" To the Most Reverend Edward White, Lord Archbishop of Canterbury.

" We Charles John Lord Bishop of Gloucester and Bristol do hereby represent to your Grace that there are in the county of Gloucester and diocese of Gloucester and Bristol the vicarage of Brookthorpe and Whaddon and the consolidated chapelry of Saint Paul in the city and county of Gloucester.

" That the parishes of Brookthorpe and Whaddon comprise the hamlet of Tuffley which is bounded on the north by the parishes of Matson and Saint Paul's Gloucester on the east by the parishes of Upton Saint Leonards and Matson, on the south by the parishes of Brookthorpe and Whaddon and on the west by the parishes of Quedgeley and Hempstead.

"That the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have resolved that when the contemplated re-arrangement of the territory of the hamlet of Tuffley, as described in the scheme hereinafter set forth shall have taken place, to discontinue the aforesaid conditional grant of the annual sum of one hundred and twenty pounds to the benefice of Brookthorpe and Whaddon and in lieu thereof to make an unconditional grant of an annual sum of fifty pounds to the said benefice of Brookthorpe with Whaddon and an annual sum of sixty pounds to the said benefice of Saint Paul, Gloucester.

"That pursuant to the direction contained in the twenty-sixth section of the said Act we have prepared the following scheme which together with the consents thereto in writing of the patrons of the said vicarage of Brookthorpe and Whaddon and of the said consolidated chapelry of Saint Paul, Gloucester, we do submit to your Grace to the intent that your Grace, if on full consideration and inquiry you shall be satisfied with such scheme may certify the same and such consents by your report to Her Majesty in Council."

It proceeds thence along the middle of the main road aforesaid for a distance of about one furlong northwards; thence in a south-easterly direction along a fence on the farm known as Oldington Farm to the Staffordshire and Worcestershire Canal at a point about  $1\frac{1}{4}$  furlong on the Kidderminster side of the bridge which carries the highway from Oldington to Wilden over the said canal and which is known as Oldington Bridge; thence along the south-eastern side of the said canal in the direction of Kidderminster for a distance of about one furlong to a point opposite the lock which forms a communication between the said canal and the River Stour, where it again meets the existing boundary of the new parish of Lower Mitton.

"The part of the new parish of Saint John the Baptist Kidderminster, which is cut off by the boundary above defined is the part which it is proposed to transfer to the new parish of Lower Mitton.

"CONSENTS.

AT the Court at Osborne House, Isle of Wight, the 12th day of August, 1885.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of an Act of the sixth and seventh years of Her Majesty, chapter thirty-seven sections six and eight duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a scheme bearing date the thirtieth day of July, in the year one thousand eight hundred and eighty-five, in the words following, that is to say:—

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of an Act of the sixth and seventh years of Your Majesty chapter thirty-seven sections six and eight, have prepared and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council the following scheme for authorizing the sale and disposal of certain property formerly belonging to the Bishopric of Gloucester and Bristol and now vested in us.

"Whereas on the vacancy of the said Bishopric which occurred on or about the sixth day of November in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-one by the translation of the Right Reverend Charles Bishop of the said See to the See of Durham the message or tenement and other hereditaments particularly described in the schedule hereto annexed situate in the parish of Saint Mary-de-Lode in the city of Gloucester became by virtue of the Act of the twenty-third and twenty-fourth years of Your Majesty chapter one hundred and twenty-four absolutely vested in us, for the purposes and subject to the provisions applicable to other hereditaments vested in us.

"And whereas the said message or tenement and other hereditaments are subject to the beneficial lease for lives mentioned in the said schedule and produce during the subsistence of the said lease only a small annual revenue and partly on that account and partly on account of the character and situation of the property the said message or tenement and other hereditaments are unsuitable or inconvenient to be held or applied for the purposes for which estates vested in us are applicable under the Acts by which our proceedings are governed.

"And whereas by the said Act of the twenty-third and twenty-fourth years of Your Majesty power is given to lessees holding under us in the event of our declining to enter into a treaty for the sale of our reversions or the purchase of the leasehold interests to require us to purchase such leasehold interests at a valuation.

"And whereas with a view to the advantageous appropriation of the said message or tenement and other hereditaments or of the proceeds thereof for the ultimate improvement of our common fund it is expedient that the same or such parts thereof as we shall at any time and from time to time think fit should be sold or disposed of and accordingly that we should be empowered to dispose of our interest therein or in any part or parts thereof in such manner as shall appear to us advisable.

"Now therefore we humbly recommend and propose that we may be authorized and empowered by instrument or instruments in writing duly executed according to law from time to time to sell or dispose of and duly to convey according to the provisions of the said Act of the sixth and seventh years of Your Majesty's reign with the consent of the holder or holders thereof (if any) to be testified by his her or their being made parties to such instrument all or any part of the said message or tenement and other hereditaments formerly belonging to the said Bishoprick and so vested in us as aforesaid with their appurtenances and all our estate right title and interest therein or in any part or parts thereof unto and to the use of any person or persons desirous or willing to purchase the same and his her or their heirs executors administrators or assigns or otherwise as he she or they shall direct or appoint and for such consideration as shall upon due calculation and inquiry appear to us to be just and reasonable it being our intention to invest the proceeds of such sale from time to time as occasion may arise in the purchase of other lands tithes rent-charges tenements or hereditaments or of some estate or interest therein convenient to be held by us for the purposes of the Acts by which our proceedings are governed as aforesaid and in the meantime to invest the said proceeds in some Government or Parliamentary stock or other public securities in England.

"And we further recommend and propose that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid or any of them in accordance with the provisions of the said Acts or of any other Act of Parliament.

SCHEDULE.

"All that message or tenement and also the malthouse building, garden orchard and other hereditaments situate in the parish of Saint Mary-de-Lode in the city of Gloucester which by a lease bearing date the thirtieth day of July one thousand eight hundred and forty-six were demised and granted by the Right Reverend James Henry Bishop of Gloucester and Bristol unto William Cox Buchanan of Dursley in the county of Gloucester Gentleman and Charles Buchanan of the city of Gloucester Gentleman for the lives of William Bushell, James Agg Gardner and Eliza Ryder."

And whereas the said scheme has been approved by Her Majesty in Council; now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Act; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the diocese of Gloucester and Bristol. *C. The QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act passed in the Session of Parliament held in the eighteenth and nineteenth years of Her Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act further to amend the laws concerning the burial of the dead in England," it is, amongst other things, enacted that it shall be lawful for Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, from time to time to postpone the time appointed by any Order in Council for the discontinuance of burials, or otherwise to vary any Order in Council made under any of the Acts recited in the said Act, or under the said Act (whether the time thereby appointed for the discontinuance of burials thereunder, or other operation of such Order, shall or shall not have arrived), as to Her Majesty, with such advice as aforesaid, may seem fit:

And whereas Orders in Council have been made directing the discontinuance of burials in the churchyards hereinafter mentioned from the time specified in such Orders; and whereas it seems fit to Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, that the time for discontinuing burials in the said churchyards be postponed:

Now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice aforesaid, is pleased to order, and it is hereby ordered, that the time for the discontinuance of burials in such churchyards be postponed as follows, viz.:
