AT the Court at Windsor, the 9th day of September, 1865.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the eighth and ninth years of Her Majesty, chapter seventy ; and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Her Majesty, chapter fifty-five ; duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a representation, bearing date the thirteenth day of July, in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-five, in the words and figures following ; that is to say :

" We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the eighth and ninth years of your Majesty, chapter seventy ; and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of your Majesty, chapter fifty-five ; have prepared, and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council, the following representation as to the assignment of a consolidated chapelry to the consecrated church of Saint Luke, situate at Shireoaks, in the parish of Worksop, in the county of Nottingham, and in the diocese of Lincoln.

" Whereas at certain extremities of the said parish of Worksop, and of the parish of Anston, in the county of York, and in the diocese of York, which lie contiguous one to another, and are described in the schedule hereunder written, there is collected together a population which is situate at a distance from the several churches of such respective parishes.

" And whereas it appears to us to be expedient that such contiguous portions of the said parish of Worksop, and of the said parish of Anston, should be formed into a consolidated chapelry for all ecclesiastical purposes, and that the same should be assigned to the said church of Saint Luke, situate at Shireoaks aforesaid.

" Now, therefore, with the consent of the Right Reverend John, Bishop of the said diocese of Lincoln, as such Bishop, with the consent of the Right Honorable and Most Reverend William, Archbishop of York, as the patron, in right of his see, of the perpetual curacy of the said parish of Anston, and with the consent of the Most Noble Henry Pelham Alexander, Duke of Newcastle, as the patron of the vicarage of the said parish of Worksop (in testimony whereof they have respectively signed and sealed this representation), we humbly represent, that it would, in our opinion, be expedient that all those contiguous portions of the said parish of Worksop and of the said parish of Anston, which are described in the schedule hereunder written, all which portions, together with the boundaries thereof, are delineated and set forth on the map or plan hereunto annexed, should be united and formed into one consolidated chapelry for the said church of Saint Luke, situate at Shireoaks aforesaid, and that the same should be named 'The Consolidated Chapelry of Saint Luke, Shireoaks,' and that the right of presentation and appointment to the church of such consolidated chapelry should belong to and be exercised by the said Henry Pelham Alexander, Duke of Newcastle, his heirs and assigns, as lords of the manor of Shireoaks.

" We, therefore, humbly pray, that your Majesty will be graciously pleased to take the premises into your Royal consideration, and to make such Order in respect thereto as to your Majesty, in your Royal wisdom, shall seem meet.

The SCHEDULE to which the foregoing Representation has reference.

" The Consolidated Chapelry of Saint Luke, Shireoaks, being :—

" All that portion of the parish of Worksop, in the county of Nottingham, and in the diocese of Lincoln, containing by admeasurement one thousand one hundred and seventy-six acres or thereabouts, which is comprised within and is co-extensive with the land and lands called respectively 'The Church Land' and 'The Endowment Lands' in the Act of Parliament known as the 'Shireoaks District Church Act, 1861.' All which land and lands are more particularly described and enumerated in the first and second schedules annexed to the said Act. And also all that portion of the parish of Anston, in the county of York, and in the diocese of York, containing by admeasurement four hundred acres or thereabouts, which comprises the houses and lands called Branchliffe Grange, Fan Field Farm, and Turner Wood, all which said portion of such parish is situate generally to the south of an imaginary line commencing upon the boundary which divides such parish from the parish of Worksop aforesaid; that is to say, upon the boundary dividing the said county of Nottingham from the county of York as aforesaid, at the point where the stream, known as the County Dike or Old River, strikes such boundary; and extending thence first northward then westward and again northward along the middle of the said river to the point near Wood Mill, where such river is joined by the stream flowing from Peck Mill; and extending thence south-westward along the middle of the last-described stream as far as the boundary which divides the said parish of Anston from the parish of Thorpe Salvin, in the county of York, and diocese of York aforesaid."

And whereas the said representation has been approved by Her Majesty in Council: now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said representation, and to order and direct that the same, and every part thereof, shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette, pursuant to the said Acts; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the respective Registrars of the said diocese of Lincoln and of the said diocese of York.

At the Court at Windsor, the 9th day of September, 1865:

PRESENT,

The QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the third and fourth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and thirteen, duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a scheme, bearing date the thirteenth day of July, in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-five, in the words following; that is to say:

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the third and fourth years of your Majesty, chapter one hundred and thirteen, have prepared, and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council, the following scheme for making certain apportionments of income between the vicarage of Sawley and the perpetual curacy of Wilne, both in the county of Derby and diocese of Lichfield, and between the vicarage of Farndon and the vicarage of Balderton, both in the county of Nottingham and diocese of Lincoln.

"Whereas the Right Reverend John, Bishop of Lichfield, is in right of his see the patron of the said vicarage of Sawley and of the said perpetual curacy of Wilne.

"And whereas the Right Reverend John, Bishop of Lincoln, is in right of his see the patron of the said vicarage of Farndon and of the said vicarage of Balderton.

"And whereas by an Order of your Majesty in Council, bearing date the tenth day of June, in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-four, a yearly sum or stipend of six pounds was made payable by us to the vicar or incumbent for the time being of the said vicarage of Sawley.

"And whereas by another Order of your Majesty in Council, bearing date the seventeenth day of November, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-three, a yearly sum or stipend of two hundred and seventeen pounds was made payable by us to the perpetual curate or incumbent for the time being of the said perpetual curacy of Wilne.

"And whereas such augmentations were so made upon the assumption that the incomes of the said vicarage and of the said perpetual curacy would by such annual payments be raised to the clear annual value of three hundred pounds, or thereabouts, respectively.

"And whereas it has been represented to us that a portion (amounting to a yearly sum of sixty pounds) of the income from other sources heretofore accruing or held to be accruing to the vicar of the said vicarage of Sawley, did not actually and rightfully belong to such vicarage, but to the said perpetual curacy of Wilne.

"And whereas by reason of the before-mentioned annual sum or stipend of six pounds being so made payable by us as aforesaid, the income of the said vicarage of Sawley has been raised to a yearly sum of two hundred and forty pounds only, instead of to a yearly sum of three hundred pounds.

"And whereas by reason of the before-mentioned annual sum or stipend of two hundred and seventeen pounds being so made payable by us as aforesaid, the income of the said perpetual curacy of Wilne has been raised to a yearly sum of three hundred and sixty pounds, instead of to a yearly sum of three hundred pounds.

