SATURDAY, MAY 16, 1818.

AT the Court at Carlton-House, the 6th of April 1818,

PRESENT,

His Royal Highness the PRINCE REGENT in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the last session of Parliament, cap. 57, intituled "An Act to empower His Majesty to suspend training, and to regulate the quotas of the militia," it is enacted, that it shall be lawful for His Majesty, by any Order or Orders in Council, to suspend the calling out of the militia of the United Kingdom, or any part of the United Kingdom, or of any county, riding, shire, stewartry, city, town, or place, for the purpose of being trained and exercised in any year, and to order and direct that no training or exercising of the militia of the United Kingdom, or of any county or counties, riding or ridings, shire or shires, stewartry or stewartries, city or cities, town or towns, or place or places, specified in any such Order or Orders in Council, shall take place in any year, any thing contained in any Act or Acts of Parliament relating to the militia, to the contrary notwithstanding: And whereas it is deemed expedient that such training and exercising should be dispensed with in the present year; it is ordered by His Royal Highness the Prince Regent, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, and by and with the advice of His Majesty's Privy Council, that the calling out of the militia of that part of the United Kingdom called Great Britain, for the purpose of being trained and exercised in the present year, be suspended, and that no training or exercising of the said militia do take place in the present year.

Chetwynd.

AT the Court at Brighton, the 30th day of December 1817,

PRESENT,

His Royal Highness the PRINCE REGENT in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the twenty-eighth year of the reign of His present Majesty, intituled "An Act for regulating the trade between the subjects of His Majesty's colonies and plantations in North America and in the West India Islands and the countries belonging to the United States of America, and between His Majesty's said subjects and the Foreign Islands in the West Indies," it is, amongst other things, enacted, that it shall and may be lawful for His Majesty in Council, by Order or Orders to be issued and published from time to time, to authorise, or by Warrant or Warrants under His sign manual, to empower the Governor of Newfoundland for the time being, to authorise, in case of necessity, the importation into Newfoundland of bread, flour, Indian corn, and live stock, from any of the territories belonging to the said United States, for the supply of the inhabitants and fishermen of the Island of Newfoundland, for the then ensuing season only; provided always, that such bread, flour, Indian corn, and live stock, so authorised to be imported into the Island of Newfoundland, shall not be imported except in conformity to such rules, regulations, and restrictions as shall be specified in such Order or Orders, Warrant or Warrants respectively, and except by British subjects, and in British-built ships, owned by His Majesty's subjects, and navigated according to law:

And whereas it is expedient and necessary, that provision be made for fully supplying the inhabitants and fishermen of the Island of Newfoundland, for the ensuing season, with bread, flour, Indian corn, and live stock, His Royal Highness the Prince Regent doth thereupon, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, and by and with the advice of His Majesty's Privy Council, hereby order and declare, that for the supply of the inhabitants and fishermen of the Island of Newfoundland, for the ensuing season only, bread, flour, Indian corn, and live stock, may be imported into the said island from any of the territories belonging to the said United States, by British subjects, and in British-built ships, owned by His Majesty's subjects, and navigated according to law, and which within the space of nine months previous to the time of such importation, have cleared out from some port of the United Kingdom of Great Britain or Ireland, or other His Majesty's dominions in Europe, for which purpose a licence shall have been granted by the Commissioners of His Majesty's Customs in England or Scotland, or the Commissioners of His Majesty's Revenue in Ireland, or any other person or persons who may be duly authorised in that kingdom respectively, in the manner and form herein-after mentioned; which licence shall continue and be in force for nine calendar months from the day of the date upon which such licence is respectively granted, and no longer; provided that no such licence as aforesaid, granted after the thirtieth day of September next, shall be of any force or effect: and His Royal Highness is hereby further pleased to order, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, and by and with the advice of His Majesty's Privy Council, that the master or person having the charge or command of any ship or vessel to whom such licence shall be granted, shall, upon the arrival of the said ship or vessel at the port, harbour, or place in the said Island of Newfoundland where he shall discharge such bread, flour, Indian corn, and live stock, deliver up the said licence to the Collector or other proper Officer of the Customs there, having first indorsed on the back of such licence the marks, numbers, and contents of each package of bread, flour, Indian corn, and the number of live stock, under the penalty of the forfeiture in the said Act mentioned; and the Collector or other proper Officer of the Customs at Newfoundland, is hereby enjoined and required to give a certificate to the master or person having the charge or command of such ship or vessel, of his having received the said licence so indorsed as before directed, and to transmit the same to the Commissioners of His Majesty's Customs in England or Scotland, or to the Commissioners of His Majesty's Revenue in Ireland respectively, by whom such licence was granted. Chetwynd.

