TUESDAY, AUGUST 18, 1896.

At the Court at Osborne House, Isle of Wight, the 14th day of August, 1896.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by the eleventh section of "The Volunteer Act, 1863," it is amongst other things enacted that "Her Majesty in Council may from time to time declare what is requisite to entitle a Volunteer to be deemed an efficient Volunteer by an Order in Council defining for that purpose the extent of attendance at drill to be given by the Volunteer, and the course of instruction to be gone through by him, and the degree of proficiency in drill and instruction to be attained by him and his Corps, such proficiency to be judged of by the Inspecting Officer at the Annual Inspection of the Corps, or otherwise, as by Order in Council is from time to time directed," and that "the draft of any scheme to be from time to time submitted to Her Majesty in Council for approval under the present section shall have been laid before both Houses of Parliament for one lunar month at least, either before or after, or partly before and partly after, the passing of this Act during the present, or for the like period during any subsequent Session of Parliament before such scheme receives the approval of Her Majesty in Council."

And whereas it is deemed expedient that the Order in Council bearing date the thirty-first day of July, one thousand eight hundred and eighty, declaring what is requisite to entitle a Volunteer to be deemed an efficient Volunteer, be amended as regards the efficiency of Volunteers belonging to Rifle Corps.

And whereas a draft of the proposed amendment was on the thirteenth day of July last laid before both Houses of Parliament in the words mentioned and set forth in the Schedule to this Order annexed, and one lunar month having elapsed since that time, the said amendment of the said Order hath this day been submitted to Her Majesty in Council for Her approval thereof:

Now, therefore, Her Majesty having this day taken the proposed amendment into consideration, doth, in pursuance and exercise of the power in Her Majesty by the said Act of Parliament in that behalf vested, and by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, hereby amend, in the words of the draft scheme of amendment forming the Schedule to this Order annexed the aforesaid

Order in Council of the thirty-first day of July, one thousand eight hundred and eighty, and doth declare Her Royal approval of such amendment.

C. L. Peel.

SCHEDULE.

AMENDMENT, under the provisions of the Volunteer Act, 1863, of the Scheme relative to the Efficiency of Volunteers in force under Her Majesty's Order in Council, dated thirty-first July, one thousand eight hundred and eighty, or subsequent amending Orders.

To substitute for the existing Certificate of Efficiency for Volunteers of Rifle Corps a Certificate in the form and words hereinafter shown.

EFFICIENCY CERTIFICATE FOR VOLUNTEER RIFLE CORPS.

(1.) That A B No. was duly enrolled in the muster roll of the Volunteer Rifle Corps on the one thousand eight hundred and , and is actually a member of the Corps on this date.

(2.) That he does not belong to the Regular, Militia, Yeomanry, or Army Reserve (including enrolled pensioner) Forces; and that he is not enrolled in any other Volunteer Corps.

(3.) That he attended during the twelve months ending the thirty-first October one thousand eight hundred and * drills of this Corps, ordered by the Commanding Officer; each of such drills being of not less than one hour's duration.

†(4.)—(a) (For the thirty-five shillings Grant for the trained Volunteer.) That he fired** rounds of ball ammunition in Class Firing during the year, and passed into the Second Class.

†(b) (For the ten shillings Grant for the trained Volunteer.) That he fired three times in the Third Class during the year, firing each time twenty-one rounds of ball ammunition, and that in one of those trials he made twenty points.

‡(5.) That he attended the lessons and drills referred to in Table A, Appendix VIII, Volunteer Regulations.

†(6.)—(a) (For the thirty-five shillings Grant for the Recruit.) That he fired forty-two rounds of ball ammunition in Class Firing during the year, and passed into the Second Class.

†(b) (For the ten shillings Grant for the Recruit.) That he fired forty-two rounds of ball ammunition in Class Firing during the year, and made thirty points.

(7.) That he possesses a competent knowledge of the drill and manœuvring of a Company, as laid down in Infantry Drill, and the Manual Exercises.

(8.) That he was§ the last Annual Inspection of the Corps.

* For Volunteers enrolled before the first November, one thousand eight hundred and seventy-nine :—

(a) If present at inspection, nine company and battalion drills (including the inspection), of which three at least shall have been battalion drills.

(b) If re-enrolled since the inspection, or absent from inspection with leave of the Commanding Officer, or through sickness duly certified, eleven company and battalion drills, of which three at least shall have been battalion drills.

* For Volunteers enrolled after the thirty-first October, one thousand eight hundred and seventy-nine.

For Recruits.—If present at inspection, thirty squad, company, battalion (including the inspection), or musketry instruction drills. If joined after inspection, or absent from inspection with leave of the Commanding Officer, or through sickness duly certified, thirty-two such drills.

Second year.—If present at inspection, thirty squad, company, battalion (including the inspection), or musketry instruction drills, or such number, not less than twelve of company and battalion drills (including the inspection), three of which shall have been battalion drills, as will, with the number performed in the previous year, amount to sixty. If re-enrolled since the inspection, or absent from inspection with leave of the Commanding Officer, or through sickness duly certified, thirty-two such drills, or such number, not less than fourteen, of company and battalion drills, three of which shall have been battalion drills, as will, with the number performed in the previous year, amount to sixty-two.

