TUESDAY, AUGUST 13, 1872.

Her Majesty's Most Gracious Speech, delivered by the Lords Commissioners to both Houses of Parliament, on Saturday, August 10, 1872.

My Lords and Gentlemen,

THE time has now arrived when you may properly relinquish the performance of your arduous duties for a term of repose which has been honourably earned by your devoted assiduity.

I rejoice to inform you that the controversy which had arisen between my Government and the Government of the United States, in consequence of the presentation of the American claims for indirect losses under the Treaty of Washington, has been composed by a spontaneous declaration of the arbitrators, entirely consistent with the views which I announced to you at the opening of the session. In concurrence with your action on the part of the United Kingdom, the Parliament of Canada has passed the Acts necessary to give effect to the Treaty within the dominion. All the arrangements contemplated by that instrument are, therefore, now in progress: and I reflect with satisfaction that the subjects with which it has dealt no longer offer any impediment to a perfect concord between two kindred nations.

Since I addressed you at the commencement of the session, I have received from the Government of France the formal notice which would bring to an end the Commercial Treaty of 1860. The Government, however, has indicated a desire for further communications. In any correspondence on this subject I shall be guided by an earnest anxiety to secure attention to the just claims of my subjects, by the friendly feeling which has so long united the two countries, and by my conviction of the moral, as well as material benefits to be derived by each from a free intercourse between them.

I have had great satisfaction in concluding with the Emperor of Germany a treaty, in conformity with the provisions of the Act of 1870, for the mutual surrender of fugitive criminals. I am engaged in framing similar arrangements with other Powers.

My Government has taken steps intended to prepare the way for dealing more effectually with the slave trade on the east coast of Africa.

I have cheerfully given my assent to an Act of the Legislature of the Cape Colony, for the establishment in that colony of what is now generally known as responsible government.

Gentlemen of the House of Commons,

My acknowledgments are due to you for the ample provision which you have made for the varied exigencies of the public service.

My Lords and Gentlemen,

Although the wants and expectations of the country seems to outstrip every effort of Parliament in its career of legislative improvement, I notice with satisfaction the main additions which you have been enabled to make during the present year to our laws.

The Act having reference to outrages upon natives in the islands of the Pacific is well designed, by providing for the more easy and effectual prevention and punishment of the offences at which it is aimed, to promote the ends of humanity and the honour of the Empire.

The Act for the localisation of the army, while it strengthens the defensive system of the country, will lend an indispensable aid in effecting those important reforms which have been approved by Parliament.

The Act which establishes the Ballot will assist to secure alike the independence of the voter and the tranquillity and purity of elections for members to serve in Parliament.

Although you have been unable, during the present session, to mature any measure directed against corrupt practices in the choice of Members of Parliament, I observe with pleasure that the cognate subject of municipal elections has had your attention, and that you have presented to me a law which is well calculated to check existing evils, and which provides a tribunal for trying the validity of such elections.

By the Scottish Education Act you have made provision for the further extension and greater efficacy of the training of the young throughout Scotland, in accordance with the conscientious and deep-rooted convictions of the people, and with the principles of religious freedom.

The Act for establishing a Board of Local Government in Ireland, modelled on the English statute of 1871, supplies a machinery for giving effect to many useful laws, and promises to extend within that portion of the United Kingdom the solid benefits of popular local institutions.

The measure for the amendment of the Act of Uniformity, based as it is upon careful inquiry and on a large amount of ascertained consent, has without offence or shock, introduced useful modification into an ancient system of Divine worship, to which a large portion of my people are warmly attached.

The Public Health Act, though it does not embrace all the enactments which have been desired, has, by the establishment of efficient and duly organized local authorities, done much both for the enforcement of the present Sanitary Laws and for rendering more easy what yet remains to be accomplished in the way of legislative provision on the subject.

The Act for regulating the custody and management of the large funds held by the Court of Chancery will relieve the numerous class of suitors in that Court from risks and inconveniences to which they may heretofore have been more or less exposed, and will likewise tend to an increased stability of our finance.

I am gratified to find that, by the Acts for the regulation of mines, you have been enabled to supply new securities for the safety and advantage of the large bodies of my subjects engaged in this great branch of industry.

The enactments embodied in the measure for the regulation of the licensing system constitute a sensible improvement of the existing law, and I trust that the several regulations of police which they include will be found conducive to public order.

I am able to speak favourably both of the tranquillity and of the growing prosperity of Ireland.

The revenue is in a flourishing condition.

While I cordially congratulate you on the activity of trade and industry, I hope it will be borne in mind that periods of unusually rapid changes in the prices of commodities and in the value of labour are likewise periods in which there is more than ever a call for the exercise of moderation and forethought.

In bidding you farewell, I ask you to join with me in acknowledging the abundant mercies of the Almighty, and in imploring their continuance.

Then a Commission for proroguing the Parliament was read; after which the Lord Chancellor said:

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS there was this day read at the Board a Memorial from the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty, dated the eighth of August, one thousand eight hundred and seventy-two, in the words following, viz. :—

"Whereas by your Majesty's Order in Council dated the twenty-second day of February, one thousand eight hundred and seventy, certain rates of half-pay were established for Captains in your Majesty's Navy, and certain Regulations laid down for the grant of Good Service Pensions to Officers of that rank; and whereas we are humbly of opinion that it would be for the advantage of your Majesty's Naval Service to alter some of the conditions under which Good Service Pensions are now held by Captains, and to reduce the number of such Pensions, increasing at the same time the half-pay of all Officers of that rank : We do therefore beg leave to recommend that your Majesty will be graciously pleased by your Order in Council to grant, from the first day of October, one thousand eight hundred and seventy-two, an addition of two shillings a-day to each rate of half-pay provided for Captains; to declare the Paragraphs 3, 6, and 7 of Section IX of the said Order in Council shall no longer apply to Captains' Good Service Pensions; and that, subject to the temporary provisions hereinafter stated, the following Regulations be established with regard to such Pensions, in addition to the other Regulations in the said Order in Council which remain in full force :

"1. Captain's Good Service Pensions to be limited in number to twelve, each of one hundred and fifty pounds a-year, and to be awarded to Officers on the Active List for distinguished service at sea, preference being given, in cases of special gallantry, to Officers who have commanded a ship in action against the enemy.

"2. The emolument of the Pension to be drawn by the Officer, irrespective of the receipt of full-pay, or half-pay, or civil salary.

"And we further beg leave to recommend the following temporary provisions, namely: Until the number of Captains now holding Good Service Pensions be reduced to twelve, one only in every two vacancies created amongst the present pension holders to be filled up; and the emolument of any Good Service Pension granted subsequently to the first day of April, one thousand eight hundred and seventy, not to be drawn by Officers on full-pay, or in receipt of civil salary.

"The Lords Commissioners of your Majesty's Treasury have signified to Us their concurrence in these proposals."

Her Majesty having taken the said Memorial into consideration, was pleased by and with the advice of Her Privy Council to approve of what is therein proposed.

And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty are to give the necessary directions herein accordingly.

Arthur Helps.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS it is expedient to amend the Order in Council, dated the nineteenth day of August, one thousand eight hundred and seventy-one, relating to Writers in the Civil Service:

Now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, doth order, and it is hereby ordered, as follows; viz. :—

That, where the words "fourth June, one thousand eight hundred and seventy," occur in the third clause of the said Order, the words "nineteenth August, one thousand eight hundred and seventy-one," be substituted instead thereof.

AT the Court at Osborne House, Isle of Wight, the 9th day of August, 1872.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by "The Merchant Shipping Act, 1854," it is enacted that "Her Majesty may, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, from time to time reduce all or any of the dues for the time being, payable in respect of existing or future lighthouses, buoys, or beacons, for the time being under the management of the General Lighthouse Authorities," therein mentioned (that is to say), the Corporation of Trinity House of Deptford Strand, the Commissioners of Northern Lighthouses, and the Port of Dublin Corporation, now called the Commissioners of Irish Lights; and may also, by and with the like advice, from time to time increase or vary any of such dues, so that no dues payable in respect of any lighthouse, buoy, or beacon existing at the time when the said Act came into operation, should be made to exceed the amount which had, at any period previous to such time, been received in respect thereof, or to which the said dues might during any part of such period as last aforesaid, lawfully have been raised:

And whereas by Order in Council, dated the twenty-fourth of October, one thousand eight hundred and seventy (which came into operation on the first of October, one thousand eight hundred and seventy), Her Majesty was pleased to approve certain revised and amended New Consolidated Tables of Light Duties (Oversea Section), levied by the said General Lighthouse Authorities respectively in the form thereunto annexed, together with the several reductions, variations, abatements, regulations, and exemptions therein contained:

And whereas, by Order in Council, dated the sixteenth of May, one thousand eight hundred and seventy-one, Her Majesty was pleased to approve certain New Consolidated Tables of Light Duties (Coast Section), levied as aforesaid, in the form thereunto annexed, together with the several reductions, variations, abatements, regulations, and exemptions therein contained:

And whereas, by Order in Council, dated the twenty-fifth of June, one thousand eight hundred and seventy-two, made in pursuance of the said recited Act, Her Majesty was pleased to direct that certain new tolls should, as soon as a light is exhibited from a lighthouse now being erected on Dhu Heartach Rock, be paid for every oversea vessel and every coasting vessel respectively deriving benefit from the said lighthouse, subject to an abatement or discount of fifty per cent, and the several variations, abatements, regulations, and exemptions, mentioned in the said New Consolidated Tables of Light Duties:

And whereas, among the regulations and exemptions in the Coasting Section of the said New Consolidated Tables of Light Duties, it is provided that the duties for certain general passing lights in the east coast of England, viz., those between Fern and Kentish Knock, both inclusive, should be payable by coasting vessels once only for the whole voyage out and home, and it has been made to appear to Her Majesty that it is expedient to extend this regulation and exemption, as regards coasting vessels, to all general passing lights under the management of the said three General Lighthouse Authorities:

And whereas it is provided, in both the Oversea and Coasting Sections of the said New Consolidated Tables of Light Duties, that until Her Majesty, with the advice of Her Privy Council, may see fit otherwise to determine, there shall be allowed to every person paying such tolls (being those specified in the foregoing tables) an abatement or discount upon the amount payable by him, which abatement or discount shall, in the case of every oversea vessel and every coasting vessel, be fifty per cent.; and it has been made to appear to Her Majesty that it is expedient that the said abatement or discount on the amount of tolls hereinbefore referred to should be varied in manner hereinafter mentioned:

Now, therefore, Her Majesty, by virtue of the powers vested in Her by the said recited Act, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, is pleased to direct as follows, viz. :—

1. That on and after the first October, one thousand eight hundred and seventy-two, the duties for all General Passing Lights, under the management of the said three General Lighthouse Authorities, shall be payable by coasting vessels once only for the whole voyage out and home, subject, however, to the abatement or discount herein-after mentioned.

2. That on and after the said first October, one thousand eight hundred and seventy-two, the abatement or discount to be allowed upon the amount of tolls payable by virtue of the three hereinbefore-recited Orders in Council, and of this Order in Council, shall be fifty-five per centum, and no more.

petency for the foreign trade granted under those Acts, except so much of the one hundred and thirty-ninth section of "The Merchant Shipping Act, 1854," and the tenth section of "The Merchant Shipping Act Amendment Act, 1862," as requires the delivery by the Board of Trade to any master, mate, or engineer, of a copy of any certificate to which he appears to be entitled, as therein mentioned; so much of the third paragraph of the twenty-third section of the said last-mentioned Act as requires, at the conclusion of a case relating to the cancelling or suspending of a certificate, such certificate, if cancelled or suspended, to be forwarded to the Board of Trade, and the whole of the provisions of the fourth paragraph of the same section shall apply to such colonial certificates of competency: provided, however, that the foregoing exceptions shall not interfere with or suspend the operation of an Act of the Legislature of New Zealand, intituled "The Merchant Shipping Acts Adoption Act, 1869 (32 and 33 Vict., No. 5).

- (3.) The QUEENS's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act passed in the first session of the Parliament holden in the first and second years of the reign of Her present Majesty, intituled "An Act to abridge the holding of benefices in plurality, and to make better provision for the residence of the clergy," after reciting that, "Whereas from the increase of population, or from other circumstances, it may be expedient that two or more benefices which have been heretofore united or which may be hereafter united under the provisions of this Act should be disunited," it is amongst other things, enacted, "That when two or more benefices shall have been united, or may be hereafter united into one benefice, and with respect to his own diocese it shall appear to the Archbishop of the Province, or the bishop of any diocese shall represent to the said Archbishop of the Province, that one or more of the benefices within his diocese, of which such united benefice shall consist, may be separated therefrom with advantage to the interests of religion, the said Archbishop shall enquire into the circumstances of the case; and if on such enquiry it shall appear to him that such union may be usefully dissolved, so far as respects such benefice or benefices, he shall six weeks at least before certifying such inquiry to Her Majesty as hereinafter directed, cause, with respect to his own diocese, a statement in writing of the facts, and in all other cases a copy, in writing, of the aforesaid representation to be affixed on or near the principal outer door of the church or in some public and conspicuous place in each of the benefices forming part of the united benefice, with notice to any person or persons interested that he, she, or they may within such six weeks show cause in writing under his, her, or their hands to the said Archbishop against any such disunion; and if no sufficient cause be shown within such time, the Archbishop shall certify the inquiry and consent, when the patron's consent is necessary, to Her Majesty in Council, and thereupon it shall be lawful for Her Majesty to issue an Order for separating such last-mentioned benefice or benefices from such united benefice, and for declaring the rights of patronage of the several patrons, if there be more than one patron, and such Order shall be registered in the registry of the diocese to which such united benefice shall belong, which Order the Registrar of such diocese, immediately, on the receipt “ thereof, is hereby required to register accordingly, and thereupon immediately if such united benefice shall be then vacant, otherwise on the first avoidance thereof, such union shall be ipso facto dissolved, so far only as regards such benefice or benefices so proposed to be separated from such united benefice, but in all other respects shall remain in full force and effect, and thenceforward such last-mentioned benefice or benefices shall be and be deemed and taken to be a separate and distinct benefice or benefices to all intents and purposes whatever as if no such union had taken place, and the patron or patrons thereof shall and may according to the term of such Order present or nominate thereto respectively, and so from time to time upon each and every avoidance of the same: Provided always, that no benefices which have been united for more than sixty years before the passing of this Act shall be disunited without the consent in writing of the patron or patrons thereof.”

And whereas the Honourable and Right Reverend John Thomas, Lord Bishop of Norwich, hath represented to His Grace the Lord Archbishop of Canterbury, by a representation in writing, bearing date the thirteenth day of April, one thousand eight hundred and seventy-two, in the words and figures following; that is to say:

“ To the Most Reverend Archibald Campbell, Lord Archbishop of Canterbury.

“ We, John Thomas, Lord Bishop of Norwich, do hereby represent to your Grace that it appears to us, that the disunion of the united rectories of Saint Clement and Saint Helen, Ipswich, in the county of Suffolk, and diocese of Norwich, by the separation of the said rectory of Saint Clement, Ipswich, from the said rectory of Saint Helen, Ipswich, may be made with advantage to the interests of religion.

“ Given under our hand, this 13th day of April, 1872.

(Signed) “ John T. Norwich.”

And whereas His Grace the Lord Archbishop of Canterbury, hath pursuant to the provisions of the said Act by a certificate in writing, bearing date the fifteenth day of July, one thousand eight hundred and seventy-two, certified to Her Majesty such enquiry as aforesaid, the consent of the patrons of the said united rectories, which certificate is in the words and figures following:

“ To the QUEEN’S Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

“ We, the undersigned, Archibald Campbell, Lord Archbishop of the Province of Canterbury, do hereby certify to your Majesty in Council:

“ That the Honourable and Right Reverend, John Thomas, Lord Bishop of Norwich (as bishop of the diocese within which the united benefice, consisting of the rectories of Saint Clement and Saint Helen, Ipswich, in the county of Suffolk, is situate), having represented to us that the disunion of the said united rectories by the separation of the said rectory of Saint Clement, Ipswich, from the said rectory of Saint Helen, Ipswich, might be made with advantage to the interests of religion, we enquired into the circumstances of the case, and that upon such enquiry it appeared to us that such disunion might be usefully made. That the Honourable and Right Reverend John Thomas, Lord Bishop of Norwich, the Reverend Edmund Hollond, of Benhall Lodge, Saxmundham, in the county of Suffolk, Clerk in Holy Orders, the Reverend Charles Kemble, rector of Bath, Clerk in Holy Orders, William Long, of Hurts Hall, Saxmundham aforesaid, Esquire, and Charles James Bevan, of Bryanston-square, in the county of Middlesex, Esquire, being the patrons or persons entitled to present to the said united rectories and parish churches of Saint Helen and Saint Clement, Ipswich, if the same were now vacant, have signified, in writing, their consent to such disunion. WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of "The Ecclesiastical Commission Act, 1868," duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a scheme, bearing date the twentieth day of June, in the year one thousand eight hundred and seventy-two, in the words and figures following; that is to say:

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of 'The Ecclesiastical Commission Act, 1868,' sections three and four, have prepared, and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council, the following scheme, relating to the Dean and Chapter of the cathedral church of Saint Paul, in London.

"Whereas the said Dean and Chapter have agreed with us that a scheme should be laid before your Majesty in Council for carrying into effect a transfer to us of part of the property belonging to them, for the considerations and upon the terms hereinafter set forth, which terms are in our opinion fair and reasonable, and the said Dean and Chapter have further agreed with us that such scheme should also comprise the incidental provisions hereinafter set forth, such provisions being necessary for carrying into effect the said transfer.

"And whereas the lands, tithes, and hereditaments, which are particularly described in the schedule hereunto annexed and marked A, are part of the property of the said Dean and Chapter, and the houses and premises particularly described in the schedule hereunto annexed and marked B, are vested in us in fee simple in possession.

"And whereas by an Order of your Majesty in Council, bearing date the eighth day of August, in the year one thousand eight hundred and fifty-three, duly published in the London Gazette of the sixteenth day of September in the same year, and made under the authority of an Act of the third and fourth years of your Majesty, intituled 'An Act to carry into effect with certain modifications the Fourth Report of the Commissioners of Ecclesiastical Duties and Revenues,' and of another Act of the fourth and fifth years of your Majesty, intituled 'An Act to explain and amend two several Acts relating to the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England,' provision is made for securing to the Dean and Canons of the said cathedral church, appointed subsequently to the date of the said Order, the respective annual incomes of two thousand pounds for such Dean, and one thousand pounds for every such Canon, it being by the said Order provided that the surplus decanal or canonical income, calculated in the manner therein specified, shall be paid over to us, and that any deficiency in the amount of such income shall be made up by means of payments out of our funds.

"And whereas the Chapter of the said cathedral church consists of a dean and four canons, and the present dean and canons have all been appointed since the date of the hereinbefore recited Order of your Majesty in Council.

"And whereas the annual payment hereinafter proposed to be made by us to the said Dean and Chapter, and the income to arise from the real estates intended to be hereafter transferred to them in lieu of such annual payment as hereinafter mentioned, will, after the appropriation of a certain part of such annual payment or income as the case may be in the manner hereinafter recommended, to the maintenance of the fabric and the establishment and services of the said church, provide for the present and future Dean and Canons the incomes to which they are respectively entitled under the provisions of the hereinbefore recited Order of your Majesty in Council, and of the Acts hereinbefore mentioned, and we are of opinion that the arrangement hereinafter set forth will be the most convenient mode of effecting for the future the purposes contemplated in the said Order.

Now, therefore, with the consent of the Dean and Chapter of the cathedral church of Saint Paul, in London, and with the consent of the Right Honourable and Right Reverend John, Lord Bishop of London, as visitor of the said Dean and Chapter (testified by their having heretofore affixed their respective corporate seals), we humbly recommend and propose that all the property of the said Dean and Chapter (excepting the cathedral church, the precincts thereof, the chapter house, the surveyor's office, the deaunery house, the canonical houses, and the redeemed land tax charged on the same houses, and excepting also any right of ecclesiastical, educational, or other like patronage, and any property held by the said Dean and Chapter for the benefit of the minor canons of the said church, or of any one of such minor canons, or for the benefit of the pittance and vicars choral of the said church, or in trust for any charitable or other specific purposes, and also excepting the lands, tenements, and hereditaments particularly described in the schedule hereunto annexed and marked A, but including the property known as the Almonry Estate), shall, together with the benefit of the perpetual land tax charged thereupon, which has been redeemed upon and from the day on which any Order of your Majesty in Council ratifying this scheme shall be duly published in the London Gazette, be transferred to us in the manner contemplated by the Act first hereinbefore mentioned, and that we shall be entitled to the rents, profits, and proceeds of the said property so to be transferred to us, as from the twenty-ninth day of September, one thousand eight hundred and seventy-one, and that in consideration of and for such transfer to us as aforesaid, there shall be paid by us to the said Dean and Chapter, by equal half-yearly payments, on the twenty-fifth day of March, and the twenty-ninth day of September in every year, the annual sum of eighteen thousand pounds, and that the payment of such annual sum shall continue until the said Dean and Chapter shall have been, under the authority provided by the said Act first hereinbefore mentioned, put into possession, in fee simple, of real estates sufficient to secure to them a clear annual income therefrom, after deducting rates, taxes, the cost of agency, and other outgoings, amounting to the said annual sum of eighteen thousand pounds; and that in further consideration of, and for such transfer as aforesaid, the houses and premises particularly described in the said schedule hereunto annexed and marked B, together with the benefit of the perpetual land-tax charged thereon, which has been redeemed, shall upon and from the day of such publication as aforesaid of any Order of your Majesty in Council ratifying this scheme, be transferred to the said Dean and Chapter in the manner contemplated by the said first hereinbefore mentioned Act, and that the said Dean and Chapter shall be entitled to the rents, profits, and proceeds thereof, as from the said twenty-ninth day of September, one thousand eight hundred and seventy-one.

“ And we further recommend and propose that upon and from the day of such publication as aforesaid, of an Order of your Majesty in Council ratifying this scheme, all the right which we now have under the provisions of the hereinbefore recited Order of your Majesty in Council, and of the Acts hereinbefore mentioned, to receive a part of the income or property of the said Dean and Chapter shall be extinguished, and that the operation of the provisions of the said Order shall cease and determine, and shall, for the purposes of the accounts in such Order mentioned, be held to have ceased and determined upon the said twenty-ninth day of September, one thousand eight hundred and seventy-one.

“ And we further recommend and propose that there shall also be paid by us to the said Dean and Chapter, by equal half-yearly payments, on the twenty-fifth day of March, and the twenty-ninth day of September in every year, until they shall have been put into possession of such real estates as aforesaid, the annual sum of four hundred pounds, which annual sum of four hundred pounds shall, during such time as John Benjamin Lee, Esquire, the present Clerk to the said Dean and Chapter, shall continue to hold that office, be paid by them to the said John Benjamin Lee as his remuneration for the performance of his duties as such chapter clerk; and that the first half-yearly payment in respect of each of the hereinbefore mentioned annual sums of eighteen thousand pounds and four hundred pounds for the period which elapsed between the said twenty-ninth day of September, one thousand eight hundred and seventy-one, and the twenty-fifth day of March now last past, shall be made immediately on the publication as aforesaid of any Order of your Majesty in Council ratifying this scheme.

“ And we further recommend and propose that for and in consideration of the said Dean and Chapter having refrained from renewing certain leases of parts of the said property hereby proposed to be transferred to us, which leases came in course for renewal prior to the said twenty-ninth day of September, one thousand eight hundred and seventy-one, whereby the said Dean and Chapter suffered a loss from not receiving the fines which would have been payable to them on the renewal of the same leases, and the value of the reversions expectant on the determination of the same leases, and intended to be hereby transferred to us, has not been diminished as it would have been if such renewal had been effected, there shall be paid by us to the said Dean and Chapter immediately upon the publication as aforesaid of any Order of your Majesty in Council ratifying this scheme, a sum of eight thousand pounds, which sum of eight thousand pounds shall be treated as income due to the said Dean and Chapter prior to the said twenty-ninth day of September, one thousand eight hundred and seventy-one, and that the receipt or receipts of the said Dean and Chapter under their chapter seal, or of their treasurer for the time being, shall be a good and valid discharge to us, for all or any and every such sum or sums of money as shall therein be expressed to have been paid to them or to him by us under the authority of this scheme when ratified as aforesaid.

“ And we further recommend and propose that upon such publication as aforesaid of any Order of your Majesty in Council ratifying this scheme, and as a further consideration for such transfer of property to us as aforesaid, a capital sum of thirty thousand pounds shall be set apart by us to be expended by the said Dean and Chapter to our satisfaction in substantial repairs, restorations, and improvements of the said cathedral church, and of the buildings belonging thereto, and that interest after the rate of three pounds per centum per annum shall be allowed by us to the said Dean and Chapter, as from the said twenty-ninth day of September, one thousand eight hundred and seventy-one, upon the said capital sum of thirty thousand pounds, and upon all balances in our hands applicable to such repairs, restorations, and improvements, such interest to be also expended to our satisfaction in substantial repairs, restorations, and improvements of the said cathedral church and buildings.

“ And we further recommend and propose that the whole of the net income which shall accrue to the said Dean and Chapter from the lands, tithes, and hereditaments particularly described in the said schedule hereunto annexed and marked A, shall be appropriated by them in perpetuity to providing for the repairs to the said cathedral church.

“ And we further recommend and propose that the sum of eighteen thousand pounds per annum, which is hereby proposed to be paid by us to the said Dean and Chapter, shall be divided into eighteen equal parts, and that the net income which the said Dean and Chapter shall, after they have been put into possession of real estates as herein before proposed, calculated to secure to them the clear annual income of eighteen thousand pounds, derive from such estates, shall be also divided into eighteen equal parts, and that such eighteen parts shall in each case, together with the net income accruing to the Dean and Chapter from the several sources next hereinafter enumerated, be appropriated as follows: that is to say, two of such parts for the income of the dean, one of such parts for the income of each of the four canons, subject nevertheless as regards the income of such one of the canonries as is annexed to and held with the Archdeaconry of London, to the annual charges created in favour of the Archdeaconry of Middlesex by the Order of your Majesty in Council, dated the twenty-fifth day of January, one thousand eight hundred and forty-one, and published in the London Gazette on the twenty-ninth day of January, one thousand eight hundred and forty-one, and the remaining twelve of such parts, together with the net income which may accrue to the Dean and Chapter from the funds known as the Cupola Fund, the Crypt Fund, and the Ball Fund, and from the houses and premises particularly described in the said schedule hereunto annexed and marked B, or from any buildings which may hereafter occupy the site of the said houses and premises and from any source not hereinbefore referred to, for the maintenance of the services of the said church, the payment of all the expenses and liabilities charged upon the corporate revenue of the said Dean and Chapter, and the defraying of such part of the cost of the repairs and improvements of the fabric of the said church, and of the buildings belonging thereto as are not or shall not be provided for by the application of the proceeds of the property comprised in the said schedule marked A, or of funds held by any trustees other than the Dean and Chapter for the purpose of such repairs and improvements. Provided always, that if the whole of such twelve parts together with the net income so accruing to the Dean and Chapter as aforesaid, be not in any one year expended in the manner hereinbefore proposed, with respect to the same, the surplus thereof shall be accumulated and be applicable to making good deficiencies, if any, in subsequent years, so that no portion of the said twelve parts, or of the net income so accruing to the Dean and Chapter as aforesaid shall ever be appropriated to the personal use or enjoyment of any dean or canon of the said church.

"And we further recommend and propose that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any further or other measures relating to the matters aforesaid, in conformity with the provisions of the Acts hereinbefore mentioned, or of any other Act of Parliament."

" SCHEDULE A.

"All that capital messuage or chief mansion house called Tillingham Hall, and all lands, tenements, and hereditaments, parcel of the demesnes of the manor of Tillingham, in the county of Essex, with their and every of their appurtenances, and also the parsonage of Tillingham aforesaid, with all manner of tithes, rent-charges in lieu of tithes, glebe lands, rights, and profits to the said parsonage belonging, together with one Wyke, called South Wyke, and a parcel of land called Selwick Stoke, with all meadows, marshes, and lands, with the appurtenances thereto belonging, being all the lands and hereditaments comprised in and demised by a certain indenture of lease bearing date the tenth day of October, in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-four, and made between the Dean and Chapter of the said cathedral church of Saint Paul, and the Right Honourable John James, Lord Rayleigh, Sir John Tyssen Tyrrell, and Thomas William Bramston, with the exception of the quit rents unto the said manor belonging, which quit rents it is the intention of this scheme to transfer, subject to the said lease, to the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England.

The QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of an Act of the sixth and seventh years of Her Majesty, chapter thirty-seven, duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a scheme, bearing date the twentieth day of June, in the year one thousand eight hundred and seventy-two, in the words following, that is to say:

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of an Act of the sixth and seventh years of your Majesty, chapter thirty-seven, sections six and eight, have prepared, and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council, the following scheme for authorizing the sale and disposal of certain property formerly belonging to the Prebend of Somerley, in the cathedral church of Chichester, and now vested in us.

"Whereas on the vacancy of the said prebend, which occurred on or about the eighth day of October, in the year one thousand eight hundred and forty, all the lands, tenements, and hereditaments theretofore belonging to the said prebend (except rights of patronage), became by virtue of the Act of the third and fourth years of your Majesty, chapter one hundred and thirteen, absolutely vested in us for the purposes and subject to the provisions applicable to other hereditaments vested in us.

"And whereas a part of the lands, tenements, and hereditaments aforesaid, are now in our possession, but the greater part thereof consists of a manor and of the lands and tenements thereto belonging, the greater part of such last-mentioned lands and tenements being held for estates of inheritance by copy of court roll at small annual quit rents, and the manor being held under us, by a beneficial lease, at a small annual reserved rent.

"And whereas partly on account of the leasehold and copyhold tenures, to which part of the said lands, tenements, and hereditaments are so subject as aforesaid, and in some instances on account of the character or situation of the property, the said lands, tenements, and hereditaments, are unsuitable or inconvenient to be held or applied for the purposes for which estates vested in us are applicable under the Acts by which our proceedings are governed.

"And whereas by an Act of the twenty-third and twenty-fourth years of your Majesty, chapter one hundred and twenty-four, power is given to lessees holding under us, in the event of our declining to enter into a treaty for the sale of our reversions or the purchase of the leasehold interests, to require us to purchase such leasehold interests at a valuation.

"And whereas, with a view to the advantageous appropriation of the said lands, tenements, and hereditaments, or of the proceeds thereof, for the ultimate improvement of our common fund, it is expedient that the said lands, tenements, and hereditaments, or such parts thereof as we shall at any time, and from time to time, think fit should be sold or disposed of, and accordingly that we should be empowered to dispose of our interest therein, or in any part or parts thereof, in such manner as shall appear to us advisable.

"Now, therefore, we humbly recommend and propose that we may be authorized and empowered by instrument or instruments, in writing, duly executed according to law, from time to time to sell or dispose of, and duly to convey according to the provisions of the said Act of the sixth and seventh years of your Majesty's reign, with the consent of the holder or holders thereof (if any), to be testified by his, her, or their being made parties to such instruments, all or any of said lands, tenements, and hereditaments, formerly belonging to the said Prebend of Somerley, and so vested in us as aforesaid, with their appurtenances and all our estate, right, title, and interest therein, or in any part or parts thereof, unto and to the use of any person or persons desirous or willing to purchase the same, and his, her, or their heirs, executors, administrators, or assigns, or otherwise, as he, she, or they shall direct or appoint, and for such consideration as shall upon due calculation and inquiry appear to us to be just and reasonable, it being our intention to invest the proceeds of such sale from time to time as occasion may arise, in the purchase of other lands, tithes, rent charges, tenements, or hereditaments, or of some estate or interest therein, convenient to be held by us for the purposes of the Acts by which our proceedings are governed as aforesaid, and in the meantime to invest the said proceeds in some Government or Parliamentary Stock, or other public securities in England.

"And we further recommend and propose that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid, or any of them, in accordance with the provisions of the said Acts, or of any other Act of Parliament."

And whereas the said scheme has been approved by Her Majesty in Council: now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Act: and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the diocese of Chichester.

At the Court at Osborne House, Isle of Wight, the 9th day of August, 1872.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the eighth and ninth years of Her Majesty, chapter seventy, of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Her Majesty, chapter fifty-five, and of the Act of the thirty-fourth and thirty-fifth years of Her Majesty, chapter eighty-two, duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a representation, bearing date the twentieth day of June, in the year one thousand eight hundred and seventy-two, in the words and figures following; that is to say:

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the eighth and ninth years of your Majesty, chapter seventy; of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of your Majesty, chapter fifty-five; and of the Act of the thirty-fourth and thirty-fifth years of your Majesty, chapter eighty-two, have prepared, and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council, the following representation as to the assignment of a consolidated chapelry to the consecrated church of Saint James, situate within the limits of the parish of Dallington, in the county of Northampton, and in the diocese of Peterborough.

"Whereas at certain extremities of the said parish of Dallington, and of the parish of Duston, in the county and diocese aforesaid, which said extremities lie contiguous one to another, and are described in the schedule hereunder written, there is collected together a population which is situate at a distance from the several churches of such parishes.

"And whereas it appears to us to be expedient that such contiguous portions of the said parish of Dallington, and of the said parish of Duston, should be formed into a consolidated chapelry for all ecclesiastical purposes, and that the same should be assigned to the said church of Saint James, situate within the limits of the said parish of Dallington.

"Now, therefore, with the consent of the Reverend William Connor, Bishop of the said diocese of Peterborough, with the consent of the Right Honourable John Poyntz, Earl Spencer, the patron of the vicarage of the said parish of Dallington, and with the consent of the Right Honourable Francis Thomas de Grey, Earl Cowper, the patron of the vicarage of the said parish of Duston (in testimony whereof, they, the said consenting parties, have respectively signed and sealed this representation), we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, humbly represent that it would, in our opinion, be expedient that all those contiguous portions of the said parish of Dallington and of the said parish of Duston, which are described in the schedule hereunder written, all which portions, together with the boundaries thereof, are delineated and set forth on the map or plan hereunto annexed, should be united and formed into one consolidated chapelry for the said church of Saint James, situate within the limits of the said parish of Dallington, and that the same should be named 'The Consolidated Chapelry of Saint James, Dallington.'

"We, therefore, humbly pray that your Majesty will be graciously pleased to take the premises into your Royal consideration, and to make such Order in respect thereto as to your Majesty in your Royal wisdom shall seem meet.

"The SCHEDULE to which the foregoing Representation has reference.

"The Consolidated Chapelry of Saint James, Dallington, being:

"All those two contiguous portions of the parish of Dallington and of the parish of Duston, both in the county of Northampton, and in the diocese of Peterborough, which are comprised within and are bounded by an imaginary line commencing upon the boundary which divides the parish of Saint Peter, Northampton, in the said county and diocese, from the parish of Dallington aforesaid, at the point where the Naseby Branch of the River Nen is joined by the mill stream flowing from Dallington Mill; and extending thence, for a distance of forty chains, or thereabouts, generally north-westward, along the middle of the said mill stream (thereby passing under the line of the Market Harborough and Stamford Branch of the London and North-Western Railway), and passing under Dallington Mill aforesaid, to the point where the said mill stream is joined by a certain stream flowing from the footway leading from Northampton to Dallington; and extending thence, south-westward, for a distance of seven chains, or thereabouts, along the middle of the last-described stream, to the point where it strikes the eastern side of the said footway, and nearly opposite to a boundary stone inscribed 'D. St. J. C. C., 1872, No. 1,' and placed on the south-western side of the same footway, at the north-eastern end of the fence dividing the close called or known as the Moor from the close called or known as the Warren and Hutchin's Moor; and extending thence, south-westward, to such boundary stone, and along the said fence, for a distance of thirteen chains, or thereabouts, to a boundary stone inscribed 'D. St. J. C. C., 1872, No. 2,' and placed at the south-western end of the same fence, on the north-eastern side of the Old Northampton and Dunchurch Turnpike-road, upon the boundary which divides the said parish of Dallington from the parish of Duston aforesaid; and extending thence, north-westward, for a distance of twenty-four chains or thereabouts, along the last-described boundary, (thereby following the course of the last-mentioned road), to a point opposite to a boundary stone inscribed 'D. St. J. C. C., 1872, No. 3,' and placed on the south-western side of the same road, at the north-eastern end of the wall or fence which forms the south-eastern boundary of a certain close, called or known as Rickyard Close, now the property of the Right Honourable the Earl Cowper; and extending thence, south-westward, to such boundary stone, and along the middle of the last-described fence, for a distance of sixteen chains or thereabouts, to a boundary stone inscribed 'D. St. J. C. C., 1872, No. 4,' and placed at the south-western end of the same fence, at a distance of six and three-quarters chains or thereabouts, to the south-east of the house called or known as Duston Lodge; and extending thence, southward, and in a direct line, for a distance of twenty-four chains or thereabouts, from the last-described boundary stone, thereby passing the western side of the Red House, to a boundary stone inscribed 'D. St. J. C. C., 1872, No. 5,' and placed near to the abbey walls, at a point opposite to the Red House aforesaid, on the southern side of the Old Northampton and Southam Turnpike-road upon the culvert which carries the said road over the stream flowing past the western side of the said Red House into the Naseby Branch of the River Nen aforesaid; and extending thence, for a distance of twenty-two chains or thereabouts, first southward, then westward, and then again southward from the last-mentioned boundary stone, to and along the middle of the last-described stream to the point where it turns sharply to the east, at or near to which point a boundary stone, inscribed 'D. St. J. C. C., 1872, No. 6,' has been placed on the northern side of the footpath leading from Kisingbury to Saint James's Church, Dallington; and extending thence, southward, to such bound-dary stone, and continuing thence, still southward, and in a direct line for a distance of twenty-four chains, or thereabouts, to a point in the Weedon Branch of the said River Nen, at the centre of the weir of the Duston Lower Mill, such point being upon the boundary which divides the said parish of Duston from the parish of Hardingstone, in the county and diocese aforesaid; and extending thence, first generally south-eastward, and then generally north-eastward, along the last-mentioned boundary (thereby re-crossing the line of the Market Harborough and Stamford Branch of the London and North Western Railway aforesaid), to the junction of the same boundary with the boundary which divides the said parish of Duston from the parish of All Saints, Northampton, in the county and diocese aforesaid; and extending thence, generally north-westward, along the last-described boundary, to its junction in the middle of the said line of railway with the boundary which divides the said parish of Duston from the parish of Saint Peter, Northampton aforesaid; and extending thence, alternately westward and northward, along the last-described boundary to its junction on the northern side of the Old Northampton and Dunchurch Turnpike-road aforesaid, with the boundary which divides the said parish of Dallington from the parish of Saint Peter, Northampton as aforesaid; and extending thence, north-eastward, along the last-mentioned boundary (thereby again crossing the line of railway aforesaid), to the first-described point where the said Naseby Branch of the River Nen aforesaid is joined by the mill stream flowing from Dallington Mill as aforesaid, at which point the said imaginary line commenced."

And whereas the said representation has been approved by Her Majesty in Council; now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said representation, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette, pursuant to the said Acts; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said diocese of Peterborough.

AT the Court at Osborne House, Isle of Wight, the 9th day of August, 1872.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the sixth and seventh years of His late Majesty, King William the Fourth, chapter seventy-seven, of the Act of the third and fourth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and thirteen, of the Act of the sixth and seventh years of Her Majesty, chapter thirty-seven, and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and four, duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a Scheme, bearing date the twentieth day of June, in the year one thousand eight hundred and seventy-two, in the words and figures following; that is to say:

"We the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the sixth and seventh years of his late Majesty King William the Fourth, chapter seventy-seven, of the Act of the third and fourth years of your Majesty, chapter one hundred and thirteen, of the Act of the sixth and seventh years of your Majesty, chapter thirty-seven, and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of your Majesty, chapter one hundred and four, have prepared and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council, the following Scheme for constituting a separate district for spiritual purposes, to be taken partly out of the parish of Newent, in the county of Gloucester, and in the diocese of Gloucester and Bristol, and partly out of the parish of Linton, in the county of Hereford, and in the diocese of Hereford.

"Whereas it has been made to appear to us that it would promote the interests of religion that the particular portions of the said parish of Newent and of the said parish of Linton which are hereinafter mentioned and described (such portions not at present containing within their limits any consecrated church or chapel in use for the purposes of divine worship) should be constituted a separate district in manner hereinafter set forth.

"And whereas by a certain deed, bearing date on or about the eleventh day of January, in the year one thousand eight hundred and seventy-two, and made or expressed to be made under the authority of the 'New Parishes Act, 1843, 1844, and 1856,' or some or one of them, between the Reverend Benjamin Ruck Keene, clerk, the vicar or incumbent of the vicarage of the said parish of Newent, of the first part, Richard Foley Onslow, of Stardens, in the said county of Gloucester, Esquire, the patron of the said vicarage of the parish of Newent aforesaid, of the second part, the Right Reverend Charles John, Bishop of the said diocese of Gloucester and Bristol, of the third part, and us the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners, of the fourth part (which deed has been enrolled in your Majesty's High Court of Chancery at Westminster), the said Benjamin Ruck Keene did grant and confirm unto and to the use of the minister or incumbent (so soon as a minister or incumbent should have been appointed and licensed thereto) of the district hereinafter recommended to be constituted, and his successors, ministers, or incumbents thereof for the time being, one clear yearly rent charge or sum of one hundred and twenty pounds, to be payable half-yearly on the first day of June and the first day of December in every year, a proportionate part of the first of such half-yearly payments to be made on such one of those days as shall first happen next after a minister or incumbent shall have been first appointed and licensed to the said intended district, free and clear of all deductions, taxes, charges, rates, assessments and impositions whatsoever (except on account of the tax on property or income, if any), to be for ever issuing and payable out of, and charged upon all the tithes or tithe commutation rents charge in lieu of vicarial tithes (amounting to the sum of one thousand five hundred pounds per annum, or thereabouts), arising within the said parish of Newent, and payable as in the said deed is mentioned.

"And whereas by a certain other deed bearing date on or about the fifteenth day of February, in the year one thousand eight hundred and seventy-two, and made or expressed to be made under the authority of 'The New Parishes Acts, 1843, 1844, and 1856,' or some or one of them, between the Reverend Edward Palin, clerk, the vicar or incumbent of the vicarage of the said parish of Linton, of the first part, the President and Scholars of Saint John Baptist College, in the University of Oxford, the patrons of the said vicarage of the parish of Linton aforesaid, of the second part, the Right Reverend James, Bishop of the said diocese of Hereford, of the third part, and us, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, of the fourth part (which secondly mentioned deed has also been enrolled in your Majesty's High Court of Chancery at Westminster), the said Edward Palin did grant and confirm unto and to the use of the minister or incumbent (so soon as a minister or incumbent should have been appointed and licensed thereto as aforesaid) of the said district hereinafter recommended to be constituted, and his successors ministers or incumbents thereof for the time being, certain tithe commutation rent charges or annual sums, amounting together to the sum of forty-eight pounds thirteen shillings and seven pence, the particulars of which tithe commutation, rent charges, or annual sums, and of the lands in the said parish of Linton, out of which the same respectively arise or are payable are specified in the schedule annexed to the said secondly mentioned deed.

"And whereas the said yearly rent charge or sum of one hundred and twenty pounds has been so granted and confirmed, as aforesaid, and the said tithe commutation, rent charges, or annual sums, amounting together to forty-eight pounds thirteen shillings and seven pence, have been so granted and confirmed, as aforesaid, upon the understanding that we should make and pay out of the common fund created by the secondly herein mentioned Act to the minister or incumbent for the time being of the said intended district, when he shall have been duly appointed and licensed according to the provisions of the herein thirdly mentioned Act, a grant of thirty-seven pounds sixteen shillings per annum; and upon the further understanding, and upon the condition, that (such arrangement appearing to us to be expedient) the whole right of patronage of the said intended district, and of the nomination of the minister or incumbent thereto, should be assigned in the manner hereinafter mentioned.

"And whereas we have agreed and undertaken to make such grant of thirty-seven pounds sixteen shillings per annum as aforesaid, by an instrument to be executed by us under our common seal, in accordance with the provisions of the Act of the twenty-ninth and thirtieth years of your Majesty, chapter one hundred and eleven.

"Now, therefore, with the consent of the said Charles John, Bishop of the said Diocese of Gloucester and Bristol, and with the consent of the said James, Bishop of the said diocese of Hereford (in testimony whereof they the said consenting parties have respectively signed and sealed this Scheme), we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners, humbly recommend and propose that all that portion of the said parish of Newent, and also all that contiguous portion of the said parish of Linton, which said portions are described in the Schedule hereunder written, and are delineated and set forth upon the map or plan hereunto annexed, shall upon and from the day of the date of the publication in the London Gazette of any Order of your Majesty in Council ratifying this Scheme, become and be constituted a separate district for spiritual purposes, and that the same shall be named "The District of Gorsley with Clifford's Mesne," and that such district shall be included in, and shall form part of, the Rural Deanery of The Forest North, the Archdeaconry of Gloucester, and the Diocese of Gloucester and Bristol.

"And we further recommend and propose that, without any assurance in the law other than this Scheme, and any duly gazetted Order of your Majesty in Council ratifying the same, and upon and from the day of the date of the publication of such Order in the London Gazette as aforesaid, the perpetual right of patronage of the said district of Gorsley with Clifford's Mesne (and of the new parish of Gorsley with Clifford's Mesne, if and when the said district shall become a new parish), and of the nomination of a Minister or Incumbent to the same district or new parish, shall be so assigned as that the whole number of nominations forming the advowson or perpetual right of patronage as aforesaid shall be vested, as to two-thirds in number thereof, in the Vicar or Incumbent for the time being of the said parish of Newent, and his successors, and as to the remaining one-third in number thereof, in the Vicar or Incumbent for the time being of the said parish of Linton, and his successors; and so also and in such manner with respect to the order of time, as that the first, second, fourth, fifth, and so on indefinitely, of such nominations shall be vested in and exercised by the Vicar or Incumbent for the time being of the said parish of Newent, and his successors; and the third, sixth, and so on indefinitely, of the same nominations, shall be vested in and exercised by the Vicar or Incumbent for the time being of the said parish of Linton, and his successors.

And we further recommend and propose that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid, or any of them in accordance with the provisions of the said Acts, or of either of them, or of any other Act of Parliament.

The SCHEDULE to which the foregoing scheme has reference:—

“The district of Gorsley with Clifford’s Mesne, being—

PRESENT,

The QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have in pursuance of the Act of the sixth and seventh years of Her Majesty, chapter thirty-seven, duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a scheme, bearing date the fourth day of July, in the year one thousand eight hundred and seventy-two, in the words following, that is to say:

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the sixth and seventh years of your Majesty, chapter thirty-seven, have prepared, and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council, the following scheme for compensating a certain spiritual person, to wit, the Reverend John Deacon Massingham, Clerk, Doctor in Divinity, whose emoluments have been diminished by reason of proceedings under the said Act, to wit, by the formation of the district (now the new parish) of Saint Ann, Warrington, out of the district parish of Saint Paul, Warrington, in the county of Lancaster, and in the diocese of Chester, of which said district parish the said John Deacon Massingham was at the date of such formation and is now the vicar or incumbent.

"Whereas it has been made to appear to us that the fees, dues, or other emoluments of the said John Deacon Massingham, as such vicar or incumbent as aforesaid, have been diminished as aforesaid, and that the payment to him, the said John Deacon Massingham, of the annual sum of fourteen pounds would provide a just and reasonable compensation for such diminution,

"Now, therefore, we humbly recommend and propose, that in respect of the new parish of Saint Ann, Warrington aforesaid, there shall be paid by us to the said John Deacon Massingham, so long as he shall continue to be vicar or incumbent of the said district parish of Saint Paul, Warrington as aforesaid, and no longer, the annual sum of fourteen pounds; payment of such annual sum being made by equal half-yearly payments, upon the first day of May and the first day of November in each year, but with the right also in the said John Deacon Massingham, or (as the case may be), in his representatives, to a proportionate payment in respect of any period being less than half a year, which may elapse between the first day of May or the first day of November (as the case may be), and the day on which he, the said John Deacon Massingham, shall from whatever cause cease to be vicar or incumbent of the said district parish of Saint Paul, Warrington.

"And we further recommend and propose that the right of the said John Deacon Massingham, as such vicar or incumbent as aforesaid, to receive the said annual sum of fourteen pounds, shall be held to have accrued, and that payment thereof shall accordingly be made, as from the twenty-seventh day of February, in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-nine; that being the day upon which the incumbent of the new parish of Saint Ann, Warrington, became empowered to perform in the church thereof those offices, and became entitled to retain for his own benefit those fees, in consideration of the loss of which to the said John Deacon Massingham, as such vicar or incumbent as aforesaid of the district parish of Saint Paul, Warrington aforesaid, the amount of the compensation grant in this scheme recommended and proposed, has been fixed by us.

"And we further recommend and propose that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measures relating the matters aforesaid, or any of them in accordance with the provisions of the said Act or of any other Act of Parliament."

And whereas the said scheme has been approved by Her Majesty in Council: now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette, pursuant to the said Act; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the diocese of Chester.

At the Court at Osborne House, Isle of Wight, the 9th day of August, 1872.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the thirty-third and thirty-fourth years of Her Majesty, chapter thirty-nine, and of the Acts therein mentioned, duly prepared and laid before

Her Majesty in Council a scheme, bearing date the eleventh day of July, in the year one thousand eight hundred and seventy-two, in the words and figures following, that is to say:

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the thirty-third and thirty-fourth years of your Majesty, chapter thirty-nine, and of the Acts therein mentioned, have prepared, and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council, the following scheme for effecting a transfer of the ownership of the advowson or perpetual right of patronage of, and presentation to, the church and cure (hereinafter called the benefice) of Saint Mary the Virgin, Dover, in the county of Kent, and in the diocese of Canterbury.

"Whereas the advowson or perpetual right of patronage of, and presentation to, the said benefice of Saint Mary the Virgin, Dover, is vested in the parishioners of the parish of Saint Mary the Virgin, Dover, in the county of Kent, and in the diocese of Canterbury.

"And whereas the said parishioners are desirous that the whole advowson or perpetual right of patronage of, and presentation to, the said benefice of Saint Mary the Virgin, Dover, now vested in them as aforesaid, should be transferred to and vested in the Right Honourable and Most Reverend Archibald Campbell, Archbishop of Canterbury, the Right Honourable Leveson Gower, Earl Granville, Lord Warden of the Cinque Ports, and the Right Honourable John Robert, Viscount Sydney, Lord Lieutenant of the county of Kent, their heirs and assigns as trustees, with provision for the transfer thereof to new trustees from time to time, so that the said advowson, and the right of presentation, may be for ever vested in and exercisable by the Archbishop of Canterbury, the Lord Warden of the Cinque Ports, and the Lord Lieutenant of the county of Kent for the time being, or the majority of them.

"And whereas the said Archibald Campbell, Archbishop of Canterbury, Leveson Gower, Earl Granville, and John Robert, Viscount Sydney are willing to accept such transfer, and, in token of such their willingness, they have, and the said Archbishop, in token that the same transfer has that consent of the Archbishop, which by the Acts in the hereinbefore mentioned Act recited, or by some or one of them, is made necessary, has executed this scheme as hereinafter mentioned.

"And whereas it appears to us that the transfer of the patronage of the said benefice of Saint Mary the Virgin, Dover, which is hereinbefore mentioned and hereinafter recommended and proposed, will tend to make better provision for the cure of souls in the said parish.

"Now, therefore, with the consent of the parishioners of the said parish of Saint Mary the Virgin, Dover, given in this behalf, as appears by the minutes of the proceedings at a meeting of the parishioners in vestry assembled, on the twenty-sixth day of September, in the year one thousand eight hundred and seventy-one, and by adjournment on several subsequent days, and a copy of which minutes, signed by the chairman of the said meeting, is hereunto annexed, and with the consent of the said Archibald Campbell, as Archbishop of the said diocese of Canterbury (in testimony whereof he has signed this scheme and sealed the same with his archiepiscopal seal), we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, humbly recommend and propose, that upon and from the day of the date of the publication in the London Gazette of any Order of your Majesty in Council ratifying this scheme, and without any conveyance or assurance in the law other than such duly gazetted Order, the whole advowson or perpetual right of patronage of, and presentation to, the said benefice of Saint Mary the Virgin, Dover, now vested in the parishioners of the said parish as aforesaid, shall be transferred from the said parishioners to the said Archibald Campbell, Archbishop of Canterbury, Leveson Gower, Earl Granville, Lord Warden of the Cinque Ports, and John Robert, Viscount Sydney, Lord Lieutenant of the county of Kent, their heirs and assigns, and shall thereupon and thenceforth become and be absolutely vested in, and shall and may from time to time be exercised by, the said Archibald Campbell, Archbishop of Canterbury, Leveson Gower, Earl Granville, Lord Warden of the Cinque Ports, and John Robert, Viscount Sydney, Lord Lieutenant of the county of Kent, and their heirs and assigns for ever.

"And we further recommend and propose, that when the said Archibald Campbell, Archbishop of Canterbury, shall, by death or otherwise, cease to be Archbishop of Canterbury, his successor as Archbishop shall be, by the trustees or trustee for the time being, appointed a trustee in his place, and the said advowson and right of presentation shall be transferred to and vested in such new Archbishop and the other two trustees for the time being, and so, from time to time, as occasion may require.

"And we further recommend and propose, that when the said Leveson Gower, Earl Granville, shall, by death or otherwise, cease to be Lord Warden of the Cinque Ports, his successor as Lord Warden shall be, by the trustees or trustee for the time being, appointed a trustee in his place, and the said advowson and right of presentation shall be transferred to and vested in such Lord Warden and the other two trustees for the time being, and so, from time to time, as occasion may require.

"And we further recommend and propose, that when the said John Robert, Viscount Sydney, shall, by death or otherwise, cease to be Lord Lieutenant of the county of Kent, his successor as Lord Lieutenant shall be, by the trustees or trustee for the time being, appointed a trustee in his place, and the said advowson and right of presentation shall be transferred to and vested in such new Lord Lieutenant and the other two trustees for the time being, and so, from time to time, as occasion may require.

"And we further recommend and propose that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any further or other measures relating to the matters aforesaid, or any of them, in accordance with the provisions of the said Acts, or of either of them, or of any other Act of Parliament.

The QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the thirty-third and thirty-fourth years of Her Majesty, chapter thirty-nine, and of the Acts therein mentioned, duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a scheme, bearing date the eleventh day of July, in the year one thousand eight hundred and seventy-two, in the words following; that is to say:

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the thirty-third and thirty-fourth years of your Majesty, chapter thirty-nine, and of the Acts therein mentioned, have prepared, and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council, the following scheme for effecting a transfer of the ownership of the advowson or perpetual right of patronage of and to the church and cure (which said church and cure are hereinafter called "the said benefice") of Saint John, Burley Ville, in the county of Hants, and in the diocese of Winchester.

"Whereas the cure legally attached to the said church of Saint John, Burley Ville, is a particular district or new parish, and such cure was taken out of the parish of Ringwood and out of the extra-parochial place called the Ville of Burley, which parish and extra-parochial place are both in the said county of Hants and diocese of Winchester.

"And whereas the advowson or perpetual right of patronage of the said benefice of Saint John, Burley Ville, is vested in the Bishop of the said diocese of Winchester for the time being, as such Bishop.

"And whereas certain benefactions have been made in augmentation of the endowment of the said benefice of Saint John, Burley Ville, upon the understanding and condition that a transfer of the advowson or perpetual right of patronage of the same benefice from the Bishop of the said diocese of Winchester (in whom, as such Bishop, the same is now vested as aforesaid) to the vicar or incumbent of the vicarage of the said parish of Ringwood, and his successors, shall be effected by the agency of us the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, and that we should thereupon make a certain grant in further augmentation of the endowment of the said benefice of Saint John, Burley Ville.

"And whereas the Right Reverend Samuel, now Bishop of the said diocese of Winchester, is, in his capacity as such patron as aforesaid, desirous that the said advowson or perpetual right of patronage of the said benefice of Saint John, Burley Ville, now vested in him as such Bishop as aforesaid, should be transferred to and be vested in the vicar or incumbent for the time being of the vicarage of the said parish of Ringwood accordingly, and in token of such his desire, and also in token of his consent, as diocesan, to the said proposed transfer (which consent is, by the Acts in the hereinbefore-mentioned Act mentioned, or by some or one of them, made necessary), he, the said Samuel, Bishop of Winchester, has executed this scheme, as hereinafter mentioned.

"And whereas it appears to us that the transfer of the advowson or perpetual right of patronage of the said benefice of Saint John, Burley Ville, which is hereinbefore mentioned and hereinafter recommended and proposed, will, under and in consequence of the circumstances hereinbefore set forth, tend to make better provision for the cure of souls in the district or parish in or in respect of which the same right of patronage or advowson arises or exists, that is to say, in the said particular district or new parish of Saint John, Burley Ville.

"Now, therefore, with the consent of the said Samuel, Bishop of the said diocese of Winchester, acting as patron of the said benefice of Saint John, Burley Ville, and also as Bishop of the said diocese of Winchester (in testimony of which consent he has signed this scheme, and sealed the same with his episcopal seal), and with the consent of the Reverend George Williams, Clerk, now vicar or incumbent of the vicarage of the parish of Ringwood aforesaid (in testimony of which consent he has signed and sealed this scheme), we humbly recommend and propose, that upon and from the day of the date of the publication in the London Gazette of any Order of your Majesty in Council ratifying this scheme, and without any conveyance or assurance in the law other than such duly gazetted Order, the whole advowson or perpetual right of patronage of the said benefice of Saint John, Burley Ville, now vested in him, the said Samuel, Bishop of the said diocese of Winchester, as such bishop as aforesaid, shall be transferred from him, the said Samuel, Bishop of the said diocese of Winchester, and from his successors, bishops of the same diocese, to the said George Williams, or other the person, who, at the date aforesaid, shall be the vicar or incumbent of the vicarage of the said parish of Ringwood, and to his successors, vicars or incumbents of the same vicarage, and shall thereupon and thenceforth become, and be absolutely vested in, and shall and may from time to time, be exercised by the said George Williams, or other the vicar or incumbent of the vicarage of the said parish of Ringwood, and his successors, vicars or incumbents of the same vicarage for ever.

"And we further recommend and propose, that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any further or other measures relating to the matters aforesaid, or any of them, in accordance with the provisions of the said Acts or of any of them, or of any other Act of Parliament."

And whereas the said scheme has been approved by Her Majesty in Council: now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Act; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said diocese of Winchester.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of an Act of the twenty-seventh and twenty-eighth years of Her Majesty, chapter seventy, duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a scheme, bearing date the eleventh day of July, in the year one thousand eight hundred and seventy-two, in the words following; that is to say:

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of an Act of the twenty-seventh and twenty-eighth years of your Majesty, chapter seventy, have prepared, and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council, the following scheme for effecting the transfer to us and our successors of certain lands and hereditaments now belonging to the Subchanter and Vicars Choral of the cathedral church of Lichfield, and for substituting in lieu thereof an annual money payment.

"Whereas it is by the same Act enacted that it shall be lawful, under the authority of a scheme prepared by us, and of an Order of your Majesty in Council ratifying the same, with the consent in writing, under the common or corporate seal, of any vicars choral, priest vicars, senior vicars, custos and vicars, warden and vicars, or minor canons, who may constitute a corporation aggregate in any cathedral church in England, and of their visitor, for the said vicars choral, priest vicars, senior vicars, custos and vicars, warden and vicars, or minor canons, to transfer to and vest in us, for the purposes of the Acts relating to us, and subject to the provisions thereof and to the conditions which may be specified in any such scheme and Order, all the lands and hereditaments belonging to such corporation, for and in consideration of any annual or other money payment to be made by us to such corporation.

"And whereas the Subchanter and Vicars Choral of the cathedral church of Lichfield, constitute a corporation aggregate within the meaning

"Now, therefore, with the consent of the said Subchanter and Vicars Choral of the cathedral church of Lichfield, and of the Right Reverend George Augustus, Lord Bishop of Lichfield, Visitor of the said Corporation (testified by their having hereunto affixed their respective corporate seals), we humbly recommend and propose that, immediately upon the gazetting of any Order of your Majesty in Council ratifying this scheme, and without any conveyance or assurance in the law other than such duly gazetted Order, all lands and hereditaments whatsoever now belonging to the said Subchanter and Vicars Choral, including the payments made to them individually for stall wages, but excepting the commons payable to them by the Dean and Chapter of the said cathedral church, and excepting also the twelve houses of residence belonging to the said Subchanter and Vicars Choral in the Vicarage Close, adjacent to the said cathedral church, and excepting also any right of ecclesiastical patronage, shall, together with all the estate, right, title, and interest in the same of the said Subchanter and Vicars Choral, be, for the consideration hereinafter mentioned, transferred by and from the said Subchanter and Vicars Choral to us, and shall then and thereupon become and be absolutely vested in us and our successors, for the purposes of the Acts relating to us, and subject to the provisions of the same Acts; and that we shall, upon such gazetting as aforesaid, be entitled to the rents, profits, and proceeds of the said lands and hereditaments hereby proposed to be transferred to us, as from the twenty-fifth day of March, one thousand eight hundred and seventy-two, and that in consideration of, and for such transfer, there shall be paid by us to the said Subchanter and Vicars Choral the sum of two thousand one hundred and sixty pounds per annum, by equal quarterly payments on the twenty-fifth day of March, the twenty-fourth day of June, the twenty-ninth day of September, and the twenty-fifth day of December, in every year, and that immediately upon such gazetting as aforesaid, payment shall be made by us to the said Subchanter and Vicars Choral of the amount which, by virtue of the provision hereinbefore contained, will then be due in respect of so many complete periods of three months as shall then have elapsed since the said twenty-fifth day of March, one thousand eight hundred and seventy-two.

"And we further recommend and propose that the receipt or receipts of the Subchanter, the Deans Vicar, and the Steward, for the time being, being three members of the said corporation, or the receipt or receipts of any two of them shall be a good and valid discharge to us for all or any and every such sum or sums of money as shall therein be expressed to have been paid by us to them, under the authority of this scheme, when ratified as aforesaid.

"And we further recommend and propose that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid, or any of them, in conformity with the provisions of the said Act, or of any other Act of Parliament."

And whereas the said scheme has been approved by Her Majesty in Council: now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme,

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the sixteenth and seventeenth years of your Majesty, chapter fifty; and of the Act of the twenty-third and twenty-fourth years of your Majesty, chapter one hundred and twenty-four; have prepared and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council, the following scheme for effecting an exchange of the patronage of the benefice (being a rectory) of Gamston, situate in the county of Nottingham, and in the diocese of Lincoln, the patronage of which benefice belongs to the Crown, and is exercised by the Lord High Chancellor of England for the time being, in virtue of his office for the patronage of the benefice (being a vicarage) of Blidworth, situate in the said county of Nottingham, and in the said diocese of Lincoln, the patronage of which said lastly named benefice belongs to the Bishop of Manchester, in right of his See.

"Whereas the Right Honourable William Page, Baron Hatherley, now Lord High Chancellor of England, as such Lord High Chancellor, and the Right Reverend James, Bishop of the said diocese of Manchester, as such Bishop, have respectively signified to us their desire that the patronage of the said two benefices of Gamston and Blidworth, and of the churches thereof respec-

"Now, therefore, with the consent of the said William Page, Baron Hatherley, Lord High Chancellor of England, acting as such Lord High Chancellor, and with the consent of the said James, Bishop of the said diocese of Manchester, acting as such Bishop (in testimony whereof to this scheme the said William Page, Baron Hatherley, and the said James, Bishop of Manchester, have respectively affixed their hands and seals) we humbly recommend and propose, that upon and from the day of the date of the publication in the London Gazette of any Order of your Majesty in Council ratifying this scheme, and without any conveyance or assurance in the law other than such duly gazetted Order, the whole advowson or perpetual right of patronage of and to the said benefice of Gamston and the church thereof, shall be assigned and transferred from your Majesty, your heirs, and successors, and shall become and be absolutely vested in, and shall and may from time to time and at all times be exercised by the said James, Bishop of the said diocese of Manchester, and by his successors Bishops of the same diocese for ever, and that in exchange for the same, the whole advowson or perpetual right of patronage of and to the said benefice of Blidworth and the church thereof, shall in like manner and from the same date be assigned and transferred from the said James, Bishop of the said diocese of Manchester and his successors Bishops of the same diocese, and shall become and be absolutely vested in your Majesty, your heirs, and successors, and shall and may from time to time and at all times, be exercised by the said William Page, Baron Hatherley, as such Lord High Chancellor of England as afore said, and by his successors Lords High Chancellors of England, acting on behalf of your Majesty in right of the Crown.

"And we further recommend and propose that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid or any of them in accordance with the provisions of the said Acts or of either of them or of any other Act of Parliament.

AT the Court at Osborne House, Isle of Wight, the 9th day of August, 1872.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the third and fourth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and thirteen, of the Act of the fourth and fifth years of Her Majesty, chapter thirty-nine, of the Act of the sixth and seventh years of Her Majesty, chapter thirty-seven, of the Act of the seventeenth and eighteenth years of Her Majesty, chapter eighty-four, of the Act of the thirty-first and thirty-second years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and fourteen, and of the Act of the thirty-third and thirty-fourth years of Her Majesty, chapter thirty-nine, duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a scheme, bearing date the eleventh day of July, in the year one thousand eight hundred and seventy-two, in the words and figures following; that is to say:

"We the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the third and fourth years of your Majesty, chapter one hundred and thirteen, of the Act of the fourth and fifth years of your Majesty, chapter thirty-nine, of the Act of the sixth and seventh years of your Majesty, chapter thirty-seven, of the Act of the seventeenth and eighteenth years of your Majesty, chapter eighty-four, of the Act of the thirty-first and thirty-second years of your Majesty, chapter one hundred and fourteen, and of the Act of the thirty-third and thirty-fourth years of your Majesty, chapter thirty-nine, have prepared and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council the following scheme for making better provision for the cure of souls in certain parishes and districts situate within the county of Middlesex and in the diocese of London.

"Whereas the Dean and Chapter of the cathedral church of Saint Paul, in London, are patrons of the benefice of the rectory of Saint Peter-le-Poer, with the perpetual curacy of Saint Benet Fink annexed, in the city and diocese of London.

And whereas the said Dean and Chapter are also patrons of the two next hereinafter mentioned vicarages and benefices, that is to say, the vicarage and benefice of the Holy Trinity, Haverstock Hill, sometime part of the parish of Saint Pancras, in the said county and diocese, and the vicarage and benefice of Saint Peter, Regent-square, likewise sometime part of the same parish of Saint Pancras, and in the said county and diocese.

"And whereas the vicar of the said parish of Saint Pancras is in right of his vicarage the patron of the vicarage and benefice of Saint Mary, Somers Town, and of the vicarage and benefice of Old Saint Pancras, both of which lastly mentioned vicarages and benefices were comprised within the limits of the ancient parish of Saint Pancras aforesaid.

And whereas, pursuant to the twenty-first section of the said Act of the sixth and seventh years of your Majesty, chapter thirty-seven, the right of patronage of and nomination of an incumbent to the vicarage and benefice of Saint Mary Charterhouse, some time part of the parish of Saint Luke, Old-street, in the county and diocese aforesaid, is exercisable by your Majesty and your successors and by the Bishop of the said diocese of London for the time being alternately, until some specific assignment of the same shall have been made in the manner contemplated by the twentieth section of the same Act, which specific assignment is hereinafter recommended and proposed.

And whereas it is necessary, under the seventy-fourth section of the hereinafore firstly mentioned Act, that benefices to be affected by its provisions should be in the same patronage.

"And whereas the vicar of Saint Pancras, the patron as aforesaid of the vicarages and benefices of Saint Mary, Somers Town and Old Saint Pancras, is willing, with a view to bringing such vicarages and benefices within the provisions of the said lastly mentioned section, that the patronage of the said vicarages and benefices of Saint Mary, Somers Town, and Old Saint Pancras, should be transferred to and vested in the said Dean and Chapter.

"And whereas, in consideration of the contribution in aid of the endowment of the said vicarage and benefice of Saint Mary Charterhouse, which is proposed to be secured to such vicarage and benefice as hereinafter mentioned, out of the revenues of the said rectory of Saint Peter-le-Poer with the perpetual curacy of Saint Benet Fink annexed, it appears to us to be expedient that the right of patronage of and nomination of an incumbent to the said vicarage and benefice of Saint Mary Charterhouse should be assigned to the said Dean and Chapter as the patrons of the said rectory of Saint Peter-le-Poer with the perpetual curacy of Saint Benet Fink annexed, and to their successors.

And whereas the endowments of the said rectory of Saint Peter-le-Poer, with the perpetual curacy of Saint Benet Fink annexed, are of considerable amount, and comprise certain annual sums of money in lieu of tithes, amounting to one thousand nine hundred and twenty-five pounds per annum.

And whereas the said Dean and Chapter have expressed to us a desire, and it appears to us to be expedient, that arrangements should be made for apportioning the income of the said rectory of Saint Peter-le-Poer, with the perpetual curacy of Saint Benet Fink annexed, between the incumbent thereof and the incumbents of the said vicarages and benefices of Holy Trinity, Haverstock Hill, Saint Peter, Regent-square, Saint Mary, Somers Town, Old Saint Pancras, and Saint Mary Charterhouse, in the manner hereinafter mentioned.

"Now, therefore, with the consent of the Right Honourable and Right Reverend John Bishop of London (in testimony of which consent he has signed and sealed this Scheme), of the Very Reverend Richard William Church, clerk, the dean and the chapter of the said cathedral Church of Saint Paul, London, as such patrons as aforesaid (in testimony of which consent to this Scheme the said dean and chapter have hereunto affixed their common or corporate seal), of the Reverend Anthony Wilson Thorold, clerk, the vicar of the said parish of Saint Pancras, in the said diocese of London, as such patron as aforesaid (in testimony of which consent he has signed and sealed this Scheme), we humbly recommend and propose that from and after the date of the avoidance of the said benefice of the rectory of Saint Peter-le-Poer, with the perpetual curacy of Saint Benet Fink annexed, which may happen next after the date of this Scheme, and without any conveyance or assurance in the law other than the publication in the London Gazette of an Order of your Majesty in Council ratifying this Scheme, the whole right of patronage of the said benefices of Saint Mary, Somers Town, of Old Saint Pancras and Saint Mary Charterhouse, and of the nomination of the incumbents severally thereto, and to the churches thereof, shall be assigned to, and shall become absolutely vested in the said dean and chapter and their successors.

"And we further recommend and propose, that from and after the next avoidance of the said rectory of Saint Peter-le-Poer, with the perpetual curacy of Saint Benet Fink annexed as aforesaid, there shall be in like manner, and by the authority aforesaid, charged upon all and singular the said annual sums of money in lieu of tithes and other the revenues of the said rectory of Saint Peter-le-Poer, with the perpetual curacy of Saint Benet Fink annexed, in favour of the incumbents for the time being of the said vicarages and benefices of the Holy Trinity, Haverstock Hill, Saint Peter, Regent-square, Saint Mary, Somers Town, Old Saint Pancras, and Saint Mary Charterhouse respectively, and payable to the same incumbents respectively by equal half-yearly payments on the first day of May and the first day of November in each and every year, the annual sums hereinafter mentioned, that is to say, an annual sum of two hundred pounds to each of the incumbents for the time being of the said vicarages and benefices of Holy Trinity, Haverstock Hill, Saint Peter, Regent-square, Saint Mary, Somers Town, and Old Saint Pancras, and an annual sum of one hundred and twenty-five pounds to the incumbent for the time being of the said vicarage and benefice of Saint Mary Charterhouse; the first of each of such half-yearly payments, or a proportionate part thereof to become due upon the first day of May or the first day of November, as the case may be, next following the date of the avoidance of the said rectory of Saint Peter-le-Poer, with the perpetual curacy of Saint Benet Fink annexed, which may happen next after the date of this Scheme; and that the incumbents of the said benefices of Holy Trinity, Haverstock Hill, Saint Peter, Regent-square, Saint Mary, Somers Town, Old Saint Pancras, and Saint Mary Charterhouse respectively, and their successors shall have all legal remedies for enforcing payment of the said annual sums or any part thereof that may be due and unpaid.

"And we further recommend and propose that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid, or any of them, in accordance with the provisions of the said Acts, or either of them, or of any other Act of Parliament."

And whereas the said Scheme has been approved by Her Majesty in Council: now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said Scheme, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Acts; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said diocese of London.

At the Court at Osborne House, Isle of Wight, the 9th day of August, 1872.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the third and fourth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and thirteen, of the Act of the sixth and seventh years of Her Majesty, chapter thirty-seven, and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and four, duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a scheme, bearing date the eighteenth day of July, in the year one thousand eight hundred and seventy-two, in the words and figures following; that is to say:

"We the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the third and fourth years of your Majesty, chapter one hundred and thirteen, of the Act of the sixth and seventh years of your Majesty, chapter thirty-seven, and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of your Majesty, chapter one hundred and four, have prepared and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council the following scheme for constituting a separate district for spiritual purposes out of the parish of Dalton-in-Furness, in the county of Lancaster, and in the diocese of Carlisle.

"Whereas it has been made to appear to us that it would promote the interests of religion that the particular portion of the said parish of Dalton-in-Furness which is hereinafter mentioned and described (such portion not at present containing within its limits any consecrated church or chapel in use for the purposes of divine worship) should be constituted a separate district in the manner hereinafter recommended and proposed.

“And whereas certain persons have contributed and paid to the credit of our account at the Bank of England the sum of three thousand pounds sterling in aid of the endowment of the district hereinafter recommended to be constituted, and of the maintenance of the incumbent thereof for the time being, and we have agreed with the said persons, and have undertaken in respect of the said sum, to provide and pay by equal half-yearly payments on the first day of May and the first day of November in each and every year to such incumbent as aforesaid, when duly licensed in accordance with the provisions of the herein secondly mentioned Act, and to his successors, the yearly sum of one hundred pounds.

“And whereas the said sum of three thousand pounds sterling has been so contributed and paid by the persons aforesaid upon the further understanding and condition that (such arrangement appearing to us to be expedient) the whole right of patronage of the said district, and of the nomination of the incumbent thereof, should be assigned to the persons hereinafter named in the manner hereinafter recommended and proposed.

“And whereas we have also determined to make and pay out of the common fund created by the firstly herein mentioned Act to the incumbent for the time being of the said district hereinafter recommended to be constituted, when such incumbent shall have been duly licensed as aforesaid, the annual sum of fifty pounds, and such lastly mentioned grant will be made and secured by an instrument to be executed by us under our common seal in accordance with the provisions of the Act of the twenty-ninth and thirtieth years of your Majesty, chapter one hundred and eleven.

Now therefore, with the consent of the Right Reverend Harvey, Bishop of the said Diocese of Carlisle (in testimony whereof he has signed and sealed this Scheme), we the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners humbly recommend and propose, that all that portion of the said parish of Dalton-in-Furness, which is described in the schedule hereunder written, all which portion, together with the boundaries thereof, is delineated and set forth on the map or plan hereunto annexed, shall upon and from the day of the date of the publication in the London Gazette of any Order of your Majesty in Council ratifying this Scheme, become and be constituted a separate district for spiritual purposes, and that the same shall be named, ‘The District of Lindale with Martin.’

“And we further recommend and propose that the whole right of patronage of the said district so recommended to be constituted, and of such new parish when the said district shall have become a new parish, and of the nomination of the incumbent thereof, shall without any assurance in the law other than this Scheme and any duly Gazetted Order of your Majesty in Council ratifying the same, and upon and from the day of the date of the publication of the same Order in the London Gazette as aforesaid, be assigned to and be absolutely vested in, and shall and may, from time to time, be exercised jointly by the Reverend James Morrison Morgan, now vicar or incumbent of the vicarage of the said parish of Dalton-in-Furness by the Most Noble Walter Francis, Duke of Buccleuch and Queensberry, by the Most Noble William, Duke of Devonshire, by William George Ainslie, of number 3, East India Chambers, Leadenhall-street, in the city of London, Esquire, and by Sir James Ramsden, of Barrow-in-Furness, Knight, their heirs and assigns for ever.

And we further recommend and propose, that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid, or to any of them in accordance with the provisions of the said Acts or of either of them, or of any other Act of Parliament.

The SCHEDULE to which the foregoing Scheme has reference.

“The District of Lindale with Martin, being:

“All that portion of the parish of Dalton-in-Furness, in the county of Lancaster, and in the diocese of Carlisle, wherein the present incumbent of such parish now possesses the exclusive cure of souls, which is bounded on the north by the parish or parochial chapelry of Pennington in the said county and diocese, on the east partly by the last named parish or parochial chapelry, and partly by the parish of Urswick, in the same county and diocese; on the south by the last-named parish; and on the remaining side, that is to say on the west, by an imaginary line commencing at a point in the middle of Standing Tarn, where the boundary dividing the said parish of Urswick from the parish of Dalton-in-Furness aforesaid is joined by the boundary which divides the hamlet of Dalton Proper, in the last-named parish, from the hamlet of Above Town, in the same parish, and extending thence north-westward along the said hamlet boundary to a point on the southern side of the road leading from Dalton-in-Furness to Urswick, and extending thence first northward to, and then eastward for a distance of one chain and a-half, or thereabouts, along the middle of the said road to its junction with a certain cross road, which connects the above described road with the road leading from Dalton-in-Furness to Lindale, and extending thence north-westward along the middle of the said cross road (thereby passing over the line of the Furness Railway near the western end of the Lindale Tunnel) to the junction of the same cross road with the road leading from Dalton-in-Furness to Lindale, as aforesaid, and extending thence north-eastward for a distance of twenty-six chains, or thereabouts, along the middle of the last-mentioned road to its junction near Lindale Tithe Barn with a certain cross road leading into the road called or known as Crossgates, and extending thence northward along the middle of the said cross road to the point where it joins the said Crossgates-road, and extending thence north-eastward for a distance of three chains, or thereabouts, along the middle of the last-named road to its junction with the Kirkby Kendal and Kirkby Ireleth Trust Road, and extending thence for a distance of forty-five chains, or thereabouts, first north-westward, and then westward, along the middle of the said Trust Road to a point in the centre of Holmes Green Bridge, which carries the same Trust Road over Poaka Beck, and extending thence generally north-eastward for a distance of nearly one mile and a-half along the middle of Poaka Beck aforesaid, to the boundary which divides the said parish of Dalton-in-Furness from the parish or parochial chapelry of Pennington aforesaid.”

And whereas a draft of the said scheme has, in accordance with the provisions contained in the hereinbefore secondly mentioned Act, been transmitted to the Patron, and to the Incumbent of the Vicarage of the said parish of Dalton-in-Furness, out of which it is intended that the district therein recommended to be constituted shall be taken, and such Patron and Incumbent have respectively signified their assent to the said Scheme.

And whereas the said Scheme has been approved by Her Majesty in Council: now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said Scheme, and to order and direct that the same, and every part thereof, shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Acts; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said Diocese of Carlisle.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the third and fourth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and thirteen, of the Act of the fifth and sixth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and eight, and of the Act of the twenty-first and twenty-second years of Her Majesty, chapter fifty-seven, duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a scheme, bearing date the twenty-fifth day of July, in the year one thousand eight hundred and seventy-two, in the words and figures following; that is to say:

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the third and fourth years of your Majesty, chapter one hundred and thirteen, of the Act of the fifth and sixth years of your Majesty, chapter one hundred and eight, and of the Act of the twenty-first and twenty-second years of your Majesty, chapter fifty-seven, have prepared and now humbly submit to your Majesty in Council the following scheme relating to the rectory and parish of Standish, in the county of Lancaster, and diocese of Manchester.

"Whereas under and by virtue of the "Ecclesiastical Leasing Acts, 1842 and 1857," being the Acts secondly and thirdly hereinbefore mentioned, the mines, minerals, and beds of coal kinds, lying and being under certain land, being glebe, and belonging to the benefice or rectory of Standish aforesaid, were, by an indenture, bearing date the fourteenth day of December, in the year one thousand eight hundred and seventy-one, conveyed for an estate of inheritance in fee simple to us, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, and our successors and assigns, together with full powers of digging, working, winning, and disposing of the same.

"And whereas the said mines, minerals, and beds were so conveyed to us, in consideration of the payment or transfer by us, to or for the benefit of the benefice or rectory of Standish aforesaid, of a sum of thirty thousand pounds, and in further consideration of a sum of ten thousand pounds, such further sum to be paid or transferred by us as aforesaid, only upon the occurrence of a certain contingency with reference to the said mines and minerals which is in the said deed specified.

"And whereas the income of the said benefice or rectory of Standish, amounts to the yearly sum of two thousand pounds or thereabouts, irrespective of the annual interest or produce to arise from the said sums of thirty thousand pounds and ten thousand pounds.

"And whereas, after payment thereof of certain costs, the balance of the said sum of thirty thousand pounds has been, in accordance with the provisions of the said thirdly mentioned Act, invested in the purchase by us and in our name of the sum of thirty-one thousand eight hundred and fifty-six pounds fourteen shillings and seven pence Consolidated Bank Annuities, and when and if the said further sum of ten thousand pounds shall become payable as aforesaid, the same will be invested by us in like manner.

"And whereas we deem it expedient that from and after the next avoidance of the said benefice or rectory of Standish, the whole of the improvement in the annual value of the same benefice or rectory to arise from the said dividends or annual interest on the said Bank Annuities should be paid to us in manner contemplated by the provisions of the said secondly mentioned Act, in order to be applied in making better provision for the cure of souls.

"And whereas the Reverend William Harper Brandreth, Clerk, is now the incumbent of the said benefice or rectory, and Alfred Hewlett, of the Grange, Coppull, in the said county of Lancaster, Esquire, is now the patron of the said benefice or rectory, and the said William Harper Brandreth and Alfred Hewlett do consent and agree, in manner hereinbefore mentioned, to the arrangement recommended and proposed in this scheme, being thereunto in part moved by a desire to bring about the immediate augmentation of the endowments of certain existing benefices and cures, and the constitution and endowment of certain intended new benefices and cures within the limits, or partly within the limits, of the ancient parish of Standish, and in particular the immediate augmentation up to three hundred pounds a year of the endowment of the existing benefices and cures of Adlington and Coppull, and the immediate augmentation up to three hundred pounds a year (but only if and so that one half part of such augmentation shall be provided from some source other than an ecclesiastical source), of the endowment of the existing benefice and cure of Charnock Richard, and the constitution and the endowment with three hundred pounds a year of an intended new district, to be called 'the district of Shevington,' which said constitution and last-mentioned endowment we intend hereafter to recommend and propose to your Majesty in Council, and the constitution and the endowment (with three hundred pounds a year and a parsonage house) of a certain other intended new district, to be taken wholly or partly out of the limits of the said existing benefice and cure of Adlington, the constitution and endowment as aforesaid of which said last-mentioned district we intend hereafter to recommend and propose to your Majesty in Council, if and when the said hereinbefore mentioned further sum of ten thousand pounds shall have been paid and transferred by us as aforesaid, and provided that our common fund shall, notwithstanding such constitution and endowment, be held harmless of loss, as in the said deed is mentioned.

"Now, therefore, with the consent of the said William Harper Brandreth and Alfred Hewlett, in testimony whereof they have respectively signed this scheme, we humbly recommend and propose that, save and except the yearly sum of five hundred pounds, and no more, part of the annual interest or dividends arising and to arise from the said sum of thirty-one thousand eight hundred and fifty-six pounds fourteen shillings and seven pence, Consolidated Bank Annuities, which annual sum of five hundred pounds so excepted shall remain, and be receivable by the said William Harper Brandreth during his incumbency of the said rectory of Standish, as if this scheme had not been submitted by us to your Majesty in Council, the whole of the same annual interest or dividends to arise from the said sum of thirty-one thousand eight hundred and fifty-six pounds fourteen shillings and seven pence, Consolidated Bank Annuities; and also all the annual interest or dividends which may arise from the investment in the like stock of the said sum of ten thousand pounds, if and when the same shall become payable and paid as aforesaid, shall, during the incumbency of the said William Harper Brandreth in the said rectory, be payable and paid over to our common fund, to be applied to and for the purposes of the said fund, and particularly in aid of such augmentations of the incomes, or such endowment of existing or intended cures, within the ancient parish of Standish aforesaid, as is in contemplation as aforesaid.

"And we further recommend and propose that, from and after the next avoidance of the said benefice or rectory of Standish, the whole of the annual interest or dividend, or other the annual income, to arise from the said sum of Consolidated Bank Annuities (without excepting the yearly sum of five hundred pounds so reserved as aforesaid to the said William Harper Brandreth during his incumbency of the said benefice or rectory), shall be paid over to our common fund, to be applied as aforesaid.

"And we further recommend and propose that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid, or any of them, in conformity with the provisions of the said Acts, or of any other Act of Parliament."

And whereas the said scheme has been approved by Her Majesty in Council: now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette, pursuant to the said Acts; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said diocese of Manchester.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the fifty-ninth year of His Majesty King George the Third, chapter one hundred and thirty-four; of the Act of the first and second years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and seven; of the Act of the second and third years of Her Majesty, chapter forty-nine; and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Her Majesty, chapter fifty-five, duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a representation, bearing date the twenty-fifth day of July, in the year one thousand eight hundred and seventy-two in the words and figures following; that is to say:

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the fifty-ninth year of His Majesty King George the Third, one hundred and thirty-four; of the Act of the first and second years of your Majesty, chapter one hundred and seven; of the Act of the second and third years of your Majesty, chapter forty-nine; and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of your Majesty, chapter fifty-five, have prepared, and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council, the following representation as to the assignment of a district chapelry to the consecrated church of Saint Luke, situate within the limits of the district parish of Saint Stephen, Hammersmith, in the county of Middlesex, and in the diocese of London.

"Whereas it appears to us to be expedient that a district chapelry should be assigned to the said church of Saint Luke, situate within the limits of the district parish of Saint Stephen, Hammersmith, as aforesaid.

"Now, therefore, with the consent of the Right Honourable and Right Reverend John Bishop of the said diocese of London, and with the consent of the Reverend William Lloyd Collett, the vicar or incumbent of the vicarage of the said district parish of Saint Stephen, Hammersmith (in testimony whereof they, the said consenting parties, have respectively signed and sealed this representation), we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners, humbly represent, that it would, in our opinion, be expedient that all that part of the said district parish of Saint Stephen, Hammersmith, which is described in the Schedule hereunder written, all which part, together with the boundaries thereof, is delineated and set forth on the map or plan hereunto annexed should be assigned as a district chapelry to the said church of Saint Luke, situate within the limits of such district parish as aforesaid, and that the same should be named 'The District Chapelry of Saint Luke, Hammersmith.'

"And with the like consent of the said John Bishop of the said diocese of London, and of the said William Lloyd Collett (testified as aforesaid), we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners, further represent that it appears to us to be expedient that banns of matrimony should be published, and that marriages, baptisms, churchings, and burials, should be solemnized or performed at such church, and that the fees to be received in respect of the publication of such banns, and of the solemnization or performance of the said offices, should be paid and belong to the minister of the same church for the time being. Provided always that nothing herein contained shall be construed as expressing any intention on the part of us, the said Commissioners, to concur in or approve the taking of any fee for the performance of the said office of baptism, or for the registration thereof.

"We therefore humbly pray that your Majesty will be graciously pleased to take the premises into your royal consideration, and to make such order with respect thereto as to your Majesty in your royal wisdom shall seem meet.

The SCHEDULE to which the foregoing scheme has reference:—

"And we further represent, recommend, and propose that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from representing, recommending, or proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid, or any of them, in accordance with the provisions of the hereinbefore mentioned Acts, or of either of them, or of any other Act of Parliament.

AT the Court at Osborne House, Isle of Wight, the 9th day of August, 1872.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the third and fourth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and thirteen, of the Act of the sixth and seventh years of Her Majesty, chapter thirty-seven, and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and four, duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a scheme, bearing date the first day of August, in the year one thousand eight hundred and seventy-two, in the words and figures following; that is to say :

"We the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the third and fourth years of your Majesty, chapter one hundred and thirteen, of the Act of the sixth and seventh years of your Majesty, chapter thirty-seven, and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of your Majesty, chapter one hundred and four, have prepared and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council the following scheme for constituting a separate district for spiritual purposes out of the parish of Saint George the Martyr, Southwark, in the county of Surrey, and in the diocese of Winchester.

"Whereas it has been made to appear to us that it would promote the interests of religion that the particular part of the said parish of Saint George the Martyr, Southwark, which is herein-after mentioned and described, such part not at present containing within its limits any consecrated church or chapel in use for the purposes of divine worship, should be constituted a separate district in manner hereinafter recommended and set forth.

"And whereas for the purpose of providing an endowment for the same district certain persons have subscribed a sum of two thousand five hundred pounds sterling, and have caused the same to be expended in the purchase of the several pieces or parcels of land, messuages, hereditaments, and premises hereinafter mentioned.

"And whereas by a certain deed or indenture bearing date on or about the twenty-ninth day of July, in the year one thousand eight hundred and seventy-two, and made, or expressed to be made, under the provisions of 'The New Parishes Acts, 1843, 1844, and 1856,' or some or one of them, between James Beaumont, of Lincoln's Inn Fields, in the county of Middlesex, gentleman, of the first part, the Reverend George William Herbert, vicar or incumbent of the vicarage of the new parish of Saint Peter, Vauxhall, in the said county of Surrey, and in the said diocese of Winchester, the Reverend Robert Gregory, vicar or incumbent of the vicarage of the new parish of Saint Mary the Less, Princes-road, Lambeth, in the said county of Surrey, and in the said diocese of Winchester, and Canon of the Cathedral Church of Saint Paul, in the City of London, Philip Cazenove, of Clapham Common, in the said county of Surrey, Esquire, Philip Charles Hardwick, of Cavendish-square, in the said county of Middlesex, Esquire, and Charles Few, of Number 2, Henrietta-street Covent-garden, in the said county of Middlesex, gentleman, of the second part, Robert Hamilton Few, of Number 2, Henrietta-street, Covent-garden, aforesaid, gentleman, of the third part, and us, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England of the fourth part (which deed is intended to be enrolled in your Majesty's High Court of Chancery at Westminster), the said James Beaumont in consideration of the sum of two thousand five hundred pounds sterling before mentioned, and at the request and by the direction of the said several persons named above as parties to the said deed or indenture of the second part, did grant, and the same several persons parties of the second part as aforesaid, did release and confirm unto the said Robert Hamilton Few and his heirs certain pieces or parcels of land situate on the east side of the Gipsy Hill-road, in the parish of Lambeth, in the said county of Surrey, which said pieces or parcels of land, with the abuttals, boundaries, and dimensions thereof, are more particularly delineated in the plan drawn in the margin of the said deed or indenture, and thereon coloured pink, and also the messuages, dwelling-houses, stables, and other buildings, erected and standing on the said pieces or parcels of ground, together with the appurtenances thereunto belonging or appertaining, to have and to hold the said pieces or parcels of land, messuages, hereditaments, and all and singular other the premises expressed in the said indenture to be granted and released unto the said Robert Hamilton Few and his heirs, to the use of the said several persons, parties of the second part, and their heirs and assigns, until an incumbent shall have been appointed and licensed to the said district hereinafter recommended to be constituted, and when and so soon as such incumbent shall have been appointed and licensed then to the use of the incumbent of the said district, and his successors, incumbents thereof for the time being for ever, subject nevertheless to several indentures of lease (the particulars whereof and the yearly rents amounting together to the yearly sum of one hundred and six pounds, or thereabouts, which are reserved thereby, are set forth in the first Schedule appended to such deed or indenture), and subject to a declaration in the same indenture contained, that no use should arise in favour of any incumbent under the limitation thereinbefore contained and hereinbefore mentioned, unless he should be appointed and licensed before the expiration of twenty-one years from the date of the same indenture.

“And whereas the persons who subscribed to effect the purchase of the land, messuages, or dwelling-houses, stables, and premises hereinbefore referred to, did so upon the understanding that we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, should out of our common fund created by the firstly hereinbefore mentioned Act, pay to the incumbent for the time being of the said district so recommended to be constituted, when duly licensed according to the provisions of the secondly hereinbefore mentioned Act, a grant of fifty pounds per annum, and upon the further understanding that (such arrangement appearing to us to be expedient) the whole right of patronage of the said district, and of the nomination of the incumbent thereto, should be assigned in the manner hereinafter mentioned.

“And whereas we have agreed and undertaken to make such grant of fifty pounds per annum as aforesaid by an instrument to be executed by us, under our common seal, in accordance with the provisions of the Act of the twenty-ninth and thirtieth years of your Majesty, chapter one hundred and eleven.

“Now, therefore, with the consent of the Right Reverend Samuel, Bishop of the said diocese of Winchester (in testimony whereof he has signed and sealed this scheme), we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners, humbly recommend and propose that all that part of the said parish of Saint George the Martyr, Southwark, which is described in the Schedule hereunder written and is delineated and set forth on the map or plan hereunto annexed, shall, upon and from the day of the date of the publication in the London Gazette of any Order of your Majesty in Council ratifying this scheme, become and be constituted a separate district for spiritual purposes, and that the same shall be named ‘the District of Saint Alphege, Southwark.’

“And we further recommend and propose that the whole right of patronage of the said district so recommended to be constituted, and of the nomination of the incumbent thereof, shall, without any assurance in the law other than this scheme and any duly gazetted Order of your Majesty in Council ratifying the same, and upon and from the day of the date of the publication of such Order in the London Gazette as aforesaid be assigned to and be vested in, and shall and may from time to time be exercised jointly by the said George William Herbert, Robert Gregory, Philip Cazenove, Philip Charles Hardwick, and Charles Few, their heirs and assigns for ever.

“And we further recommend and propose that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid, or any of them, in accordance with the provisions of the said Acts or of any of them, or of any other Act of Parliament.”

The SCHEDULE to which the foregoing scheme has reference.

“The district of Saint Alphege, Southwark, being:—

“All that part of the parish of Saint George the Martyr, Southwark, in the county of Surrey, and in the diocese of Winchester, wherein the present Incumbent of such parish now possesses the exclusive cure of souls, which is bounded on the north-east partly by the new parish of Saint Michael, Southwark, and partly by the parish of Saint Saviour, Southwark, both in the said county and diocese, or, in other words, by Great Suffolk-street; on the north by the parish of Christ Church, Southwark, in the same county and diocese (the boundary whereof extends along a line parallel to and between Wellington-street and Surrey-row); on the west by the new parish of Saint Paul, Southwark, in the same county and diocese, or, in other words, by Blackfriars-road; and on the remaining sides, that is to say on the south and on the south-east, by an imaginary line commencing at the Obelisk at the southern end of the said Blackfriars-road, in the centre of Saint George's Circus, where the boundary dividing the said new parish of Saint Paul, Southwark, from the parish of Saint George-the-Martyr aforesaid meets the boundary dividing the last-named parish from the new parish of Saint Jude, Southwark, in the county and diocese aforesaid (the said Obelisk being also opposite to the western end of Borough-road), and extending thence eastward to and along the middle of the said last-named road to the point at the bridge which carries the line of the London, Chatham, and Dover Railway over the same road where such road is intersected by Southwark Bridge-road, and extending thence north-eastward along the middle of the last-named road to the boundary at the intersection of the same road by Great Suffolk-street aforesaid, which divides the said parish of Saint George-the-Martyr, Southwark, from the new parish of Saint Michael, Southwark, aforesaid.”

And whereas a draft of the said scheme has, in accordance with the provisions of the hereinbefore secondly mentioned Act, been transmitted to the Patron, and to the Incumbent, of the parish out of which it is intended that the district therein recommended to be constituted shall be taken, and such Patron and Incumbent have respectively signified their assent to the said scheme.

And whereas the said scheme has been approved by Her Majesty in Council: now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same, and every part thereof, shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Acts; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said diocese of Winchester.

BYE-LAWS OF THE SCHOOL BOARD FOR THE BOROUGH OF GATESHEAD.

WHEREAS, by the 74th section of the Elementary Education Act, 1870, it is enacted that every School Board may, from time to time, with the approval of the Education Department, make Bye-laws, for all or any of the following purposes:—

- (a.) Requiring the parents of children of such age, not less than five years nor more than thirteen years, as may be fixed by the Bye-laws, to cause such children (unless there be some reasonable excuse) to attend school.
- (b.) Determining the time during which such children are to attend school, provided that no such Bye-laws shall prevent the withdrawal of any child from any religious observance or instruction in religious subjects, or shall require any child to attend school on any day exclusively set apart for religious observance by the religious body to which his parent belongs, or shall be contrary to anything contained in the Act for regulating the education of children employed in labour.
- (c.) Providing for the remission or payment of the whole or any part of the fees of any child, where the parent satisfies the School Board that he is unable from poverty to pay the same.
- (d.) Imposing penalties for the breach of any Bye-laws.
- (e.) Revoking or altering any Bye-laws previously made.

Provided that any Bye-laws, under this section, requiring a child between ten and thirteen years of age to attend school, shall provide for the total or partial exemption of such child from the obligation to attend school, if one of Her Majesty's Inspectors certify that such child has reached a standard of education specified in such Bye-laws.

enacted, that any of the following reasons shall be a reasonable excuse, namely:—

- (a.) That the child is under efficient instruction in some other manner.

- (c.) That there is no Public Elementary School open which the child can attend, within such distance, not exceeding three miles, measured according to the nearest road from the residence of such child, as the Bye-laws may prescribe.

And by the said 74th section, it is further enacted, that any proceeding to enforce any Bye-law may be taken, and any penalty for the breach of any Bye-law may be recovered, in a summary manner, but no penalty imposed for the breach of any Bye-law shall exceed such amount as with the costs will amount to five shillings for each offence, and such Bye-laws shall not come into operation until they have been sanctioned by Her Majesty in Council.

And whereas, by the 25th section of the said Act, it is enacted that the School Board, may, if they think fit, from time to time, for a renewable period not exceeding six months, pay the whole or any part of the school fees payable, at any Public Elementary School, by any child resident in their district, whose parent is in their opinion unable from poverty to pay the same, but no such payment shall be made or refused on condition of the child attending any Public Elementary School other than such as may be selected by the parent; and such payment shall not be deemed to be parochial relief given to such parent.

And whereas, in pursuance of a requisition sent by the Education Department, to the Mayor of the borough of Gateshead, in the county of Durham, a School Board for the borough of Gateshead was duly elected on the 28th day of November, 1870.

METROPOLIS WATER.

AT the Council Chamber, Whitehall, the 10th day of August, 1872.

PRESENT:

The Right Honourable Chichester Fortescue, M.P.

WHEREAS it is provided by the Metropolis Water Act, 1871 [section 17], that every Company subject to the provisions of that Act, shall, within six months after the passing of the said Act, make regulations for the purposes for which regulations may be made under the authority of section 26 of the Metropolis Water Act, 1852, and that the provisions of that section shall apply also to the preventing of undue consumption or contamination of water. And whereas by the said Metropolis Water Act, 1871 [section 22], it is further provided that no such regulation shall be of any force or effect unless and until the same be submitted to and confirmed by the Board of Trade, who may institute such inquiry in relation thereto as they shall think fit, and who, at such inquiry, shall hear the Metropolitan Authority and the Company, if desiring to be heard, and the said Board shall, if they think fit, or if requested, nominate and have present at such inquiry to advise and assist them, a competent and impartial waterworks engineer. And whereas it is by the said last-mentioned Act also provided, that no such regulation shall be confirmed by the Board of Trade unless notice in that behalf shall have been given by the Company to which the same relates, or by such person as the Board of Trade direct, in the London Gazette, and in two daily morning newspapers circulated within the limits of the said Act, one month at least before the enquiry, and that one month at least before any such inquiry is held, a copy of the regulations in question shall be sent by such Company, or person, to the office of the Metropolitan Authority, and the same shall for one month be kept open during office hours at the respective offices of the Metropolitan Authority and of the said Company, to the inspection of all persons without fee or reward. And whereas the Metropolitan Water Companies and the Tottenham Local Board made regulations, in accordance with the provisions of the above-named Act, and submitted the same to the Board of Trade for confirmation, and duly advertized and deposited the same with the Metropolitan Authorities. And whereas the Metropolitan Board of Works and the Corporation of the city of London, being Metropolitan Authorities under the said last-mentioned Act, submitted objections to the said regulations, and it was deemed expedient that an inquiry should be held in relation thereto. And whereas by the Board of Trade Inquiries Act, 1872, it is provided that wherever in any Act of Parliament it is directed that an inquiry shall be held or instituted by the Board of Trade, the same shall be deemed to have been duly held or instituted, if conducted by any person or persons duly authorised in that behalf by the President of the said Board, by writing under his hand or under the hand of one of the Secretaries of the said Board. And whereas the Board of Trade under the powers conferred upon them as aforesaid, appointed the Right Honourable Lord Methuen, Henry Whatley Tyler, Esquire, late Captain Royal Engineers, and Mr. Robert Rawlinson, C.E., C.B., to hold an enquiry in relation to the regulations so submitted to them by the Companies, and by the Tottenham Local Board. And whereas the said inquiry has been held, and the said Metropolitan Authorities, and the Companies and the Local Board have been heard at the inquiry. And whereas, as the result of such inquiry, it has appeared expedient to the Board of Trade to allow such and so many of the said regulations as are contained in the Schedule hereto annexed, with such modifications and alterations as are shown in the said Schedule. Now therefore the Board of Trade do hereby confirm the last named regulations so modified and altered as aforesaid.

C. P. Fortescue.

Every pipe hereafter laid or fixed in the interior of any dwelling-house for the conveyance of, or in connection with, the water of the Company, must, unless with the consent of the Company, if in contact with the ground, be of lead, but may otherwise be of lead, copper, or wrought iron, at the option of the consumer.

9. No pipe shall be used for the conveyance of, or in connection with, water supplied by the Company, which is laid or fixed through, in, or into any drain, ashpit, sink, or "manure-hole," or through, in, or into any place where the water conveyed through such pipe may be liable to become fouled, except where such drain, ashpit, sink or "manure-hole," or other such place, shall be in the unavoidable course of such pipe, and then in every such case such pipe shall be passed through an exterior cast-iron pipe or jacket, of sufficient length and strength, and of such construction as to afford due protection to the "water-pipe."

Depth of Pipes under Ground.

10. Every pipe hereafter laid for the conveyance of, or in connection with, water supplied by the Company, shall, when laid in open ground, be laid at least two feet six inches below the surface, and shall in every exposed situation be properly protected against the effects of frost.

If placed in the ground such "stop-valve" shall be protected by a proper cover and "guard-box."

Character of Cisterns and Ball-Taps.

13. Every cistern used in connection with the water supplied by the Company shall be made and at all times maintained watertight, and be properly covered and placed in such a position that it may be inspected and cleansed. Every such existing cistern, if not already provided with an efficient "ball-tap," and every such future cistern, shall be provided with a sound and suitable "ball-tap" of the valve kind for the inlet of water.

Waste Pipes to be removed or converted into Warning-Pipes.

14. No overflow or waste pipe other than a "warning-pipe" shall be attached to any cistern supplied with water by the Company, and every such overflow or "waste-pipe" existing at the time when these regulations come into operation shall be removed, or at the option of the consumer shall be converted into an efficient "warning-pipe" within two calendar months next after the Company shall have given to the occupier of, or left at the premises in which such cistern is situate, a notice in writing requiring such alteration to be made.

Arrangement of Warning-Pipes.

15. Every "warning-pipe" shall be placed in such a situation as will admit of the discharge of the water from such warning pipe being readily ascertained by the officers of the Company. And the position of such "warning-pipe" shall not be changed without previous notice to and approval by the Company.

Buried Cisterns prohibited.

16. No cistern buried or excavated in the ground shall be used for the storage or reception of water supplied by the Company, unless the use of such cistern shall be allowed in writing by the Company.

Every boiler, urinal, and watercloset, in which water supplied by the Company is used (other than waterclosets in which hand flushing is employed), shall, within three months after these regulations come into operation, be served only through a cistern, or service-box and without a stool-cock, and there shall be no direct communication from the pipes of the Company to any boiler, urinal, or watercloset.

Watercloset Apparatus.

21. Every "watercloset-cistern" or watercloset service-box hereafter fitted or fixed in which water supplied by the Company is to be used, shall have an efficient waste-preventing apparatus, so constructed as not to be capable of discharging more than two gallons of water at each flush.

Urinal Cistern Apparatus.

22. Every urinal-cistern in which water supplied by the Company is used other than public urinal-cisterns, or cisterns having attached to them a self-closing apparatus, shall have an efficient "waste-preventing" apparatus, so constructed as not to be capable of discharging more than one gallon of water at each flush.

27. No alteration shall be made in any fittings in connection with the supply of water by the Company without two days previous notice in writing to the Company.

Waterway of Fittings.

28. Except with the written consent of the consent of the consumer, no cock, ferrule, joint, union, valve or other fitting, in the course of any "communication-pipe," shall have a waterway of less area than that of the "communication-pipe," so that the waterway from the water in the district pipe or other supply pipe of the Company up to and through the stop-valve prescribed by regulation No. 12, shall not in any part be of less area than that of the "communication-pipe" itself, which pipe shall not be of less than a half-inch bore in all its course.

Weight of Lead Pipes having open Ends.

29. All lead "warning-pipes" and other lead pipes of which the ends are open, so that such pipes cannot remain charged with water, may be of the following minimum weights, that is to say—
