and, on these occasions, no other statement is to be addressed to Her Majesty.

A Deputation to present an Address is not to exceed four persons.

Buckingham-Palace, January 31, 1856.

THIS day Her Majesty, accompanied by His Royal Highness Prince Albert, proceeded in state from Buckingham-Palace to the House of Peers, where she arrived soon after two o'clock; and was received, on alighting from her state coach, by the Lord Chancellor, the Lord Privy Seal, Sir Augustus Clifford, Bart., C.B., Deputy Great Chamberlain (in the absence of the Lord Willoughby de Eresby), and the Treasurer of the Household, Garter King of Arms, and the Yeoman Usher of the Black Rod, and proceeded to the State Robing-room in the customary manner.

Her Majesty was there robed, and the procession moved into the House in the usual order; —the sword of state was borne by the Earl Granville, Lord President of the Council, the cap of maintenance by the Marquess of Winchester, and the crown by the Marquess of Lansdowne, K.G.

Her Majesty being seated on the Throne, and His Royal Highness Prince Albert on a Chair on the left side of the Cloth of Estate, the Great Officers of State and others standing on the right and left, James Pulman, Esq., Yeoman Usher of the Black Rod, was sent with a message from Her Majesty to the House of Commons, commanding their immediate attendance in the House of Peers. The Commons being come thither accordingly, Her Majesty was pleased to deliver the following most gracious Speech to both Houses of Parliament:

My Lords and Gentlemen,

Since the close of the last session of Parliament the arms of the Allies have achieved a signal and important success. Sebastopol, the great stronghold of Russia in the Black Sea, has yielded to the persevering constancy and to the daring bravery of the Allied Forces.

The naval and military preparations for the ensuing year have necessarily occupied my serious attention; but while determined to omit no effort which could give vigour to the operations of the war, I have deemed it my duty not to decline any overtures which might reasonably afford a prospect of a safe and honourable peace. Accordingly, when the Emperor of Austria lately offered to myself and to my august Ally the Emperor of the French to employ his good offices with the Emperor of Russia, with a view to endeavour to bring about an amicable adjustment of the matters at issue between the contending Powers, I consented, in concert with my Allies, to accept the offer thus made; and I have the satisfaction to inform you that certain conditions have been agreed upon which I hope may prove the foundation of a General Treaty of Peace.

Negotiations for such a Treaty will shortly be opened at Paris.

In conducting those negotiations I shall be careful not to lose sight of the objects for which the war was undertaken; and I shall deem it right in no degree to relax my naval and military preparations until a satisfactory Treaty of Peace shall have been concluded.

Although the war in which I am engaged was brought on by events in the south of Europe, my attention has not been withdrawn from the state of things in the north; and, in conjunction with the Emperor of the French, I have concluded with the King of Sweden and Norway, a treaty containing defensive engagements applicable to his dominions, and tending to the preservation of the balance of power in that part of Europe.

I have also concluded a treaty of friendship, commerce and navigation with the Republic of Chili. I have given directions that these treaties shall be laid before you.

Gentlemen of the House of Commons,

The estimates for the ensuing year will be laid before you. You will find them framed in such a manner as to provide for the exigencies of war, if peace should unfortunately not be concluded.

My Lords and Gentlemen,

It is gratifying to me to observe, that, notwithstanding the pressure of the war, and the burthens and sacrifices which it has unavoidably imposed upon my people, the resources of my empire remain unimpaired. I rely with confidence on the manly spirit and enlightened patriotism of my loyal subjects for a continuance of that support which they have so nobly afforded me; and they may be assured that I shall not call upon them for exertions beyond what may be required by a due regard for the great interests, the honour, and the dignity of the Empire.

There are many subjects connected with internal improvement which I recommend to your attentive consideration.

The difference which exists in several important particulars between the commercial laws of Scotland and those of the other parts of the United Kingdom has occasioned inconvenience to a large portion of my subjects engaged in trade. Measures will be proposed to you for remedying this evil.

Measures will also be proposed to you for improving the laws relating to partnership, by simplifying those laws, and thus rendering more easy the employment of capital in commerce.

The system under which merchant shipping is liable to pay local dues and passing tolls has been the subject of much complaint. Measures will be proposed to you for affording relief in regard to those matters.

Other important measures for improving the law in Great Britain and in Ireland will be proposed to you, which will, I doubt not, receive your attentive consideration.

Upon these and all other matters upon which you may deliberate I fervently pray that the blessing of Divine Providence may favour your councils, and guide them to the promotion of the great object of my unvarying solicitude, the welfare and the happiness of my people.