Third and fourth years : also subsequent years in the case of Volunteers who have failed to complete the sixty or sixty-two drills during their first two years of service.—If present at inspection, twelve company and battalion drills (including the inspection), of which three at least shall have been battalion drills. If re-enrolled since the inspection, or absent from inspection with leave of the Commanding Officer, or through sickness duly certified, fourteen company and battalion drills, of which three at least shall have been battalion drills.

Subsequent years, in the case of Volunteers who have completed the sixty or sixty-two drills during their first two years of service, and have been returned four times as efficient.—If present at inspection, seven company and battalion drills, including the inspection, of which three at least shall have been battalion drills. If re-enrolled since the inspection, or absent from inspection with leave of the Commanding Officer, or through sickness duly certified, nine company and battalion drills, of which three at least shall have been battalion drills.

Squad drills, at which not less than four rank-and-file are present, may be reckoned when necessary to complete the number of company drills; but, when so reckoned, they can only be counted in the proportion of three squad drills, in lieu of one company drill. When counted, the number of battalion, company, and squad drills respectively attended must be stated on the certificate granted to the Volunteer.

To constitute a battalion drill reckoning towards efficiency, eighty at least of all ranks (exclusive of band) must be present, of whom not less than sixteen must be officers and sergeants.

Attendance at a brigade drill or a review may be counted as a battalion drill.

To constitute a company drill reckoning towards efficiency, sixteen at least of all ranks (exclusive of band) must be present, of whom not less than two must be officers and sergeants, or officers or sergeants.

In cases where the Volunteer belongs to an organized cyclist section, cycling drills ordered by the commanding officers, and of not less than one hour's duration, may be counted as follows towards the total number of drills required for efficiency :—

(a) For Recruits and Volunteers in their second year of service—

Ten cycling drills of any kind.

(b) Volunteers in their third and subsequent year's service—

Three cycling battalion drills, or three cycling company drills.

** Here insert twenty-one, forty-two, or sixty-three, as the case may be.

† Strike out the paragraphs which do not refer to the Volunteer named.

‡ This paragraph only applies to Recruits, and may be struck out in the case of trained Volunteers.

§ Here insert "present at" or "absent from," as the case may be. If absent, it must be stated whether with leave of the commanding officer, or through sickness duly certified. If enrolled after the date of inspection strike out paragraph, and so state.

NOTE.—Trumpeters, buglers, and boys are not required to go through musketry.

AT the Court at Osborne House, Isle of Wight, the 14th day of August, 1896.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by the six hundred and forty-fourth section of "The Merchant Shipping Act, 1894," it is enacted that on the completion of any lighthouse, buoy, or beacon, Her Majesty may by Order in Council fix dues to be paid in respect thereof in the case of any ship which passes the same or derives benefit therefrom, and the dues so fixed shall for the purposes of the said Act be deemed to be light dues:

And whereas the Commissioners of Northern Lighthouses have established or are about to establish a lighthouse and fog signal on the Island of Stroma, off the north coast of Scotland:

And whereas it is fit and proper that in respect of the said lighthouse and fog signal light dues should be levied as hereinafter mentioned:

And whereas the provisions of section one of "The Rules Publication Act, 1893," have been complied with:

Now, therefore, Her Majesty, in exercise of the powers vested in Her by the said recited Act, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, is pleased to direct that from and after the date of the exhibition of the said light, or from and after the time of the receipt of notice of the present Order, if that be later, by the officers authorized to collect light dues, the following rates shall be paid, that is to say :—

On all vessels, whether British or foreign, which may pass or derive benefit from the said light, that is to say, on all vessels which shall pass through the Pentland Firth, or across it between lines drawn from Duncansbay Head to Old Head in South Ronaldshay on the east, and Dunnethead and Brimsness-in-Hoy on the west, eight-sixteenths of a penny per ton of the burden of every such ship if on an oversea voyage, and one-sixteenth of a penny per ton if on a coasting voyage for each time of passing or deriving benefit.

The said tolls shall be levied subject to the regulations and exemptions contained in the Consolidated Tables of Light Duties, sanctioned by an Order in Council dated the twenty-fourth day of November, one thousand eight hundred and ninety-one, or to such other regulations and exemptions as may from time to time be duly sanctioned, and subject also to the gross abatement or discount of sixty-five per centum, mentioned in the said Order in Council, dated the twenty-fourth day of November one thousand eight hundred and ninety-one, or to such other abatement or discount as may for the time being be in force.

C. L. Peel.

AT the Court at Osborne House, Isle of Wight, the 14th day of August, 1896.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the thirty-third and thirty-fourth years of

Her Majesty, chapter thirty-nine, and of the Acts therein mentioned, that is to say, the Act of the third and fourth years of Her Majesty chapter one hundred and thirteen, and the Act of the fourth and fifth years of Her Majesty chapter thirty-nine and the Act of the thirty-first and thirty-second years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and fourteen duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a scheme bearing date the twenty-first day of May, in the year one thousand eight hundred and ninety-six, in the words following, that is to say:—

“We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the thirty-third and thirty-fourth years of Your Majesty, chapter thirty-nine, and of the Acts therein mentioned, that is to say, the Act of the third and fourth years of Your Majesty, chapter one hundred and thirteen, and the Act of the fourth and fifth years of Your Majesty, chapter thirty-nine, and the Act of the thirty-first and thirty-second years of Your Majesty, chapter one hundred and fourteen, have prepared and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council the following scheme for effecting a transfer of the ownership of the advowson or perpetual right of patronage of and presentation to the church and cure (hereinafter called ‘the said benefice’) of Saint Luke Torquay, in the county of Devon and in the diocese of Exeter.

