On Saturday the 22d of January.

The Pensioners from the Militia, at 6d. per day, with the Private Gentlemen who receive annuities from the late 1st and 2d Troops of Horse Guards; also those Pensioners from the several regiments who have been admitted on account of blindness, whether at 1s. per day or upwards; when the Hospital Surgeons will attend, for the purpose of examining all such men, and report to the next Board upon any of them who may appear to be recovered or improved in their sight, the payment of whose pension is then to be suspended till the further order of the Board.

And that all Out-Pensioners belonging to the said Hospital who live in England beyond the district of the bills of mortality, and those in Scotland and Ireland, are hereby required and commanded, after the 25th of June next, and after every succeeding 25th of December and 25th of June, until further orders, to apply to one of His Majesty's Justices of the Peace in the neighbourhood where they reside, and make the following affidavit, which the said Magistrate for the county, city, borough, or riding, before whom the Pensioner appears, will sign and date, viz.

"I, _____, came before me, one of His Majesty's Justices of the Peace for the county of _____, and made oath that he was admitted an Out-Pensioner of Chelsea Hospital on the day of _____ 17 (or 18), from the _____ Regiment of _____, commanded by _____; was then aged about _____ years, served in the _____ army _____ years, was discharged for _____ and that he is no otherwise provided for by the public but as a Pensioner of the said Hospital, at _____ per day (except his pay as a _____ in the _____ Regiment of Militia), and now lives in the parish of _____, in the county of _____.

"Sworn before me _____, this day of 18 ____.

And such of them as were admitted on account of blindness are ordered to transmit, with their half-yearly affidavits, a certificate as to the state of their sight, signed by an Army Surgeon, or other medical person resident in their neighbourhood; but in such distant parts, where a medical certificate is impracticable, a certificate from the Minister of the parish to that fact, and to ascertain the continuance of their blindness, will be admitted.

The affidavit drawn according to the above form, sworn before, dated and attested by a Magistrate, is to be put up in a cover, and sent by the General Post, directed thus:—"To the Right Honourable the Paymaster-General of His Majesty's Land Forces, London;" marking on the cover, "Chelsea Pensioner's Affidavit."—And counterparts or duplicates of the said affidavits are to be reserved by the Out-Pensioners respectively, to be exhibited to such persons as shall be directed to pay them, together with their instructions and certificates of admissions, in order that their claim to the Out-Pension may be fully verified, and their persons clearly identified.

And to the end that the Commissioners for the Affairs of Chelsea Hospital may be satisfied that the Pensioners are the same persons who have passed their examination, it is hereby further directed, that such of them who have served in, and have been discharged from any of the Regiments, or Independent Companies of Invalids, or Royal Veteran Battalions, are not to mention in their affidavits such Regiment, or Company of Invalids, or Royal Veteran Battalion in which they served last, but the Regiment, Troop, or Corps of the Army from which they were first discharged and recommended, and received at Chelsea Hospital.

The Pensioners are particularly to take notice, that the half-yearly payments after Christmas are to be regulated hereafter, as to the place of payment, by the musters at Chelsea, of such only as reside within the bills of mortality, or the affidavits sent as above, after the Midsummer preceding; and that the Midsummer payment is in like manner to be regulated by the musters or affidavits after the Christmas preceding.

It is also ordered and directed, that no person who shall change the place of his abode given in at his muster, or specified in his affidavit as aforesaid, and who may apply for his pension (excepting to the Officers of Excise nearest such place of abode,) shall receive the same, unless it appears, by the certificate of respectable persons, that such removal was through unavoidable necessity, which he or they could not foresee or prevent; and that if any Pensioner shall fraudulently attempt to receive a double payment of the pension, either at Chelsea or at different places, he shall be struck off the lists; for the better prevention of which frauds, each Pensioner is required to produce his instruction papers at the time of payment.

Lastly, it is notified that none will be entered upon the pay-lists of the said Hospital, or be entitled to receive any benefit therefrom, who shall not act agreeably to these orders and directions; particularly in sending their half-yearly affidavits to the Paymaster-General, as above-directed, and to no other office, which several of the Pensioners have of late either neglected to do, or sent them irregularly to other Departments.

Copy of a Letter from Rear-Admiral Fremantle to John Wilson Croker, Esq. dated on board His Majesty's Ship Milford, Trieste, December, 1813.

