SATURDAY, MARCH 29, 1817.

THE following Addresses have been presented to His Royal Highness the Prince Regent; which Addresses His Royal Highness was pleased to receive very graciously:

To His Royal Highness George Prince of Wales, REGENT of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland.

The dutiful and loyal Address of the Magistrates and Council, resident Justices of the Peace, Gentlemen, Merchants, Fishcurers, and other Inhabitants of His Majesty's faithful old Town of Thurso, in the County of Caithness.

May it please your Royal Highness,

WE, His Majesty's dutiful and loyal subjects, the Magistrates and Council, resident Justices of the Peace, Gentlemen, Merchants, Fishcurers and other Inhabitants of His Majesty's faithful old Town of Thurso, met here this day, beg most humbly to take this earliest opportunity to offer our most cordial congratulations to your Royal Highness, on your happy and providential escape from the premeditated murderous attempts of traitorous assassins, and on the fortunate detection of rebellious associations against the State.

We pray most ardently and sincerely to the Giver of all Good, for the preservation and prolongation of your Royal Highness's life, and that the sceptre of these realms may continue to be swayed with undiminished lustre, in the line of the Royal House of Brunswick, to the latest posterity.

From the illustrious example set by your Royal Highness, we look with firmness and confidence for every reasonable retrenchment in the national expenditure, consistent with the dignity of the State and safety of the nation; and also that such errors as may have crept into the Government, by lapse of time, will be prudently and calmly enquired into, and, if necessary, constitutionally corrected.

We deprecate every revolutionary attempt at pretended amendments, satisfied and fully convinced, that if errors shall be found to exist, there is, in the Constitution sufficient energy and power to rectify them, and in the Legislature sufficient ability and integrity to carry it into effect.

We beg further to assure your Royal Highness, that we are determined, with the aid of Almighty God, to support your Royal Highness with our lives and fortunes, for the preservation of our glorious Constitution, as most happily re-established in 1688, or to perish in the attempt.

Signed in presence and by appointment of the Meeting, at Thurso, this 1st day of March 1817, by Geo. Paurson, Chief Magistrate.

[Transmitted by George Sinclair, Esq., and presented by Viscount Sidmouth.]

To His Royal Highness George Prince of Wales, REGENT of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland.

WE, His Majesty's dutiful and loyal subjects the Gentlemen, Clergy and other Inhabitants of the Town of Sandbach and its Vicinity, beg leave to approach your Royal Highness, with our heartfelt congratulations on your happy escape from the traitorous attack upon your Person, when returning from the exercise, on behalf of our revered Sovereign, of a most important part of his regal prerogative; with sentiments of extreme indignation we view the atrocious outrage, declaring our firm attachment to our beloved Monarch and His Royal House, and our full determination to support the honour and dignity of His Crown and the established Constitution of the realm; we utterly abhor all traitorous and seditious plots, and look with horror on the consequences that might have followed the late treasonable designs of wicked men, in deluding multitudes into measures, which, had they not been discovered and promptly suppressed, might have led to scenes of the most extensive devastation and bloodshed.

As good subjects, we feel grateful for the valuable privileges and blessings enjoyed by us, and rely upon the wisdom and integrity of Parliament for ordering whatever is necessary for the public good, without giving way to visionary schemes of reform, which may tend rather to the destruction than the welfare of the country.

Deign to accept our thankful acknowledgments for the munificent sacrifice of so large a portion of your Royal Highness's income to the necessities of the State, and permit us to express our full confidence, that, with this noble example before them, His Majesty's Ministers will perfect, as far as is consistent with real economy and a due regard to the honour and safety of the Empire, those plans of retrenchment, which they have commenced so much to their own credit and to the public advantage.

[Transmitted by W. Egerton and D. Davenport, Esqrs., and presented by Viscount Sidmouth.]

To His Royal Highness George Prince of Wales,
REGENT of the United Kingdom.

WE, His Majesty's most dutiful and loyal subjects, the Members of the ancient fraternity of free and accepted Masons, residing in the County of Monmouth, humbly beg leave to approach your Royal Highness, with sentiments of the greatest veneration, to offer our sincere congratulations on the providential escape of your Royal Highness from the desperate and traitorous attempt of a factious and misguided people, against your Royal Person.

We deprecate, in the strongest terms, an attack so diabolical, more especially as it took place at a time when your Royal Highness was fulfilling one of the most sacred duties of Government.

We beg to assure your Royal Highness of the firm attachment of our ancient fraternity, and that our individual exertions shall always be directed to uphold the Constitution in Church and State, and to sustain the honour and ascendancy of the illustrious House of Brunswick.

[Transmitted by the Rev. James Ashe Gabb, and presented by Viscount Sidmouth.]

Unto His Royal Highness George Prince of Wales, REGENT of the British Empire.

