War-Department, October 2, 1855.

LORD PANMURE has this day received a Despatch and its Enclosures, of which the following are copies, addressed to his Lordship by General Simpson.

*Sevastopol,
September 18, 1855.*

MY LORD,

I HAVE much satisfaction in laying before your Lordship the accompanying copy of a letter I have received from Marshal Pelissier, bearing testimony to the services of Major-General Rose, and Lieutenant-Colonel the Honourable St. George Foley, who are attached to the Head-Quarters of the French Army, and I beg to recommend these Officers most favourably to your Lordship's notice.

I avail myself of this opportunity to bring before you the name of Lieutenant-Colonel d'Etat-Major de Susseau, who succeeded the late Lieutenant-Colonel Vico at my Head-Quarters.

He is unremitting in his attention, and performs all the duties I have required of him with a zeal, intelligence, and cheerfulness that merit my warmest thanks.

I have, &c.,

(Signed) JAMES SIMPSON,
General Commanding.

The Lord Panmure, &c. &c. &c.

Enclosure 1.

*Quartier-Général,
le 14 Septembre, 1855.*

MONSIEUR LE GÉNÉRAL EN CHEF,

J'AI pensé qu'au moment où Sébastopol venait de tomber sous les coups des Armées Alliées, il était de mon devoir de signaler à mon Gouvernement les excellents services que n'ont cessé de rendre les Officiers Anglais qui sont attachés à mon Quartier Général, comme Commissaires de S. M. la Reine.

La lettre, dont la copie est ci-jointe, vous permettra d'apprécier dans quels termes j'ai cru devoir faire cette démarche qui, je l'espère, atteindra le but que je me propose, si vous voulez bien surtout, joindre vos efforts aux miens, pour faire obtenir à ces deux Officiers, les récompenses dont ils sont dignes à tous égards.

Veuillez agréer, &c.

LE MARECHAL A. PELISSIER.

l'Armée Anglaise.*

Enclosure 2.

*Au Quartier Général,
le 12 Septembre, 1855.*

MONSIEUR LE MARÉCHAL,

J'AI déjà eu l'occasion ainsi que mes prédécesseurs de recourir à votre bienveillante intervention pour faire ressortir auprès du Gouvernement Britannique, les services incessants et fort utiles que n'ont cessé de rendre depuis le commencement de cette guerre, M.M. le Major-Général Hugh Rose et le Lieutenant-Colonel S. Georges Foley, tous deux Commissaires de S. M. la Reine auprès du Quartier Général Français.

Dans les journées des 7 et 18 Juin, du 16 Août, et notamment, le 8 Septembre, ces deux Officiers se sont multipliés pour maintenir en communication verbale et constante les deux Armées; et dans ce but, ils ont eu souvent à remplir les missions les plus périlleuses.

Je n'ai pas besoin de dire ici comment ils se sont acquittés de ces devoirs militaires, ce serait superflu.

La prise de Sébastopol est une circonstance trop heureuse, pour que je ne vous prie pas de nouveau, de faire parvenir au Gouvernement Anglais, l'expression de mon estime envers ces deux Officiers, et de mon désir de les voir obtenir l'un et l'autre, les récompenses qu'ils ont si dignement méritées.

Je serais donc très-heureux, Monsieur le Maréchal, que vous voulussiez bien donner à cette nouvelle démarche de ma part, la suite que vous croirez la plus utile aux intérêts de ces deux Officiers.

Veuillez agréer, &c.,

Admiralty, October 1, 1855.

A DESPATCH, of which the following is a copy, has been received from Rear-Admiral Sir Edmund Lyons, Bart., G.C.B., Commander-in-Chief of Her Majesty's Ships and Vessels in the Mediterranean and Black Sea.

EMBARKATION OF NAVAL BRIGADE.

*Royal Albert, off Sevastopol,
September 18, 1855.*

SIR,

I HAVE the honour to enclose, for the information of the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty, a printed copy of a General Order which has been issued to the Army on the re-embarkation of the Royal Naval Brigade.

I am, &c.,

ED. LYONS,

Rear-Admiral and Commander-in-Chief.

The Secretary of the Admiralty.

GENERAL ORDER.

*Head Quarters, Sevastopol,
September 17, 1855.*

No. 1. The service for which the Naval Brigade was attached to this Army having been completed by the fall of Sevastopol, the Force has been ordered to rejoin the Fleet.

The Commander of the Forces heartily thanks the Officers, Petty Officers, and Seamen, for the very efficient services they have rendered in the batteries, and on all occasions when their aid against the enemy was required; and he has to notice the patience and courage with which, side by side with the Soldiers of this Army, they have endured the dangers and hardships of nearly a year's duty in the trenches.

