

within the said borough, and praying that powers may be vested in the said Town Council for providing requisite places of burial for the inhabitants of the said parishes or townships, under the above first-recited Act;

And whereas notice of such petition, and of the time when Her Majesty was pleased to order that the same should be taken into consideration by Her Privy Council, has been duly published as required by the above said first-recited Act;

Now, therefore, Her Majesty is pleased, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, to order, and it is hereby ordered, that powers be vested in the Town Council of the borough of Warrington for providing requisite places of burial for the inhabitants of the parishes or townships of Warrington, Latchford and Thelwall, being partly within the said borough, under the provisions of the said Act, passed in the last session of Parliament, intituled "An Act to make further provision for the burial of the dead in England beyond the limits of the metropolis."

AT the Court at Windsor, the 27th day of November, 1854,

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the session of Parliament held in the seventeenth and eighteenth years of Her Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to amend the laws concerning the burial of the dead in England, beyond the limits of the metropolis, and to amend the Act concerning the burial of the dead in the metropolis;" it is, amongst other things, enacted, that in case it appears to Her Majesty in Council, upon the representation of one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, that, for the protection of the public health, burials in any city or town, or within any other limits, or in any burial-ground or places of burial, should be wholly discontinued, or should be discontinued subject to any exception or qualification; it shall be lawful for Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, to order that after a time mentioned in the Order, burials in such city or town, or within such limits, or in such burial-grounds or places of burial, shall be discontinued wholly, or subject to any exceptions or qualifications mentioned in such Order, and so from time to time as circumstances may require;

And whereas Her Majesty was pleased, by Her Orders in Council of the seventh April and eighth June last, to direct that burials should be discontinued in the churchyard and burial-grounds hereinafter mentioned;

And whereas the Right Honourable Viscount Palmerston, one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, has represented that he is of opinion that the time for closing the said churchyard and burial-grounds may be extended;

Now, therefore, Her Majesty, having taken the said representations into consideration, is pleased, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, to order, and it is hereby ordered, that burials be discontinued in the undermentioned burial-grounds, as follows; viz.:

In the Churchyard of New Brentford, wholly from and after the thirty-first of March, instead of from the first of January, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-five.

In the burial-grounds of St. Mary's parish, of St. Clement near the Croft, and of Croft Chapel, all in Hastings, to be discontinued from and after the first of May, instead of from the first of January, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-five.

In the burial-ground of the Wesleyan Chapel, in the parish of St. Mary Magdalene, in St. Leonard's, Sussex, to be discontinued from and after the first of May, instead of from the first of January, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-five.

And whereas Her Majesty was pleased, by Her Order in Council of the eighteenth of October last, to direct that burials be discontinued in Padiham Churchyard, except in nine vaults therein mentioned; it is hereby ordered, on a petition of Viscount Palmerston, one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, that Mrs. Stockport's vault, in the said churchyard, be added to the list of vaults so excepted; and that such vault may be used till it is full, but only by members of the family to which it now belongs, leaden coffins being used, covered in with concrete or masonry.

C. C. Greville.

AT the Court at Windsor, the 27th day of November, 1854,

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Right Honourable Sir George Grey, Baronet, one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, after giving to the Incumbents and the Churchwardens of the parishes hereinafter mentioned ten days' previous notice of his intention to make such representation, has under the provisions of an Act, passed in the session of Parliament, held in the sixteenth and seventeenth years of Her Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to amend the laws concerning the burial of the dead in England beyond the limits of the metropolis, and to amend the Act concerning the burial of the dead in the metropolis," made a representation stating that, for the protection of the public health, burials should be discontinued in the following churches in the city of BRISTOL, viz.:

The Cathedral, St. George Brandon Hill, St. Barnabas, St. Augustine, All Saints, St. Andrew Montpelier, St. Thomas, St. Simon, St. Stephen, St. Philip and St. Jacob, St. Peter, St. Paul, Weir St. Matthias, St. Jude, St. James, St. Luke, St. Mary-le-Port, St. Michael Trinity, St. Werburgh, St. Matthew Kingsdown, St. John with St. Laurence, St. Nicholas with St. Leonard, St. Mary Redcliffe, Christ Church with St. Ewins, and in the Temple Church.

Now, therefore, Her Majesty in Council is pleased hereby to give notice of such representation, and to order that the same be taken into consideration by a Committee of the Lords of Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council, on the thirteenth day of January next.

And Her Majesty is further pleased to direct that this Order be forthwith published in the London Gazette; and that copies thereof be affixed on the doors of the churches or chapels of, or on some conspicuous places within, the parishes affected by such representation, one month before the said thirteenth day of January.

C. C. Greville.