War Department, February 5, 1856.

THE Queen has been pleased, by an instrument under Her Royal Sign Manual, of which the following is a copy, to institute and create a new Naval and Military Decoration, to be styled and designated "The Victoria Cross," and to make the rules and regulations therein set forth under which the said Decoration shall be conferred.

VICTORIA, by the Grace of God of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, Queen, Defender of the Faith, &c.,

To all to whom these presents shall come, greeting.

WHEREAS We, taking into Our Royal consideration that there exists no means of adequately rewarding the individual gallant services either of officers of the lower grades in Our Naval and Military Service, or of warrant and petty officers, seamen, and marines, in Our Navy, and non-commissioned officers and soldiers in Our Army; And whereas the Third Class of Our Most Honourable Order of the Bath is limited, except in very rare cases, to the higher ranks of both Services, and the granting of medals, both in Our Navy and Army, is only awarded for long service or meritorious conduct, rather than for bravery in action or distinction before an enemy, such cases alone excepted where a general medal is granted for a particular action or campaign, or a clasp added to the medal for some special engagement, in both of which cases all share equally in the boon, and those who by their valour have particularly signalised themselves remain undistinguished from their comrades; Now, for the purpose of attaining an end so desirable as that of rewarding individual instances of merit and valour, We have instituted and created, and by these presents, for Us, Our Heirs and Successors, institute and create a New Naval and Military Decoration, which We are desirous should be highly prized and eagerly sought after by the officers and men of Our Naval and Military Services, and are graciously pleased to make, ordain, and establish the following rules and ordinances for the government of the same, which shall from henceforth be inviolably observed and kept:

Firstly. It is ordained, that the distinction shall be styled and designated "The Victoria Cross," and shall consist of a Maltese Cross of Bronze, with Our Royal Crest in the centre, and underneath which an escroll bearing this inscription "For Valour."

Secondly. It is ordained, that the Cross shall be suspended from the left breast, by a blue riband for the Navy and by a red riband for the Army.

Thirdly. It is ordained, that the names of those upon whom We may be pleased to confer the Decoration shall be published in the London Gazette, and a registry thereof kept in the office of Our Secretary of State for War.

Fourthly. It is ordained, that any one who, after having received the Cross, shall again perform an act of bravery, which if he had not received such Cross would have entitled him to it, such further act shall be recorded by a Bar attached to the riband by which the Cross is suspended, and for every additional act of bravery an additional Bar may be added.

Fifthly. It is ordained, that the Cross shall only be awarded to those officers or men who have served Us in the presence of the enemy, and shall have then performed some signal act of valour, or devotion to their country.

Sixthly. It is ordained, with a view to place all persons on a perfectly equal footing in relation to eligibility for the Decoration, that neither rank, nor long service, nor wounds, nor any other circumstance or condition whatsoever, save the merit of conspicuous bravery shall be held to establish a sufficient claim to the honour.

Seventhly. It is ordained that the Decoration may be conferred on the spot where the act to be rewarded by the grant of such Decoration has been performed, under the following circumstances:—

I. When the Fleet or Army, in which such act has been performed, is under the eye and command of an Admiral or General Officer commanding the Forces.

II. Where the naval or military force is under the eye and command of an Admiral or Commodore commanding a squadron or detached naval force, or of a General commanding a corps, or division, or brigade on a distinct and detached service, when such Admiral, Commodore, or General Officer shall have the power of conferring the Decoration on the spot, subject to confirmation by Us.

Eighthly. It is ordained, where such act shall not have been performed in sight of a commanding officer as aforesaid, then the claimant for the honour shall prove the act to the satisfaction of the captain or officer commanding his ship, or to the officer commanding the regiment to which the claimant belongs, and such captain or such commanding officer shall report the same through the usual channel to the Admiral or Commodore commanding the force employed on the service, or to the officer commanding the forces in the field, who shall call for such description and attestation of the act as he may think requisite, and on approval shall recommend the grant of the Decoration.

Ninthly. It is ordained that every person selected for the Cross, under rule seven, shall be publicly decorated before the naval or military force or body to which he belongs, and with which the act of bravery for which he is to be rewarded shall have been performed, and his name shall be recorded in a General Order, together with the cause of his especial distinction.

Tenthly. It is ordained that every person selected under rule eight shall receive his Decoration as soon as possible, and his name shall likewise appear in a General Order as above required, such General Order to be issued by the naval or military commander of the forces employed on the service.