The dutiful and loyal Address of the Magistrates, Counsellors, Minister, and other respectable Inhabitants of the Town and Burgh of Forres, North Britain.

WE, His Majesty's most dutiful and loyal subjects, the Magistrates, Counsellors, the Minister, and other Inhabitants of the Town of Forres, beg leave to approach your Royal Highness at this time, with the most unfeigned sentiments of attachment to your Royal Highness's Person, and of entire approbation of your Counsels, by which the most imminent danger that ever threatened our country had been averted, and peace and good order established in our land. At the same time that we reprobate the insidious designs of evil-minded men, by which your sacred Person had lately been insulted, and our happiness and liberties endangered, we highly approve of the measures which, under your Royal Highness's sanction, His Majesty's Ministers have adopted, for the preservation of our invaluable Constitution.

Living at a distance from the seat of Government, whilst we deeply lament the infatuation of a misguided multitude, who are taught by the innovating doctrines of profane and designing men, under the mask of reform, to counsel together for the overthrow of our liberties, we congratulate your Royal Highness, and every lover of his country, upon the quiet and orderly deportment which has hitherto marked every class of the community to which we belong.

As we cannot see how the present distresses and privations, under which the country labours, can be removed, either by annual or triennial Parliaments, we look up with the utmost confidence to the wisdom of our rulers, for the adoption of such measures as will check the progress of dangerous innovations, in religion and Government, and will effectually secure to us the exercise of that rational piety, on which alone human happiness can be established, and that reform of heart and manners accomplished, which will procure the Divine protection to a people exercised in righteousness.

That your Royal Highness may (under the Divine favour,) be long spared as a guardian to watch over the interests, the prosperity and happiness of these kingdoms, is our earnest prayer.

Signed by our appointment, and in our presence, at Forres, this 18th day of March 1817,

By George Grant.

To His Royal Highness George Prince of Wales,
REGENT of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland.

The loyal and dutiful Address of the Freeholders, Justices of the Peace, Commissioners of Supply, and other Heritors of the County of Moray, assembled at Elgin.

May it please your Royal Highness,

WE beg leave to approach your Royal Highness, humbly and sincerely to congratulate your Royal Highness, on your providential escape from the late traitorous and atrocious attack on your sacred Person, in the execution of one of the most important functions of your exalted station, and at the same time to express our utmost detestation of attempts, so subversive of private safety and of public decency and decorum. We rejoice however in being enabled to assure your Royal Highness, that the utmost regularity, quiet, and obedience to the laws continue to distinguish this country, and that the conduct of the inhabitants is marked with affection and loyalty to the best of Kings and his august House. Permit us humbly to add, that no exertion on our part shall be wanting, to cherish a due sense of the blessings that Britons so eminently enjoy under the influence of your Royal Highness's auspicious Government.

Signed in our name, and by our authority, at Elgin, the 14th of March 1817.

To His Royal Highness George Prince of Wales,
REGENT of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland.

WE, His Majesty's loyal and dutiful subjects, the undersigned Provost, Free Burgesses, Common Council, Freemen, and other Inhabitants of the Borough and Town of Bandon, beg leave to approach your Royal Highness with our sincere congratulations on your Royal Highness's providential escape from the late flagitious outrage, meditated against your Royal Highness's sacred Person, when returning from opening the present Session of Parliament.

We lament to think that any man is to be found in the community, so daring or so deluded as either of his own bad spirit, or as the instrument of disaffection, to attempt so treasonable and so atrocious an act, and we cannot but view it as resulting from that excitement of popular feeling, which evil-minded persons have of late so laboured to produce, exciting in the lower orders a spirit of sedition and violence, by taking advantage of the distresses of the country.

Duly appreciating the many blessings which the people of this empire have enjoyed, under the mild and beneficent sway of the illustrious House of Brunswick, we are convinced the great body of His Majesty's subjects are actuated by an unshaken devotion to your Royal Highness's Person and Family, and that there exists among them sufficient good sense, as well as loyalty, successfully to resist the arts that are used to seduce them.

Impressed with these sentiments, we beg to be permitted to express a confident hope, that your Royal Highness will omit no precaution for preserving the public peace, and that the measures of your Royal Highness's Government, being founded on sound and wise principles, will aid the strong disposition of the people of this united empire, to uphold and hand down uninjured to posterity our admired Constitution, in Church and State.

To His Royal Highness George Prince of Wales, REGENT of the United Kingdom and Ireland.

The humble Address of the Gentlemen, Clergy, and Freeholders of the County of Clare.

May it please your Royal Highness,

WE, the Gentlemen, Clergy, and Freeholders of the County of Clare, impressed with an utter abhorrence of the late atrocious outrage, directed against your Royal Highness, humbly beg leave to express our deep and unaffected sorrow and regret, that any attempt should be made to interrupt the exercise of those important trusts which have been committed to your Royal Highness, as the representative of our revered Sovereign.

