AT the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 25th day of June, 1857,

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the session of Parliament, held in the eighteenth and nineteenth years of Her Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act further to amend the laws concerning the burial of the dead in England" it is, amongst other things, enacted that it shall be lawful for Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, from time to time, to postpone the time appointed by any Order in Council for the discontinuance of burials, or otherwise to vary any Order in Council made under any of the Acts recited in the said Act, or under the said Act (whether the time thereby appointed for the discontinuance of burials thereunder, or other operation of such Order, shall or shall not have arrived), as to Her Majesty, with such advice as aforesaid, may seem fit;

And whereas certain Orders in Council have been made, directing the discontinuance of burials in the churchyards and burial-grounds hereinafter mentioned from the time mentioned in such Orders respectively; and whereas it seems fit to Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, that the time for discontinuing burials in the said churchyards and burial-grounds be postponed;

Now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice aforesaid, is pleased to order, and it is hereby ordered, that the time for the discon-

In the parish churchyard, and in the burial-grounds of Old and New Independent Chapels, of WIVENHOE, Essex, from the first of July to the first of October, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-seven.

And whereas, by an Order in Council of the twenty-first of May, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-five, burials were directed to be discontinued on and after the first of July, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-seven, in St. John's parish Churchyard, BEDMINSTER, and it seems fit that the said Order be varied; now therefore Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, is pleased to order, and it is hereby ordered, in lieu thereof, that burials be discontinued on and after the said first of July in the said parish churchyard of Bedminster, except so far as is compatible with the following regulations: that all coffins buried in vaults and walled graves be inbedded in charcoal and separately entombed in an airtight manner; and that no soil previously buried in be disturbed.

And whereas by an Order in Council of the twenty-second day of October, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-six, burials were directed to be discontinued from and after the first of August next (with certain exceptions), in the parish churchyard of CHESHAM, Bucks, and it seems fit that the said Order be varied; now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice aforesaid, is pleased to order, and it is hereby ordered, that, notwithstanding such order, Mr. W. Lowndes be permitted to use for interment a piece of ground reserved for his family at the back of and adjoining his mausoleum.

And whereas by an Order in Council of the eighteenth of February, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-four, it was directed (amongst other things), that only one body should be interred in each grave in the burial-ground of LITTLEHAMPTON, Sussex, and it seems fit that the said Order should be varied; now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice aforesaid, is pleased to order, and it is hereby ordered, in lieu of such direction, that, with the exception of family vaults and graves, only one body be interred in each grave in the said burial-ground; and that in family vaults and brick graves each body be separately entombed in brick or stone work properly cemented, which shall not be disturbed.

And whereas by an Order in Council of the seventh of April, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-four, burials were directed to be discontinued, from and after the first of August, in that year, in the churchyard and in the parish burial-ground of RICHMOND, Surrey, and it seems fit that the said Order be varied; now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice aforesaid, is pleased to order, and it is hereby ordered, that the use of the vaults and brick graves be allowed in the said churchyard and burial-ground which adjoin each other, for the interment of the husbands, wives, parents, and unmarried children of persons already buried therein, provided that such vaults and brick graves be opened, when required, without disturbing soil that has been already buried in, and that each coffin be imbedded in a layer of powdered charcoal four inches thick, and be separately entombed in brick or stone work properly cemented.

And whereas by an Order in Council of the sixth of May, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-seven, burials were directed to be discontinued from and after the first of March, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-nine (with certain exceptions), in the parish churchyard of SUTTON-IN-ASHFIELD, and it seems fit that the said Order be varied; now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice aforesaid, is pleased to order, and it is hereby ordered, that certain grave spaces which have been reserved for the use of families by the side of existing graves in the said churchyard, may be used for the interment of members of such families, when required, provided that no ground already buried in be disturbed, and that no body be interred without a covering of four feet of earth, measuring from the upper surface of the coffin to the general level of the ground.

And whereas by an Order in Council of the sixth of May last, burials were directed to be discontinued in the parish church, and, with certain exceptions, in the churchyard of SNENTON, Nottinghamshire, and it seems fit that the said Order be varied; now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice aforesaid, is pleased to order, in lieu of so much of the said Order as relates to the said parish, and it is hereby ordered, that interments be forthwith discontinued in the parish church of Snenton, also within twelve feet of the walls of the church, and (with the exception of now existing family vaults and brick graves which can be opened without disturbing soil that has been already buried in, and in which each coffin shall be imbedded in a layer of powdered charcoal four inches thick, and be separately entombed in brick or stone work, properly cemented, and except in family earthen graves which can be opened without disturbing human remains, provided that the only bodies interred therein be those of the husband and wife of persons already buried therein, and that no body be interred without a covering of four feet of earth, measuring from the upper surface of the coffin to the ordinary level of the ground), in the old part of the churchyard; and that in the new part of the church-yard, with the exception of vaults and family graves, only one body be buried in each grave, and that, with the same exception, no grave be re-opened, and also that no body be buried in any earthen grave without a covering of four feet of earth, measuring from the upper surface of the coffin to the ordinary level of the ground.