“Whereas the advowson or perpetual right of patronage of and presentation to the said benefice of Saint Luke, Torquay is vested in the Vicar or Incumbent for the time being of the parish of Tormohun in the said county of Devon and in the said diocese of Exeter.

“And whereas the Reverend Henry William Majendie, Clerk in Holy Orders, the present Vicar or Incumbent of the said parish of Tormohun is desirous that the advowson or perpetual right of patronage of and presentation to the said benefice of Saint Luke Torquay now vested in the vicar or incumbent for the time being of the said parish of Tormohun should from and after the next avoidance of the vicarage of the same parish be transferred to and be vested in the Dean and Chapter of the Cathedral Church of Saint Peter at Exeter and their successors for ever.

“And whereas the Right Reverend Edward Henry now Bishop of the said diocese of Exeter and as such Bishop the patron of the said vicarage of the parish of Tormohun is willing that such transfer should be made and in token of such his willingness and also in token that the same transfer has that consent of the Bishop which by the Acts in the hereinbefore mentioned Act recited or by some or one of them is made necessary he the said Edward Henry Bishop of the said diocese of Exeter has executed this scheme as hereinafter mentioned.

“And whereas a sum of one hundred pounds sterling has been paid to us the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England in favour of the said benefice of Saint Luke Torquay upon condition that the transfer of the advowson of the same benefice which is hereinbefore mentioned and hereinafter proposed shall be effected.

“And whereas it appears to us that the transfer of the patronage of the said benefice of Saint Luke Torquay which is hereinbefore mentioned and hereinafter recommended and proposed will tend to make better provision for the cure of souls in the parish or district in or in respect of which the right of patronage or advowson so recommended and proposed to be transferred as aforesaid arises or exists, that is to say in the new parish of Saint Luke Torquay.

“Now therefore with the consent of the said Henry William Majendie vicar or incumbent of the said parish of Tormohun acting as such vicar or incumbent (in testimony whereof he has signed and sealed this scheme) and with the consent of the said Edward Henry, Bishop of the said diocese of Exeter (in testimony whereof he has signed this scheme and sealed the same with his episcopal seal) we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners, humbly recommend and propose that from and after the next avoidance of the vicarage of the said parish of Tormohun the whole advowson or perpetual right of patronage of and presentation to the said benefice of Saint Luke Torquay now vested in the vicar or incumbent for the time being of the said parish of Tormohun as aforesaid shall without any conveyance or assurance in the law other than the publication in the London Gazette of any Order of Your Majesty in Council ratifying this scheme be transferred from the vicar or incumbent for the time being of the said parish of Tormohun to the said Dean and Chapter of the Cathedral Church of Saint Peter at Exeter and their successors and shall thereupon and thenceforth become and be absolutely vested in and shall and may from time to time be exercised by the said Dean and Chapter of the said Cathedral Church of Saint Peter at Exeter and by their successors for ever.

“And we further recommend and propose that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any further or other measures relating to the matters aforesaid or any of them in accordance with the provisions of the said Acts or of any other Act of Parliament.”

And whereas the said scheme has been approved by Her Majesty in Council: Now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Acts and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said diocese of Exeter.

C. L. Peel.

AT the Court at Osborne House, Isle of Wight, the 14th day of August, 1896.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the sixth and seventh years of Her Majesty, chapter thirty-seven, duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a scheme, bearing date the thirtieth day of July, in the year one thousand eight hundred and ninety-six, in the words and figures following, that is to say:—

“We the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the sixth and seventh years of Your Majesty chapter thirty-seven, have prepared and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council the following scheme for constituting a separate district for spiritual purposes to be taken partly out of the new parish (sometime district chapelry) of Saint Peter South End (Croydon) situate within the borough of Croydon in the county of Surrey and in the diocese of Canterbury and partly out of the consolidated chapelry of Saint Augustine Croydon in the same borough, county and diocese.

"Whereas it has been made to appear to us that it would promote the interests of religion that the particular portions of the said new parish of Saint Peter South End (Croydon) and of the said consolidated chapelry of Saint Augustine Croydon which are hereinafter mentioned and described, should be constituted a separate district in manner hereinafter set forth.

"And whereas there is not at present within the limits of the said proposed separate district any consecrated church or chapel in use for the purposes of Divine worship.

"And whereas Emily Watney, Spinster, and Alice Watney, Spinster, both of Sunny Nook, Selsdon-road South Croydon have together contributed and paid to the credit of our account at the Bank of England a sum of five thousand pounds sterling as and for the endowment of the district hereinafter recommended to be constituted and so soon as the said district shall have become a new parish under the provisions of the hereinbefore mentioned Act, then of the said new parish and of the maintenance of the minister or incumbent thereof for the time being and we have in respect of such sum agreed and have undertaken to provide and pay by equal half-yearly payments on the first day of May and the first day of November in each and every year to such minister or incumbent as aforesaid when duly licensed in accordance with the provisions of the said Act the sum of one hundred and fifty pounds per annum so long as the said capital sum shall remain in our hands.