We are fully convinced that the true interests of the Crown and the people are inseparably connected, and we are attached to the Person and Government of your Royal Highness, by the strongest ties of duty and affection.

When we reflect on the late eventful scenes that have passed on the continent of Europe, and those calamities from which these islands have, under your auspices, been happily exempt, we are impelled to acknowledge that we owe to the Supreme Being unbounded gratitude, and we have a decided conviction, that no efforts have been wanting on the part of your Royal Highness, to give full effect to these measures, which have essentially contributed to bring a long and arduous war to a glorious termination; and we entertain an ardent hope, that the same wisdom which directed the force of the empire, with a spirit and perseverance unexampled in history, will now be successfully employed in cultivating the arts of peace, in exciting and cherishing a spirit of industry and individual exertion, in improving the resources of the empire, and in the progressive increase of agriculture and commerce, as the solid and permanent basis of national prosperity.

To His Royal Highness George Prince of Wales, REGENT of the United Kingdoms of Great Britain and Ireland.

The humble Address of the Inhabitants of the Parish of St. Michael's, in Dublin.

WE, the Minister, Churchwardens, and Parishioners of the Parish of St. Michael's, in the City of Dublin, duly assembled, beg leave to approach your Royal Highness, in order to express our unfeigned gratitude to Divine Providence for protecting your Royal Highness from the late assault upon your Royal Person, by a depraved and infuriate rabble; an act of treasonable violence outraging at once all laws human and divine, and hostile equally to the Majesty of the Throne, the principles of the Constitution, and the welfare of the State. We cannot reflect on this outrage without the consoling conviction, that it must be regarded with the same abhorrence which we ourselves feel by all our fellow subjects, however otherwise differing in religious or political opinions, except only those malignant agitators who seek their own exaltation in public confusion and calamity, and those blind dupes to their insidious arts; who are taught, whatever be the cause of public distress, whether it be the scourge of war or the severity of the seasons, the hand of man or the visitation of God, to charge that distress as a crime on their governors; but we trust all such delusions must speedily be dissipated, by that anxious vigilance with which your Royal Highness labours to alleviate the inevitable distresses of your people, and exhibit a bright example of that self-denial and liberality, which, if universally followed, must so materially lessen the present pressure on the lower orders: and we feel convinced that the powers vested in your Royal Highness at this dangerous crisis, by the wisdom of the Legislature, will be supported by the exertions of every loyal and public-spirited citizen, and will effectually maintain the public tranquillity.

We conclude with humbly entreating your Royal Highness to accept the assurance of our unalterable attachment to your Royal Highness's Person and Government, and our unfeigned prayer that the same Providence which has hitherto so signally protected the British Empire, may still be extended to it under your Royal Highness and your illustrious House, securing to us and our posterity the invaluable blessings of religion and liberty, of national prosperity and glory, and to your Royal Highness and your successors the approbation of conscience, the affection of your subjects, and the applauses of mankind.

 REGENT of the United Kingdom.

The humble Address of the Grand Jury of the County of Clare.

May it please your Royal Highness,

WE, the Grand Jury of the County of Clare, assembled at Ennis, at Spring Assizes 1817, humbly beg leave to approach your Royal Highness, to express our utter abhorrence of the late daring outrage against the representative of our beloved Sovereign; fully convinced that the true interests of the Crown and the people are inseparably connected, and animated with the sincerest attachment to the Person and Government of your Royal Highness, we lament that any attempt should be made to interrupt the exercise of these important trusts, which the Constitution has committed to the Sovereign.

When we reflect on the late eventful scenes that have passed on the continent of Europe, and the calamities from which these islands have, under your auspices, been happily exempt, we feel that we owe to the Supreme Being unbounded gratitude, and we have a decided conviction, that no efforts have been wanting on the part of your Royal Highness, to give full effect to those measures, which have essentially contributed to bring a long and arduous war to a glorious termination; and we entertain an ardent hope, that the same wisdom, which has been so eminently displayed amidst the perils and difficulties of war, will be exerted in the hour of peace, to excite and to cherish a spirit of industry, to improve the national resources, and to extend and diffuse the blessings of agriculture and commerce, to the remotest parts of the British Empire.

[Transmitted by His Excellency the Lord Lieutenant of Ireland, and presented by Viscount Sidmouth.]

Unto His Royal Highness the PRINCE REGENT.

The loyal and dutiful Address of the Presbytery of Aberbrothock.

May it please your Royal Highness,

We, the Ministers of the Presbytery of Aberbrothock, beg leave to approach your Royal Highness, with every sentiment of respect and attachment to your Person and Government, to express our deep concern and abhorrence at the late wicked and treasonable attempt on the invaluable life of your Royal Highness, in your return from discharging one of the most solemn and important duties of your high office, as Regent of these realms, and at the very moment when you had been just recommending to the great Council of the Nation, the adoption of those measures which were most likely to promote the prosperity and happiness of all classes of the community, from the Sovereign to the meanest of his subjects.

