

The London Gazette.

Published by Authority.

From Monday August 6, to Thursday August 9. 1683.

Whitehall, August 8.

The following Addresses having been presented to His Majesty, His Majesty was pleased to receive them very graciously.

To the King's Most Excellent Majesty.

The humble Address of the Deputy Lieutenants, Justices of the Peace, and Officers of the Militia, and other the Gentlemen of the County of Glamorgan

Dread Sovereign,

WE Your Majesty's most Loyal and Dutiful Subjects; Having not without Horror and Amazement heard of the Bloody and Monstrous Conspiracy against the Lives of Your Sacred Majesty and Dearest Brother, the Illustrious James Duke of York, Do in most Humble manner, and with fervent Hearts, bless God for the Miraculous Deliverance; which He most graciously vouchsafed to Your Royal Person, and his Highness Your Brother the Duke, from the Merciless Hands of those Barbarous Miscreants, who stick not at any thing to Involve Your Kingdoms in Blood and Confusion, a Design so Nefarious and Execrable, as must create an Abhorrence in all Men professing Humanity; Much more in us, who have ever Detested the infamous Sin of Rebellion; and as next under God, we owe our Lives and Security to Your Princely Wisdom and Conduct, in Detecting this most Horrid Conspiracy, so shall our Lives and Fortunes be ever employed to defend Your Majesty's Person, Your Heirs and Lawful Successors, and the Government in Church and State, as now Established by Law against all Traiterous Attempts and Conspiracies whatsoever. And this we do declare from the bottom of our Hearts, to be no less the sincere Resolution than the unquestionable Duty of,

Great Sir,
Your Majesty's most Loyal and Dutiful Subjects and servants.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty,

The most humble Address of Your Majesty's most Dutiful and Loyal Subjects, the Justices of the Peace, the Grand Jury, and other Your Majesty's loving Subjects, met at the General Quarter Sessions of the Peace holden at Monmouth, upon Thursday the Twelfth day of July, Anno Dom. 1683.

Most Dread Sovereign,

With all Duty and Loyalty we lay our selves at Your Majesty's Feet, and with Hearts full of most passionate Affection and unspeakable Joy, do Congratulate Your safe Delivery, and Miraculous Preservation from the late Cursed Conspiracy to take away the Life of Your Sacred Majesty, and also of Your Dear Brother his Royal Highness the Duke of York.

We give Thanks to God with all our souls for His endless Mercy shewed not only to Your Majesty and his Royal Highness, but also all Your good Subjects (whose Lives and Properties depend upon the Preservation of Your Majesty and Royal Family) in discovering this Diabolical Plot, which we cannot without Horror behold upon; Especially when we consider, that some of the Men concerned in it, have already been Pardoned, either for acting immediately in it themselves, or siding with those that did Murder Your Father (of Blessed Memory) whereby it appears they have made Shipwreck, not only of all Religion, but even Morality itself, and are proof against all Obligations and Mercy.

What advantage have they given to the Enemies of the Protestant Religion to triumph? A Reproach they are not only to Christianity, but even to Humanity. What greater Guilt could the most Unsanctified Infidel be guilty of, than the shedding the Blood of his Lawful Prince, and exposing all his fellow Subjects to Ruine?

How have they broke through the Laws of God, of Man, and of Nature, to act such Horrid Villanies under the Spectious Pretext of Religion?

How plainly does it appear, That the thirst of these Mens Ambition and Covetousness, nothing can quench, but the Blood of their Lawful Sovereign, and the utter Extermination of Your Royal Family, and with it the Peace and Well-fare of all these Nations?

Which Devilish Practices we most humbly assure Your Majesty, we will oppose to the last Extremity of our Lives and Fortunes. And that God may always preserve Your Sacred Person and Royal Family from the dark Designs of ungodly and wicked Men, and detect all their Hellish Contrivances, and bring them all to that just Punishment that the Laws have provided for all those that delight in Blood and Rebellion, shall be the never ceasing Prayers of, may it please Your most Excellent Majesty,

Your Majesty's most Dutiful and Loyal Subjects.

The humble Address of the Deputy-Lieutenants, Justices of the Peace, and others the Gentlemen of Your Majesty's County of Carmarthen, on Tuesday the Tenth day of July, 1683.

To the King's Most Excellent Majesty.

WE Your Majesties most faithfully devoted Subjects have (not without Anguish and Horror, not without Detestation and Abhorment) resented the late execrable Combination against Your Sacred Majesty, and His Royal Highness; so mischievously designed, and by so signal a Providence defeated before discover'd; which if effected, had dispersed a National Destruction, pernicious to all Sacred and Secular Interests, and rendred your Majesties Kingdoms, Fields of Blood and Confusion.

With hearts replenish'd with Loyalty, in an Exrasic of Joy and Gratitude, we acknowledge and admire the Divine Providence exerted in this preservation, after other continued Mercies, even Miracles of Deliverances vouchsafed from Heaven against the Contrivances of Hell.

Though at a remote distance from your Majesties Court, yet we are deeply apprehensive of the Confluences of Blessings, which in an uninterrupted Tranquillity and Safety we enjoy under God, by your Majesties (his Vicegerent) propitious Legal Government, and the Influences of your most Serene Gracious Protection. We cannot wave this opportunity to declare and reiterate our former sincere fix'd Resolutions to sacrifice our Lives and Fortunes in the Defence of your Majesties Person, Crown and Dignity. And of your Heirs and Lawful Successors, (without Equivocation or Collusion) against all Traiterous Conspiracies, and Seditious Attempts of Men of restless turbulent Spirits, under what vail and disguise of Liberty, or under what Paint and varnish of Religion soever, whether the Progeny of the Conclave, or of the Conventicle;

That the great God who hath hitherto been your Majesties strong Tower and Rock of Defense, may so continue for the future; And that the Weapon formed against your Majesty