SIR,

I HAVE the honour of enclosing a report from the Honourable Captain Cadogan, of His Majesty's ship Havannah, giving an account of the surrender of the very important fortress of Zara to the Austrian and British forces.

The judgment, perseverance, and ability shewn by him, on every occasion, will not, I am persuaded, escape their Lordships observation.

Captain Cadogan, with the crews of a frigate and a sloop, has accomplished as much as required the services of the squadron united at Trieste.

I have the honour to be, &c.

(Signed) T. F. FREMANTLE.

His Majesty's Ship Havannah, before Zara, December 6, 1813.

SIR,

IT is with great satisfaction I have the honour to inform you, that the fortress of Zara, has this day capitulated to the combined Austrian and English forces, after sustaining a cannonade of thirteen days from the English batteries, consisting two thirty-two pound carronades, eight eighteen pounders, and seven twelve pound long guns, as well as two howitzers worked by Austrians.

As the courier which conveys this information will set out immediately, I shall defer entering into particulars until another opportunity, and confine myself to the general terms granted, which are, that the garrison are to march out with honours of war; to ground their arms on the glacis, and then to be conducted as prisoners of war, until exchanged, to the outposts of the nearest French army.

The outwork of the garrison to be occupied this evening by the Austrian troops, and the whole of the enemy to march out on the 9th, at ten A. M.

As soon as I can make ready a copy of the terms, I shall have the honour of forwarding them to you: in the mean time,

I have the honour to be, &c.

(Signed) GEO. CADOGAN, Captain.

Rear-Admiral Fremantle, &c. &c. &c.

*His Majesty's Sloop Swallow, at Sea,
September 16, 1813,*

SIR,

BEING well in-shore at daylight this morning, between the Tiber and D'Anzo, a brig and xebec were discovered between us and the latter harbour, and having light baffling winds at the time from the eastward, I thought the boats would have a chance of reaching them before they got into port, and they were dispatched, under the direction of Lieutenant Samuel Edward Cook, (first of the Swallow) assisted by Mr. Thomas Cole, mate, and Mr. Henry Thomas, midshipman, and after a row of two hours they came up with, and brought out from close under D'Anzo, (from whence numerous boats, besides two gun-boats, had been sent to her assistance, and kept her in tow till the moment of the boats boarding,) the French brig Guerriere, of four guns and sixty stand of small arms.

There could not have been more steady cool bravery displayed than on this occasion. Lieutenant Cook speaks in the highest terms of every person with him.

I am sorry to say his loss has been severe, having had two seamen killed and four severely wounded in his boat, as you will find in the enclosed return.

I have the honour to be, &c.

E. R. SIBLY, Commander.

*To the Honourable Henry Duncan,
Captain of His Majesty's Ship
Imperieuse, &c. &c. &c.*

His Majesty's Ship Edinburgh, off D'Anzo,

SIR, October 5, 1813.

IN obedience to your directions, I put to sea and joined Captain Duncan, of the Imperieuse, and the ships named in the margin,* this morning, off this place, where he had been watching a convoy for some days, with the intention of attacking them the first favourable opportunity. The necessary arrangements having been made by that officer for the attack, I added the force of this ship to it, and made the signal that those arrangements would be adhered to, and to prepare for battle. The place was defended by two batteries, mounting three heavy guns each on a mole; a tower to the northward of this with one gun, and a battery to the southward with two guns, to cover the mole. Every thing being prepared at half past one p. m. the ships bore up and took their stations as follows:—The Imperieuse and Resistance to the mole batteries; the Swallow to the Tower; the Eclair and Pylades to the battery to the southward; the Edinburgh supported the last-named ships.

Shortly after the ships opened their fire, which they did by signal together, the storming party, under Lieutenant Travers, of the Imperieuse, and marines, under Captain Mitchell, landed in the best order close under the southern battery, which Lieutenant Travers carried instantly, on which the enemy flew in all directions: Lieutenant Mapleton having taken possession of the mole head, the convoy, consisting of twenty-nine vessels, was brought out without any loss, twenty of which are laden with timber for the arsenal at Toulon.

On leaving the place all the works were blown up, and most completely destroyed. I feel the destruction of the defences of this place to be of consequence, as it was a convenient port for shipping the very large quantity of timber the enemy now have on the adjacent coast. The captains, officers, and ships companies deserve my warm acknowledgment for their exertions on this occasion. A few shot in the hulls and rigging of the ships is the only damage done.