And while we cordially congratulate your Royal Highness, upon your providential escape from the danger to which you were exposed, we lament that any individual in these kingdoms should be found, so lost to all sense of duty and every principle of genuine patriotism, as to be capable of an outrage so disgraceful in itself, and so dreadful in its consequences, had it succeeded to the extent intended by its profligate and abandoned perpetrators.

At the same time it gives us the highest satisfaction, to find that both branches of the legislature have concurred in adopting such prompt and decisive measures, as appear to be indispensably necessary for securing the future safety of your Royal Highness's Person, and completely defeating the machinations of your enemies—the enemies of all that is sacred and venerable in our happy Constitution both in Church and State.

We also beg leave to assure your Royal Highness, that it shall always be our study to inculcate loyal and patriotick sentiments on the people committed to our care, and, as far as our influence can extend, no endeavours of ours shall be wanting to promote the general tranquillity and counteract the pernicious tendency of those seditious and immoral doctrines, which are now so industriously propagated by disaffected and designing men. Such is our duty, as loyal subjects and Ministers of that Holy Religion, which commands us “to fear God,”—“to honour the King,”—and “not to meddle with them that are given to Change,”—and thus in our humble sphere shall we best contribute to the welfare of our country, and evince our steady loyalty and attachment to your Royal Highness's Person and Family, under whose auspices this Nation has attained to a pitch of eminence and fame, unparalleled in the annals of the World.

That the Almighty Being by whom, “Kings Reign and Princes decree Justice,” may ever keep your Royal Highness under his Divine protection,—that He may bless you in your Person and direct your Councils,—and that a race of Sovereigns of your Royal line, friends of religion, liberty and their country, may always fill the Throne of Britain, are, through Jesus Christ, the prayers of, may it please your Royal Highness, your Royal Highness's most faithful and obedient subjects, the Ministers of the Presbytery of Aberbrothock.

Signed in our name and presence, and at our appointment, at Aberbrothock, this 19th day of March 1817.

To His Royal Highness George Prince of Wales,
 REGENT of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland.

The Address of the Ministers and Elders of the Presbytery of Perth.

May it please your Royal Highness,

WE, His Majesty's most dutiful and loyal subjects, the Ministers and Elders of the Presbytery of Perth, embrace the opportunity of our meeting this day, to approach the Throne, with the respectful expression of our attachment to your Royal Highness, and our indignation at the late outrage which hath been offered to your Royal Highness's Person, when returning from the discharge of one of the most important duties of your high office. We lament, that, under the wise, just, and mild administration of your Royal Highness, there should have existed men profligate enough to have been capable of an act so treasonable and atrocious, and while we rejoice in the conviction, that there are no such unprincipled persons among those immediately under our care, we solemnly pledge ourselves, individually and collectively, to discountenance and repress, in every quarter to which our influence may extend, every such rebellious and desperate machination. With equal solemnity, we pledge our attachment to the Constitution of the United Kingdom. In the visionary plans of political reform, which now agitate the minds of certain classes of His Majesty's subjects, we contemplate only the attempts of designing men, at disorganization and revolution—we contemplate them with horror, and we feel it our bounden duty to discourage and counteract them; confident as we are, that in the wisdom and integrity, and patriotism of the Imperial Parliament, there is a security lodged for the adoption of every measure that is calculated to promote the prosperity and the glory of our land.

That Almighty God may protect and preserve your Royal Highness, that He may direct and prosper your administration of His Majesty's Government, that you may enjoy the affection and loyalty of all the subjects of the British Empire, and that, after a long and prosperous reign on earth, you may be called to a Crown more glorious, in the Heavens, are the sincere prayers of, may it please your Royal Highness, His Majesty's most faithful, most obedient, and most loyal subjects, the Ministers and Elders of the Presbytery of Perth.

Signed in our name, in our presence, and at our appointment, by

Thos. Kennedy, Moderator.

To His Royal Highness George Prince of Wales, REGENT of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, acting in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty.

May it please your Royal Highness,

WE, His Majesty's most dutiful and loyal subjects, the Nobility, Gentry, Clergy, and Freeholders of the County of Buckingham, beg leave to approach your Royal Highness with the strongest expressions of our indignation and regret, at the violent outrage committed against your Royal Person and dignity, during your return from the execution of the high duties reposed in your Royal Highness by law, at the opening of the present Session of Parliament.

At the same time we presume to offer to your Royal Highness our humble, but heartfelt, congratulations on your escape.

The Laws and Constitution of our country have taught us, that the welfare of every part of the community depends upon those laws being obeyed, the Throne held in reverence, and the Person of our Sovereign and of his representative respected.

By this daring outrage, therefore, offered against the laws and the dignity of the Crown, we feel ourselves to be injured, the Constitution of the country endangered, and our national interests and happiness attacked.

Under the auspices of your Royal House, we have continued to enjoy the blessings of a free Parliamentary Government. The lawless insults therefore offered to your Royal Highness, upon your return from executing your high functions in assembling Parliament, afford in our minds an aggravation of the guilt, resulting from the moment selected for its perpetration.

We beg leave to assure your Royal Highness, that to the principles of our Constitution, to the Person, Family, and Government of our gracious and beloved Sovereign, we are most firmly and steadily attached; that this daring and criminal outrage, will have the effect of only calling from us reiterated assurances of those feelings, and that it shall be our study to prove, by our example, how essentially connected with our best interests, we consider our unremitting exertions to hand down to our posterity, inviolate and untouched, those blessings which have given to the English name pre-eminence among nations,

The Lord Chancellor has appointed Joseph Anderson, of South Shields, in the county of Durham, Gent. to be a Master Extraordinary in the High Court of Chancery.

Whereas by an Act, passed in the fifty-sixth year of His Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act for transferring all contracts and securities entered into, with, or given to the Commissioners for Transports, to the Commissioners of the Navy and Victualling," it is provided, that if His Majesty shall be pleased, by any Commission or Letters Patent, to cancel and revoke the Commission or Letters Patent, constituting and appointing certain Commissioners for conducting His Majesty's Transport Service, and also for the Care of Sick and Wounded Seamen, as well as for the Care and Custody of Prisoners of War, and all other services respecting the employment of ships or vessels in any department which the Lord High Treasurer or Commissioners of the Treasury for the time being might thereafter place under their management, and by any other Commission, Letters Patent, or Order in Council thereafter to be made, to grant, transfer, or commit all or any of the powers, authorities, and rights now vested in the said Commissioners, relating to, or so far as they may relate to, the conduct and management of the transport service, or other service respecting the employment of ships or vessels in any other department of His Majesty's Government, or any thing relating thereto, to the Principal Officers and Commissioners of the Navy; and all and any of the powers, authorities, and rights now vested in the said Commissioners for conducting the Transport Service, relating to, or so far as they may relate to, the care of sick and wounded seamen, or any thing relating thereto, or so far as they may relate to the care and maintenance of prisoners of war, or any thing relating thereto, to the Commissioners for Victualling His Majesty's Navy, that from and after such revocation, and such further grant by His Majesty, all contracts, covenants, and agreements made and entered into between the said Commissioners for conducting the Transport Service, or any person on their behalf, and any other person or persons whomsoever, for the hire of transports, ships, and vessels, or for any other purpose connected with the transport or other services above mentioned, or in any manner relating thereto; and all bonds and other securities entered into by any person or persons for the due performance for such contracts, covenants, or agreements for the doing or performing of any other act, matter, or thing whatsoever relating to the said transport and other services; and also all contracts, covenants, and agreements made and entered into between the said Commissioners for conducting the Transport Service, or any person on their behalf, and any other person or persons whomsoever, for the supply of any articles or things whatsoever for the use of the sick and wounded seamen in His Majesty's service, or prisoners of war, or for any other purpose connected with the care of the said seamen or prisoners, or in any manner relating thereto; and all bonds and other securities entered into by person or persons for the due performance of such last-mentioned contracts, covenants, or agreements, or for the doing or performing of any other act, matter, or thing whatsoever relating to the last-mentioned services, shall be vested in and transferred to the said Principal Officers and Commissioners of the Navy and the said Commissioners for Victualling His Majesty's Navy respectively, and shall continue in force in like manner to all intents and purposes as if the same contracts, covenants, and agreements, bonds, and other securities, had been entered into with the Commissioners of His Majesty's Navy, or any of them, or with the Commissioners for Victualling His Majesty's Navy, or any of them:

And whereas His Royal Highness the Prince Regent, acting in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, has been pleased to direct, that Letters Patent under the Great Seal, revoking the Letters Patent constituting and appointing the Transport Board, shall issue on the 25th of this month; and further, by His Order in Council, bearing date the 2d January last, to direct, that all the powers, authorities, and rights now vested in the said Commissioners should, from and after the date of the Letters Patent of revocation aforesaid, be transferred and committed to the Principal Officers and Commissioners of the Navy and the Commissioners of Victualling respectively, agreeably to the provisions of the above-recited Act:

This is to give notice thereof, for the information of all persons whom it may concern.

J. W. CROKER.

WHereas it hath been humbly represented unto His Royal Highness the Prince Regent, that, about eleven o'clock on the night of Monday the 10th instant, some evil-disposed person or persons did maliciously set fire to two large ricks of beans, standing in a field belonging to Mr. Brindley, of Wheaton Aston, in the county of Stafford, and totally destroyed the same;

His Royal Highness, for the better apprehending and bringing to justice the persons concerned in the said felony, is hereby pleased, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, to promise His Majesty's most gracious pardon to any one of them (except the person or persons who actually set fire to the said ricks), who shall discover his, her, or their accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

SIDMOUTH.

And as a further encouragement a reward of TWENTY POUNDS is hereby offered, to be paid by the Treasurer of the Lapley and Wheaton Aston Association, and a further reward of TWENTY POUNDS by the said Mr. Brindley to any person (except as is before excepted) who shall discover his, her, or their accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof, or to any person or persons who shall apprehend and bring the said offenders, or any of them, to conviction, or cause them, or any of them, so to be apprehended and convicted as aforesaid.

Whitehall, March 29, 1817.

WHereas it hath been humbly represented unto His Royal Highness the Prince Regent, that about twelve o'clock on the night of Monday the 24th instant, a barn, stable, and cowshed, and two straw ricks nearly adjoining the barn, on the premises of Mr. Joseph Howell, of Gunstone, in the parish of Brewood, in the county of Stafford, were discovered to be in flames, the whole of which were entirely consumed, and that there is every reason to suppose that the same were wilfully and maliciously set on fire by some evil-disposed person or persons;

His Royal Highness, for the better apprehending and bringing to justice the persons concerned in the said felony, is hereby pleased, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, to promise His Majesty's most gracious pardon to any one of them except the person or persons who actually set fire to the said premises and straw ricks), who shall discover his, her, or their accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

SIDMOUTH.

And as a further encouragement, a reward of FIFTY GUINEAS is hereby offered by the said Mr. Howell, and TWENTY GUINEAS by the Brewood Association, to any person (except as is before excepted) who shall discover his, her, or their accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof, or to any person or persons who shall apprehend and bring the said offenders, or any of them, to conviction, or cause them, or any of them, so to be apprehended and convicted as aforesaid.

Whitehall, March 18, 1817.

WHereas it hath been humbly represented unto His Royal Highness the Prince Regent, that, early in the morning of the 8th instant, a new farm-house, situate at Mickleton, in the county of Gloucester, belonging to the Rev. Mr. Graves, was maliciously and wantonly set on fire, the whole of which was consumed in the space of three hours.

His Royal Highness, for the better apprehending and bringing to justice the persons concerned in the said felony, is hereby pleased, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, to promise His Majesty's most gracious pardon to any one of them (except the person or persons who actually set fire to the said premises) who shall discover his, her, or their accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

SIDMOUTH.

And, as a further encouragement, a reward of FIFTY POUNDS is hereby offered by the said Rev. Mr. Graves to any person (except as is before excepted) who shall discover his, her, or their accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof; or to any person who shall apprehend and bring the said offenders, or any of them, to conviction, or cause them, or any of them, so to be apprehended and convicted as aforesaid.

Whitehall, March 18, 1817.

WHEREAS it hath been humbly represented unto His Royal Highness the Prince Regent, that, about nine o'clock in the evening of Thursday the 13th instant, some person or persons, at present unknown, did fire a pistol or other fire arms, loaded with slugs, through the sitting room window of the dwelling-house of Mr. James Lees, of Odham-Lane, near Oldham, and that there is every reason to suppose it was with an intent to shoot the said James Lees and his family.

His Royal Highness, for the better apprehending and bringing to justice the persons concerned in the said atrocious act, is hereby pleased, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, to promise His Majesty's most gracious pardon to any one of them, (except the person or persons who actually fired the said pistol or other fire arms), who shall discover his, her, or their accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he, she or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

SIDMOUTH.

And as a further encouragement, a reward of ONE HUNDRED POUNDS is hereby offered by the said James Lees, and FIFTY POUNDS to be paid by the Constables of Oldham, to any person (except as is before excepted), who shall discover his, her, or their accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof, or to any person or persons who shall apprehend and bring the said offenders or any of them to conviction, or cause them or any of them so to be apprehended and convicted as aforesaid.

NOTICE.

THE Lord Chief Justice of the Court of King's Bench, of that part of the United Kingdom called Ireland, has, by virtue of an Act of Parliament, made and passed in the fifty-fifth year of the reign of His present Majesty King George the Third, intituled "An Act for the better examination of witnesses in the Courts of Equity in Ireland, and for empowering the Courts of Law and Equity in Ireland to grant Commissions for taking affidavits in all parts of Great Britain," appointed Thomas Eyre Lee, of Edgbaston, in the County of Warwick, Esq. a Commissioner to take affidavits within the several Counties of Hereford, Salop, Stafford, Warwick, and Worcester.

No. 17235.

TRIGONOMETRICAL SURVEY OF GREAT BRITAIN.

