INCOME TAX.

*Inland Revenue, Somerset House,
London, August 18, 1854.*

WHEREAS it is enacted, that all persons intrusted with the payment of annuities or any dividends or shares of annuities payable out of the public revenue of any colony or settlement belonging to the Crown of the United Kingdom to any persons, corporations, or companies in this country, or acting therein as agents or in any other character, shall, without further notice or demand thereof, deliver or cause to be delivered into the Head Office of Inland Revenue in England, an account in writing containing their names and residences and a description of the annuities, dividends, and shares intrusted to them for payment, within one calendar month after the same shall have been required by public notice in the London Gazette, in order that an assessment to the income tax may be made thereon. And whereas there is a similar enactment in regard to annuities or dividends or shares of annuities payable in the United Kingdom out of the revenue of any foreign state, as well as to all interest, dividends, or other annual payments payable out of or in respect of the stocks, funds, or shares of any foreign company, society, adventure, or concern, or in respect of any securities given by or on account of any such company, &c.

Her Majesty's Commissioners of Inland Revenue do hereby give notice to all persons intrusted with the payment of any annuities, dividends, or shares of annuities, or interest, or other annual payments as above stated, that the accounts of the said annuities, &c., required by law for the year 1854, ending the 5th of April, 1855, are to be delivered in writing into the Office of Inland Revenue, at Somerset House, in the county of Middlesex, addressed to the Secretary to the Commissioners of Inland Revenue, within the space of one calendar month from the date hereof; and that any person who shall neglect or refuse to deliver such account is made subject to the forfeiture of one hundred pounds, over and above the duty chargeable on such annuities, shares, or dividends, &c.

By order of the Board,
Thomas Keogh, Secretary.

Mersey Conservancy Notice.

To George Evans, Esq., Captain in Her Majesty's Navy, Acting Conservator for the River Mersey.

IN accordance with the provisions of an Act of Parliament, made and passed in the fifth year of the reign of Her present Majesty, intituled "An Act for better preserving the navigation of the River Mersey," the Commissioners acting in the execution of the several Acts of Parliament for the improvement of the townships of Birkenhead and Claughton cum Grange, in the county of Chester, and Eliza Partridge Price, of Came House, in the county of Dorset, Widow, do hereby give you notice, that the said Commissioners and the said Eliza Partridge Price, propose to make, construct, and erect quays, wharves, breasts, and embankments, in or adjoining to the River Mersey, and which will extend beyond the line of the high water mark of a tide, uninfluenced by the wind, of the height of twenty-one feet, as measured from the top of the cill of the gates of the old dock in Liverpool, being the datum in the said Act mentioned; and that such quays, wharves, breasts, and embankments, are intended to be made, constructed, and erected in front of land and premises situate in that part of the township of Birkenhead, in the county of Chester, which lies on the south side of a certain place in the said township, called Woodside Ferry, between the Woodside Ferry Pier and land belonging to the corporation of Liverpool, in a straight line or nearly so, from north to south, between the said places, and in length three hundred and sixty feet or thereabouts, and extending into the said River Mersey, beyond the line of high water mark of a tide of twenty-one feet, uninfluenced as aforesaid and measured as aforesaid, three hundred and five feet or thereabouts, in the widest part thereof, and two hundred and ten feet or thereabouts in the narrowest part thereof, such difference of width arising from the irregularities of the present line of high water mark; and further, that the front of such quays, wharves, breasts, and embankments to the said river, are proposed to be stone walls, the backs thereof being filled and levelled up with rock stones, earth, and other proper materials and the object thereto, is to provide wharves and landing places for the accommodation of the said ferry, and conveniences for the repairing of ships and other purposes, and to construct a graving dock, with an entrance thereto from the said River Mersey, through and across the said quays, wharves, breasts, and embankments; and that the said Commissioners and Eliza Partridge Price, intend to commence the erection and construction of the said works, at the expiration of two calendar months from the time at which this notice shall be sent to you, or at such earlier period as under the provisions of the said Act may be authorized.—Dated this first day of August, one thousand eight hundred and fifty four.

Ambrose Waln, Clerk of the Birkenhead Improvement Commissioners.

To George Evans, Esquire, Captain in Her Majesty's Navy, Acting Conservator of the River Mersey; to the Clerk of the Peace for the county of Lancaster; to the Clerk of the Peace for the county of Chester; and to the Clerk of the Peace for the borough of Liverpool.

NOTICE is hereby given, in terms of the Act 7th Will. 4, and 1st Vict. cap. 73, sec. 32, that an application has been made to Her Majesty, to grant a Charter of Incorporation, for incorporating a Company, to be called "The Colonial Fibre Company," for the purpose of purchasing estates, and purchasing and cultivating numerous varieties of fibrous plants grown in Her Majesty's colonies and plantations abroad, and in the territories of the East India Company, and of obtaining the fibres therefrom, and for converting the same into marketable products, adapted for various textile purposes, and for the use of rope-makers and paper-makers, and for selling the same in any convenient market; and that the said application has been referred by Her Majesty in Council to the Committee of Privy Council for Trade and Plantations.
