driven on shore, and one sunk. They were now reinforced by four gun-boats from the eastward, who at first anchored outside, and commenced firing at us, which obliged us to engage on both sides; but they shortly after ran in and joined the others, who placed themselves behind a point of land, where we could only see their masts from the deck, when they commenced a most destructive fire, their grape-shot striking us over the land in every part; at this time our number was so reduced that we could with difficulty man four guns, the marines and a few seamen firing musketry, our grape all expended. We continued in close action until three P. M. when the enemy discontinued their fire. After forty minutes the action again commenced, and continued, without intermission, till half-past six in the evening, when the firing entirely ceased on both sides. The enemy during the day had received considerable supplies of troops on shore, who had kept up an incessant fire upon us. We were now in a very critical situation, being but a very few yards from a lee-shore, almost a complete wreck, the whole of our running and greater part of the standing rigging gone, most of the sails shot from the yards, the masts shot through in several places, and many shot in the hull, five between wind and water, both our pumps also shot away between the decks, with difficulty we could keep her free by constantly bailing at both hatches. In the action of this day I found we had lost five killed and twenty wounded. At dark the boats succeeded in burning and destroying, besides the gun-boats, eight sail of the convoy, bringing away their anchors, all ours being shot to pieces and rendered entirely unserviceable; indeed it is to this I am to attribute the being enabled to warp His Majesty's sloop out. At daylight of the 23d, having warped about a mile from the land, the remaining gun-boats again attacked us, and musketry from the shore; this was most annoying, they having us in a raking position, our last cable half shot through, the wind blowing strong in, we could not venture to bring our broadside to bear upon them; all this day and night we were warping out from the shore, but very slowly, the people being reduced in number and exhausted with fatigue.

On the 24th, the enemy had erected a battery of three guns on a point of the bay, close to which we must pass; this they opened upon us about noon, when we got within their range; the gun-boats pulling out in a line astern, commenced their fire about one P. M. during all the time we were warping out under their fire, and that of musketry from the shore. Wind now moderate, and shortly after quite calm. At four, nearly out of the bay, the gun-boats following and firing at us. At five, they got within the range of our guns, when we opened our larboard broadside and drove them off, but it continuing calm, we were unable to follow them.

The conduct of the whole of my officers and ship's company during these three days of most arduous service, merits my warmest praise; indeed, I am at a loss which most to admire, their determined bravery in action, or their steady perseverance in warping the brig out. Our number was considerably reduced when we first went into action, owing to several men being away in prizes, and two boats which joined us seven hours afterward. Mr. Thomas Whaley, First Lieutenant, being severely wounded in the action, I received every attention from Mr. Michael Quin, the Second, whose conduct at all times, has been much to my satisfaction; I beg leave to recommend to your notice, Mr. William Simkin, master's-mate, who lost his right arm early in the action, and also the services of Mr. James Stewart, midshipman, who was actively employed in one of the boats, burning and destroying several of the convoy.

Enclosed I transmit to you a list of the killed and wounded, great part of the latter, I am sorry to say, severely.

I have the honour to be, &c.

WAR DEPARTMENT.

Downing-Street, July 10, 1813.

A DISPATCH, of which the following is an extract, has been this day received at Earl Bathurst's Office, addressed to his Lordship, by Field-Marshal the Marquess of Wellington, dated Orcoyen, 25th June 1813.

THE enemy continued their retreat yesterday morning, from the neighbourhood of Pamplona, by the road of Roncevalles, into France, and have been followed by our light troops.

The fort of Ramplona has been invested this day.

I have received a letter of the 22d, from Colonel Longa, stating, that he has taken six pieces of artillery, from a detachment of troops under the command of General Foy, on their retreat into France by the high road at Mondragon.

I ought to have informed your Lordship, in my dispatch of the 24th, that on the 28d I had detached Lieutenant-General Sir Thomas Graham to the left, towards Tolosa, with a view to the operations to be carried on in that quarter.

By a letter from him, of the 25th, it appears that he arrived yesterday at Tolosa, having been opposed in his occupation of that town, by the troops which retired under the command of General Foy. He mentions the assistance which he had received from Colonel Longa, and from two battalions of the army of Galicia, which General Giron had left with him in his attack upon Tolosa.

Sir John Murray had certainly landed in Catalonia on the 3d instant, and had taken possession of the Col de Balaguer on the 7th, in which post were found seventeen pieces of cannon. Some prisoners were taken.

Westminster, July 6, 1813.

THIS day, the Lords being met, a message was sent to the Honourable House of Commons by the Gentleman Usher of the Black Rod, acquainting them, that The Lords, authorised by virtue of a Commission under the Great Seal, signed by the Prince Regent, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, for declaring His Majesty's Royal Assent to several Acts agreed upon by both Houses, do desire the immediate attendance of the Honourable House in the House of Peers to hear the Commission read; and the Commons being come thither, the said Commission, empowering the Lord Archbishop of Canterbury, the Lord High Chancellor of Great Britain, and several other Lords therein named, to declare and notify the Royal Assent to the said Acts, was read accordingly, and the Royal Assent given to

An Act to grant an additional duty of excise on spirits made or distilled from corn or grain in Ireland.

An Act to provide for the charge of the addition to the Public Funded Debt of Great Britain, in the year one thousand eight hundred and thirteen.

An Act for enlarging the term of two Acts of His present Majesty, for repairing and widening the road from Bicester, in the county of Oxford, to Aylesbury, in the county of Bucks.

An Act for enlarging the term and powers of an Act of His present Majesty, for repairing the road from the Market Place in Bicester, in the county of Oxford, to the Buckingham Turnpike Road, in Aynho, in the county of Northampton, and for extending the powers of the said Act to an adjoining branch of the road.

Westminster, July 7, 1813.

THIS day, the Lords being met, a message was sent to the Honourable House of Commons by the Gentleman Usher of the Black Rod, acquainting them, that The Lords, authorised by virtue of a Commission under the Great Seal, signed by the Prince Regent, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, for declaring His Majesty's Royal Assent to several Acts agreed upon by both Houses, do desire the immediate attendance of the Honourable House in the House of Peers to hear the Commission read; and the Commons being come thither, the said Commission, empowering the Lord Archbishop of Canterbury, the Lord High Chancellor of Great Britain, and several other Lords therein named, to declare and notify the Royal Assent to the said Acts, was read accordingly, and the Royal Assent given to

An Act for the more correct ascertainment of the value of duty-free goods exported.