FORM OF LICENCE.

By the Commissioners for managing and causing to be levied and collected His Majesty's Customs, Subsidies, and other Duties in [where].

WHEREAS [the name of the person] one of His Majesty's subjects, residing at [place where] hath given notice to us the Commissioners of His Majesty's Customs [in Great Britain, or Revenue in Ireland] that he intends to lade at [some port of the United States of America] and import into [some port of Newfoundland] in the [ship's name] being a British-built ship [describing the tonnage and what sort of vessel] navigated according to law, whereof [master's name] is master, bound to [where]; and it appearing by the register of the said ship [ship's name] whereof [master's name] is master, that the said ship, the [ship's name] was built at [place where] and owned by [owner's name] residing at [place where] all His Majesty's British subjects, and that no foreigner, directly or indirectly, hath any share, part, or interest therein.

Now be it known, that the said [person's name] hath a licence to lade on board the said ship, [ship's name] at and from any port or place belonging to the United States of America, bread, flour, Indian corn, or live stock, the produce of the said United States; and no other article whatever; and to carry the said bread, flour, Indian corn, and live stock, to some port or place in the Island of Newfoundland; and on the arrival of the said ship at any port, harbour, or place of discharge in Newfoundland, the master or person having the charge or command of the said ship, is required and enjoined to deliver up the said licence to the Collector or other proper Officer of His Majesty's Customs there, and to indorse on the back thereof the marks, numbers, and contents of each package of bread, flour, Indian corn, and the number of live stock, and shall thereupon receive a certificate thereof from the said Collector or other proper Officer of the Customs.

This licence to continue in force for calendar months from the date hereof.

Signed by us the _____ at the _____ this day of _____ one thousand eight hundred and _____ Whitehall, May 9, 1818.

WHEREAS it hath been humbly represented unto His Royal Highness the Prince Regent, that for some time past great dissensions have prevailed, and turbulent meetings have been held in the parish of Melcombe Regis, in the county of Dorset, respecting the election of a Mr. Mayne to be Lecturer in the Church of the said parish; and that on Sunday the 19th day of April last, a letter signed, "A Friend to the Church Rites," was addressed to the Rev. Thomas Deason, threatening death to the Rev. Thomas Wyndham, L.L.D. Rector of the said parish, if the said Mr. Mayne were not permitted to perform the evening service;

For the purpose of upholding the said Rector in the exercise of his undoubted rights, and of marking with the severest censure, dissensions so contrary to all true sense of Religion, and so subversive of Church discipline, and for bringing the author of the said letter to condign punishment, His Royal Highness is hereby pleased, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, to promise His Majesty's most gracious pardon to any person privy to the writing or sending the said letter, who shall discover the person or persons who actually wrote and sent the same, so that he, she, or they, may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

SIDMOUTH.

And as a further encouragement a reward of ONE HUNDRED GUINEAS is hereby offered by the said Rev. Thomas Wyndham, L.L.D. Rector of the said parish, to any person who shall give such information as shall lead to the conviction of the person or persons guilty of writing and sending the said letter.

Whitehall, April 18, 1818.

Whereas it hath been humbly represented unto His Royal Highness the Prince Regent, that several hovels, ricks, &c. hereafter particularized, have been, within the last five months, destroyed by fire, in the parish of Wellingborough, in the county of Northampton, and that there is every reason to suppose that the same have been occasioned by the acts of some evil disposed persons unknown, viz.

- A cattle hovel, the property of Charles Hill, Esq. on the 6th of November last;
- A cattle hovel, the property of S. Sharman, Esq. on the 19th of November last;
- A cattle hovel, the property of Mr. John Hardwick, on the 22d of December last;
- Two hay ricks, the property of Mr. Benjamin Gosley, on the 14th of January last;
- A clover rick, the property of G. Margetts, Esq. on the 17th of January last;
- A cattle hovel, the property of the Rev. J. Bodien, on the 9th of February last;
- A cattle hovel, the property of C. G. Thornton, Esq. and in the tenure of Mrs. Battams, on the 20th of February last;
- A hay rick, the property of Mrs. Battams, on the 13th of March last;
- A wheat hovel, the property of Mrs. Battams, on the 3d of April last, which from its contiguity to the town, endangered the lives and property of a great number of the inhabitants;

His Royal Highness, for the better apprehending and bringing to justice the person or persons concerned in the felonies above mentioned, is hereby pleased, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, to promise His Majesty's most gracious pardon to any one of them (except the person or persons who actually set fire to any of the property above mentioned), who shall discover his, her, or their accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

SIDMOUTH.

And as a further encouragement the rewards hereafter specified, viz.

For the discovery of the person or persons who set fire to,

A cattle hovel, the property of C. Hill, Esq.	£ 50
A cattle hovel, the property of S. Sharman, Esq.	60
A cattle hovel, the property of Mr. John Hardwick	50
Two hay ricks, the property of Mr. B. Gosley	100
A clover rick, the property of G. Margetts, Esq.	100
A cattle hovel, the property of the Rev. J. Bodien	40
A cattle hovel, the property of C. G. Thornton, Esq.	100
A hay rick, the property of Mrs. Battams	10
A wheat hovel, the property of Mrs. Battams	200

are hereby offered and guaranteed by the parish of

Wellingborough aforesaid, to any person or persons (except as before excepted), who shall discover the said offender or offenders, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted of any of the said offences.

Whitehall, April 14, 1818.

Whereas it hath been humbly represented unto His Royal Highness the Prince Regent, that, about one o'clock in the morning of Thursday the 2d instant, a stable, three lodges, and part of the dwelling-house belonging to Mr. Thomas Morgan, of the parish of Ightham, in the county of Kent, were feloniously set on fire, whereby the stable, with a horse in it, and the lodges were consumed, and the dwelling-house considerably damaged;

His Royal Highness, for the better apprehending and bringing to justice the person or persons concerned in the felony above mentioned, is hereby pleased, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, to promise His Majesty's most gracious pardon to any one of them (except the person who actually set fire to the said premises) who shall discover his, her, or their accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

SIDMOUTH.

And, as a further encouragement, a reward of FIFTY POUNDS is hereby offered to any person or persons (except as before excepted) who shall discover the said offender or offenders, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted of the said offence.—The said reward to be paid by Messrs. Reardon and Davis, Corbet-Court, Gracechurch-Street, London.

Whitehall, April 4, 1818.

Whereas it hath been humbly represented unto His Royal Highness the Prince Regent, that in the night of Thursday the 19th of March last an atrocious robbery was committed upon Richard Savory, the lock-keeper and collector of the City's tolls, at Teddington lock, by three men (from their language and manner supposed to be barge-men of the lowest class) who entered the toll-house, situate in the hamlet of Ham and Hatch, in the county of Surrey, one of them having previously induced him, under a false pretence, to open the door, violently beat and ill-treated him, and stole, took, and carried away about £17 in Bank notes and silver;

His Royal Highness, for the better apprehending and bringing to justice the persons concerned in the atrocious act above mentioned, is hereby pleased, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, to promise His Majesty's most gracious pardon to any one of them, who shall discover his or their accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

SIDMOUTH.