Eleventhly. It is ordained that the General Orders above referred to shall from time to time be transmitted to Our Secretary of State for War, to be laid before Us, and shall be by him registered.

Twelfthly. It is ordained that as cases may arise not falling within the rules above specified, or in which a claim, though well founded, may not have been established on the spot, We will, on the joint submission of Our Secretary of State for War and of Our Commander-in-Chief of Our Army, or on that of Our Lord High Admiral or Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty in the case of the Navy, confer the Decoration, but never without conclusive proof of the performance of the act of bravery for which the claim is made.

Thirteenthly. It is ordained that, in the event of a gallant and daring act having been performed by a squadron, ship's company, a detached body of seamen and marines, not under fifty in number, or by a brigade, regiment, troop, or company, in which the Admiral, General, or other officer commanding such forces, may deem that all are equally brave and distinguished, and that no special selection can be made by them: then in such case, the Admiral, General, or other officer commanding, may direct, that for any such body of seamen or marines, or for every troop or company of soldiers, one officer shall be selected by the officers engaged for the Decoration; and in like manner one petty officer or non-commissioned officer shall be selected by the petty officers and non-commissioned officers engaged; and two seamen or private soldiers or marines shall be selected by the seamen, or private soldiers, or marines, engaged respectively, for the Decoration; and the names of those selected shall be transmitted by the senior officer in command of the naval force, brigade, regiment, troop, or company, to the Admiral or General Officer Commanding, who shall in due manner confer the Decoration as if the acts were done under his own eye.

Fourteenthly. It is ordained that every warrant officer, petty officer, seaman, or marine, or non-commissioned officer or soldier, who shall have received the Cross shall from the date of the act by which the Decoration has been gained, be entitled to a Special Pension of Ten Pounds a-year, and each additional Bar conferred under rule four on such warrant or petty officers, or non-commissioned officers or men, shall carry with it an Additional Pension of Five Pounds per annum.

Fifteenthly. In order to make such additional provision as shall effectually preserve pure this most honourable distinction, it is ordained, that if any person on whom such distinction shall be conferred, be convicted of treason, cowardice, felony, or of any infamous crime, or if he be accused of any such offence and doth not after a reasonable time surrender himself to be tried for the same, his name shall forthwith be erased from the registry of individuals upon whom the said Decoration shall have been conferred by an especial Warrant under Our Royal Sign Manual, and the pension conferred under rule fourteen, shall cease and determine from the date of such Warrant. It is hereby further declared that We, Our Heirs and Successors, shall be the sole judges of the circumstance demanding such expulsion; moreover, We shall at all times have power to restore such persons as may at any time have been expelled, both to the enjoyment of the Decoration and Pension.

Given at Our Court at Buckingham Palace, this twenty-ninth day of January, in the nineteenth year of Our reign, and in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and fifty-six.

By Her Majesty's Command,
(Signed) PANMURE.

To
Our Principal Secretary of State for War.

AT the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 30th day of January, 1856,

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of an Act passed in the session of Parliament held in the third and fourth years of Her Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to carry into effect, with certain modifications, the fourth report of the Commissioners of Ecclesiastical duties and revenues," and of another Act passed in the session of Parliament held in the fifth and sixth years of Her Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act for enabling Ecclesiastical Corporations, aggregate and sole, to grant leases for long terms of years," duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a scheme, bearing date the eighth day of November, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-five, in the words following; that is to say:

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of an Act passed in the session of Parliament held in the third and fourth years of your Majesty's reign, intituled 'An Act to carry into effect, with certain modifications, the fourth report of the Commissioners of Ecclesiastical duties and revenues,' and of another Act passed in the session of Parliament held in the fifth and sixth years of your Majesty's reign, intituled 'An Act for enabling Ecclesiastical Corporations, aggregate and sole, to grant leases for long terms of years,' have prepared and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council, the following scheme, for determining the portion of the improved value to be made payable to us in a certain lease of minerals about to be granted by the perpetual curate of Brent Tor, in the county of Devon.

"Whereas by the said last-recited Act it is enacted, that it should be lawful for any Ecclesiastical Corporation, aggregate or sole (with certain exceptions, which do not include perpetual curates), from time to time, with the consent or consents thereby required, to grant or demise by lease, in manner thereafter mentioned, any mines, minerals, quarries, or beds belonging to such corporation, together with the right of working or of opening and working the same.

