

Sunday after notice hereof shall have been received, put up Prayers, and Thanksgivings to Almighty God for the abundant Harvest.

(Signed) Chetwynd.

At the Court at Carlton-House, the 20th of September 1813,
I, a licensed-Name, do hereby appear before His Royal Highness the PRINCE REGENT, in His Royal Highness the PRINCE REGENT, in the name and behalf of the said Master, to answer and give account of all such things as may be required by the said Prince Regent, or by any other person having the charge of such ships or vessels; viz:

WHEREAS His Majesty was pleased, by His general Order in Council of the fifth of April one thousand eight hundred and five, touching the performance of quarantine, to direct, that where any ship or vessel shall attempt to enter into any port or place in Great Britain, or the islands of Jersey, Guernsey, Alderney, Sark, or Man, whether such port or place shall have been appointed for the performance of quarantine or not, the Superintendent of Quarantine, or his Assistant, (if there shall be no Superintendent or Assistant, at such port or place, or if not, the Principal Officer of His Majesty's Customs at such port or place, or such Officer of the Customs as shall be authorised by the Commissioners of the Customs, or any four or more of them,) to let in that behalf, shall go off to such ship or vessel, and shall, at a convenient distance from such ship or vessel, keeping to windward, demand of the Commandant, Master, or other persons having charge of such ship or vessel, answers to certain preliminary questions, therein set forth: And whereas His Royal Highness the Prince Regent was pleased, by His Order in Council of the twenty-eighth of February one thousand eight hundred and eleven, and the twenty-ninth of September one thousand eight hundred and twelve, and the thirty-first of July last, to direct, that certain questions, in addition to the preliminary questions, directed by His Majesty's general Order in Council of the fifth of April one thousand eight hundred and five, touching the performance of quarantine, should be put to the Commanders, Masters, or other persons having the charge or command of such ships or vessels: And whereas it is deemed expedient, that, in the case of ships or vessels coming from or having touched at any of the places mentioned in His Majesty's said Order in Council of the fifth of April one thousand eight hundred and five, as places from which it is probable that the plague, or some other infectious disease or distemper, highly dangerous to the health of His Majesty's subjects, may be brought into Great Britain; or having on board drugs, wares, or merchandises, contravened another said Order, being the growth, produce, or manufacture of Turkey, or of any place in Africa, within the Straights of Gibraltar, or in the West Barbary on the Atlantic Ocean, and from any port or place in Europe without the Straights, or on the Continent of America, at which there is not a regular establishment for the performance of quarantine, which shall have been declared sufficient for that purpose by any Order of His Majesty, and Council, notified by Proclamation, or published in the London Gazette, or coming from or having touched at any port or place on the Continent of America, the islands adjacent thereto, or coming from or having touched at any of the ports in the West Indies; the following questions, in addition to the said preliminary questions, should be put to the Commander, Master, or other person having the charge of such ships or vessels; viz:

"When did you sail from the port or place from whence you took on board your outward cargo, and at what places did you touch before you arrived at the port or place where you took in your present cargo?"

"Did you carry any bill of health with you to the port or place where you took in the cargo you have now on board? From what place? Were the said bills of health clean, unclean, or suspected?"

His Royal Highness the Prince Regent is therupon pleased to order, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, and by and with the advice of His Majesty's Privy Council, that the questions above set forth, in addition to the preliminary questions directed by His Majesty's general Order in Council of the fifth of April one thousand eight hundred and five, and the Orders in Council of the twenty-eighth of February one thousand eight hundred and eleven, the twenty-ninth of September one thousand eight hundred and twelve, and the thirty-first of July last respecting the performance of quarantine, be put to the Captains, Commanders, Masters, or other persons having charge or command of ships, or vessels, coming from, or having touched at any of the places above described and enumerated.

And His Royal Highness was further pleased to order, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, and by and with the advice aforesaid, that such Captains, Commanders, Masters, or other persons having charge or command of such ships or vessels, shall, upon such questions being put by the Superintendent of Quarantine, or his Assistant, or Principal Officer, or other Officer of the Customs, authorised by the Commissioners of His Majesty's Customs, or any four or more of them, to act in that behalf, give true answers to the same, in writing or otherwise; and upon oath, or not upon oath, according as they shall be required by such Superintendent, or his Assistant, or Principal Officer, or other Officer of the Customs, authorised as aforesaid, under such pains and penalties as are inflicted by an Act passed in the forty-fifth year of His Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act for making further provision for the effectual performance of quarantine," &c.

And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, the Commissioners for executing the office of Lord High Admiral of Great Britain, the Lord Warden of the Cinque Ports, the Master-General, and the rest of the Principal Officers of the Ordnance, His Majesty's Secretary at War, and the Governors and Commissioners in Chief at the time being of the Isles of Guernsey, Jersey, Alderney, Sark, and Man, are to give the necessary directions herein as to whom may respectively appertain.

Chetwynd.