And, as a further encouragement, a reward of FIFTY POUNDS is hereby offered by the Committee for Improving the Navigation of the River Thames, to any person or persons who shall discover his or their accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof, or to any person or persons who shall apprehend and bring the said offenders to conviction, or cause them or any of them to be apprehended and convicted as aforesaid. The said reward to be paid on such conviction, by Mr. Stephen Leach, Clerk of the Works, at the City Navigation Barge, near Kew-Bridge.

Whitehall, March 30, 1818.

WHereas it hath been humbly represented unto His Royal Highness the Prince Regent, that some evil-disposed persons did, on the 8th day of February last, assemble in the yard adjoining the dwelling-house of Mr. Dyball, at Edgefield, in the county of Norfolk, and after having proceeded to break the lower windows of the house, they fired a gun or pistol, loaded with slugs and shot, into the bed-room of the said Mr. Dyball;

His Royal Highness, for the better apprehending and bringing to justice the persons concerned in the felony above mentioned, is hereby pleased, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, to promise His Majesty's most gracious pardon to any one of them (except the person who actually fired the said gun or pistol), who shall discover his, her, or their accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof. SIDMOUTH.

And, as a further encouragement, a reward of FIFTY POUNDS is hereby offered, by the parish of Edgefield, to any person or persons (except as before excepted) who shall discover the said offender or offenders, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted of the said offence, the said reward to be paid by Mr. Richard Funnell, of Stodey.

Whitehall, March 24, 1818.

WHereas it hath been humbly represented unto His Royal Highness the Prince Regent, that about five o'clock on the morning of Monday the 27th January last, the corn stacks, barn, stables, and other buildings belonging to Mr. John Barns, of Lessingham, in the county of Norfolk, were wilfully set on fire by some evil-disposed person or persons;

And whereas it hath also been humbly represented unto His Royal Highness, that between seven and eight o'clock on the evening of Wednesday the 28th January last, the straw stack belonging to Mr. Philip Betts, of Happisborough, in the said county, was wilfully set on fire by some evil-disposed person or persons;

His Royal Highness, for the better apprehending and bringing to justice the persons concerned in the said felonies, is hereby pleased, in the name and on the behalf of His Majesty, to promise His Majesty's most gracious pardon to any one of them (except the person or persons who actually set the said corn and straw stacks, &c. on fire) who shall discover his, her, or their accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

SIDMOUTH.

And, as a further encouragement, a reward of ONE HUNDRED POUNDS is hereby offered by the Gentlemen, owners and occupiers of land in the neighbourhood where the offences were committed, to any person or persons (except as is before excepted) who shall discover the said offender or offenders, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

CONTRACT FOR BUNTIN AND WORSTED.

Navy-Office, May 14, 1818:

THE Principal Officers and Commissioners of His Majesty's Navy do hereby give notice, that on Wednesday the 3d of June next, at one o'clock, they will be ready to treat with such persons as may be willing to contract for supplying His Majesty's several Dock-Yards with

'Buntin and Worsted.

Samples of the buntin and worsted, and a form of the tender, may be seen at this Office.

No tender will be received after one o'clock on the day of treaty, nor any noticed, unless the party, or an agent for him, attends.

Every tender must be accompanied by a letter addressed to the Navy Board, and signed by two responsible persons, engaging to become bound with the person tendering, in the sum of £2000, for the due performance of the contract.

J. W. Morton, for the Secretary.

Office of Ordnance, April 28, 1818.

THE Principal Officers of His Majesty's Ordnance do hereby give notice, that proposals will be received at their Office in Pall-Mall, on or before Monday the 18th day of May next, from such persons as may be willing to undertake the supply of

Bedding,

for service of this Department; for a period of three years, determinable after the expiration of the first year, upon notice of three months, at the option of either party.

Patterns of the articles may be viewed upon application at the Principal Storekeeper's Office in the Tower; and further particulars, together with the terms and conditions of the contract, may be known at the Secretary's Office, in Pall-Mall aforesaid, any day between the hours of ten and four o'clock; where the proposals must be delivered, sealed up, and indorsed "Proposals for Bedding;" but no proposal can be admitted after the said 18th of May, at twelve o'clock at noon of the same day; neither will any tender be noticed, unless the party making it, or an agent in his behalf, shall attend.

By order of the Board,

R. H. Crew, Secretary.

Office of Ordnance, May 13, 1818.

THE Principal Officers of His Majesty's Ordnance do hereby give notice, that proposals will be received at their Office in Pall-Mall, on or before Friday the 29th instant, from such persons as may be willing to undertake the supply of

Coals,

for service of this Department, for a period of one year from the 1st July next.

The coals must be of the description denominated Adair's Main or Eighton Moor, and will be required to be delivered, free of every expence except the King's duty, either on shore or into vessels or craft at any place in the River Thames and at Faversham, or at any port or place in the River Medway, as may be required.

Payment for the coals will be made by bill and debenture at the Tower, and not as heretofore by drafts on the Board.

Farther particulars, together with the terms and conditions of the contract, may be known at the Secretary's Office, in Pall-Mall aforesaid, any day between the hours of ten and four o'clock; where the proposals must be delivered, sealed up, and indorsed "Proposals for Coals;" but no proposal can be admitted after the said 29th instant, at twelve o'clock at noon of the same day; neither will any tender be noticed, unless the party making it, or an agent in his behalf, shall attend.

By order of the Board,
R. H. Crew, Secretary.

Office of Ordnance, May 13, 1818.

THE Principal Officers of His Majesty's Ordnance do hereby give notice, that they will sell by public auction, at the Tower, on Thursday the 28th instant, at eleven o'clock in the forenoon precisely, sundry lots of new, old, and unserviceable stores, consisting of Tarpaulins, blocks double and single, powder-horns and pieces, saddle-bags and pieces, bedding, sheeting and clothing, tents of sorts, standing vices, anvils and forges, swords, spears and steel rammers, old iron, steel and lead, together with a variety of other articles.

The whole of which may be viewed upon application at the Principal Storekeeper's Office in the Tower, until the day of sale; and where printed lists of the lots will be delivered to those persons who may apply for the same.

By order of the Board,
R. H. Crew, Secretary.

East India-House, May 13, 1818.

THE Court of Directors of the United Company of Merchants of England trading to the East Indies, do hereby give notice,

That the Committee of Buying and Warehouses will be ready to receive proposals in writing, sealed up, on or before Wednesday the 3d day of June next, from such persons as may be willing to supply the Company with

British Iron;

And that the conditions of the contract may be seen upon application to the Clerk to the said Committee, with whom the proposals must be left before eleven o'clock on the above-mentioned 3d of June, after which hour no tender will be received.

Joseph Dart, Assistant Secretary.

ANTIGUA.—IN CHANCERY.

Pursuant to decretal Order of the Honourable the Court of Chancery for this Island of Antigua, made on the 60th day of July in the present year of our Lord 1817, in a cause wherein John Harris, Esq. is complainant, and the Trustees and Executors of the last will and testament of the late Honourable Rowland Burton, of this Island, deceased, are defendants; all persons claiming to be of kindred and affinity to the said Rowland Burton, deceased, but in no degree beyond that of a second cousin, and in immediate paternal descent from his grandfather, who was called Colonel John Burton, the father of the testator's late father, Mr. Thomas Burton, are hereby required to come in and cause such their relationship to be duly established by legal proof before me, at my Office, in the Town of Saint John, in the said Island Antigua, within two years from the date of said Order, on failure whereof they will be deprived of all benefit and advantage to be derived from and under the last will and testament of the said Rowland Burton, deceased.

(Signed) J. WM. MOLLOY, Master Extraordinary in Chancery.