"And whereas by the same Act it is further enacted, that in case of any lease of mines, minerals, quarries, or beds granted thereunder, such portion of the improved value accruing under such lease, as by the authority provided in the first-recited Act shall be determined, not being more than three-fourth parts nor less than one moiety of such improved value, shall forthwith, and from time to time as the same shall accrue, be paid to us, and shall be subject to the provisions relating to monies payable to us.

"And whereas, with the consent required by the said Act, and otherwise in accordance with the provisions thereof, it is proposed by the Reverend Edward Atkyns Bray, the present perpetual curate of Brent Tor aforesaid, to grant or demise by lease the minerals lying under a portion of the glebe attached to this benefice, called Birchey, situate in the parish of Whitechurch, in the said county of Devon, belonging to him as such perpetual curate.

"And whereas the improved value to accrue under the lease so proposed to be granted as aforesaid will, according to the meaning of the same Act, be the whole of the rents, royalties, or other reservations which will become payable by virtue of such lease.

"Now, therefore, we humbly recommend and propose that three-fourth parts of the whole net amount of the reservation or reservations to be made in the said lease so to be granted, whether consisting of rent, royalty, or otherwise, shall, by such lease, be made directly payable to us; and that we shall have all the like remedies in respect of such three-fourth parts of any such reservation as aforesaid as if the same were a separate rent reserved to us as lessors or grantors and reversioners of the premises comprised in such lease, independently of the rights and remedies of the said Edward Atkyns Bray and his successors, perpetual curates of Brent Tor, in respect of the remaining one-fourth part thereof, without any priority or preference between us and the perpetual curates of Brent Tor for the time being: And further, that we shall have full benefit and advantage, either jointly with or separately from the said Edward Atkyns Bray and his successors, perpetual curates of Brent Tor for the time being, of all or any of the covenants, conditions, and agreements in the said lease to be contained on the lessee's part, in like manner as if we had been grantors, lessors, and reversioners as aforesaid, and as in such lease shall be expressed; and that, for effectuating such objects, the said lease shall and may be framed in such manner, and contain all such clauses and provisions, as we shall approve, and shall have full force accordingly, any rule of law, statute, or custom to the contrary notwithstanding.

"And we further recommend and propose, that we be authorized to apply, from time to time, if we shall think fit, all or any part of the monies which shall be received by us by virtue of or on account of the reservation or reservations aforesaid (after deducting therefrom all costs, charges, and expenses which we may have incurred in respect of the premises) towards making better provision for the cure of souls within the original limits of the perpetual curacy of Brent Tor.

"And we further recommend and propose, that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid, or any of them, in conformity with the provisions of the said recited Acts, or of any other Act of Parliament."

And whereas notice of the said scheme has been given to the said Edward Atkyns Bray as such perpetual curate as aforesaid, in accordance with the provisions of the first-recited Act, and he has made no objection thereto.

And whereas the said scheme has been approved by Her Majesty in Council: now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Acts; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the registrar of the diocese of Exeter.

Wm. L. Bathurst.

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 30th day of January, 1856.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the session of Parliament holden in the third and fourth years of Her Majesty's reign, chapter one hundred and thirteen, and of the Act of the session of Parliament holden in the fourth and fifth years of Her Majesty's reign, chapter thirty-nine, and of the Act of the session of Parliament holden in the sixth and seventh years of Her Majesty's reign, chapter thirty-seven, and of the Act of the session of Parliament holden in the seventeenth and eighteenth years of Her Majesty's reign, chapter eighty-four, duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a scheme, bearing date the eighth day of November, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-five, in the words and figures following; that is to say:

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the session of Parliament holden in the third and fourth years of your Majesty's reign, chapter one hundred and thirteen; and of the Act of the session of Parliament holden in the fourth and fifth years of your Majesty's reign, chapter thirty-nine; and of the Act of the session of Parliament holden in the sixth and seventh years of your Majesty's reign, chapter thirty-seven; and of the Act of the session of Parliament, holden in the seventeenth and eighteenth years of your Majesty's reign, chapter eighty-four, have prepared and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council the following scheme for effecting certain arrangements with a view to making better provision for the cure of souls in the parishes of Frant and Rotherfield, in the county of Sussex, and in the diocese of Chichester, and for constituting a separate district for spiritual purposes out of the said parishes:

"Whereas it was by the first-mentioned Act enacted, with an especial view to the better care of populous parishes, that arrangements might from time to time be made by the authority therein provided (that is to say, by a scheme prepared by us, and a duly gazetted Order of your Majesty in Council ratifying the same), for improving the value or making a better provision for the spiritual duties of ill-endowed parishes or districts by means of such exchange of advowsons or of such other alterations in the exercise of patronage as might be agreed upon by patrons with the consent of the bishop in every such case; and it was by the same Act further enacted that arrangements might be made by the like authority for the apportionment of the income of two benefices, belonging to the same patron, between the incumbents or ministers of such benefices, or the churches or chapels connected therewith, provided that no such arrangement should be made with respect to benefices in lay patronage, without the consents of the respective patrons, nor in any case so as to prejudice the interests of any existing incumbent, nor without the consent of the bishop of the diocese.