IT having been represented to the Master-General and Principal Officers of His Majesty's Ordnance, that certain mapsellers and others have, through inadvertence or otherwise, copied, reduced, or incorporated into other works and published, parts of the "Trigonometrical Survey of Great Britain," a work executed under the immediate orders of the said Master-General and Board, the said Master-General and Board have thought proper to direct, that public notice be given to all mapsellers and others, cautioning them against copying, reducing, or incorporating into other works and publishing, all or any part of the said "Trigonometrical Survey," or of the Ordnance maps which have been or may be engraven therefrom. "Every offender after this notice given, will be proceeded against according to the provisions of the Act of Parliament made for the protection of property of this kind."

By order of the Board,

R. H. Crew, Secretary.

Office of Ordnance, 24th February 1817.

Office of Ordnance, March 21, 1817.

THE Master-General and Board of Ordnance having granted their authority for the sale of impressions taken from the plates engraved on a scale of one inch to the mile, from the General Survey of Great Britain, performed under the superintendance of Colonel William Mudge, the public are hereby informed, that twenty-six plates are already finished, and that impressions from them are on sale at the Drawing-Room in the Tower. These plates form a complete map of the coast of Great Britain from Folkstone, in Kent, to the Land's End, in Cornwall, and thence to Wick St. Lawrence, near Bristol; and also from the Thames to Orfordness. Several other plates of this work are now in hand, and that which contains the northern part of Hampshire will shortly be ready for publication.

By order of the Board,

R. H. Crew, Secretary.

SURREY AND SUSSEX TURNPIKES.

March 5, 1817.

NOTICE is hereby given, that the tolls arising at the toll gates upon the said turnpike-roads (weighing engines excepted), known by the names of Newington Gate, Camberwell Gate, Kennington-Common Gate, Vauxhall Gate, Kingston Gate, and Croydon Gate, and at the bars across the entrances into Harleyford-Street, on Kennington-Common, and Tiverton-Street, at Newington

Causeway, all in the county of Surrey, will be let by auction, on lease for the term of one year from the 24th day of June next, to the best bidder, at the Sessions House, Horsemonger-Lane, Newington, in the county of Surrey, on Thursday the 17th day of April next, between the hours of twelve and two, in the manner directed by the Act passed in the thirteenth year of the reign of His Majesty King George the Third, "For regulating the turnpike roads," which tolls were the last year let for the sum of £13,520, the lessee paying the expenses of collecting them; and the said tolls will be put up at that sum, and subject to such conditions as shall be then stated.

Whoever happens to be the best bidder must, at the same time, sign an agreement for taking such lease, and give security, with sufficient sureties, to the satisfaction of the Trustees of the said turnpike roads, for payment of the rent agreed for, by equal monthly payments. One month's payment is to be advanced and paid down to the Treasurer at the time of signing such agreement, and one month's payment is to be always paid in advance till the expiration of the said lease.

Samuel Welchman, Clerk to the Trustees of the said turnpike roads.

*.* For particulars relating to the lease, enquire of Mr. Welchman, No. 12, Stamford-Street, Christchurch, near Blackfriars-Bridge, Surrey.

WARWICKSHIRE MILITIA.

Notice is hereby given, that a general meeting of the Lieutenancy of the county of Warwick will be held at the Judge's House, in the borough of Warwick, on Wednesday the 16th day of April next, at eleven o'clock in the forenoon, for carrying into execution the laws relating to the militia in that part of Great Britain called England.—Dated the 28th day of March 1817.

By order of the Lieutenancy of the said county,
Tho. Wilmot, Clerk of the General Meetings.

Royal Hospital for Seamen at Greenwich,
September 25, 1816.

THE Commissioners and Governors of the said Hospital do hereby give notice, that, on Saturday the 12th day of April next, or as soon after as conveniently may be, the undermentioned farm will be let on lease, to commence on the 12th day of May next, for the term of ten years, that is to say, Thornbrough Town Farm, in the parish of Corbridge, in the county of Northumberland.

Such persons as may be desirous of taking the said farm, are requested to deliver or send their proposals, in writing, to John Dyer, Esq. at Greenwich-Hospital, so as that the delivery thereof at that place shall not be later than on Friday the 11th day of April next; and all such proposals as shall be received after that day will be returned as inadmissible.

Such alterations and additional buildings as may be thought essentially necessary by the receivers, and approved by the Directors of Greenwich-Hospital, will be made as soon as conveniently can be after the commencement of the term, the tenant being at the expence of leading all materials.

In the present and all future lettings by the Commissioners and Governors of Greenwich-Hospital, the tenants will be required to pay one moiety of the expence of the leases.

Mr. Anthony Wailes, of Bearl, will shew the farm; and Messrs. Forster and Wailes, upon being applied to at their Office in Newcastle-upon-Tyne, will give any further particulars which it may be necessary to require.

Office of Ordnance, March 25, 1817.

THE Principal Officers of His Majesty's Ordnance do hereby give notice, that proposals will be received at their Office in Pall-Mall, on or before Friday the 11th day of April next, from such persons as may be willing to undertake the supply of

for service of this Department, for a period of three years, determinable after the expiration of the first year, upon notice of three months, at the option of either party.