"And whereas the said sum of five thousand pounds sterling has been so contributed and paid as aforesaid upon the understanding and condition that (such arrangement appearing to us to be expedient) we should recommend and propose to Your Majesty in Council that the whole right of patronage of the said district or new parish and of the nomination of the minister or incumbent thereof should be assigned in the manner hereinafter set forth.

"Now therefore with the consent of the Right Honourable and Most Reverend Edward White Lord Archbishop of Canterbury (in testimony whereof he has signed and sealed this scheme) we the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners humbly recommend and propose that all those portions of the said new parish of Saint Peter South End (Croydon) and of the said consolidated chapelry of Saint Augustine Croydon which are described in the Schedule hereunder written (all which portions together with the boundaries thereof are delineated and set forth on the map or plan hereunto annexed) shall upon and from the day of the date of the publication in the London Gazette of any Order of Your Majesty in Council ratifying this scheme, become and be constituted a separate district for spiritual purposes and that the same shall be named 'The District of Emmanuel, South Croydon.'

"And we further recommend and propose that the whole right of patronage of the said district so recommended to be constituted and (when such district shall have become a new parish as aforesaid then) of the said new parish, and of the nomination of the minister or incumbent thereof shall without any assurance in the law other than this scheme and any duly gazetted Order of Your Majesty in Council ratifying the same and upon and from the day of the date of the publication of such Order in the London Gazette as aforesaid be assigned to and be absolutely vested in and shall and may from time to time be exercised jointly by the said Emily Watney and the said Alice Watney their heirs and assigns for ever.

"And we further recommend and propose that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid or any of them in accordance with the provisions of the said Act or of any other Act of Parliament.

"The SCHEDULE to which the foregoing Scheme has reference.

"The District of Emmanuel, South Croydon comprising:—

"I. All that portion of the new parish (sometimes district chapelry) of Saint Peter South End (Croydon) situate within the borough of Croydon in the county of Surrey and in the diocese of Canterbury which is bounded upon the north by the new parish of Saint Matthew Croydon Common in the said county and diocese upon the south-east partly by the parish of Addington in the same county and diocese and partly by the parish of Sanderstead in the said county of Surrey and in the diocese of Rochester upon the south by the last-named parish upon the south-west by the hereinafter described portion of the consolidated chapelry of Saint Augustine Croydon in the said county of Surrey and in the diocese of Canterbury aforesaid and upon the remaining sides that is to say upon the west and upon the north-west by an imaginary line commencing upon the boundary which divides the said consolidated chapelry of Saint Augustine Croydon from the new parish of Saint Peter South End (Croydon) aforesaid at the point where the Brighton-road is joined by the southern branch of Haling-road and extending thence northward along the middle of the said Brighton-road for a distance of eight chains or thereabouts to its junction with Junction-road and extending thence eastward along the middle of the last-named road for a distance of nine chains and a half or thereabouts to its junction with Selsdon-road and extending thence southward along the middle of the last-named road for a distance of two chains or thereabouts to its junction with Sussex-road and extending thence eastward along the middle of the last-named road for a distance of eight and a quarter chains or thereabouts (thereby passing under the main line of the London Brighton and South Coast Railway and also under the line of railway connecting Selsdon-road Station with South Croydon Station) to the junction of the said Sussex-road with Moreton-road and extending thence first northward and then north-eastward along the middle of the last-named road for a distance of fifteen and a half chains or thereabouts to its junction with Croham-road and extending thence eastward along the middle of the last-named road for a distance of one chain or thereabouts to its junction with Birdhurst-road and extending thence north-eastward along the middle of the last-named road for a distance of twenty-two and a half chains or thereabouts to its junction with Coombe-road upon the boundary which divides the said new parish of Saint Peter South End (Croydon) from the new parish of Saint Matthew Croydon Common aforesaid.

"II. And also all that contiguous portion of the said consolidated chapelry of Saint Augustine Croydon which is bounded upon the east, upon the north-east, upon the north, and upon part of the west, by the said new parish of Saint Peter South End (Croydon) (including the above-described portion thereof). And upon all other sides that is to say upon the remaining part of the west and upon the south-west by an imaginary line commencing upon the boundary which divides the said new parish of Saint Peter South End (Croydon) from the consolidated chapelry of Saint Augustine Croydon aforesaid at the junction of Haling Park-road with the Brighton-road aforesaid and extending thence southward along the middle of the last-named road for a distance of fifteen chains or thereabouts to its junction with Crunden-road and extending thence first eastward and then south-eastward along the middle of the last-named road for a distance of eleven and a half chains or thereabouts to its present south-eastern end and extending thence south-eastward and in a straight line for a distance of eleven chains or thereabouts (thereby crossing the main line of the London Brighton and South Coast Railway aforesaid) to a point in the middle of the Croydon and Oxted line of railway where the boundaries of the said consolidated chapelry of Saint Augustine Croydon the said parish of Sanderstead and the said new parish of Saint Peter South End (Croydon) all meet."

And whereas drafts of the said scheme have, in accordance with the provisions of the hereinbefore mentioned Act, been transmitted to the patrons and to the incumbents of the cures out of which it is intended that the district recommended in such scheme to be constituted shall be taken, and such patrons and incumbents have respectively signified their assent to such scheme.

And whereas the said scheme has been approved by Her Majesty in Council: now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Act; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said diocese of Canterbury.