"And whereas it was by the secondly-mentioned Act declared and enacted, that it should be competent to the authority in the first-mentioned Act provided, to make arrangements under and according to the provisions of the same Act for improving the value or making a better provision for the spiritual duties of ill-endowed parishes or districts, by means of the exchange of advowsons or other alterations in the exercise of patronage, notwithstanding that such advowsons, or any or either of them, or such patronage, should be vested in or belong to any ecclesiastical corporation, aggregate or sole:

"And whereas it was by the fourthly-mentioned Act enacted, that the hereinbefore recited provisions of the first-mentioned Act, respecting the apportionment of the income of two benefices belonging to the same patron between the incumbents or ministers of such benefices, or the churches or chapels connected therewith, should apply to any lands, tithes, tithe rent-charges, or other hereditaments, or sources of income, of what nature or kind soever, belonging to such benefices, and should apply to any number of benefices belonging to the same patron, including any united benefice, and that every church or chapel possessed of any endowment, or capable of receiving the same, and also any sinecure rectory, so far as regards the transfer of its endowments, or any portion thereof, to any benefice, should be deemed a benefice for the purpose of such arrangements or any of them:

"And whereas it was by the thirdly-mentioned Act enacted, that if at any time it should be made to appear to us that it would promote the interests of religion that any part or parts of any parish or parishes, chapelry or chapelries, district or districts, of great extent, and containing a large population, and wherein, or in parts whereof, the provision for public worship and for pastoral superintendence is insufficient for the spiritual wants of the inhabitants thereof, or any extra-parochial place or places, or any part or parts thereof, should be constituted a separate district for spiritual purposes, it should be lawful, by the authority aforesaid, with the consent of the bishop of the diocese, under his hand and seal, to set out by metes and bounds, and constitute a separate district accordingly, such district not then containing within its limits any consecrated church or chapel in use for the purposes of divine worship, and to fix and declare the name of such district; and it was by the same Act provided, that the draft of any scheme for constituting any such district should be delivered or transmitted to the incumbent and to the patron or patrons of the church or chapel of any parish, chapelry, or district out of which it is recommended that any such district or any part thereof should be taken, in order that such incumbent, patron or patrons, might have an opportunity of offering or making to us, or to such bishop, any observations or objections upon or to the constituting of such district, and that such scheme should not be laid before your Majesty in Council until after the expiration of one calendar month next after such copy should have been so delivered or transmitted, unless such incumbent and patron or patrons should in the meantime consent to the same; and it was by the same Act also provided, that in every such scheme for constituting any such district we should recommend to your Majesty in Council that the minister of such district, when duly licensed according to the same Act, should be permanently endowed, under the provisions of the same Act, to an amount of not less than the annual value of one hundred pounds, and also, if such endowment be of less than the annual value of one hundred and fifty pounds, that the same should be increased to such last-mentioned amount at the least, so soon as such district shall have become a new parish as therein-after provided; and it was by the same Act further enacted, that it should be lawful, by the authority aforesaid, at any time to assign the right of patronage of any such district or new parish as aforesaid, and the nomination of the minister or perpetual curate thereof respectively, either in perpetuity, or for one or more nomination or nominations, to any ecclesiastical corporation, aggregate or sole, or to either of the Universities of Oxford, Cambridge, or Durham, or to any college therein respectively, or to any person or persons, or the nominee or nominees of such person or persons or body respectively, upon condition of such corporation, university, college, person or persons contributing to the permanent endowment of such minister or perpetual curate, or towards providing a church or chapel for the use of the inhabitants of such district or new parish, in such proportion and in such manner as should be approved by the like authority:

of the rectory or benefice of the said parish of Rotherfield, and the patronage of the vicarage of the said parish of Frant is vested in the rector or incumbent for the time being of the rectory of Rotherfield aforesaid: and whereas the said parishes are respectively of great extent, and contain a large population, and the provision for public worship and for pastoral superintendence therein is insufficient for the spiritual wants of the inhabitants thereof, and it has been proposed to us on behalf of such patrons, and it has been made to appear to us, that it would promote the interests of religion that the particular parts of such parishes hereinafter mentioned and described, such parts not at present containing within their limits any consecrated church or chapel in use for the purposes of divine worship, should be constituted a separate district in the manner hereinafter set forth:

And whereas an annual sum of one hundred and fifty pounds has been provided by the patrons and incumbents of the said rectory of Rotherfield and vicarage of Frant respectively, by means of a rentcharge issuing out of the tithes or rentcharges in lieu of tithes belonging to the said rectory and vicarage respectively, and made payable to us towards the permanent endowment of the minister of the district herein recommended to be constituted, and so soon as such district shall have become, according to the provisions of the said thirdly mentioned Act, a new parish for ecclesiastical purposes, of the perpetual curate thereof:

“And whereas the said William Earl of Abergavenny hath provided a church, to be consecrated as the church of the said district and new parish, and for the use and service of the minister or perpetual curate and inhabitants thereof, together with a convenient burial ground for the same, and has agreed to provide a suitable house of residence for the minister or perpetual curate of the said district or new parish; and it has been proposed to us, and it appears to us to be expedient, that, in consideration of the benefactions aforesaid, the whole right of patronage of and nomination of the minister or perpetual curate to the said district and new parish should be assigned in manner hereinafter recommended and proposed:

“And whereas the vicarage of the said parish of Frant is charged with the payment of a pension or annual stipend of ten pounds and ten shillings to the rectory or benefice of the said parish of Rotherfield, and the last-named rectory possesses certain glebe lands situate within the parish of Frant, which are more particularly described and set forth in the schedule hereunto annexed, marked B, and it has been proposed to us, and it appears to us to be desirable that the arrangements hereinafter recommended should be made for transferring such last-named glebe lands belonging to the said rectory to the vicarage of Frant, and for releasing the said vicarage from the payment of the aforesaid pension or stipend:

“And whereas the said William Earl of Abergavenny hath signified his assent, as patron of the rectory of Rotherfield, to the intended arrangements last mentioned for apportioning the income of the said rectory, and the said Earl and William Neville, Esquire, commonly called the Right Honourable William Viscount Neville, eldest son and heir apparent of the said Earl, have also, by their covenant in writing, bearing date the twentieth day of October, in the year one thousand eight hundred and fifty-five, undertaken to compensate the present incumbents of the said rectory of Rotherfield and vicarage of Frant for any loss which they may sustain respectively by reason of the charge created upon their respective benefices for the purpose of endowing the new district and parish, herein recommended to be constituted, and it has been further proposed to us, and it appears to us to be expedient, that, in consideration of such assent and undertaking as aforesaid, the whole right of patronage of and nomination to the said vicarage of Frant should likewise be assigned in manner hereinafter mentioned and proposed:

“Now, therefore, we humbly recommend and propose, with the consent of the Right Reverend Ashurst Turner, Bishop of Chichester, and of the Right Honourable and Reverend William Earl of Abergavenny, testified by their having respectively signed and sealed this scheme, that all that part of the said parish of Frant and also all that part of the said parish of Rotherfield described in the schedule hereunto annexed marked A (all which parts, together with the boundaries thereof, are delineated and set forth on the map or plan hereunto also annexed) shall be together constituted a separate district for spiritual purposes accordingly, and that the same shall be named “The District of Eridge Green.”

“And we further recommend and propose, that there shall be paid by us in each and every year, by equal half yearly payments on the first day of May and the first day of November, to the minister for the time being of the district so recommended to be constituted, when duly licensed according to the provisions of the said thirdly-mentioned Act, and so soon as such district shall have become, according to the provisions of the same Act, a new parish for ecclesiastical purposes, to the perpetual curate thereof, the sum of one hundred and fifty pounds; and that the first such payment, or a proportionate part thereof, shall be made on the first day of May or of November next after the day of the date of the license of such minister or of such perpetual curate as aforesaid, as the case may be; and that in case a vacancy in the ministry or perpetual curacy of such district or new parish shall happen on any other day than the first day of May or the first day of November, the amount payable shall be duly apportioned between and paid to the minister or the perpetual curate making the vacancy, or his personal representative or representatives, and the minister or the perpetual curate succeeding to such district or new parish; provided always, that if it shall appear to us to be expedient at any future time, that instead of the annual sum then in course of payment by us to the minister or perpetual curate of the said district or new parish, or instead of any part of such annual sum, any land, tithe, or other hereditament should be conveyed to such district or new parish in fee, in substitution for the same, nothing herein or in any other scheme contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing such a substitution.