"And whereas it appears to us to be expedient that arrangements should be made for apportioning the incomes of the said vicarage of Sawley and of the said perpetual curacy of Wilne, in the manner hereinafter mentioned.

"And whereas under the provisions of an Order of your Majesty in Council, bearing date the twenty-first day of August, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-six, an annual sum or stipend of twenty pounds was made payable by us to the vicar or incumbent for the time being of the then united benefices of Farndon and Balderton, subject to the employment of a duly licensed curate in one of the said parishes of Farndon and Balderton.

"And whereas by another Order of your Majesty in Council, bearing date the first day of November, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-two, the said annual sum or stipend of twenty pounds was made payable by us to the vicar or incumbent of the said vicarages of Farndon and Balderton, irrespectively of such condition.

"And whereas by another Order of your Majesty in Council, bearing date the sixteenth day of April, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-one, a further annual sum or stipend of seven pounds was made payable by us to the vicar or incumbent of the said united vicarages of Farndon and Balderton.

"And whereas by another Order of your Majesty in Council, bearing date the twenty-sixth day of April, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-four, the said united vicarages of Farndon and Balderton were separated and disunited, and became separate and distinct benefices to all intents and purposes whatsoever, but no apportionment was, by such last-mentioned Order of your Majesty in Council, made between such benefices of the annual sums or stipends, amounting to twenty-seven pounds, payable by us as aforesaid to the vicar or incumbent of the theretofore united benefices of Farndon and Balderton.

"Now, therefore, with the consent of the Most Reverend Charles Thomas, Archbishop of Canterbury, and also with the consent of the said John, Bishop of Lichfield, and also with the consent of the said John, Bishop of Lincoln, and also with the consent of the Reverend William Lloyd, Clerk, the perpetual curate or incumbent of the said perpetual curacy of Wilne, in testimony whereof they have respectively signed and sealed this scheme, we humbly recommend and propose, that upon and from the day of the publication in the London Gazette of an Order of your Majesty in Council ratifying this scheme, and without any conveyance or assurance in the law other than such Order, the yearly sum or stipend of two hundred and seventeen pounds, which, under the hereinbefore secondly-recited Order of your Majesty in Council, was made payable by us to the incumbent for the time being of the said perpetual curacy of Wilne, shall be reduced to a yearly sum or stipend of one hundred and fifty-seven pounds; and the yearly sum or stipend of six pounds, which, under the hereinbefore firstly-recited Order of your Majesty in Council, was made payable by us to the vicar for the time being of the said vicarage of Sawley, shall be increased to a yearly sum or stipend of sixty-six pounds.

"And we further recommend and propose, that without any conveyance or assurance in the law other than any duly gazetted Order of your Majesty in Council ratifying this scheme, the annual sums or stipends, together amounting to twenty-seven pounds, which, as aforesaid, were formerly payable by us to the united vicarage of Farndon with Balderton, shall be divided and apportioned in equal moieties between the said vicarage of Farndon and the said vicarage of Balderton, and that such apportionment and division shall commence and take effect as from the said twenty-sixth day of April, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-four.

And whereas the said scheme has been approved by Her Majesty in Council: now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same, and every part thereof, shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette, pursuant to the said Act; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the respective Registrars of the dioceses of Lichfield and Lincoln.

AT the Court at Windsor, the 9th day of September, 1865.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the third and fourth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and thirteen, and of the Act of the seventeenth and eighteenth years of Her Majesty, chapter eighty-four, duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a scheme, bearing date the thirteenth day of July, in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-five, in the words and figures following; that is to say:

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the third and fourth years of your Majesty, chapter one hundred and thirteen, and of the Act of the seventeenth and eighteenth years of your Majesty, chapter eighty-four, have prepared, and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council, the following scheme for making better provision for the cure of souls within the parish of Garthbeibio, in the county of Montgomery, and in the diocese of Saint Asaph.

"Whereas the Bishop of Saint Asaph for the time being is, in right of his see, the patron of the rectory of the said parish of Garthbeibio, and also of the rectory of the parish of Llangadvan, in the same county and diocese.

"And whereas it has been made to appear to us that the church of the said parish of Garthbeibio is at present ill-endowed, and that it is desirable that some additional provision should be made for the cure of souls within the said parish.

"And whereas the Right Reverend Thomas Vowler, Bishop of Saint Asaph, the bishop of the diocese and the patron in right of his see, of the rectory of the parish of Llangadvan as aforesaid, has proposed to us, and it appears to us to be expedient that the income of the said rectory of such lastly-mentioned parish should be apportioned between the rector or incumbent thereof and the rector or incumbent of the said rectory of the parish of Garthbeibio, in the manner hereinafter recommended and proposed.

"Now, therefore, with the consents of the Right Honorable and Most Reverend Charles Thomas, Archbishop of Canterbury, of the said Thomas Vowler, Bishop of Saint Asaph, and of the Reverend Griffith Edwards, Clerk, the present rector or incumbent of the rectory of the said parish of Llangadvan (in testimony whereof they have respectively signed and sealed this scheme), we humbly recommend and propose that the tithes, or rent-charges in lieu of tithes, issuing, arising, and payable out of or in respect of certain lands, tenements, and hereditaments, situate either wholly or in part within the township of Voel, in the said county of Montgomery, and now forming part of the endowments of the said rectory of the said parish of Llangadvan, which are set forth and described in the schedule hereunto annexed, shall, without any conveyance or assurance in the law other than this scheme, and any duly gazetted Order of your Majesty in Council ratifying the same, and upon and from the day of the date of the publication of such Order in the London Gazette, be disannexed and transferred from the rectory of the said parish of Llangadvan, and from the rector or incumbent thereof and his successors, and shall become and be absolutely vested in the Reverend William Evan Jones, the rector or incumbent of the rectory of the said parish of Garthbeibio, and in his successors, the rectors or incumbents of the same rectory, for ever, as part of the endowments of such rectory.

“ And we further recommend and propose that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid, or any of them, in accordance with the provisions of the said Acts, or of either of them, or of any other Act of Parliament.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the third and fourth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and thirteen, duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a scheme, bearing date the twentieth day of July, in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-five, in the words following; that is to say:

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the third and fourth years of your Majesty, chapter one hundred and thirteen, have prepared and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council the following scheme for authorizing a transfer of the patronage of, or right of presentation to, the vicarage and parish church of Saint Edward, Leek, in the county of Stafford, and in the diocese of Lichfield.