AT the Court at Osborne House, Isle of Wight, the 14th day of August, 1896.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the thirty-third and thirty-fourth years of Her Majesty chapter thirty-nine, and of the Acts therein-mentioned, that is to say, the Act of the third and fourth years of Her Majesty chapter one hundred and thirteen, the Act of the fourth and fifth years of Her Majesty, chapter thirty-nine, and the Act of the thirty-first and thirty-second years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and fourteen duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a scheme bearing date the thirtieth day of July, in the year one thousand eight hundred and ninety-six, in the words following, that is to say:—

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England in pursuance of the Act of the thirty-third and thirty-fourth years of Your Majesty chapter thirty-nine and of the Acts therein mentioned that is to say the Act of the third and fourth years of Your Majesty chapter one hundred and thirteen the Act of the fourth and fifth years of Your Majesty chapter thirty-nine and the Act of the thirty-first and thirty-second years of Your Majesty chapter one hundred and fourteen, have prepared and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council the following scheme for effecting a transfer of the ownership of the advowson or perpetual right of patronage of and presentation to the church and cure (hereinafter called 'the said benefice') of Saint Paul, Mill Hill, in the county of Middlesex and in the diocese of London.

"Whereas the advowson or perpetual right of patronage of and presentation to the said benefice of Saint Paul Mill Hill, is vested for an estate in fee simple without incumbrances in the Reverend Elford Copland Lethbridge, Clerk in Holy Orders, now Vicar or Incumbent of the said benefice of Saint Paul Mill Hill, and his heirs and assigns.

"And whereas the said Elford Copland Lethbridge is desirous that the whole advowson or perpetual right of patronage of and presentation to the said benefice of Saint Paul, Mill Hill, now vested in him as aforesaid should be transferred to and be vested in the Bishop for the time being of the said diocese of London.

"And whereas the Right Honourable and Right Reverend Frederick now Bishop of the said diocese of London is willing to accept such transfer and in token of such his willingness and also in token that the same transfer has that consent of the Bishop of the diocese which by the Acts in the hereinbefore mentioned Act recited or by some or one of them is made necessary he the said Frederick Bishop of the said diocese of London has executed this scheme as hereinafter mentioned.

"And whereas the transfer of the patronage of the said benefice of Saint Paul, Mill Hill, which is hereinbefore mentioned and hereinafter recommended and proposed will render the same benefice more eligible for a grant out of funds under our control and this circumstance will in our opinion tend to make better provision for the cure of souls in the parish or district in or in respect of which the right of patronage or advowson so recommended and proposed to be transferred as aforesaid arises or exists, that is to say in the particular district or new parish of Saint Paul, Mill Hill.

"Now therefore with the consent of the said Elford Copland Lethbridge (in testimony whereof he has signed and sealed this scheme) and with the consent of the said Frederick Bishop of the said diocese of London (in testimony whereof he has signed this scheme and sealed the same with his episcopal seal) we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England humbly recommend and propose that upon and from the day of the date of the publication in the London Gazette of any Order of Your Majesty in Council ratifying this scheme and without any conveyance or assurance in the law other than such duly gazetted Order the whole advowson or perpetual right of patronage of and presentation to the said benefice of Saint Paul, Mill Hill now vested in him the said Elford Copland Lethbridge and his heirs and assigns as aforesaid shall be transferred from him and them to the said Frederick Bishop of the said diocese of London and his successors Bishops of the same diocese, and shall thereupon and thenceforth become and be absolutely vested in and shall and may from time to time be exercised by the said Frederick Bishop of the said diocese of London and by his successors Bishops of the same diocese for ever.

"And we further recommend and propose that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any further or other measures relating to the matters aforesaid or any of them in accordance with the provisions of the said Acts or of any of them or of any other Act of Parliament."

And whereas the said scheme has been approved by Her Majesty in Council: now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Acts; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said diocese of London.

AT the Court at Osborne House, Isle of Wight, the 14th day of August, 1896.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Right Honourable Sir Matthew White Ridley, Baronet, one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, after giving to the Incumbents and the Churchwardens of the parishes hereinafter mentioned ten days' previous notice of his intention to make such representation, has, under the provisions of an Act passed in the Session of Parliament held in the sixteenth and seventeenth years of Her Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to amend the laws concerning the burial of the dead in England beyond the limits of the Metropolis, and to amend the Act concerning the burial of the dead in the Metropolis," made a representation stating that, for the protection of the public health, no new burial-ground should be opened in the undermentioned parishes without the previous approval of one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, and that burials should be discontinued therein with the following modifications, viz. :—

DANBY, YORKSHIRE.—Forthwith and entirely in the Parish Church of Danby, in the county of York; and also in the old part of the churchyard.

FEWSTON, YORKSHIRE.—Forthwith and entirely in the Parish Church of Fewston, in the county of York; and also in the churchyard except as follows :—

In such walled graves as are now existing in the churchyard, burial may be allowed of the following persons at their decease, viz., Grace Hutton and Gilbertson Darnbrook on condition that each coffin buried therein be separately enclosed by stonework or brickwork properly cemented.

Now, therefore, Her Majesty in Council is pleased hereby to give notice of such representation, and to order that the same be taken into consideration by a Committee of the Lords of Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council on the first day of October next :

And Her Majesty is further pleased to direct that this Order be forthwith published in the London Gazette; and that copies thereof be affixed on the doors of the churches or chapels of, or on some conspicuous places within, the parishes affected by such representation one month before the said first day of October.