“And we further recommend and propose, that the whole right of patronage of the said district and new parish herein recommended to be constituted, and the nomination of the minister or perpetual curate thereof, shall be assigned to and be permanently vested in the said William Earl of Abergavenny and his heirs male, to be held and enjoyed by him and them in the same manner as the patronage of the said rectory or benefice of the parish of Rotherfield is at present held and enjoyed; and that the whole right of patronage of the said vicarage of the parish of Frant, and the nomination of the vicar or incumbent thereof, shall, without any conveyance or assurance in the law other than this scheme and any duly gazetted Order of your Majesty in Council ratifying the same, and upon and from the day upon which such Order shall be published in the London Gazette, be likewise transferred to and become absolutely vested in the said William Earl of Abegavenny and his heirs male, to be held and enjoyed by him and them in manner aforesaid.

"And we further recommend and propose, subject to such transfer of the patronage of the vicarage of Frant as aforesaid, that upon and from the date of the next avoidance of the said rectory or benefice of Rotherfield, the glebe lands now belonging to the said benefice, situate within the parish of Frant, and set forth and described in the schedule hereunto annexed, marked B, as aforesaid, shall, by the like authority, be transferred to and become absolutely vested in the then incumbent or vicar of the said vicarage of the parish of Frant, and his successors, incumbents of the same vicarage; and that upon and from the date of the next avoidance of the said rectory or benefice of Rotherfield as aforesaid, the said vicarage of Frant, and the incumbent or vicar thereof shall in like manner and by the same authority be relieved and for ever discharged from the payment of the annual pension or stipend of ten pounds and ten shillings now payable thereout to the rectory of the said parish of Rotherfield.

"And we further recommend and propose, that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid, or any of them, in accordance with the provisions of the said Acts, or of any other Act of Parliament."

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS Her Majesty's Commissioners for building new churches have, in pursuance of the sixteenth section of an Act passed in the fifty-ninth year of the Reign of His Majesty King George the Third, intituled "An Act to amend and render more effectual an Act passed in the last session of Parliament, for building and promoting the building of additional churches in populous parishes," as enlarged by the twelfth section of an Act passed in the session of Parliament held in the second and third years of Her Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to amend and render more effectual the church building Acts," or under and by virtue of any and every other power and authority vested in the said Commissioners, duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a representation, bearing date the sixth day of December, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-five, in the words following; viz.:

"Your Majesty's Commissioners for building new churches beg leave humbly to represent that having taken into consideration all the circumstances of the district parish of Saint Paul Ball's Pond, Islington, in the county of Middlesex, and within the diocese of London, it appears to them to be expedient that a particular district should be assigned to the consecrated church of Saint Jude, situate in Mildmay Park, in the said district parish of Saint Paul Ball's Pond, under and by virtue of the power or authority for this purpose, contained in the sixteenth section of an Act, passed in the fifty-ninth year of the reign of His Majesty King George the Third, intituled, 'An Act to amend and render more effectual an Act, passed in the last session of Parliament, for building and promoting the building of additional churches in populous parishes,' as enlarged by the twelfth section of an Act, passed in the session of Parliament holden in the first and second years of your Majesty's reign, intituled, 'An Act to amend and render more effectual the church building Acts,' or under and by virtue of any and every other power and authority in this behalf, vested in your Majesty's said Commissioners by the church building Acts, and that such proposed district should be named or called 'the District Chapelry of Saint Jude Mildmay Park, Islington,' and that the boundaries thereof should be those hereinafter mentioned; that is to say: the District Chapelry of Saint Jude Mildmay Park, Islington, is bounded on the south and east by the parish of West Hackney, on the north-east by the parish of Stoke

Newington, and on the west by the remaining part of the said district parish of Saint Paul Islington, from which the said District Chapelry of Saint Jude Mildmay Park, Islington, is separated by an imaginary line commencing at the north-eastern corner of Newington Green and proceeding south-westerly along the road, on the eastern side of the said Green, as far as the road called Mildmay Park, then along the middle of the said road for the distance of sixty yards, and then turns westerly to the backs of the houses and gardens on the west side of Mildmay Park, and proceeding south-westerly along the same, and passing Mildmay-grove North, the North London Railway, Mildmay-grove South, and also Mildmay-street, and enters Ball's Pond-road, along which it proceeds south-easterly to Southgate-road, then southerly along that road to the boundary line of the said parish of West Hackney aforesaid, as such District Chapelry of Saint Jude Mildmay Park, Islington, is more particularly delineated on the map or plan hereto annexed and thereon coloured pink.