"Whereas the patronage of, or right of presentation to, the vicarage and parish church of Saint Edward, Leek, is vested in the Right Honourable Thomas Augustus Wolstenholme, Earl of Macclesfield.

"And whereas the said Thomas Augustus Wolstenholme, Earl of Macclesfield, is desirous that the said patronage or right of presentation should be transferred to, and become vested in, the bishop of the said diocese of Lichfield for the time being, so as to render the said church and vicarage more eligible than it would otherwise be according to the rule and practice heretofore adopted by us to receive an unconditional grant in augmentation of the income thereof out of the common fund under our control which is referred to in the hereinbefore mentioned Act.

"Now, therefore, with the consent of the Right Reverend John, Bishop of the said diocese of Lichfield, and of the said Thomas Augustus Wolstenholme, Earl of Macclesfield (in testimony whereof they have respectively signed and sealed this scheme), we humbly recommend and propose that upon and from the date of the publication in the London Gazette of an Order of your Majesty in Council ratifying this scheme, and without any conveyance or assurance in the law other than such duly gazetted Order, the whole right of patronage of, and right of presentation to, the said vicarage and parish church of Saint Edward, Leek, and of the nomination of the vicar or incumbent thereto, shall be transferred to and become and be absolutely vested in and shall and may from time to time be exercised by the said John, Bishop of the said diocese of Lichfield, and by his successors, Bishops of the same diocese, for ever.

"And we further recommend and propose, that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any further or other measures relating to the matters aforesaid, or to any of them, in accordance with the provisions of the said Act, or of any other Act of Parliament."

And whereas the said scheme has been approved by Her Majesty in Council; now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London

Gazette, pursuant to the said Act; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said diocese of Lichfield.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the third and fourth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and thirteen, and of the Act of the twenty-third and twenty-fourth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and twenty-four, duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a scheme, bearing date the twenty-seventh day of July, in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-five, in the words and figures following; that is to say:

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the third and fourth years of your Majesty, chapter one hundred and thirteen, and of the Act of the twenty-third and twenty-fourth years of your Majesty, chapter one hundred and twenty-four, have prepared, and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council the following scheme, for making better provision for the cure of souls in certain parishes and districts.

"Whereas there are not at present within the several parishes and districts specified in the schedule hereunto annexed houses of residence belonging to the respective benefices and suitable for occupation by the incumbents thereof.

"And whereas it appears to us to be expedient that arrangements should be made for providing such a house of residence for each of such benefices, and that for that purpose certain sums of money should be borrowed upon mortgage of the same benefices respectively, in order that such sums of money may be applied towards defraying the costs of such houses of residence respectively.

"Now, therefore, for the better enabling a sum of money to be borrowed upon mortgage of each of the said several benefices so specified as aforesaid, in the schedule hereunto annexed for the purpose aforesaid, we humbly recommend and propose that during the subsistence of any mortgage of each of such benefices which may be effected under the provisions of the Act of the seventeenth year of His Majesty King George the Third, chapter fifty-three; of the Act of the twenty-first year of His said Majesty, chapter sixty-six; of the Act of the first and second years of your Majesty, chapter twenty-three; and of the Act of the first and second years of your Majesty, chapter one hundred and six, or any or either of them, there shall be paid by us in each year, to or on account of the incumbent of the benefice so mortgaged as aforesaid, such sums as shall be sufficient to discharge the yearly interest and instalment of principal monies which may become due and owing in each such year on account of such mortgage; provided always that the amount of such yearly interest and instalment of principal monies shall not in any one year exceed the sum which in the fourth column of the said schedule is set opposite to the name of the benefice to be so mortgaged as aforesaid; and provided also that every such mortgage shall be effected with our consent signified under our common seal.

“ And we further recommend and propose that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing to your Majesty in Council any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid, or any of them, in accordance with the provisions of the said Acts, or of either of them, or of any other Act of Parliament.

AT the Court at Windsor, the 9th day of September, 1865.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of an Act of the sixth and seventh years of Her Majesty, chapter thirty-seven, duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a scheme, bearing date the twenty-seventh day of July, in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-five, in the words following; that is to say:

“ We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of an Act of the sixth and seventh years of your Majesty, chapter thirty-seven, sections six and eight, have prepared, and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council the following scheme for authorizing the sale and disposal of certain property formerly belonging to the prebend of Llangwm, in the cathedral church of Llandaff, and now vested in us.

“ Whereas, on the vacancy of the said prebend, which occurred on or about the tenth day of May, in the year one thousand eight hundred and fifty-eight, by the decease of the Reverend Richard Watson, Clerk, the then prebendary, all the lands, tenements, hereditaments, and endowments, theretofore belonging to the said prebend (except any rights of patronage) became, by virtue of the Act of the third and fourth years of your Majesty, chapter one hundred and thirteenth, absolutely vested in us for the purposes and subject to the provisions applicable to other hereditaments vested in us.

“ And whereas the lands, tenements, hereditaments, and endowments aforesaid are now vested in us in fee simple in possession, subject, as to part thereof, to a beneficial sub-lease granted by a former holder of the estate for a term of years, at a nominal rent, during the subsistence of which sub-lease the premises comprised therein do not produce to us any annual revenue, and partly on that account, and partly on account of the character or situation of the property, the said lands, tenements, hereditaments, and endowments are unsuitable or inconvenient to be held or applied for the purposes for which estates vested in us are applicable under the Acts by which our proceedings are governed.

“ And whereas, by an Act of the twenty-third and twenty-fourth years of your Majesty, chapter one hundred and twenty-four, power is given to lessees holding under us, in the event of our declining to enter into a treaty for the sale of our reversions or the purchase of the leasehold interests, to require us to purchase such leasehold interests at a valuation.

“ And whereas, with a view to the advantageous appropriation of the said lands, tenements, hereditaments, and endowments, or of the proceeds thereof for the ultimate improvement of our common fund, it is expedient that the said lands, tenements, hereditaments, and endowments, or such parts thereof as we shall at any time and from time to time think fit, should be sold or disposed of, and accordingly that we should be empowered to dispose of our interest therein, or in any part or parts thereof, in such manner as shall appear to us advisable.

"Now, therefore, we humbly recommend and propose that we may be authorized and empowered, by instrument or instruments in writing, duly executed according to law, from time to time, to sell or dispose of and duly to convey, according to the provisions of the said Act of the sixth and seventh years of your Majesty's reign, with the consent of the holder or holders thereof (if any), to be testified by his, her, or their being made parties to such instruments, all or any of the said lands, tenements, hereditaments, and endowments, theretofore belonging to the said prebend of Llangwm, and so vested in us as aforesaid, with their appurtenances, and all our estate, right, title, and interest therein, or in any part or parts thereof, unto and to the use of any person or persons desirous or willing to purchase the same, and his, her, or their heirs, executors, administrators, or assigns, or otherwise, as he, she, or they shall direct or appoint, and for such consideration as shall, upon due calculation and inquiry, appear to us to be just and reasonable.

And whereas the said scheme has been approved by Her Majesty in Council: now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette, pursuant to the said Act; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the diocese of Llandaff.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the third and fourth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and thirteen; and of the Act of the fourth and fifth years of Her Majesty, chapter thirty-nine; duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a scheme, bearing date the third day of August, in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-five, in the words following; that is to say:

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the third and fourth years of your Majesty, chapter one hundred and thirteen, and of the Act of the fourth and fifth years of your Majesty, chapter thirty-nine, have prepared, and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council, the following scheme for substituting a money payment to the Archdeacon of Ely, in the Cathedral Church of Ely, for certain property belonging to his Archdeaconry.

"Whereas it was by the above-mentioned Acts enacted that by the authority therein provided, and for the purpose of fully carrying into effect any of the provisions thereof, any arrangement might from time to time be made with the consent in writing under the hand of any dignitary or officer of any cathedral church for the sale, transfer, or exchange of any lands, tithes, or other hereditaments belonging to such dignitary or officer, or for the purchase of other lands, tithes, or other hereditaments in lieu thereof, or for substituting in any case any lands, tithes, or other hereditaments, for any money payment, or any money payment for any lands, tithes, or other hereditaments.

"And whereas one of the purposes of the said firstly-mentioned Act is to provide a fund for making better provision for the cure of souls in parishes where the same is required.

"And whereas it has been agreed between us and the Venerable William Emery, the present holder of the Archdeaconry of Ely, in the cathedral church of Ely, that with a view to better carrying into effect the aforesaid purpose of the said first-mentioned Act, the following arrangement should be recommended by us to your Majesty in Council.

"Now, therefore, with the consent of the said William Emery (testified by his having signed this scheme) we humbly recommend and propose that immediately upon the gazetting of any Order of your Majesty in Council ratifying this scheme, and without any conveyance or assurance in the law other than such duly gazetted Order, all lands, tithes, and other hereditaments whatsoever belonging to the said Archdeaconry of Ely (excepting any right of ecclesiastical patronage), and all the estate, right, title, and interest therein of the said William Emery and his successors, Archdeacons of Ely, shall become and be absolutely vested in us and our successors for the purposes of the said Acts, subject, nevertheless, to any legally subsisting lease or leases thereof, or of any part or parts thereof, and that we shall upon such gazetting as aforesaid be entitled to the rents, profits, and proceeds of the said lands, tithes, and hereditaments, as from the twenty-ninth day of September now last past, and that in consideration of and for such transfer and conveyance there shall be paid by us to the said William Emery, immediately upon such gazetting as aforesaid, the sum of seven hundred and fifty pounds sterling, in respect of the fines which he might now derive from full stating two of the leases by which certain portions of the said premises are demised, and that in further consideration of and for such transfer there shall also be paid by us to the said William Emery, and his successors, Archdeacons of Ely, the annual sum of six hundred pounds, by equal half-yearly payments on the twenty-fifth day of March and the twenty-ninth day of September in every year, and that immediately upon such gazetting as aforesaid, there shall be paid by us to the said William Emery, in addition to the hereinbefore-mentioned sum of seven hundred and fifty pounds, the sum of three hundred pounds in respect of the period which elapsed between the said twenty-ninth day of September now last past, and the twenty-fifth day of March now last past, provided always that no renewal of any lease, nor any new lease of the said lands, tithes, or other hereditaments, or of any part thereof, was, or shall, since the said twenty-ninth day of September now last past, have been or shall be granted or made by the said William Emery.

"And we further recommend and propose, that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid, or any of them, in conformity with the provisions of the said Acts, or either of them, or of any other Act of Parliament."

And whereas the said scheme has been approved by Her Majesty in Council: now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette, pursuant to the said Acts; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the diocese of Ely.

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the fifty-ninth year of His Majesty King George the Third, chapter one hundred and thirty-four; of the Act of the second and third years of your Majesty, chapter forty-nine; of the Act of the third and fourth years of your Majesty, chapter sixty; and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of your Majesty, chapter fifty-five; have prepared, and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council, the following representation as to the assignment of a district chapelry to the consecrated church of Saint Bartholomew, situate within the limits of the district chapelry of Saint Stephen, Islington, sometime part of the parish of Saint Mary, Islington, in the county of Middlesex, and in the diocese of London.

"Whereas it appears to us to be expedient that a district chapelry should be assigned to the said church of Saint Bartholomew, at Islington.

"Now, therefore, with the consent of the Right Honourable and Right Reverend Archibald Campbell, Bishop of the said diocese of London (testified by his having signed and sealed this representation), we humbly represent that it would, in our opinion, be expedient that all that part of the said district chapelry of Saint Stephen, Islington, which is described in the schedule hereunder written, all which part, together with the boundaries thereof, is delineated and set forth on the map or plan hereunto annexed, should be assigned to the said church of Saint Bartholomew, at

No. 23012.

Islington, and that the same should be named 'The District Chapelry of Saint Bartholomew, Islington.'

"And, with the like consent of the said Archibald Campbell, Bishop of the said diocese of London (testified as aforesaid), we further represent that it appears to us to be expedient that banns of matrimony should be published, and that marriages, baptisms, and churchings should be solemnized or performed at such church, and that the fees to be received in respect of the publication of such banns, and of the solemnization or performance of the said offices, should be paid and belong to the minister of the same church for the time being:

"We, therefore, humbly pray that your Majesty will be graciously pleased to take the premises into your Royal consideration, and to make such Order with respect thereto as to your Majesty, in your Royal wisdom, shall seem meet.

The SCHEDULE to which the foregoing Representation has reference.