AT the Court at Osborne House, Isle of Wight, the 14th day of August, 1896.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act passed in the Session of Parliament held in the eighteenth and nineteenth years of Her Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act further to amend the laws concerning the burial of the dead in England," it is, amongst other things, enacted that it shall be lawful for Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, from time to time to postpone the time appointed by any Order in Council for the discontinuance of burials, or otherwise to vary any Order in Council made under any of the Acts recited in the said Act, or under the said Act (whether the time thereby appointed for the discontinuance of burials thereunder, or other operation of such Order, shall or shall not have arrived), as to Her Majesty, with such advice as aforesaid, may seem fit :

And whereas an Order in Council has been made directing the discontinuance of burials in the churchyard hereinafter mentioned from the time specified in such Order; and whereas it seems fit to Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, that the time for discontinuing burials in the said churchyard be postponed :

Now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice aforesaid, is pleased to order, and it is hereby ordered, that the time for the discontinuance of burials in such churchyard be postponed as follows, viz. :—

In the Parish Churchyard of Downe, in the county of Kent, until the thirtieth November, one thousand eight hundred and ninety-six.

AT the Court at Osborne House, Isle of Wight, the 14th day of August, 1896.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS Archibald Bence Bence-Jones Esquire, Barrister-at-Law, duly appointed in pursuance of "The Municipal Corporations Act, 1882," as Commissioner for determining the boundaries of the Wards of the borough of Reigate, and for apportioning the Councillors thereto, has transmitted to one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State his Scheme in the following terms :—

"BOROUGH OF REIGATE, 1896.

"WHEREAS by the Municipal Corporations Act 1882 it is provided (inter alia) as follows :—

"If two-thirds of the Council of a borough agree to petition and the Council thereupon petition the Queen for the division of the borough into wards or for the alteration of the number and boundaries of its wards it shall be lawful for Her Majesty from time to time by Order in Council to fix the number of wards into which the borough shall be divided and the borough shall be divided into that number of wards. Where an Order has been so made the Secretary of State shall appoint a Commissioner to prepare a scheme for determining the boundaries of the wards and apportioning the Councillors among them. In case of alteration of wards the Commissioner shall so apportion among the altered wards the Councillors for those wards so as to provide for their continuing to represent as large a number as possible of their former constituents.

"And whereas the said Municipal Corporations Act 1882 was in certain particulars amended by the Municipal Corporations Act 1893.

"And whereas on the twelfth day of June one thousand eight hundred and ninety-six the Right Honourable Sir Matthew White Ridley Baronet one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State did in pursuance of the said Municipal Corporations Act 1882 as amended by the Municipal Corporations Act 1893 duly warrant and appoint Archibald Bence Bence-Jones Esquire Barrister-at-Law to be a Commissioner to prepare a scheme for determining the boundaries of and for apportioning the Councillors among the wards of the borough of Reigate the number of such wards having been fixed by Order of Her Majesty in Council made in that behalf on the thirtieth day of May one thousand eight hundred and ninety-six.

"Now I the said Archibald Bence Bence-Jones do hereby in pursuance of the said Warrant and appointment declare this to be my scheme for the purposes of the said Municipal Corporations Act 1882 amended as aforesaid and I hereby fix and determine that the boundaries of the wards of the said borough of Reigate shall be as follows namely :—

"The North-West Ward.

"The North-West Ward shall include so much of the said borough of Reigate as is comprised within an imaginary line commencing at a point on the western boundary of the borough on the north side of the Reading and Reigate Branch of the South-Eastern Railway Company's line of railway where the said boundary crosses the said railway thence proceeding eastwards along the north side of the said railway to the point where the said railway crosses Nutley-lane thence southwards along the centre of Nutley-lane to the point of intersection of Nutley-lane and York-road thence eastwards along the centre of York-road to the point of intersection of York-road and of London-road thence southwards along the centres of London-road and Tunnel-road to the point of intersection in the Market-place of Tunnel-road and Church-street thence eastwards along the centre of Church-street and north-eastwards along the centre of Croydon-road and across the said Reading and Reigate Branch Railway to the northern boundary of the borough thence westwards and southwards successively along the boundary of the borough to the point of commencement aforesaid.

"The South-West Ward.

"The South-West Ward shall include so much of the said borough as is comprised within an imaginary line commencing at the point aforesaid in the western boundary of the borough and proceeding along the boundary of the said North-West Ward as hereinbefore described as far as Market-place thence southwards along the centres of Bell-street and the road past Woodhatch as far as Salmons Cross-lane thence eastwards and southwards successively along the centre of Salmons Cross-lane to the southern boundary of the borough thence southwards westwards and northwards successively along the said boundary of the borough to the point of commencement aforesaid.

"The Central Ward.

"The Central Ward shall comprise so much of the said borough as is contained within an imaginary line commencing at the Market-place aforesaid and proceeding thence along the eastern boundary of the said South-West Ward as hereinbefore described as far as Smoke-lane and thence eastwards along the centre of Smoke-lane and south-eastwards along the centre of Chart-lane and eastwards along the centre of High Trees-road to Red Hill Common and along a footpath or road (the easternmost of two) running north-eastwards to the point of intersection with Whitepost Hill-road thence south-eastwards along the centre of the said Whitepost Hill-road to the point of intersection with Upper Bridge-road north-eastwards along the centre of Bridge-road to the south side of the Reading and Reigate Branch of the South-Eastern Railway Company's line thence westwards along the south side of the said railway to the point of intersection of the said railway with the Croydon-road on the boundary of the said North-West Ward herein-before described thence south-westwards along the said boundary of the North-West Ward as hereinbefore described to the point of commencement aforesaid.

"The North Ward.

"The North Ward shall comprise so much of the borough as is contained within an imaginary line commencing at a point in the northern boundary of the borough at the intersection of the Croydon-road proceeding thence south-westwards along the south-eastern boundary of the North-West Ward hereinbefore described to the south side of the Reading and Reigate Branch of the South-Eastern Railway Company's line and thence eastwards along the northern boundary of the Central Ward hereinbefore described to the point of intersection of Linkfield-street and the said railway line thence northwards along the centre of Linkfield-street to the point of intersection of Linkfield-street and Cromwell-road thence eastwards along the centre of Cromwell-road to the point of intersection of Cromwell-road and High-street, Redhill, thence north-eastwards along the centres of High-street Redhill and London-road to the boundary of the borough at Gatton Corner thence eastwards along the northern boundary of the borough to the point of commencement aforesaid.

"The East Ward.

"The East Ward shall comprise so much of the said borough as is contained within an imaginary line commencing at a point in the boundary of the borough at Gatton Corner aforesaid and proceeding thence southwards along the eastern and southern boundaries of the North Ward as hereinbefore described as far as the point of intersection of Linkfield-street and the Reading and Reigate Branch of the South-Eastern Railway Company's line thence eastwards and southwards successively along the boundary of the Central Ward hereinbefore described to the point of intersection of Upper Bridge-road and Whitepost Hill-road aforesaid thence south-eastwards and eastwards successively along the centres of Whitepost Hill-road and Mill-street and Hooley-lane respectively to the point of intersection of Hooley-lane and the Tunbridge Branch of the South-Eastern Railway Company's line thence in an easterly direction along the northern side of the said railway line to the eastern boundary of the borough thence northwards and westwards successively along the said boundary of the borough to the point of commencement aforesaid.

"The South-East Ward.

"The South-East Ward shall comprise so much of the said borough as is contained within an imaginary line commencing at a point in the eastern boundary of the borough where the Tunbridge Branch of the South-Eastern Railway Company's line crosses the said boundary thence southwards and eastwards along the boundary of the borough to the point of intersection with Salmons Cross-lane thence northwards westwards and northwards successively along the eastern boundary of the South-West Ward as hereinbefore described to Smoke-lane thence eastwards along the southern boundary of the Central Ward as hereinbefore described to the point of intersection of Upper Bridge-road and Whitepost Hill-road thence eastwards along the southern boundary of the East Ward as hereinbefore described to the point of commencement aforesaid.

"And I the said Commissioner in further pursuance of the terms of the said Warrant and for the purposes aforesaid do hereby assign and apportion all the existing Councillors among the Wards as hereinbefore defined of the said borough of Reigate as follows namely :—

“To the North-West Ward three Councillors namely :—

- “James Powell.
- “George Thomas Giles.
- “Frederick Price Farrington.

“To the South-West Ward three Councillors namely :—

- “John Topham Richardson.
- “Henry Ongley.
- “Francis Edward Barnes.

“To the Central Ward three Councillors namely :—

- “Oliver Cromwell Apted.
- “William Holman.
- “John Seex.

“To the North Ward three Councillors namely :—

- “Richard Trower.
- “Henry Trower.
- “George Renton Hunt.

“To the East Ward three Councillors namely :—

- “Edward Peters.

“To the South-East Ward three Councillors namely :—

- “George Gilbert.
- “Abraham Meier.
- “Jarvis Kenrick.

“A. B. BENCE-JONES.

“Dated this twenty-fourth day of July one thousand eight hundred and ninety-six.”

And whereas the determination of the boundaries of the wards so made appears to be in certain particulars liable to objection.

Now, therefore, Her Majesty, by the advice of Her Privy Council, doth not approve of such determination, but nevertheless Her Majesty, by the advice aforesaid, doth order that the said Scheme of the Commissioner shall be published in the London Gazette, in order that such force and validity may be given thereto as is authorized and directed by the Municipal Corporations Act 1882.

C. L. Peel.

THE Queen has been pleased to issue a Commission under Her Majesty's Royal Sign Manual to the following effect :—

VICTORIA, R.

VICTORIA, by the Grace of God, of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland Queen, Defender of the Faith, to—

Our right trusty and well-beloved Councillor Alexander Hugh, Baron Balfour of Burleigh, Our Secretary for that part of Our United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland called Scotland, Vice-President of the Committee of Council on Education in Scotland ; Chairman ;

Our trusty and well-beloved Frederick Archibald Vaughan Campbell, Esquire (commonly called Viscount Emlyn) ;

Our right trusty and well-beloved Councillor John Blair Balfour ;

Our right trusty and well-beloved Councillor Sir John Tomlinson Hibbert, Knight Commander of Our Most Honourable Order of the Bath ;

Our right trusty and well-beloved Councillor Charles Beilby Stuart-Wortley ; and

Our trusty and well-beloved—

Sir Edward Walter Hamilton, Knight Commander of Our Most Honourable Order of the Bath, Assistant Secretary to the Commissioners of Our Treasury for Great Britain and Ireland;

Sir Alfred Milner, Knight Commander of Our Most Honourable Order of the Bath, Chairman of the Commissioners of Our Inland Revenue;

Cornelius Neale Dalton, Esquire, Companion of Our Most Honourable Order of the Bath, one of the Assistant Secretaries to the Local Government Board;

Charles Alfred Cripps, Esquire, one of Our Counsel learned in the Law;

Harcourt Everard Clare, Esquire, Town Clerk of Our city of Liverpool;

Thomas Henry Elliott, Esquire, Secretary to the Board of Agriculture;

Arthur O'Connor, Esquire;

Edward Orford Smith, Esquire, Town Clerk of Our city of Birmingham;

James Stuart, Esquire, and John Lloyd Wharton, Esquire: Greeting!