Captain Duncan informs me, that he gained very material and necessary information respecting this place, by a very gallant exploit performed a few nights ago by Lieutenant Travers, of the Imperieuse, who stormed, with a boat's crew, a tower of one gun, destroying it, and bringing the guard away.

I am, &c.

G. H. L. DUNDAS, Captain.

To Captain Rowley, His Majesty's Ship America, Senior Officer.

His Majesty's Ship Furieuse, at Sea,

SIR, October 8, 1813.

I BEG leave to acquaint you, that on the 4th instant, running along the coast to the island of Ponza, at one P. M. I observed a convoy of nineteen vessels in the harbour of Marinello, (about six miles to the eastward of Civita Vecchia) protected by two gun-boats, a fort of two long twenty-four-pounders, and a strong fortified castle and tower, and it appearing practicable to cut them out, as the wind was fair for that purpose, Lieutenants Croker and Lester, with Lieutenants Whylock and Davies, of marines, gallantly volunteered to storm the fort on the land side with the whole of the marines and boats crews, whilst the ship anchored before it, which service was promptly performed; and after a few broadsides I had the satisfaction of seeing the battery carried and guns spiked by our gallant party on shore. The enemy retreated, and took the strong positions of the castle and tower overlooking the harbour, where they kept up a constant fire of musketry through loop-holes, without the possibility of being dislodged; although I weighed and moved in, so that the whole fire of the ship was directed against it. Nothing could damp the ardour of the party on shore, who together with Lieutenant Lester in the boats, lost not a moment in boarding and cutting the cables of sixteen vessels, under a most galling fire, two of which were sunk in the entrance of the harbour, and fourteen got out. I have to regret the loss of twelve brave men killed and wounded, which is less than might have been expected, as more than five hundred regular troops arrived from Civita Vecchia; but were kept in check in coming along, and forced to take a circuitous route, by a well-directed fire from the ship, which allowed sufficient time for all our men to embark.

It is now a pleasing duty to pay a just tribute of praise to the very gallant and determined conduct of Mr. Croker, first lieutenant, whose zeal on this and every other occasion merit my warmest commendation; and he speaks in the highest terms of admiration of the determined bravery of Lieutenants Lester, Whylock, and Davies, the petty officers, seamen, and royal marines under his command.

The whole of this service was most successfully accomplished in three hours, and fourteen vessels deeply laden got clear off, which I was obliged to take in tow, as their sails had all been unbent, and taken on shore to prevent our getting them out.

I have the honour to be, &c.

His Majesty's Ship Revenge, off Palamos, SIR, Nov. 9, 1813.

I HAVE the honour to inform you, that I discovered yesterday a French felucca privateer, in the harbour of Palamos, which Lieutenant Richards, senior lieutenant of this ship, handsomely offered to bring out. Upon reconnoitring the place, I did not observe any insurmountable impediments to the enterprise; consequently, at half past eight p. m. I gave him the boats of this ship, aided by Lieutenant Blakiston, Captain Speerin (and a detachment of Royal Marines under his command), and Messrs. Quelch, Rolfe, Fisher, Mainwaring, Harwood, Munbee, Fraser, Maxwell, Buchanan, and Davey, masters mates and midshipmen; and I have the satisfaction to state, that they completely achieved their object at eleven p. m. without an officer or man being hurt; and at one o'clock brought alongside their prize, with twenty prisoners out of forty-nine, the others having jumped overboard; and it is a very gratifying part of my duty to inform you, that Lieutenant Richards highly commends the good conduct and gallantry of every officer and man under his orders.

I have the honour to be, &c.

J. GORE, Captain.

*His Majesty's ship Undaunted, off Port
SIR, Nouvelle, Nov. 9, 1813.*

I HAVE the honour to report to you, that the port of Nouvelle was attacked to-day, and the batteries stormed in the most gallant manner by Lieutenant Hastings and Lieutenant Hunt, of the Marines, the whole under the command of Lieutenant Hownam, senior Lieutenant, who speaks in great praise of the officers and men of this ship, and those of the Guadaloupe, under the command of Lieutenant Hurst, and Mr. Lewis, Master.

The vessels as per margin, * fell into our hands.

I should be wanting in duty, if I did not express my high sense of the discretion and gallant conduct of the officers and men of this ship, who in the short time she has been under my command, have taken or destroyed, principally in the boats, seventy of the enemy's vessels, and with comparatively a very small loss.

It affords me great pleasure to state that only one man was wounded.

I have the honour to be, &c.

THOMAS USHER, Captain.
