

late reign, we desire humbly to present our most sincere and lively congratulations on your Majesty's accession; and it is with feelings of bright hope and confident anticipation, that we contemplate the future prospects of the Empire, when we behold the Throne filled by a Sovereign who was educated in attachment to our civil and religious rights, who has fought the battles of our country, and who was trained in a service on which our national glory and commercial prosperity essentially depend.

Deign to accept, Most Gracious Sire, our ardent wishes that it may please Almighty God long to preserve the sacred person of your Majesty, and of our Most Gracious Queen; and that your Majesty's reign may be long and prosperous, and be ever attended with the grateful feelings of a brave and loyal people.

Signed in our name, and by our appointment, by the Right Honourable the Earl of Hopetoun, our Preses, at Linlithgow, this 15th day of October, 1830 years. Hopetoun.

[Transmitted by the Earl of Hopetoun.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

May it please your Majesty,

WE, your Majesty's loyal and dutiful subjects, the Nobility, Clergy, Gentry, and Inhabitants of the County of Glamorgan, at a county meeting assembled, beg leave humbly to approach your Majesty to offer our heartfelt condolence on the death of your Majesty's Royal Brother, our late Most Gracious Sovereign; but whilst, in common with all your Majesty's subjects, we lament the deprivation we have sustained, we feel grateful to Providence that the sceptre has passed into the hands of a Sovereign whose truly British feeling and devoted attachment to those principles that placed the House of Brunswick on the Throne of these Realms, give to his loyal and dutiful subjects the surest pledge, that, whilst he knows how to maintain the just prerogative of the Crown, he will no less respect and uphold the rights and liberties of the people; and thus, by reigning in their hearts, insure to them a freedom from those political convulsions that now so awfully afflict surrounding nations.

In congratulating your Majesty on your accession to the Throne, we beg to assure you of our firm determination at all times to rally round that Throne in support of our happy and glorious Constitution; and it is our ardent prayer to the Allwise Disposer of human events, that He may bless your Majesty, and your illustrious Consort, with a long, prosperous, and happy reign.

On behalf of the Nobility, Clergy, Gentry, and Inhabitants of the County of Glamorgan.

W. Williams, Sheriff.
