

Notice is hereby, therefore, given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament in the present session, for powers to be inserted in the said Bill, so pending as aforesaid, to enable the Ipswich and Bury St. Edmund's Railway Company to make a deviation or alteration in the line of the said branch railway to Newmarket, commencing at or near a certain field, in the parish of Kentford, and numbered 5 and 9 on the plans deposited as aforesaid, passing thence from, in, through, or into the several parishes, townships, and extra-parochial places of Kentford and Moulton, in the county of Suffolk, and Ashley-cum-Sylverley, Cheveley, and Wood Ditton, in the county of Cambridge, and terminating by a junction with the line of a proposed railway from Chesterford to Newmarket, in or near a certain field, in the parish of Wood Ditton, numbered 44 and 45, or one of them, on the said plans; and to abandon so much of the line of the said branch, as delineated upon the said plans, as by reason of the said proposed deviation and alteration will be rendered useless.

And notice is also given, that, on or before the twentieth day of May instant, plans and sections, shewing the line and levels of the said proposed deviation or alteration, together with a book of reference to such plan, containing the names of the owners or reputed owners, lessees or reputed lessees, and occupiers of the lands through which such deviations or alterations will pass, will be deposited, for public inspection, with the several Clerks of the Peace for the counties of Suffolk and Cambridge, and the isle of Ely, in the said county of Cambridge; and that a copy of so much of the said plan, section, and book of reference, as relates to each parish in or through which such deviation or alteration is intended to pass, will be deposited, for public inspection, on or before the same period, with the clerk of each such parish.

Dated this 14th day of May 1846.