General Simpson cordially acknowledges the obligations he is under to Rear-Admiral Sir Stephen Lushington, K.C.B., who so ably commanded the Brigade, from its formation until his removal by promotion to a higher rank, and to Captain Honourable H. Keppel, R.N., who succeeded him, and retained the command until the conclusion of this ever-memorable siege.

By order,

(Signed) H. W. BARNARD,
Chief of the Staff.

AT the Court at Balmoral, the 24th day of September, 1855.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the session of Parliament held in the sixth and seventh years of the reign of His late Majesty King William the Fourth, intituled "An Act for rendering more easy the taking the poll at county elections," it is enacted that it shall be lawful for His Majesty, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, from time to time, on petition from the justices of any county, riding, parts, or division in England or Wales, in quarter sessions assembled, representing that the number of polling places for such county, riding, parts, or division, is insufficient, and praying that the place or places mentioned in the said petition may be a polling place or polling places for the county, riding, parts, or division, of the county within which such place or places is or are situate, to declare that any place or places mentioned in the said petition shall be a polling place or polling places for that county, riding, parts or division, and that the justices of the peace for such county, riding, parts, or division, in quarter sessions, or some special sessions assembled, as mentioned in the Act passed in the Third year of the reign of His said late Majesty, intituled "An Act to settle and determine the divisions of counties and the limits of cities and boroughs in England and Wales, in so far as respects the election of Members to serve in Parliament," shall, conformably to the said last-mentioned Act, divide such county, riding, parts, or division, into convenient polling districts, and assign one of such districts to each polling place:

And whereas by another Act, passed in the session of Parliament, held in the sixteenth and seventeenth years of Her Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to limit the time for proceeding to election in counties and boroughs in England and Wales, and for polling at elections for the Universities of Oxford and Cambridge, and for other purposes;" it is enacted, that it shall be lawful for Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, from time to time, hereafter, on petition from the justices in quarter sessions assembled of any county, riding, parts, or division of any county, other than any county of a city, or of a town in England and Wales, representing that it would be expedient that any polling place or places mentioned in the said petition should cease to be such, and that any other place or places mentioned in the said petition should be substituted in lieu thereof, and praying that such alteration and substitution might be made to declare that the said alteration and substitution shall be made in respect of all or any of the places mentioned in the said petition; and the said declaration shall be certified under the hand of one of the clerks in ordinary of Her Majesty's Privy Council, and when so certified shall be published in the London Gazette, and shall then be of the same force and effect as if the same had been expressly made by authority of Parliament;

And whereas the justices of the peace for the county of Stafford, in general quarter sessions assembled, on the second day of July last, have presented a petition to Her Majesty in Council representing that the number of polling places for the northern division of the said county, is insufficient, and that it is expedient that the town or place of Lane End, one of the existing polling places for the said northern division, should cease to be such, and praying that the said town or place of Lane End may cease to be a polling place for the said northern division, and that in lieu thereof the several parishes, townships, or places of Alrewas, Ashley, Audley, Biddulph, Longnor, and Waterhouse in the parish of Waterfall, all situate within the said northern division, may be polling places for the said northern division;

Now, therefore, Her Majesty having taken the said petition into consideration, doth, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, declare, order, and direct, and it is hereby declared, ordered, and directed that the town or place of Lane End shall cease to be a polling place for the northern division of the county of Stafford, and that in lieu thereof, the parishes, townships, or places of Alrewas, Ashley, Audley, Biddulph, Longnor, and Waterhouse in the parish of Waterfall, shall be polling places for the said northern division of the county of Stafford; and further, that the justices of the peace for the said county, in quarter sessions, or some special sessions assembled, as mentioned in the said Act, of the third year of His said late Majesty, shall, conformably to the said Act, divide the said northern division into convenient polling districts, and assign one of such districts to each polling place.

AT the Court at Balmoral, the 24th day of September, 1855,

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the session of Parliament held in the sixth and seventh years of the reign of His late Majesty King William the Fourth, intituled "An Act for rendering more easy the taking the poll at county elections," it is enacted that it shall be lawful for His Majesty, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, from time to time, on petition from the justices of any county, riding, parts, or division in England or Wales, in quarter sessions assembled, representing that the number of polling places for such county, riding, parts, or division is insufficient, and praying that the place or places mentioned in the said petition may be a polling place or polling places for the county, riding, parts, or division of the county within which such place or places is or are situate, to declare that any place or places mentioned in the said petition shall be a polling place or polling places for that county, riding, parts, or division, and that the justices of the peace for such county, riding, parts, or division in quarter sessions, or some special sessions assembled, as mentioned in the Act passed in the third year of the reign of His said late Majesty, intituled "An Act to settle and determine the divisions of counties, and the limits of cities and boroughs, in England and Wales, in so far as respects the election of Members to serve in Parliament," shall, conformably to the said last-mentioned Act, divide such county, riding, parts, or division into convenient polling districts, and assign one of such districts to each polling place;