"All that part of the district chapelry of Saint Stephen, Islington, sometime part of the parish of Saint Mary, Islington, in the county of Middlesex, and in the diocese of London, which is situate to the south-east of an imaginary line extending along the middle of the Essex-road."

And whereas the said representation has been approved by Her Majesty in Council: now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said representation, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette, pursuant to the said Acts; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said diocese of London.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the sixth and seventh years of Her Majesty, chapter thirty-seven, duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a scheme, bearing date the third day of August, in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-five, in the words following; that is to say:

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the sixth and seventh years of your Majesty; chapter thirty-seven, have prepared, and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council, the following scheme for assigning the right of patronage of the new parish of Christ Church, Lannarth, in the county of Cornwall and in the diocese of Exeter.

"Whereas by an Order of your Majesty in Council, bearing date the twenty-eighth day of November, in the year one thousand eight hundred and forty-four, and published in the London Gazette on the third day of December, in the same year, the district of Christ Church, Lannarth, was constituted out of the parish of Gwennap, otherwise Saint Wennap, in the county and diocese aforesaid, and such district has since become a new parish under the provisions of the hereinbefore mentioned Act.

"And whereas no specific assignment of the whole or any part of the right of patronage of the said district, or of the nomination of a minister thereto, or, so soon as such district should become a new parish as aforesaid, of a perpetual curate thereto, was made by the said Order, and such right of patronage and nomination has hitherto continued to be exercised in accordance with the directions in that behalf contained in the said Act.

"And whereas a sum of one thousand pounds sterling has been contributed and paid to us by the Reverend John Tucker, the perpetual curate of the said new parish of Christ Church, Lannarth, towards the augmentation of the endowment of the said new parish, and for the benefit of the perpetual curate thereof, and we have, in respect of the said sum, agreed with the said John Tucker, and have undertaken to provide and pay, by equal half-yearly payments on the first day of May and the first day of November in each and every year, to the perpetual curate of the said new parish (being duly licensed thereto), the yearly sum of thirty-three pounds six shillings and eight pence.

"And whereas the said sum of one thousand pounds was so contributed and paid by the said John Tucker as aforesaid, upon the understanding that (such arrangement appearing to us to be expedient) the whole right of patronage of the said new parish, and of the nomination of the perpetual curate thereto, and to the church thereof, should be assigned to the said John Tucker, his heirs and assigns, in the manner hereinafter recommended and proposed.

"Now, therefore, we humbly recommend and propose, that the whole right of patronage of the said new parish of Christ Church, Lannarth, and of the nomination of a perpetual curate thereto, and to the church thereof, shall, without any conveyance or assurance in the law other than this scheme, and any duly gazetted Order of your Majesty in Council ratifying the same, and upon and from the day of the date of the publication of such Order in the London Gazette as aforesaid be assigned to and become and be absolutely vested in, and shall and may from time to time be exercised by, the said John Tucker, his heirs and assigns, for ever.

"And we further recommend and propose, that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid, or any of them, in accordance with the provisions of the said Act, or of any other Act of Parliament."

And whereas the said scheme has been approved by Her Majesty in Council: now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette, pursuant to the said Act; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said diocese of Exeter.

Arthur Helps.

At the Court at Windsor, the 9th day of September, 1865.

PRESENT.

The QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of an Act of the third and fourth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and thirteen, and of an Act of the fourth and fifth years of Her Majesty, chapter thirty-nine, duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a scheme, bearing date the third day of August, in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-five, in the words and figures following; that is to say:

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of an Act of the third and fourth years of your Majesty, chapter one hundred and thirteen, and of an Act of the fourth and fifth years of your Majesty, chapter thirty-nine, have prepared, and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council, the following scheme for assigning certain lands and hereditaments as an endowment for the Dean and Chapter of the cathedral church of Chichester.

"Whereas under the provisions of the above-mentioned Acts, and of an Act of the fifth and sixth years of your Majesty, chapter twenty-six, and by virtue of an Order of your Majesty in Council, made under the authority of such provisions, bearing date the tenth day of May, in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty, and duly published in the London Gazette on the sixteenth day of the same month, in consideration of annual money payments of four thousand and five hundred pounds, and two hundred pounds, to the said Dean and Chapter (such last-mentioned sum to be by them appropriated and paid to the Chapter Clerk for the time being in respect of the profits which would have accrued to him on account of the management of the estates thereby proposed to be transferred to us), all the manors, lands, tithes, tenements and hereditaments theretofore belonging, either in possession or reversion, to the said Dean and Chapter (except certain portions thereof in the above-mentioned Order particularly excepted), and all the estate and interest therein of the said Dean and Chapter became vested in us.

"And whereas it was by the above-mentioned Order of your Majesty in Council provided that none of the monies or estates received or acquired under the provisions thereof should be applicable to the purposes of our common fund, except only so far as it might be necessary to reimburse such fund any advances made thereout under the provisions of such Order, until or unless, by and under the like authority, the said Dean and Chapter should have been put into possession, in fee-simple, of real estate sufficient to secure to them an annual income therefrom (after deducting rates, taxes, and other outgoings, including cost of management), of four thousand and five hundred pounds; subject, however, as well to the charges and outgoings particularly described in the schedule marked B, annexed to such Order, as to all other capitular liabilities, except the hereinbefore-mentioned payment of two hundred pounds per annum to the Chapter Clerk.

"And whereas by an Order of your Majesty in Council, made under the authority of the above-mentioned Acts, bearing date the twenty-sixth day of March, in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty, and duly published in the London Gazette on the thirty-first day of the same month, it was provided that there should be paid by us to the Dean of the said cathedral church, and to his successors, Deans of the same church, such a sum as should, together with the monies which upon inquiry and calculation should appear to have become due in each year to the Dean of the said church, out of the corporate revenues thereof, be sufficient to make up the income of the Dean for each such year to the sum of one thousand pounds.

"And whereas by the second of the above-mentioned Acts it is enacted that it shall be lawful by the authority in such Act referred to, that is by the authority of an Order of your Majesty in Council ratifying a scheme prepared by us, to carry into effect certain purposes referred to in the same Act, one of such purposes being that of giving to the Dean of every cathedral and collegiate church in England an average annual income of one thousand pounds, by any mode of payment, contribution, augmentation, or endowment, which may be deemed fit, as well as by the modes in the first of the above-mentioned Acts specified.

"And whereas under the statutes and usages of the said cathedral church the surplus of the revenues thereof, after providing for the charges and capitular liabilities to which such revenues are subject, is divisible into five equal parts or shares, of which the said Dean is entitled to one part or share, the remaining four parts or shares being severally receivable by the four canons of the same cathedral church respectively.

"And whereas the Dean of the said cathedral church is at present in the receipt of the annual sum of five hundred pounds as his said one-fifth part or share of the divisible surplus arising from the above-mentioned gross annual payment of four thousand and five hundred pounds, four ninth parts of the same gross annual payment being appropriated towards providing for the expenses of the services of the said cathedral church, and the other purposes particularly enumerated and set forth in the schedule marked B annexed to the hereinbefore recited Order of your Majesty in Council of the tenth of May, one thousand eight hundred and sixty; and to providing for all other capitular liabilities, and the said Dean is also in receipt of an annual sum of five hundred pounds, payable to him from time to time by us under the authority of the hereinbefore recited Order of your Majesty in Council of the twenty-sixth day of March, in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty.

"And whereas by a statute made and passed by the said Dean and Chapter on the second day of August last past, which statute has been duly confirmed by the Lord Bishop of Chichester as visitor of the said Dean and Chapter and cathedral church, and has been registered in the registry of the diocese, after reciting that the said Dean was then in the receipt of the said two several annual sums of five hundred pounds from the sources hereinbefore respectively specified, and that it had been agreed, as the fact was between the said Dean and Chapter and ourselves, that the estates to be assigned by us to the said Dean and Chapter as in the said Statute mentioned, should comprise property sufficient to provide a clear annual income of five thousand pounds, such annual income being five hundred pounds more than the amount mentioned in the proviso contained in the Order of your Majesty in Council firstly above recited, which refers to the re-endowment of the said Dean and Chapter, they, the said Dean and Chapter, did order and decree that from and after the carrying out of such agreement by our assigning to them real estates in possession sufficient to secure to them (after making such deductions as are hereinbefore mentioned) a clear annual income of five thousand pounds, four tenth parts of the rents, profits, and proceeds of such estates should be appropriated to providing for the discharge of the expenses of the services of the said cathedral church and the other purposes particularly enumerated and set forth in the said schedule marked B annexed to the Order of your Majesty in Council hereinbefore first recited, and to providing for all other capitular liabilities; and that the remaining six tenth parts should be appropriated as follows, that is to say, -- that such six tenth parts should be divided into six equal parts or shares, and that two of such parts or shares should constitute the income of the Dean, and the remaining four parts or shares should be severally appropriated to and receivable by the four canons of the said cathedral church respectively.

"And whereas it appears to us that the arrangement so set forth in the Statute of the said Dean and Chapter hereinbefore recited, will provide a convenient and satisfactory mode of securing to the said Dean an income of one thousand pounds per annum and no more.

"And whereas the said Dean and Chapter have, in pursuance of the hereinbefore-recited agreement, signified to us their willingness to accept as their endowment the lands, tenements, and hereditaments particularly described in the schedule hereunto annexed, which are now vested in us in fee-simple in possession, and the same premises are in our opinion convenient to be held as the endowment of the said Dean and Chapter, and are calculated to produce as nearly as may be the above-mentioned net annual income of five thousand pounds.

"Now, therefore, with the consent of the said Dean and Chapter of the said cathedral church at Chichester, testified by their having affixed their corporate seal to this scheme, and also with the consent of the Very Reverend Walter Farquhar Hook, Doctor in Divinity, the Dean of the same cathedral church, testified by his having duly signed this scheme, we humbly recommend and propose that upon the publication in the London Gazette of any Order of your Majesty in Council ratifying this scheme, and without any conveyance or assurance in the law other than such duly published Order, the lands, tenements, and hereditaments particularly described in the schedule hereunto annexed, with their appurtenances, and all our right, title, estate, and interest therein, and in the benefit of the perpetual land tax, if any, charged upon the same premises which has been redeemed, shall be assigned as the endowment of the Dean and Chapter of Chichester, and shall become and be absolutely vested in the said Dean and Chapter, in as full and ample a manner as if the same had formed part of the ancient possessions of the said Dean and Chapter, and that the said Dean and Chapter shall become and be absolutely entitled to the rents, profits, and proceeds of the lands, tenements, and hereditaments aforesaid, as from the twenty-fifth day of March last past, in lieu of, and substitution for, the annual sums payable by us to the said Dean and Chapter, and to the said Dean respectively, under the provisions of the two several Orders of your Majesty in Council, hereinbefore recited, which said payments shall, as from the same twenty-fifth day of March last, cease and determine.

"And we further recommend and propose that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid, in conformity with the provisions of the said recited Acts, or of any other Act of Parliament.

'Now, therefore, with the consent of the Right Reverend Joseph Cotton, Bishop of the said diocese of Rochester (testified by his having signed and sealed this representation), we humbly represent that it would, in our opinion, be expedient that all that part of the said parish of Hitchin, which is described in the schedule hereunder written, all which part, together with the boundaries thereof, is delineated and set forth on the map or plan hereunto annexed, should be assigned to the said church of the Holy Saviour, and that the same should be named 'The District Chapelry of the Holy Saviour, Hitchin.'

"And, with the like consent of the said Joseph Cotton, Bishop of the said diocese of Rochester, (testified as aforesaid), we further represent, that it appears to us to be expedient that banns of matrimony should be published, and that marriages, baptisms, and churchings, should be solemnized or performed at such church, and that the fees to be received in respect of the publication of such banns, and of the solemnization or performance of the said offices, should be paid and belong to the minister of the same church for the time being: Provided always, that so long as the Reverend Lewis Hensley, the present vicar or incumbent of the vicarage of the said parish of Hitchin, shall remain such vicar or incumbent, all the fees which may be received in respect of the performance of the said offices in the church of the Holy Saviour aforesaid shall be paid by the minister thereof to the said Lewis Hensley.

"We, therefore, humbly pray, that your Majesty will be graciously pleased to take the premises into your Royal consideration, and to make such Order with respect thereto as to your Majesty, in your Royal wisdom, shall seem meet.

The SCHEDULE to which the foregoing Representation has reference.

"The District Chapelry of the Holy Saviour, Hitchin, being:—

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of an Act of the sixth and seventh years of Her Majesty, chapter thirty-seven; and of another Act of the twenty-third and twenty-fourth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and twenty-four; duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a scheme, bearing date the third day of August, in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-five, in the words following; that is to say:

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of an Act of the sixth and seventh years of your Majesty, chapter thirty-seven, sections six and eight; and of another Act of the twenty-third and twenty-fourth years of your Majesty, chapter one hundred and twenty-four, sections two, three, and twenty-four; have prepared, and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council, the following scheme for authorizing the sale and disposal of certain property formerly belonging to the bishoprick of Chester and now vested in us.

"Whereas on the vacancy of the said bishoprick which occurred on or about the fifteenth day of June, in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-five, by the decease of the Right Reverend John, the late Bishop of Chester, all the lands, tithes, tenements, hereditaments, and endowments, formerly belonging to the said bishoprick (except rights of patronage and the episcopal house of residence situate at Chester), became absolutely vested in us for the purposes, and subject to the provisions, applicable to other hereditaments vested in us.

"And whereas the lands, tithes, tenements, hereditaments and endowments aforesaid, consist to a considerable extent of reversions expectant upon grants and leases for lives and years, and produce during the subsistence of such grants and leases only small annual revenues, and on that account, and in some instances on account of the character or situation of the property are unsuitable or inconvenient to be assigned as an endowment for the said bishoprick, or to be held or applied for the other purposes for which estates vested in us are applicable under the Acts by which our proceedings are governed.

"And whereas by the last-mentioned Act power is given to lessees holding under us, in the event of our declining to enter into a treaty for the sale of our reversions, or for the purchase of the leasehold interests, to require us to purchase such leasehold interests at a valuation.

"And whereas it is expedient that such of the aforesaid lands, tithes, tenements, hereditaments, and endowments, lately belonging to the see of Chester (either with or without other property vested in us as the case may require), as in the judgment of our Estates Committee, and subject to the approbation of the bishop for the time being, shall be deemed convenient to be held as an endowment for the said see, and as will secure a net annual income of four thousand and five hundred pounds, being the income named for the Bishop of Chester and his successors by the Order made by your Majesty in Council on the twenty-fifth day of August, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-one, which Order was duly published in the London Gazette on the nineteenth day of September following, should be assigned as the endowment of the said see, and that for that purpose, as well as with a view to the more advantageous appropriation of the remainder of the said lands, tithes, tenements, hereditaments, and endowments, or of the proceeds thereof, for the ultimate improvement of our common fund, we should be empowered to dispose of our interest therein, or in any part or parts thereof, and in such manner as shall appear to us advisable.

"Now, therefore, we humbly recommend and propose, that we may be authorized and empowered, by instrument or instruments in writing duly executed according to law from time to time, to sell or dispose of and duly to convey, according to the provisions of the said Act of the sixth and seventh years of your Majesty's reign, with the consent of the respective holders (if any) to be testified by their being made parties to such instruments, all or any of the said lands, tithes, tenements, hereditaments, and endowments, heretofore belonging to the said bishoprick of Chester and so vested in us aforesaid, with their appurtenances, and all our estate, right, title, and interest therein, or in any part or parts thereof, unto and to the use of any person or persons desirous or willing to purchase the same, and his, her, or their heirs, executors, administrators, or assigns, or otherwise, as he, she, or they shall direct or appoint, and for such consideration as shall upon due calculation and enquiry appear to us to be just and reasonable.

"And we further recommend and propose, that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid, or any of them, in accordance with the provisions of the said Acts, or of any other Act of Parliament."

And whereas the said scheme has been approved by Her Majesty in Council: now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette, pursuant to the said Act; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the diocese of Chester.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council

WHEREAS by an Act passed in the session of Parliament held in the seventeenth and eighteenth years of the reign of Her present Majesty, intituled "An Act to make further provision for the burial of the dead in England, beyond the limits of the metropolis," it is enacted, that in case it appear to Her Majesty in Council, upon the petition of the Town Council of any borough stating that an Order in Council has been made for closing all or any of the burial-grounds of one or more parishes, being wholly or partly within such borough, and that there is difficulty or inconvenience in providing, under the powers of an Act passed in the session of Parliament held in the sixteenth and seventeenth years of Her Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to amend the laws concerning the burial of the dead in England, beyond the limits of the metropolis," and to amend the Act concerning the burial of "the dead in the metropolis," requisite places of burial for the inhabitants of such parish or parishes, it shall be lawful for Her Majesty, with the advice of the Privy Council, to order that powers shall be vested in the Council of such borough for providing such places of burial, under the provisions of the said Act; Provided always, that notice of such petition, and of the time when it shall please Her Majesty to order that the same be taken into consideration by the Privy Council, shall be published in the London Gazette and in one of the newspapers usually circulating in such borough, one month at least before such petition is so considered:

And whereas the mayor, aldermen, and burgesses of the borough of Wrexham, in the county of Denbigh, in Council assembled, have presented a petition to Her Majesty in Council, stating that the parish of Wrexham comprises an area of 14,292 statute acres, and includes 15 townships separately maintaining their own poor, the total population being, at the Census of 1861, 19,775, That five of these townships, and portions of three others of them, covering an area of 6,350 statute acres, and containing a population of 6,560, have been formed into three separate ecclesiastical districts, and have burial-ground attached to them at present sufficient for the requirements for the purposes of sepulture of such districts, And further stating that the portion of the parish of Wrexham forming the ecclesiastical parish under the spiritual control of the vicar contains 7,942 statute acres, having a population of 13,215, And further stating that in the year 1857, the parliamentary borough of Wrexham, comprising the townships of Wrexham Regis and Wrexham Abbot, and part of the township of Esclusham Below, and including therein the town of Wrexham, was constituted by Royal charter a municipal borough, under the provisions of the Municipal Corporation Acts, And further stating that the borough of Wrexham thus constituted, having an area of 1,087 acres, possessed, at the Census of 1861, a population of 7,588, and forms part of the above-mentioned ecclesiastical parish of Wrexham, and further stating that the church of Saint Giles, being the parish church, the chapel of ease or quasi-district church of Saint Mark's, a Roman Catholic church, and 12 places of worship belonging to different Dissenting denominations, some of them of considerable size, are situated within the borough of Wrexham, And further stating that, with the exception of a small graveyard attached to a Dissenting chapel three miles from Wrexham, the burial-grounds for the inhabitants of the ecclesiastical parish of Wrexham are three only in number; that is to say, the churchyard of the parish church of Saint Giles, a cemetery in or near to a place called Penybryn, in the said borough of Wrexham, belonging to the Established Church, and a burial-ground called Rhosddu Burial-ground, also within the said borough, belonging to several congregations of Protestant Dissenters, And further stating that the churchyard of Saint Giles is a very ancient place of sepulture, having been so used for several centuries, That in consequence of its position in the centre of a dense population and its overcrowded state, an Order in Council was made in the year 1856 for its close (with the exception of interments in vaults and brick graves), And further stating, that the cemetery in Penybryn had been used as a burial-ground for upwards of 60 years, That its admeasurement is 2A. 0R. 36R., or thereabouts, That numerous interments took place there before the closing of the parish churchyard, That since that event the burials in this cemetery have become much more frequent, it being the only place of burial for the members of the Established Church and the Roman Catholics in the whole of the parish, That in consequence of such increase of burials this cemetery is rapidly filling, and in a few years will be quite full, And further stating, that the burial place at Rhosddu comprises an area of 0A. 3R. 26R., or thereabouts, That it has been used as a place of sepulture for the dissenting inhabitants of the town and parish for about 200 years, and that it is becoming so full that there is considerable difficulty in finding room for the successive interments that are now taking place, And further stating, that the population of the parish is rapidly increasing, the addition to the number of the people, in the interval between the years 1851 and 1861, being about 3000, That in consequence of the construction of new railways, the discovery and opening of extensive mines of coal and other minerals, and the establishment of large iron and other works within or near to the parish during the last few years, it is apprehended that the future increase of population will proceed in a larger ratio than during the interval before referred to, And further stating, that a portion only of the inhabitants of the parish both within and beyond the limits of the borough are members of the Church of England, the residue being Roman Catholics and Dissenters, That the Roman Catholics are very numerous, and at present have no separate place of burial, The Dissenters also are a large, increasing and influential body, and in consequence of the overcrowded state of their burial-ground will soon be without a separate place of sepulture, And further stating, that for the reasons above stated, the necessity for the construction of a large and commodious burial-ground for the use of the inhabitants of the borough and parish of Wrexham, in common and without any distinction on the ground of religious differences, has long existed and is becoming increasingly apparent and pressing, That there is difficulty and inconvenience in providing under the powers of the Act of Parliament, 16 and 17 Victoria, c. 134, requisite places of burial for the inhabitants of the said parish of Wrexham, And praying that Her Majesty will be graciously pleased to order in Council that powers shall be vested in the Council of the said borough of Wrexham for providing places of burial under the said first hereinbefore recited Act :

Now, therefore, Her Majesty is pleased, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, to order, and it is hereby ordered, that powers be vested in the mayor, aldermen, and burgesses of the borough of Wrexham, in Council assembled, for providing requisite places of burial, under the provisions of the said first recited Act, intituled "An Act to make further provision for the burial of the Dead in England beyond the limits of the Metropolis," or of any other Act of Parliament relating to burials, for the inhabitants of the said borough and parish of Wrexham.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the session of Parliament, held in the sixteenth and seventeenth years of Her Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to amend the laws concerning the burial of the dead in England, beyond the limits of the metropolis, and to amend the Act concerning the burial of the dead in the metropolis," it is enacted that, in case it appears to Her Majesty in Council, upon the representation of one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, that, for the protection of the public health, the opening of any new burial-ground in any city or town, or within any other limits, save with the previous approval of one of such Secretaries of State, should be prohibited, or that burials in any city or town, or within any other limits, or in any burial-ground or places of burial, should be wholly discontinued, or should be discontinued subject to any exception or qualification, it shall be lawful for Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, to order that no new burial-ground shall be opened in any city or town, or within such limits, without such previous approval, or (as the case may require), that after a time mentioned in the Order, burials in such city or town, or within such limits, or in such burial-grounds or places of burial, shall be discontinued wholly, or subject to any exceptions or qualifications mentioned in such Order, and so from time to time, as circumstances may require; provided always, that notice of such representation, and of the time when it shall please Her Majesty to order that the same be taken into consideration by the Privy Council, shall be published in the London Gazette, and shall be affixed on the doors of the churches or chapels of, or on some other conspicuous places within, the parishes affected by such representation, one month before such representation is so considered; provided also, that no such representation shall be made in relation to the burial-ground of any parish until ten days' previous notice of the intention to make such representation shall have been given to the Incumbent and Vestry Clerk or Churchwardens of such parish;

And whereas the Right Honourable Sir George Grey, Bart., one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, after giving to the Incumbent and the Churchwardens of the parish hereinafter mentioned, ten days' previous notice of his intention to make such representation, has made a representation stating that, for the protection of the public health, burials should be discontinued in the undermentioned parish :

And whereas Her Majesty was pleased, by Her Order in Council of the fifth day of July last, to give notice of such representation, and to order that the same should be taken into consideration by a Committee of the Lords of Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council, on the fourteenth day of August, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-five, and such Order has been published in the London Gazette, and copies thereof have been affixed, as required by the said Act :

Now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, is pleased to order, and it is hereby ordered, that burials in the undermentioned parish shall be discontinued (except as is herein otherwise directed), as follows, viz. ;

WITHAM, ESSEX.—Forthwith, in the Independent Burial Ground, except in now existing vaults and walled graves,—every coffin buried in which shall be enclosed by stonework properly cemented,—and except in earthen graves not less than five feet deep, which can be opened without the exposure of coffins or disturbance of remains.

Lord President.
Viscount Palmerston.

WHEREAS by an Act passed in the session of the eleventh and twelfth years of Her present Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to prevent until the 1st day of September, 1850, and to the end of the then next session of Parliament, the spreading of contagious or infectious disorders among sheep, cattle, and other animals," and which has since been from time to time continued by divers subsequent Acts, it is (amongst other things) enacted that it shall be lawful for the Lords and others of Her Majesty's Privy Council, or any two or more of them, from time to time, to make such Orders and Regulations as to them may seem necessary for the purpose of prohibiting or regulating the removal to or from such parts or places as they may designate in such Order or Orders, of sheep, cattle, horses, swine, or other animals; or of meat, skins, hides, horns, hoofs, or other parts of any animals; and to make any other Orders or Regulations for the purpose of giving effect to the provisions of the said Act, and again to revoke, alter, or vary, any such Orders or Regulations; and that all provisions for any of the purposes aforesaid in any such Order or Orders contained shall have the like force and