Whereas We have deemed it expedient that a Commission should forthwith issue to inquire into the present system under which taxation is raised for local purposes, and report whether all kinds of real and personal property contribute equitably to such taxation, and if not, what alterations in the law are desirable in order to secure that result:

Now know ye, that We, reposing great trust and confidence in your knowledge and ability, have authorized and appointed, and do by these Presents authorize and appoint, you, the said Alexander Hugh, Baron Balfour of Burleigh, Frederick Archibald Vaughan Campbell (commonly called Viscount Emlyn), John Blair Balfour, Sir John Tomlinson Hibbert, Charles Beilby Stuart-Wortley, Sir Edward Walter Hamilton, Sir Alfred Milner, Cornelius Neale Dalton, Charles Alfred Cripps, Harcourt Everard Clare, Thomas Henry Elliott, Arthur O'Connor, Edward Orford Smith, James Stuart, and John Lloyd Wharton, to be Our Commissioners for the purposes of the said inquiry.

And for the better effecting the purposes of this Our Commission, We do by these Presents give and grant unto you, or any five or more of you, full power to call before you such persons as you shall judge likely to afford you any information upon the subject of this Our Commission; and also to call for, have access to, and examine all such books, documents, registers, and records as may afford you the fullest information on the subject, and to inquire of and concerning the premises by all other lawful ways and means whatsoever.

And We do by these Presents authorize and empower you, or any five or more of you, to visit and personally inspect such places as you may deem it expedient so to inspect for the more effectual carrying out of the purposes aforesaid.

And We do by these Presents will and ordain that this Our Commission shall continue in full force and virtue; and that you Our said Commissioners, or any five or more of you, may from time to time proceed in the execution thereof, and of every matter and thing therein contained, although the same be not continued from time to time by adjournment.

And We do further ordain that you, or any five or more of you, have liberty to report your proceedings under this Our Commission from time to time, if you shall judge it expedient so to do.

And Our further will and pleasure is, that you do, with as little delay as possible, report to Us, under your hands and seals, or under the hands and seals of any five or more of you, your opinion upon the matters herein submitted for your consideration.

Given at Our Court at Saint James's, the fifteenth day of August, one thousand eight hundred and ninety-six, in the sixtieth year of Our reign.

By Her Majesty's Command,

Lansdowne.

Westminster, August 14, 1896.

THIS day the Lords being met a message was sent to the Honourable House of Commons by the Gentleman Usher of the Black Rod, acquainting them, that The Lords authorized by virtue of a Commission under the Great Seal, signed by Her Majesty, for declaring Her Royal Assent to several Acts agreed upon by both Houses, do desire the immediate attendance of the Honourable House in the House of Peers to hear the Commission read; and the Commons being come thither, the said Commission, empowering the Lord Archbishop of Canterbury, and several other Lords therein named, to declare and notify the Royal Assent to the said Acts, was read accordingly, and the Royal Assent given to

FACTORY AND WORKSHOP ACTS,
 1878 TO 1895.

IN pursuance of section 67 of "The Factory and Workshop Act, 1878," the Right Honourable Sir Matthew White Ridley, Bart., one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, has been pleased to appoint James Thomas Ashton, Esq., to be an Inspector of Factories, for the performance of the duties necessary under section 40 of the Act of 1895, as Assistant-Examiner of Particulars.

Whitehall, August 17, 1896.

THE FAIRS ACT, 1873.

PENMACHNO FAIRS.

WHEREAS a representation has been duly made to me, as Secretary of State for the Home Department, by the Bettws-y-Coed Rural District Council, that Fairs have been hitherto held in the village of Penmachno, in the county of Carnarvon, on the 17th April and 21st September in each year, and that it would be for the convenience and advantage of the public that such Fairs should be held on the 24th April and 16th September, or on the preceding Saturday, if one or both those dates fall on a Sunday.

And whereas notice of the said representation and of the time when I should take the same into consideration has been duly published in pursuance of "The Fairs Act, 1873."

And whereas on such representation and consideration it appears to me that it would be for the convenience and advantage of the public that the time for the holding of the said Fairs should be altered as proposed:

Now therefore I, as the Secretary of State for the Home Department, in exercise of the powers vested in me by "The Fairs Act 1873," do hereby order that the days shall be altered for the holding of the Fairs which have been hitherto held in the village of Penmachno, in the county of Carnarvon, on the 17th April and the 21st September in each year, and that the said Fairs shall be held on the 24th April and the 16th September, or on the preceding Saturday if one or both those dates fall on a Sunday.

Given under my hand at Whitehall, this 13th day of August, 1896.

M. W. Ridley.