And whereas the justices of the peace for the county of Stafford, in general quarter sessions assembled, on the second day of July last, have presented a petition to Her Majesty in council, representing that the number of polling places for the southern division of the said county is insufficient, and praying that the town or place of Gnosall, and the township of Forebridge, in the parish of Castle Church, may be a polling places for the said southern division, within which such places are situate;

Now, therefore, Her Majesty, having taken the said petition into consideration, doth, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, declare, order, and direct, and it is hereby declared, ordered, and directed, that the town or place of Gnosall, and the township of Forebridge, in the parish of Castle Church, shall be polling places for the southern division of the county of Stafford; and further, that the justices of the peace for the said county, in quarter sessions, or some special sessions assembled, as mentioned in the said Act of the third year of His said late Majesty, shall, conformably to the said Act, divide the said southern division into convenient polling districts, and assign one of such districts to each polling place.

THE Right Honourable the Lords of the Committee of Privy Council for Trade and Plantations have received, through the Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs, a copy of a Despatch from Her Majesty's Consul at Naples, reporting the abolition of quarantine at that port, in respect of vessels arriving from Marseilles and the Italian ports.

Board of Trade, Whitehall, October 1, 1855.

THE Right Honourable the Lords of the Committee of Privy Council for Trade and Plantations have received, through the Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs, a copy of a Despatch from Her Majesty's Consul-General at Christiania, enclosing translations of two Notices of the Royal Norwegian Marine Department, of which the subjoined are copies.

NOTICE.

(Copy.)

Relating to the lighting of a Channel Lighthouse, on Staværnspoint (Staveern-sodden.)

ON Staværnspoint, on the eastern side of the southern channel into Frederickveern a fixed channel light will be lighted on the first of next October, and kept lighted from the 15th July all through the winter, until the morning of the 1st June. The period of burning, the same as the other lights in the kingdom, viz.: From the 21st September to the 20th March, half an hour after sunset until sunrise; and from the 15th July to the 20th September, one hour after sunset until sunrise. Its north latitude $58^{\circ} 59\frac{1}{2}'$, longitude east of Greenwich $10^{\circ} 4\frac{1}{2}'$, and it is visible at a distance of 2 Norwegian or 8 English miles.

The light is visible from N. to E. through north to N.N.W. $\frac{3}{4}$ W. by compass, so that by keeping within the circumference of its light, you clear "Rakkeboorne" on the west, and "Svinoørskaten" on the east side. From east it shines from W.N.W. to S.W. to W. in which light circumference by sailing in the south of the channel you are clear on the north of the "Fladen" reefs inside Svinoørskaten. On the other hand, the Rouoers Reefs, as well as the coast, and shoals and reefs lying off the same, on the north side of the channel, lie at an angle with the light, consequently cannot serve as a guide either for the north side of the channel, or so far east as the Rouoerne.

NOTICE.

(Copy.)

Relating to the lighting of the Light on the coast of Hellis Island (Hellissen).

NOTICE is hereby given, that the new lighthouse on Hellis Island, at the southern side of Feye Island (Feye'oen), visible when sailing the northern channel into Bergen, will be lighted on the evening of the 15th of next October.

The light is a revolving one, showing every minute a strong flash of 12 seconds' duration. At a distance exceeding 8 English miles, an eclipse will be perceived between the flashes.

The light is visible all around, and burns throughout the year. It will be lighted in the evening and extinguished in the morning, at the same time as the other lighthouses in the kingdom.

Its longitude east of Greenwich is $4^{\circ} 43' 5''$, its north latitude $60^{\circ} 45' 0''$.

Its altitude above the sea level, about 165 feet; and is visible at a distance of 18 to 20 English miles.

NAVAL PRIZE MONEY.

Department of the Accountant-General of the Navy, Admiralty, Somerset-House, October 1, 1855.

NOTICE is hereby given, to all persons interested therein, that preparations are now making for the intended distribution of proceeds arising from the Netherland galliot De Vronx Alida, captured on the 25th May, 1854, by Her Majesty's ship Archer.

Agents or other persons having any just and legal demand, unliquidated, against the said proceeds, are required to transmit the particulars of any such demand to the Registrar of the High Court of Admiralty, in order that the same may be examined, taxed, and allowed by that Officer, and paid under the sanction of the Judge of the said Court.

Agents and all other persons holding powers of attorney, prize orders, assignments, or other instruments, by virtue of which they may be legally entitled to claim the share belonging to any captor, are requested, with as little delay as possible, to transmit the same, accompanied by the usual documents, to the Prize Branch of the Department of the "Accountant-General of the Navy, Admiralty, Somerset-House."