"Your Majesty's said Commissioners beg leave further to represent that it also appears to them to be expedient that banns of matrimony should be published, and that marriages, baptisms, and churchings should be solemnized or performed in the said church of Saint Jude, and that the fees to arise therefrom should be paid and belong to the Minister or Incumbent of such church for the time being.

"That the consent of the Right Honourable and Right Reverend Charles James, Bishop of the said diocese of London, has been obtained thereto, as required by the Acts and sections hereinbefore mentioned, and also the consent of the Reverend John Sandys, Master of Arts, Incumbent of the said district parish of Saint Paul Ball's Pond, as required by the Act and section secondly hereinbefore mentioned, in order that the subdivision of such district parish by forming thereout a District Chapelry as aforesaid, should take effect from the assignment of such District Chapelry, in testimony whereof the said Charles James, Bishop of London, and John Sandys have signed and sealed this representation.

AT the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 30th day of January, 1856,

PRESENT,

The QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the last session of Parliament, intituled "An Act further to amend the laws concerning the burial of the dead in England," it is, amongst other things, enacted that it shall be lawful for Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, from time to time, to postpone the time appointed by any Order in Council for the discontinuance of burials, or otherwise to vary any Order in Council made under any of the Acts recited in the said Act, or under the said Act whether the time thereby appointed for the discontinuance of burials thereunder, or other operation of such Order, shall or shall not have arrived), as to Her Majesty, with such advice as aforesaid, may seem fit;

And whereas it seems fit to Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, that so much of an Order in Council of the twenty-fourth March, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-four, as directed burials to be discontinued in St. Mary's Churchyard, BATTLE, and in the Unitarian Chapel and Zion Chapel Burial-grounds in that parish from the first of July in that year should be varied; Her Majesty is pleased, by and with the said advice, to order, and it is hereby ordered, instead thereof, that, except in now existing vaults and brick graves, burials be discontinued in all the south part of the parish churchyard of Battle, extending from the footway leading to the west entrance of the church to the east end of the church and the east boundary; that burials be permitted in the remaining portion of the churchyard, except within three yards of the walls of the church; and that burials be wholly discontinued in the parish churchyard from and after the first of January, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-eight. That in the Unitarian Chapel and Zion Chapel Burial-grounds burials be permitted, except within three yards of the walls of the chapels, and of the dwelling-house adjoining Zion Chapel Burial-ground, and that from and after the first of January, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-eight, burials be wholly discontinued in the said grounds.

And whereas it seems fit to Her Majesty, by and with the advice aforesaid, that so much of an Order in Council of the eighth February, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-five, as directed burials to be discontinued in the churchyard of St. John the Baptist CHESTER, from and after the first day of May in that year, which period has since been extended to the first of January instant, should be varied; Her Majesty is pleased, by and with the said advice, to order, and it is hereby ordered, instead thereof, that interments be wholly discontinued within the said churchyard, except in that part which is north of the church, and not within three yards of its walls, in which part the following regulations shall be observed, viz.; that no new grave be made except in ground which has never previously been buried in; that no new grave be made within half a yard of any other grave, or except for the burial of a parishioner; that no grave be reopened except to bury the husband, wife, or unmarried child of those previously buried in it, nor unless such grave can be opened to the depth of five feet without exposing remains.

And whereas by an Order in Council of the eighth day of August, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-three, burials were directed to cease in the churchyard of the parish of St. ANDREW HOLBORN, from the time mentioned in such Order, and such time has since been extended by an Order of the thirteenth of September, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-four, and it seems fit that said such Order should be varied; now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, is pleased to order, and it is hereby ordered, that burials be discontinued in the churchyard of the parish of St. John Holborn from and after the ninth of February next.

And whereas by an Order in Council of the first of May, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-four, burials were directed to be wholly discontinued in the churchyard of PETERSHAM from and after the first of January, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-six; and by an Order of the twenty-fourth September last, certain modifications were made in such former Order, and it seems fit that the same be further varied; Her Majesty is pleased, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, to order, and it is hereby ordered, that burials may take place, subject to the Secretary of State's regulations for new burial-grounds, and until the first of January, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-nine, in that portion of the said churchyard which was opened in the year one thousand eight hundred and one, containing rather less than a quarter of an acre.
