AT the Court at Brighton, the 31st of January 1823,

PRESENT,

of the authority vested in him by the Act first above recited, to order, and it is hereby ordered, that from and after the date of this Order, British vessels employed in the fisheries in the Greenland Seas and Davis's Streights, having on board one apprentice for every one hundred tons burthen of each vessel, every such apprentice not exceeding the age of twenty years, nor being under twelve years at the time he shall be indentured, shall be deemed properly fitted and qualified, with respect to the number and age of apprentices, to proceed on the said fisheries to the Greenland Seas and Davis's Streights, and to be entitled to the respective bounties granted by law for the encouragement of the said fisheries; provided that all the other provisions of the laws for regulating the said fisheries be duly complied with: And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury are to give the necessary directions herein accordingly.

East India-House, March 21, 1823.

THE Court of Directors of the United Company of Merchants of England trading to the East Indies, do hereby give notice, That a General Court of the said Company will be held at their House, in Leadenhall-Street, on Tuesday the 8th April next, from eleven o'clock in the forenoon until six in the evening, at the desire of the undermentioned Proprietors:

|                 |                  |
|-----------------|------------------|
| J. Baillie,     | John Plummer,    |
| David Lyon,     | Willm. Mitchell, |
| Neil Malcolm,   | Saml. Dixon,     |
| C. Robertson,   | Alexr. Grant,    |
| Rowd. Mitchell, | P. M. Lucas;     |

to ballot on the following question, viz.

“ That this Court is deeply impressed with the injustice and impolicy of the existing restrictions on the sugar trade of British India.

“ That these restrictions, while they operate most injuriously on the interests of the merchants, the ship owners, the sugar refiners, and the manufacturers of this country, as well as on those of the British community at large, are peculiarly oppressive and unjust towards our fellow-subjects in India, and highly detrimental to the interests of the East India Company, not only as a commercial body, but in connection with the prosperity of the dominions placed under their government.

“ That as the inhabitants of British India have the strongest claims on the protection of the East India Company, it is the duty of this Court to afford their energetic support to all measures that have a tendency to promote the prosperity of the vast population over whom they preside, and who are equally entitled with every other class of British subjects to the favourable consideration of the British Legislature.

“ That it appears to this Court, that since the repeal, by the Acts of last session of Parliament, of the restrictions formerly imposed on the West India trade, no pretension exists for any exclusive protection to the sugars of the West India colonies against those of British India.

“ That as the present unequal duties on the sugars of the East and West Indies terminate in March 1824, this Court do earnestly recommend to the immediate attention of the Court of Directors, the necessity of using their strenuous efforts with His Majesty's Ministers to obtain an equalization of the said duties.

“ That should these efforts prove unsuccessful, contrary to the just expectations of this Court, the Court of Directors be requested and enjoined to present petitions, in the name and on behalf of the East India Company, to both Houses of Parliament, praying for an equalization of the duties on East and West India sugars, and for permission to be heard by counsel before the two Houses of Parliament respectively, in support of their claims.”