Patterns of the articles may be viewed upon application at the Principal Storekeeper's Office in the Tower; and farther particulars, together with the terms and conditions of the contract, may be known at the Secretary's Office, in Pall-Mall aforesaid, any day between the hours of ten and four o'clock; where the proposals must be delivered, sealed up, and indorsed "Proposals for Stoves, Ranges, &c.;" but no proposal can be admitted after the said 11th April, at twelve o'clock at noon of the same day; neither will any tender be noticed, unless the party making it, or an agent in his behalf, shall attend.

By order of the Board,

R. H. Crew, Secretary.

Office of Ordnance, March 25, 1817.

THE Principal Officers of His Majesty's Ordnance do hereby give notice, that proposals will be received at their Office in Pall-Mall, on or before Wednesday the 9th day of April next, from such persons as may be willing to undertake the supply of

for service of this Department, for a period of three years, determinable after the expiration of the first year, upon notice of three months, at the option of either party.

Patterns of the articles may be viewed upon application at the Principal Storekeeper's Office in the Tower; and farther particulars, together with the terms and conditions of the contract, may be known at the Secretary's Office, in Pall-Mall aforesaid, any day between the hours of ten and four o'clock; where the proposals must be delivered, sealed up, and indorsed "Proposals for Coppersmith's articles;" but no proposal can be admitted after the said 9th April, at twelve o'clock at noon of the same day; neither will any tender be noticed, unless the party making it, or an agent in his behalf, shall attend.

By order of the Board,

R. H. Crew, Secretary.

Office of Ordnance, March 25, 1817.

THE Principal Officers of His Majesty's Ordnance do hereby give notice, that proposals will be received at their Office in Pall-Mall, on or before Wednesday the 9th day of April next, from such persons as may be willing to undertake the supply of

for service of this Department, for a period of three years, determinable after the expiration of the first year, upon notice of three months, at the option of either party.

Patterns of the articles may be viewed upon application at the Principal Storekeeper's Office in the Tower, and to the respective Officers of the Ordnance in the Royal Arsenal, Woolwich; and further particulars, together with the terms and conditions of the contract, may be known at the Secretary's Office, in Pall-Mall aforesaid, any day between the hours of ten and four o'clock; where the proposals must be delivered, sealed up, and indorsed "Proposals for Feathers;" but no proposal can be admitted after the said 9th day of April next, at twelve o'clock at noon of the same day; neither will any tender be noticed, unless the party making it, or an agent in his behalf, shall attend.

By order of the Board,

CONTRACT FOR CANDLES.

Navy-Office, March 18, 1817.

THE Principal Officers and Commissioners of His Majesty's Navy do hereby give notice, that on Thursday the 10th of April next, at one o'clock, they will be ready to treat with such persons as may be willing to contract for supplying His Majesty's Yards at Portsmouth and Plymouth with Tallow Candles.

A sample of the candles, and a form of the tender, may be seen at this Office.

No tender will be received after one o'clock on the day of treaty, nor any noticed, unless the party, or an agent for him, attends.

Every tender must be accompanied by a letter addressed to the Navy Board, and signed by a responsible person, engaging to become bound with the person tendering, in the sum of £200, for the due performance of the contract.

R. A. Nelson, Secretary.

CONTRACT FOR WORKS AT HIS MAJESTY'S YARD AT SHEERNESS.

Navy-Office, January 27, 1817.

THE Principal Officers and Commissioners of His Majesty's Navy do hereby give notice, that on Wednesday the 9th of April next, at one o'clock, they will be ready to treat with such persons as may be willing to contract for performing the following works at His Majesty's Yard at Sheerness, viz.º

Digging the earth, piling foundations, laying cills and planking for the platform of the mast-lock, mast-pond, and mast-house walls, and for the tunnel belonging to the same, together with the brickwork and masonry of the same; and also for excavating the foundation of the basin wall, and piling and forming the platform, and executing the brickwork and masonry of the said basin wall; and for depositing earth and puddling all around and between the said walls.

Plans and specifications of the works, and a form of the tender, may be seen at this Office.

No tender will be received after one o'clock on the day of treaty, nor any noticed, unless the party, or an agent for him, attends.

Every tender must be accompanied by a letter, addressed to the Navy Board, and signed by two responsible persons, engaging to become bound with the person tendering, in the sum of £10,000, for the due performance of the contract.

R. A. Nelson, Secretary.

Navy-Office, March 15, 1817.

THE Principal Officers and Commissioners of His Majesty's Navy do hereby give notice, that on Thursday the 3d of April next, at two o'clock in the afternoon, they will put up to sale, at their Office in Somerset-Place, His Majesty's ships and vessels hereunder mentioned, and which are lying at the yards and place against the same expressed, viz.