Whereas by a Decree of the High Court of Chancery, bearing date the 9th day of August 1817, wherein Thomas Banfield, on behalf of himself and all other the Creditors of Thomas Woollett, of Brook Farm, in the Parishes of Marden and Yalding, in the County of Kent, Farmer, is Plaintiff, and the said Thomas Woollett and others are Defendants, it was (int. al.) referred to Sir John Simeon, Bart. one of the Masters of the said Court, to take an account of what was due to the Plaintiff and all other the Creditors of the said Thomas Woollett, and in taking the said accounts the said Sir John Simeon was to distinguish such of the debts of the said Thomas Woollett as were contained in a schedule to a deed poll, dated the 31st day of May 1815, in the said decree mentioned, from those which were not contained in the said schedule; and also such of the debts of the said Thomas Woollett as were due from him previous to the execution of an indenture, dated the 25th day of March 1809, in the said decree also mentioned. Any person or persons claiming to be Creditors of the said Thomas Woollett, within the hereinbefore recited description, are, on or before the 1st day of June 1818, to come in and make out his, her, or their claim or claims as such Creditors, before the said Sir John Simeon, at his Chambers, in Southampton-Buildings, Chancery-Lane, London, or in default thereof he, she, or they will be peremptorily excluded the benefit of the said decree.

Whereas by a Decree of the High Court of Chancery, bearing date the 9th day of August 1817, wherein Thomas Banfield (on behalf of himself and all other the Creditors of Thomas Woollett, of Brook Farm, in the Parishes of Marden and Yalding, in the County of Kent, Farmer), is plaintiff, and the said Thomas Woollett and others are defendants, it was (int. al.) referred to Sir John Simeon, Bart. one of the Masters of the said Court, to inquire and state to the Court who was the heir at law of William Sowerby, late of Yoke's-Place, in the Parish of Mereworth, in the County of Kent, Gentleman, deceased (who died in or about the month of February 1817.—Any person claiming to be the heir at law of the said William Sowerby, deceased, is, on or before the 1st day of June 1818, to come in before the said Sir John Simeon, at his Chambers, in Southampton-Buildings, Chancery-Lane, London, and make out his kindred, or in default thereof he will be peremptorily excluded the benefit of the said Decree.

Whereas by an Order of the High Court of Chancery, made in a Cause Brewer against Beavitt, it is referred to John Campbell, Esq. one of the Masters of the said Court, to inquire and state to the Court who were the nephews and nieces of the testator, George Beavitt, living at the decease of the late plaintiff, Sarah Brewer, and if any of them is or are since dead, and who is or are their personal representative or representatives, and also to inquire whether any of the nephews and nieces of the said testator died in the lifetime of the late plaintiff, Sarah Brewer, and if any, whether they left any and what children who were living at her death.—Therefore the nephews and nieces of the said testator, George Beavitt, formerly of Brownlow-Street, Drury-Lane, in the County of Middlesex, Cabinet-Maker (who died in the month of March 1799), if living, or any person or persons claiming to be the personal representative or representatives of such of them as have died since the 5th day of March last, the time of the death of the said Sarah Brewer, and also any other person or persons claiming to be the child or children of the nephews and nieces of the said testator (who died in the lifetime of the said Sarah Brewer), are by their Solicitors forthwith to come in and prove their kindred or affinity to the said George Beavitt, or their representation to such nephews and nieces, before the said John Campbell, Esq. at his Office, in Southampton-Buildings, Chancery-Lane, London, or in default thereof they will be excluded the benefit of the said Order.

Pursuant to a Decree of the High Court of Chancery, bearing date the 7th of March 1818, made in a Cause wherein William Mortimer and others (on behalf of themselves and all other the simple contract Creditors of Charles Fitzmaurice Hill, late of Saint Boniface, in the Isle of Wight, in the County of Southampton, Esq. deceased), are plaintiffs, and Alexander Shearer and others are defendants, the Creditors of the said Charles Fitzmaurice Hill (who died in or about the month of June 1811), are forthwith to come in and prove their debts before Sir John Simeon, Bart. one of the Masters of the said Court, at his Chambers, in Southampton-Buildings, Chancery-Lane, London, or in default thereof they will be excluded the benefit of the said Decree.

Pursuant to a Decree of the High Court of Chancery, made in a Cause Georges against McLachlan, the Creditors of William Payne Georges the elder, formerly of Manchester-Square, in the County of Middlesex, Esq. deceased (who died in the month of March 1806), are by their Solicitors, on or before the 24th day of June next, to come in and prove their debts before John Campbell, Esq. one of the Masters of the said Court, at his Chambers, in Southampton-Buildings, Chancery-Lane, London, or in default thereof they will be peremptorily excluded the benefit of the said Decree.

Pursuant to a Decree of the High Court of Chancery, made in a Cause Mossel against Salomons, the Creditors of Morris Lemhan, late of the City of London, Merchant (who died on or about the 31st of August 1809), are forthwith to come in and prove their debts before Francis Paul Stratford, Esq. one of the Masters of the said Court, at his Chambers, in Southampton-Buildings, Chancery-Lane, London, or in default thereof they will be excluded the benefit of the said Decree.

THE Creditors who shall have on the 19th day of May instant, proved their Debts under a Commission of Bankrupt, awarded and issued forth against Robert Chambers Ball, of the City of Bristol, Baker, Dealer and Chapman, are requested to meet the Assignees, to be chosen of the estate and effects of the said Bankrupt, on the 22d day of May instant, at Eleven o'Clock in the Forenoon, at the Offices of Mr. Frankis, Solicitor, John-Street, Bristol, in order to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees selling or disposing by private contract, of the said Bankrupt's stock in trade, fixtures, household goods, and other effects, on such terms and conditions as the said Assignees may in their discretion think fit; and also to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees commencing, prosecuting, or defending any suit or suits at law or in equity, for the recovery of any part of the said Bankrupt's estate and effects; or to the compounding, submitting to arbitration, or otherwise agreeing any matter or thing relating thereto; and on other special affairs.

THE Creditors who have proved their Debts under a Commission of Bankrupt awarded and issued forth against William Deacon, of Parker-Row, Bermondsey, in the County of Surrey, Baker, Dealer and Chapman, are requested to meet the Assignees of the estate and effects of the said Bankrupt, on Monday the 18th day of May instant, at Two of the Clock in the Afternoon, at the Hanborough Coffee-House, Water-Lane, in the City of London, to assent to or dissent from one of the said Assignees being reimbursed and paid by and out of the proceeds of the estate and effects of the said William Deacon, the amount of flour and meal and other articles supplied by him, subsequent to striking the docket against the said William Deacon, for the purpose of keeping open the shop in which the said Bankrupt carried on his trade, and of keeping the trade together for the general benefit of the Creditors of the said Bankrupt; and also to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees resisting the proof of a debt claimed by John Deacon, the brother of the said Bankrupt, under the said Commission; and also of another debt claimed to be due upon the joint bond of the said Bankrupt and his brother the said John Deacon, and to the Assignees commencing and prosecuting any suit or suits in equity, and presenting any petition to the Lord High Chancellor for the purpose of trying and ascertaining the right of such claims respectively; and also to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees commencing, prosecuting, or defending any suit or suits at law or in equity, for the recovery of any part of the said Bankrupt's estate and effects; or to the compounding, submitting to arbitration, or otherwise agreeing any matter or thing relating thereto; and on other special affairs.

THE Creditors who have proved their Debts under a Commission of Bankrupt awarded and issued forth against John Goodchild the elder, of Low Pallion, in the County of Durham, John Jackson, and William Jackson, both now or late of Dowgate Wharf, in the City of London, John Goodchild the younger, of High Pallion, in the County of Durham, James Jackson, now or late of Eppleton, in the County of Durham, and Thomas Jones the elder, now or late of Greencroft, in the County of Durham, Bankers, Dealers and Chapmen, (carrying on trade at Bishop Wearmouth, in