Due notice will be given, by future advertisements in the London Gazette, of the date proposed for the commencement of distribution; and, at the same time, the amount of an individual's share in the respective classes will be announced.

NAVAL PRIZE MONEY.

Department of the Accountant-General of the Navy, Admiralty, Somerset House, October 1, 1855.

NOTICE is hereby given to all persons interested therein, that preparations are now making for the intended distribution of proceeds arising from the schooner Magle, captured on the 4th June, 1854, by Her Majesty's ship Archer.

Agents or other persons having any just and legal demand, unliquidated, against the said proceeds, are required to transmit the particulars of any such demand to the Registrar of the High Court of Admiralty, in order that the same may be examined, taxed and allowed by that officer, and paid under the sanction of the Judge of the said Court.

Agents and all other persons holding powers of attorney, prize orders, assignments or other instruments, by virtue of which they may be legally entitled to claim the share belonging to any captor, are requested, with as little delay as possible, to transmit the same, accompanied by the usual documents, to the Prize Branch of the Department of the "Accountant-General of the Navy, Admiralty, Somerset House."

Due notice will be given, by future advertisements in the London Gazette, of the date proposed for the commencement of distribution; and, at the same time, the amount of an individual's share in the respective classes will be announced.

NOTICE OF INTENDED DISTRIBUTION OF NAVAL PRIZE MONEY.

Department of the Accountant-General of the Navy, Admiralty, Somerset House, October 1, 1855.

NOTICE is hereby given to the Officers, Seamen, and Marines, and to all persons interested therein, that the distribution of proceeds arising from the eight Russian schooners, captured on the 17th May, 1854, by Her Majesty's ships Amphion and Conflict, will commence on Monday, the 15th October, 1855, in the Prize Branch of the Department of the "Accountant General of the Navy, Admiralty, Somerset House."

Agents and other persons holding powers of attorney, prize orders, assignments, or other instruments, by virtue of which they may be legally entitled to claim the share of any captor, serving in the above-named ship, are requested to present the same at this office.

Any Officer, Seaman, Marine, or other person, who may desire to receive his share from the Collector of Customs or of Inland Revenue within the United Kingdom, is required to intimate the same by letter to be addressed "On Prize Business, to the Secretary of the Admiralty, London,"—in which letter his own place of residence is to be precisely stated, as well as the place of the nearest Collector of Customs, or of Inland Revenue, from

CONTRACT FOR BRUSHWOOD.

Ordnance, Pall Mall, September 27, 1855.
NOTICE is hereby given, to all persons who may be desirous of contracting for the supply of about 4,000 bundles of brushwood, containing altogether about 125 cords, to be composed of young oak, ash, willow, hazel, and beech, that proposals, addressed to the Director-General of Contracts, Ordnance, Pall Mall, marked on the outside "Tenders for brushwood," will be received on or before the 9th day of October next.

Persons tendering are requested not to use any form but that which can be obtained on application to the Director-General, any day before the above date (Sunday excepted), between the hours of ten and four.

CONTRACT FOR BED CASES.

Department of the Comptroller for Victualling, Somerset-Place, September 27, 1855.

THE Commissioners for executing the office of Lord High Admiral of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, do hereby give notice, that on Wednesday, the 10th October next, at one o'clock, they will be ready to treat with such persons as may be willing to contract for supplying and delivering into Her Majesty's Victualling Stores at Deptford,

10,000 BED CASES.

Half to be delivered in six weeks, and the remainder in three weeks afterwards, or earlier if preferred by the parties tendering.

A pattern of the article and the conditions of the revised contract may be seen at the said office.

No tender will be received after one o'clock, on the day of treaty, nor any noticed, unless made on the printed form provided for the purpose, and which may be obtained on application at the said office.

Every tender must be addressed to the Secretary of the Admiralty, and bear in the left hand corner the words "Tender for Bed Cases," and must also be delivered at Somerset-place.

CONTRACT FOR PIG IRON.

Department of the Storekeeper-General of the Navy, Somerset-Place, October 1, 1855.

THE Commissioners for executing the office of Lord High Admiral of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland do hereby give notice, that on Tuesday the 16th instant, at two o'clock, they will be ready to treat with such persons as may be willing to contract for supplying Her Majesty's several Dock Yards with SOFT MELTING PIG IRON.

A distribution of the iron, and a form of the tender, may be seen at the said Office.

No tender will be received after two o'clock on the day of treaty, nor will any be noticed unless the party attends, or an agent for him duly authorized in writing.

Every tender must be addressed to the Secretary of the Admiralty, and bear in the left-hand corner the words "Tender for Pig Iron" and must also be delivered at Somerset-place, accompanied by a letter, signed by two responsible persons, engaging to become bound with the person tendering, in the sum of £800 for the due performance of the contract.
