The Sovereign and His Royal Highness the Prince Albert having passed from the Royal Apartments to the Throne-room, the Knights Companions were then conducted to the Grand Reception-room, where, shortly after two o'clock, they were called over by Deputy Garter, and, with the Officers of the Order, proceeded into the presence of the Sovereign in the Throne-room.

The Sovereign being seated in a chair of state, and His Royal Highness the Prince Albert having taken his seat at the table on the right hand of Her Majesty, and the Knights Companions having taken their respective places at the table, the Chancellor of the Order, standing in his place on the left hand of Her Majesty, signified to the Chapter the Sovereign's royal will and pleasure that a lineal descendant of His Majesty King George the First should be elected in the said Most Noble Order.

The Knights Companions then proceeded to the election; and the suffrages having been collected by the Chancellor, were by His Lordship presented to the Sovereign, who was pleased to command him to declare, and he accordingly declared, that HIS MAJESTY FREDERICK-WILLIAM THE FOURTH, KING OF PRUSSIA, had been duly elected a Knight of the Most Noble Order of the Garter.

On entering the Chapter-room, His Majesty was received by the Sovereign and the Knights Companions standing, and seated in a chair of state on the right hand of the Sovereign.

May it please your Majesty,

WE, the Lord Mayor, Aldermen, and Commons of the city of London, in Common Council assembled, approach your Majesty to offer our sincere congratulations to your Majesty on your Majesty's auspicious visit to our beloved and gracious Sovereign the Queen.

Deeply interested in every event which affects the domestic happiness of our beloved Queen and Her Royal Consort, we hail, with the greatest pleasure and satisfaction, your Majesty's presence as one of the Sponsors to a Prince, who, we trust, will, in the fulness of time, ascend the Throne of these realms, the protector of the religion and liberties of this nation.

Permit us, Sir, to express our earnest wishes that your Majesty's presence in this country may tend to increase and perpetuate a friendship and alliance so essential to the Protestant interest, and eminently calculated to promote the liberties, the happiness, and prosperity of the British and Prussian nations.

Signed by order of Court,
Henry Woodthorpe.

To which Address His Majesty was pleased to return the following most gracious answer :

“ Lord Mayor and Gentlemen,

“ I thank you most warmly for the interest you take in my arrival in this country.

“ I have seized, with particular pleasure, the opportunity which the kind invitation of the Queen has afforded me of showing the high regard and sincere friendship I feel for your justly beloved Sovereign, and of being one of the Sponsors to the Royal Infant, whom I pray God may bless.

“ It will be to me a source of high gratification to find that my visit to this country may contribute to increase and perpetuate the friendly relations so happily existing between the two countries, relations so important for the maintenance and development of all the blessings of peace, and for the furthering of that civilization which is founded upon Christian piety and virtue.

“ I am glad to have had this opportunity of expressing these my feelings to the Lord Mayor, Aldermen, and Commons of the city of London.”
