

belongs to the Bishop for the time being of the diocese of Norwich in right of his see.

“Whereas the Right Reverend James Russell now Bishop of the said diocese of Ely and the Honourable and Right Reverend John Thomas now Bishop of the said diocese of Norwich have respectively signified to us their desire that the patronage of the said two benefices and vicarages of Griston and All Saints Newmarket may be re-arranged by way of exchange in manner hereinafter recommended and proposed.

“And whereas we have made due inquiry and calculation as to the circumstances and relative value of the said two benefices and vicarages and of the patronage thereof respectively and we do hereby certify to your Majesty in Council that the circumstances and present values of the said two benefices and vicarages are as set forth in the schedule hereunto annexed.

“Now therefore with the consent of the said James Russell Bishop of the said diocese of Ely acting as such Bishop and with the consent of the said John Thomas Bishop of the said diocese of Norwich acting as such Bishop (in testimony whereof to this scheme the said two bishops have respectively affixed their hands and their episcopal seals) we the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England humbly recommend and propose that upon and from the day of the date of the publication in the London Gazette of any Order of your Majesty in Council ratifying this scheme and without any conveyance or assurance in the law other than such duly gazetted Order, the whole advowson or perpetual right of patronage of and presentation to the said benefice and vicarage of Griston and the church thereof shall be assigned and transferred from the said James Russell Bishop of the said diocese of Ely and from his successors Bishops of the same diocese and shall become and be absolutely vested in and shall and may from time to time and at all times be exercised by the said John Thomas Bishop of the said diocese of Norwich and his successors Bishops of the same diocese for ever and that in exchange for the same the whole advowson or perpetual right of patronage of and presentation to the said benefice and vicarage of All Saints situate at Newmarket and the church thereof shall in like manner and upon and from the same date be assigned and transferred from the said John Thomas Bishop of the said diocese of Norwich and from his successors Bishops of the same diocese and shall become and be absolutely vested in and shall and may from time to time and at all times be exercised by the said James Russell Bishop of the said diocese of Ely and his successors Bishops of the same diocese for ever.

“And we further recommend and propose that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid or any of them in accordance with the provisions of the said Acts or of either of them or of any other Act of Parliament.”

“The SCHEDULE to which the foregoing Scheme has reference.

Name and Quality of Benefice.	County.	Diocese.	Population.	Gross Income.	Residence.
Griston, a Vicarage	Norfolk	Norwich	259	£ 308	Yes, but wanting repair and subject to mortgage.
All Saints, Newmarket, a Vicarage	Cambridge	Ely	2000	205	Yes.”

And whereas the said scheme has been approved by Her Majesty in Council: now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Acts; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said diocese of Ely, and by the Registrar of the said diocese of Norwich.

C. I. Peel.

At the Court at Osborne House, Isle of Wight, the 13th day of August, 1877.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the sixth and seventh years of His Majesty, King William the Fourth, chapter seventy-seven, of the Act of the third and fourth years of Her Majesty chapter one hundred and thirteen, and of the Act of the thirty-seventh and thirty-eighth years of Her Majesty, chapter sixty-three duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a scheme, bearing date the fifth day of July, in the year one thousand eight hundred and seventy-seven, in the words and figures following, that is to say:

“We the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England in pursuance of the Act of the sixth and seventh years of His Majesty King William the Fourth chapter seventy-seven of the Act of the third and fourth years of your Majesty chapter one hundred and thirteen, and of the Act of the thirty-seventh and thirty-eighth years of your Majesty chapter sixty-three, have prepared and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council the following scheme for dividing the Archdeaconry of Manchester within the diocese of Manchester into two portions and for constituting each of such portions a separate archdeaconry and assigning a district thereto; and also for transferring certain cures, now within a certain rural deanery within the said Archdeaconry of Manchester to a certain other rural deanery within the same archdeaconry.

“Whereas the area of the said present Archdeaconry of Manchester is of great extent and comprises and consists of a large part of the county of Lancaster together with a portion of
