THE following Address was presented to His Majesty at Saint James's Palace on the 12th instant:—

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

WE, Your Majesty's loyal and faithful subjects, the Archbishop, Bishops, and Clergy of the Province of Canterbury, in Convocation assembled, approach Your Majesty with dutiful assurance of devotion to Your Majesty's Crown and Person.

At this time of universal sorrow we desire to express our deep sympathy with Your Majesty in Your grief at the death of Your Royal Mother, our late Most Gracious Queen. We cannot express too strongly our sense of the loss which has in that sad event been sustained by the Church, by the Nation, by the Empire, by the whole world, and we receive with heartfelt thankfulness the assurances which Your Majesty has graciously given that it is Your desire to follow in the footsteps of so great and good a Sovereign.

We regret that troubles in South Africa and in China should have saddened the close of Her reign, but we can never forget that these troubles were the occasion of an outburst of loyal feeling and warm affection from all parts of this vast Empire unexampled in our history. Her reign has left us a heritage of united attachment to the throne, which we humbly trust may ever continue to animate Your subjects, and which we doubt not will be further strengthened by the visit of the Heir Apparent and His Royal Consort to Australia, New Zealand, and Canada, graciously sanctioned by Your Majesty in the interests of the Empire, even at a time when it may add some anxiety to the burden which Your Majesty has to bear.

We acknowledge with devout gratitude to God the increasing activity of the Church at home, and, in consequence of that activity, its wonderful expansion abroad during Her Majesty's reign, nor can it be doubted that the Church's activity was largely due to the care which Her Majesty bestowed on all that concerned the Church's work whenever opportunity offered.

We thankfully recognize the profound influence which Her personal character and example have exercised upon the life of Her subjects throughout the Empire.

We look forward with strong hope to the use which the Church of England will make of the openings now before her for the spread of the Gospel over the whole world. The facilities for obeying our Lord's last command are such as the world has never seen before, and this country, beyond all others has the means of reaching all nations and giving them the message of the Gospel, and we humbly trust that she will not be slow to discharge the duties imposed on her by her unique position.

We rejoice that Your Majesty will be supported in Your high responsibilities by a Gracious Consort whose sympathy with the poor and suffering and with every good cause, has greatly endeared Her during so many years to the hearts of the whole people.

We conclude with prayer to Almighty God to bestow upon Your Majesty, upon Your Gracious Consort, and upon Your Royal House the fulness of His grace, and blessing, and to make Your Majesty's reign as prosperous, glorious, and beneficent as that of the great and good Sovereign whose place Your Majesty is called to fill.

18th February, 1901.

To which Address His Majesty was pleased to return the following gracious Answer:—

"I AM deeply gratified by the expressions of loyalty and affection contained in your dutiful and sympathetic address, and by your heartfelt sympathy with My grief."

"I am touched by your appreciation of the goodness of My dear Mother and of Her devotion to the best interests of the Church of England, the growth of which during Her reign and its beneficent activity, not only within this Kingdom, but also beyond the seas, were to Her a source of profound satisfaction and gratitude to Almighty God."

"I am confident that during My reign your pious efforts in the cause of religion will be equally blessed and that you will see their fruit in the spread of peace, charity, and all good works throughout My Realm."

"You may ever feel assured of My fidelity and encouragement, and I shall omit no effort that under My guardianship the Church may retain unimpaired and may extend Her power for good."

"I appreciate the warmth of the affection which you express for My Consort. The universal sympathy and loyalty which have reached Us from all quarters have been a priceless consolation to Us in the times of anxiety through which We have passed and in the crowning sorrow of My dear Mother's death."

"It has been a satisfaction to Us to permit Our dear Son to cross the sea without delay to visit the Dominions from which My Crown and My Government have received such service and proofs of devotion."

THE following Address was presented to His Majesty at Saint James's Palace on the 12th instant :—

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

The Humble Address of the Convocation of the Province of York.

May it please Your Majesty,

WE, the Archbishop, Bishops, and Clergy of the Convocation of the Northern Province, think ourselves happy in the possession of our ancient right of address to the Crown, inasmuch as it enables us to express at this time to Your Majesty our sincere and loyal attachment to Your Throne and Person. We especially desire to record the profound sense of our national loss, and the unfeigned and respectful sympathy which we in common with all lands and peoples desire to tender on the death of Your Revered Mother, our much beloved, long honoured, and most gracious Queen. Her name will ever be associated with the longest reign in the annals of our history, with a period of unexampled prosperity, and with an undreamed of extension of our Empire. Under Her faithful guardianship our Church has widened the scope of its activity at home and has extended its work far into distant lands. Under Her wise and sagacious rule, measures have been passed which have proved of lasting benefit to the people, more especially to the labourer and the artisan, the woman and the child. Her devotion to duty, Her truthfulness of character, Her noble example of life and the unsullied purity of Her Court did much to keep high the standards of public life and private conduct. Her unflinching sympathy and Her simple womanliness of heart created a tender and unique attachment to Her Throne and Person among the millions of Her subjects, and the impressive spectacle of a world-wide sorrow which Her death evoked will remain a lasting evidence of the resistless power and influence of the simple virtues when expressed with constancy in a faithful and devoted life.

We desire therefore to offer the homage of our sorrow and of our sympathy in the inestimable loss which has befallen our Empire and Your Majesty's Royal House.

While giving expression to our sense of this great sorrow, we desire to record our unshaken loyalty to Your Majesty's Throne, and our earnest conviction that the experience of a grief in which all have shared will tend to cement those bonds of affection and devotion which during the last sixty years have grown strong between the Throne and the people of this Realm.

We know well, and we have heard with gladness, Your Majesty's reverent resolve to walk in the steps of Your Revered Mother and of Your Illustrious Father. We have noted with pleasure the deep and increasing interest which Your Majesty has long taken in the welfare of the people, in the care of the sick and the housing of the poor; and the untiring and sympathetic efforts on behalf of our suffering and wounded countrymen made by the Noble Lady who shares Your Throne, our gracious Queen Alexandra.

While expressing anew our loyalty and attachment to Your Majesty on ascending the Throne of Your Ancestors, We offer the assurance of our prayers that Divine Wisdom may be with Your Majesty in the high responsibilities of Your exalted station. We trust that under Your Rule the hearts of all Your People may be knit together in brotherly union and concord, and that moved by reverence of spirit they may in true devotion of conduct co-operate with Your Majesty in fulfilling the high duties to which our race and nation seem by God's Providence to be called. Our hope and prayer is that Your Majesty may long be spared to see the peaceful consolidation of Your Empire, and under its influence the recognition throughout the world of those principles of just government, rational liberty, and personal rectitude, which We owe to the teaching of our Divine Master. To this end We pray that the faith of Christ, to which the character of Our People owes so much, may be widely diffused over the world, and more sincerely manifested amongst ourselves, to the peace of Your Throne, the welfare of nations, and the benefit of mankind.

Dated at York, the twenty-second day of February, in the year of our Lord one thousand nine hundred and one.

Signed on behalf of the Convocation of York.

Wilhelm. Ebor, President.

To which Address His Majesty was pleased to return the following gracious Answer :—

"I THANK you for the loyal and dutiful address expressing your sincere attachment to My Throne and Person.

"The touching words in which you make truthful record of the great qualities of My beloved Mother, and trace their beneficent effect upon Our Church and Empire and upon the public and private life of Her people are a profound consolation to Me in Our present grief.

"I join in your prayer that the blessings which signalized My Mother's reign may be continued in My own, and I am confident that the activity of the Church, ever growing in scope and discernment, will be as heretofore a most powerful factor in My people's welfare."

THE following Address was presented to His Majesty at Saint James's Palace on the 12th instant :—

To His Most Gracious Majesty the KING.

May it please Your Majesty,

WE, Your Majesty's loyal subjects, the General Body of Protestant Dissenting Ministers of the three Denominations—Presbyterian, Independent, and Baptist—residing in or about the cities of London and Westminster, approach Your Royal Presence to offer our congratulations on Your Accession to the Throne, and to express our unabated loyalty to Your ancient and illustrious House.

We share the sorrow which the death of Your beloved Mother has brought to the heart of Your Majesty. We mourn the loss of a good and great Queen, who won the love and loyalty of Her people by the virtues of Her character, as well as by the beneficence of her reign. And our warmest gratitude is felt to the Author of all good, for the unparalleled enlargement and prosperity, which He deigned to bestow upon our Nation and Empire during Her late Majesty's long and remarkable rule.

We recall with thanksgiving the promise made by our late revered Queen at Her Accession in response to an address from our Lady, always to "respect the rights of conscience, and to the utmost of Her power to extend to all equal and impartial justice." The fulfilment of that pledge is now seen in our laws and customs. As Free Churchmen we gratefully acknowledge this, and our hope and trust is that Your Majesty will guide public affairs in the same spirit, especially in matters pertaining to religion.

We pray earnestly to the God of Peace that Your Majesty's Reign may be pre-eminently peaceful. Desiring, as we do, for the Throne of this Kingdom, far higher glory than any that war can bring, we trust that in all difficulties with Foreign Governments Your Majesty's voice will be for arbitration.

We anticipate for Your Majesty a great and glorious reign, on a Throne made pure and beautiful by an illustrious predecessor, who has left an example which cannot but lighten the arduous task to which Your Majesty has been called. Our prayers, gracious Sovereign, shall continually ascend to Him, by whom "kings reign and princes decree justice," for Your Majesty and Your Royal Consort, whom We all love and esteem, as worthy of Her exalted position. We pray that God may richly endow You with wisdom and strength for the discharge of the many and difficult duties of Your august office, and that both Your Majesty and the Queen may have a long life and much happiness.

Very earnestly do We pray that Your Majesty's reign may be prolonged and prosperous, and that, at its close, you may, through the infinite mercy of the Divine Redeemer, exchange Your earthly Crown for a more glorious and enduring one in Heaven.

John Hunt Cooke, Chairman.

March 12th, 1901.

To which Address His Majesty was pleased to return the following gracious Answer:—

"I THANK you sincerely for your expressions of sympathy with Me on the occasion of the death of My beloved Mother and for the assurance of Your unabated loyalty to My House.

"I value highly the warmth of your references to Her late Majesty and to the beneficence of Her Reign, and I join with you in the hope that, under God's blessing, national prosperity and advancement may continue increasingly during the years to come.

"It will ever be My desire to preserve to all My subjects liberty of conscience and equal justice.

"I appreciate your affectionate allusion to My Royal Consort, and I cordially thank you for your prayers and good wishes for Our welfare."

Whitehall, March 18, 1901.

THE following Address was presented to His Majesty at Saint James's Palace on the 12th instant:—

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

May it please Your Majesty,

WE, Your Majesty's loyal subjects, the body of English Presbyterian Ministers in and about the Cities of London and Westminster, in the exercise of an ancient and much cherished privilege, desire respectfully to approach Your Majesty with the assurance of our profound sympathy in the loss you have sustained through the death of Your Majesty's beloved and revered Mother, our late Sovereign Lady Queen Victoria.

Your sorrow is shared by the entire nation, and, indeed, by the whole world. The sympathy which our departed Queen so graciously manifested in the joys and sorrows of others, now flows back to the Members of the Royal House, who grieve for the loss of their dearly beloved Head. It is our earnest prayer that they, in their affliction, may be comforted by the Heavenly Father, through faith in Whose infinite wisdom and goodness Her late Majesty was upheld in Her many deep sorrows.

Even in the season of bereavement we remember with devout gratitude to the Giver of every good and perfect gift the many blessings which we have enjoyed through our late beloved Queen. We thankfully recall the noble example of domestic virtue by which She inspired the ever-growing affection of an eminently domestic people. We cherish the memory of those great traits in Her character which further ennobled Her exalted position, Her deep piety, Her constant adherence to the methods of Constitutional Government, Her lofty principles, Her steadfast devotion to duty. To these qualities in Her are we largely indebted, not only for the marvellous progress which marked Her reign at home, but also for the unexampled devotion manifested to Her Throne and Person in Her Empire beyond the seas. Nor can we, as Protestant Dissenters, fail to acknowledge with special thankfulness the progress in civil and religious liberty, and the growing co-operation for the common good between men of all sects and creeds, which have been pre-eminent during Her reign.

We desire to assure Your Majesty of our loyalty and earnest wishes on Your Accession to the Throne. Already for many years You have manifested a deep and untiring interest in the welfare of the people, and have won for Yourself a warm place in their regard, while Your illustrious Consort, Queen Alexandra, long ago more than realized the affectionate hopes with which she was first welcomed in Her adopted country. The happy anticipations thus created for the coming time are confirmed by the touching words You were pleased to address to the first Meeting of Your Majesty's Privy Council, and also by the gracious Messages to Your people at Home, in the Colonies, and in India.

We look forward therefore with earnest hope to the future. We pray that the unhappy war in which our country is now engaged may be brought to a speedy termination by a righteous and a generous peace, and that under the blessing of the King of Kings and Lord of Lords Your Majesty and Your gracious Consort may together long be spared to enjoy the devoted attachment of a happy and loyal people.

William Wooding (Chairman).
James Harwood,
Frank K. Freeston, } Hon. Secs.

To which Address His Majesty was pleased to return the following gracious Answer:—

"I THANK you for your loyal and dutiful address of congratulation upon My accession, and for your expressions of affection and admiration for My beloved Mother, and your participation in the general grief of My subjects at Her loss.

"Be assured that it shall be My constant care to maintain civil and religious liberty and toleration, and that The Queen and I will always endeavour to assist all who labour among My people for the progress of truth, morality, and peace."

THE following Address was presented to His Majesty at Saint James's Palace on the 12th instant:—

To EDWARD THE SEVENTH, KING of Great Britain and Ireland and the Dominions thereto belonging and Emperor of India.

May it please the King,

WE, as loyal subjects, representing the religious Society of Friends in Great Britain, feel it a privilege to avail ourselves of this opportunity on Thy Accession to the Throne of these realms, to declare our faithful attachment to Thy Person and Family.

Deeply convinced that the religion of Jesus Christ our Lord and Redeemer, faithfully acted out under the guidance of the Holy Spirit, is the only foundation for the happiness whether of individuals or of nations, we pray that, inheriting a position hallowed by the example of our late beloved Queen, Thou mayst be strengthened to follow Her footsteps in maintaining a course which, under the blessing of Almighty God, may promote the true greatness and prosperity of this vast Empire. Her example may well serve as a constant encouragement to a whole hearted devotion to Thy grave and responsible duties.

We rejoice at Thy public declaration of the solemn purpose to devote Thyself to the utmost to the promotion of the highest interests of the people and to the zealous fulfilment of what Thou hast so fitly called "the great and sacred responsibilities" which in the ordering of Divine Providence have devolved upon Thee. In these noble purposes Thou wilt be followed by the heartfelt sympathy and prayer of multitudes of loyal subjects.

Whilst sympathising with measures now in progress for the welfare of the people, and with efforts which are being made for the settlement by arbitration of international differences, we would respectfully, but earnestly, urge upon the King the unspeakable importance of the maintenance of a peaceful policy in all our relations with other countries.

Great indeed is the responsibility inseparable from Thy exalted position. May it be Thy consolation to know that He, Who is the inexhaustible Fountain of wisdom and strength, is able and willing to supply, out of the fulness of His Grace, all the need of them that trust in Him. To the bounteous care and guidance of Almighty God we earnestly commend the King and Queen.

Signed on behalf and by direction of the representative meeting of the Religious Society of Friends in Great Britain.

Henry Lloyd Wilson, Clerk.

Devonshire House, 12, Bishopsgate Without, London, 1st March, 1901.

To which Address His Majesty was pleased to return the following gracious Answer:—

"I THANK you for your loyal address, and for the cordial and dutiful good wishes which you express for My Throne and Family.

"I share your faith that My Government cannot be strengthened and guided to the attainment of the general welfare but by the blessing of God, and I solicit your efforts and prayers that My counsels may ever be directed in accordance with the lessons of our holy religion.

"The Society of Friends has rarely failed to be conspicuous in every movement having for its object the establishment of peace among nations, and the growth of mutual help and loving-kindness among My people, and I pray that My Reign may witness a widespread acceptance of these principles, which I shall keep ever before my eyes."

Whitehall, March 18, 1901.

THE following Address was presented to His Majesty at Saint James's Palace on the 12th instant:—

The Dutiful Address of the Chancellor, Vice-Chancellor, Members of the Senate, and Graduates of the University of London.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

May it please Your Majesty,

WE, Your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal subjects, beg leave to express to Your Majesty and to the Members of Your Royal House, our heartfelt sympathy in the great loss sustained by Your Majesty and Royal House and by the Empire in the death of our beloved Queen, Victoria.

We have to mourn in an especial degree the loss of Her Majesty the Queen as Visitor of this University for a period almost conterminous with its existence, and during the whole of Her Reign.

It is with gratitude we record that since Her Accession the Charters granted by Her Majesty have enabled this University to promote the study of Letters, Science, Medicine, Law, and Music among Her subjects without distinction of class, creed, or sex.

It is our earnest prayer that Your Majesty may be blessed with a long and happy Reign, and that under Your Majesty's continued protection the University may still further promote the advancement of learning.

Signed on behalf of the Senate,

Kimberley, Chancellor.

Henry E. Roscoe, Vice-Chancellor.

Signed on behalf of the Graduates,

Edward Henry Buck,

Chairman of Convocation.

To which Address His Majesty was pleased to return the following gracious Answer:—

"I THANK you for your loyal and dutiful address, and for your sympathy with the grief of Myself and My family on the death of My beloved Mother.

"The progress of your University, from its commencement almost at the date of Her late Majesty's accession, to its recent reorganization as a teaching as well as an examining body, has been one of the most remarkable developments witnessed in a Reign memorable for the spread of higher instruction among both sexes and all classes and races in My Empire.

"You may feel assured of my hearty sympathy and good wishes and co-operation in the furtherance of your good work."

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by section twenty-six of "The Pluralities Act 1838" after reciting that "Whereas in some instances tithings, hamlets, chapelries, and other places or districts may be separated from the parishes or mother churches to which they belong, with great advantage, and places altogether extra-parochial may in some instances with advantage be annexed to parishes or districts to which they are contiguous, or be constituted separate parishes for ecclesiastical purposes," it is, amongst other things, enacted "That when with respect to his own diocese it shall appear to the Archbishop of the Province, or when the Bishop of any diocese shall represent to the said Archbishop that any such tithing, hamlet, chapelry, place, or district within the diocese of such Archbishop, or the diocese of such Bishop, as the case may be, may be advantageously separated from any parish or mother church, and either be constituted a separate benefice by itself or be united to any other parish to which it may be more conveniently annexed, or to any other adjoining tithing, hamlet, chapelry, place, or district, parochial or extra-parochial, so as to form a separate parish or benefice, or that any extra-parochial place may with advantage be annexed to any parish to which it is contiguous, or be constituted a separate parish for ecclesiastical purposes; and the said Archbishop or Bishop shall draw up a scheme in writing (the scheme of such Bishop to be transmitted to the said Archbishop for his consideration) describing the mode in which it appears to him that the alteration may best be effected, and how the changes consequent on such alteration in respect to ecclesiastical jurisdiction, glebe lands, tithes, rent-charges, and other ecclesiastical dues, rates, and payments, and in respect to patronage and rights to pews, may be made with justice to all parties interested; and if the patron or patrons of the benefice or benefices to be affected by such alteration shall consent in writing under his or their hands to such scheme, or to such modification thereof as the said Archbishop may approve, and the said Archbishop shall, on full consideration and enquiry, be satisfied with any such scheme, or modification thereof, and shall certify the same and such consent as aforesaid, by his report to Her Majesty in Council, it shall be lawful for Her Majesty in Council to make an Order for carrying such scheme, or modification thereof, as the case may be, into effect."

And whereas the Right Reverend Richard Lord Bishop of Llandaff hath pursuant to the enactment aforesaid represented in a writing dated the nineteenth day of December one thousand nine hundred to the Right Honourable and Most Reverend Frederick Lord Archbishop of Canterbury as follows:—

"We Richard, Bishop of Llandaff, in pursuance of the twenty-sixth section of the Pluralities Act 1838 (one and two Victoria, chapter one hundred and six) do hereby represent to your Grace as follows:—

"1. There is in the county of Glamorgan and diocese of Llandaff the benefice or perpetual curacy of Llangeinor, the parish whereof contains a population of about three thousand. The net annual value of the said benefice of Llangeinor arising from all sources is ninety-four pounds or thereabouts.

"2. There is in the same county of Glamorgan and diocese of Llandaff the benefice or vicarage of Llandyfodwg, the parish whereof contains a population of seven thousand or thereabouts. The net annual value of the said benefice of Llandyfodwg arising from all sources is sixty-two pounds or thereabouts.

"3. That representations having been made to us by the respective incumbents of Llangeinor and Llandyfodwg, we the said Bishop did cause full enquiries to be made into the expediency of altering the boundaries of the said parishes, and it was duly reported to us that by reason of its geographical position the position of the said parish of Llandyfodwg immediately contiguous to the parish of Llangeinor, and which is edged red on the plan annexed hereto, containing a population of five thousand persons or thereabouts might with great advantage be more conveniently served by the incumbent of Llangeinor who resides in the valley where the bulk of such population is resident, whereas the incumbent of Llandyfodwg resides in his parish at a distance of about four miles therefrom, and consequently it would be to the religious interest of the population there situate that the portion so edged red upon the plan should be separated from the said parish of Llandyfodwg and annexed to the said parish of Llangeinor for ecclesiastical purposes thus enabling the incumbent of Llandyfodwg to concentrate his energies upon that portion of his parish in which he is so resident.

"4. It appears to us the said Bishop of Llandaff, and we do hereby represent that under the provisions of the Pluralities Acts 1838 and 1887 the portion of the said parish of Llandyfodwg hereinbefore referred to may be advantageously separated from the parish to which the same now belongs and be annexed to the parish of Llangeinor and the following is the detailed description thereof:—

"The boundary of the new portion of the parish of Llandyfodwg to be taken over to Llangeinor Parish starts from a point which is called Crug yr Afan (where the four parishes of Llangynwyd, Llangeinor, Ystradyfodwg and Llandyfodwg meet). The line then proceeds in a south-easterly direction along the present boundary of the parish of Llandyfodwg for two miles and three furlongs and it then takes a south-south-westerly direction along the ridge of the mountain, Mynydd yr Aber, for a distance of about four miles to the west side of the Homestead Dolauthonddu and then due west to the River Ogmore which forms the present boundary of the parish of Llangeinor. It then follows the River Ogmore which at present forms the boundary between the parishes of Llangeinor and Llandyfodwg in a northerly direction right up to its source and from the source to the point called Crug yr Afan aforesaid.

"5. Emily Charlotte Talbot, of Margam Park in the county of Glamorgan, Spinster, is the patron of the benefice of Llangeinor, and John Picton Turbervill, of Ewenny Priory, in the county of Glamorgan Esquire is the patron of the benefice of Llandyfodwg.

"6. The Reverend David Phillips, Clerk, is the present incumbent of the benefice or perpetual curacy of Llangeinor, and the Reverend William Edwards, Clerk, is the present incumbent of the benefice or vicarage of Llandyfodwg.

"Pursuant to the directions contained in the twenty-sixth section of the Pluralities Act 1838 we the said Bishop of Llandaff have drawn up the scheme in writing annexed to this representation describing the portion of the parish of Llandyfodwg so as aforesaid proposed to be annexed to the parish of Llangeinor and the mode in which it appears to us that the alterations may best be effected and how the changes consequent thereon in respect of ecclesiastical jurisdiction, glebe lands, tithes, rent charges, and other ecclesiastical dues, rates, and payments and in respect of rights to pews may be made with justice to all parties interested, and we do hereby submit the same to your Grace together with the necessary consents in pursuance of the Pluralities Act 1838 of the said Emily Charlotte Talbot, Spinster, the patron of the benefice or perpetual curacy of Llangeinor, and John Picton Turbervill, the patron of the benefice or vicarage of Llandyfodwg and in case you shall upon full consideration and inquiry be satisfied therewith, we request that your Grace will be pleased to certify the same and the consents aforesaid by your report to Her Majesty in Council."

And whereas the scheme drawn up by the said Bishop and the consents referred to in the said representation are as follows:—

"SCHEME.

"It is proposed to separate from the parish of Llandyfodwg all that portion of the said parish which is edged red upon the plan annexed hereto and included within a boundary commencing at a point which is called Crug yr Afan (where the four parishes of Llangynwyd, Llangeinor, Ystradyfodwg and Llandyfodwg meet). The line then proceeds in a south-easterly direction, along the present boundary of the parish of Llandyfodwg for two miles and three furlongs, and it then takes a south-south-westerly direction along the ridge of the mountain Mynydd yr Aber for a distance of about four miles to the west side of the homestead Dolauthonddu, and then due west to the River Ogmore, which forms the present boundary of the parish of Llangeinor. It then follows the River Ogmore which at present forms the boundary between the parishes of Llangeinor and Llandyfodwg in a northerly direction right up to its source and from the source to the point called Crug yr Afan aforesaid.

"The Incumbent of the parish of Llangeinor shall have exclusive cure of souls within the limits of the portion of the said parish so proposed to be separated from the parish of Llandyfodwg and annexed to the parish of Llangeinor, and which shall be subject to the same ecclesiastical jurisdiction as the said parish of Llangeinor, and all the fees for churchings, marriages and burials and other ecclesiastical offices solemnized or performed at the church or churchyard of the parish of Llangeinor in respect of the inhabitants of the district so proposed to be annexed thereto shall belong to and continue to be received by such Incumbent of Llandyfodwg for the time being.

"Nothing in the said scheme is to prejudice the rights of the present Incumbent of Llandyfodwg legally entitled to the fees hereinbefore referred to except with the consent of such Incumbent.

"CONSENTS.

"We, Emily Charlotte Talbot, of Margam Park, in the county of Glamorgan, Spinster, the patron of the said benefice of Llangeinor, and John Picton Turbervill, of Ewenny Priory, in the county of Glamorgan, Esquire, the patron of the said benefice of Llandyfodwg, do hereby respectively signify our consent to the foregoing scheme for separating the portion of the said parish of Llandyfodwg, and annexing the same to the said parish of Llangeinor for ecclesiastical purposes only.

"In testimony whereof we have hereunto set our hands this twentieth day of December one thousand and nine hundred.

"Emily C. Talbot.

"John Picton Turbervill.

"We, the Reverend David Phillips, Clerk, Incumbent of the benefice or perpetual curacy of Llangeinor, in the county of Glamorgan, and the Reverend William Edwards, Clerk, Vicar of Llandyfodwg, in the same county, both in the diocese of Llandaff, do hereby respectively signify our consent to the foregoing scheme for separating the portion of the said parish of Llandyfodwg and annexing the same to the said parish of Llangeinor for ecclesiastical purposes only.

"In testimony whereof we have hereunto set our hands this twentieth day of December one thousand and nine hundred.

"David Phillips.
"William Edwards."

And whereas the said scheme hath been transmitted by the said Bishop to the said Archbishop for his consideration:

And whereas the said Archbishop being satisfied with the said scheme hath certified the same and the consents aforesaid to His Majesty in Council by his report dated the thirty-first day of January one thousand nine hundred and one which said report is as follows:—

"We the undersigned Frederick, Archbishop of the Province of Canterbury do hereby report to Your Majesty in Council.

"That the Right Reverend Richard Lord Bishop of Llandaff has represented unto us (amongst other things)

"That there are in the county of Glamorgan and his diocese of Llandaff the perpetual curacy of Llangeinor and the vicarage of Llandyfodwg.

"That it appears to the said Lord Bishop that a certain district being a portion of the parish of Llandyfodwg may be advantageously separated from the said parish of Llandyfodwg and annexed to the contiguous parish of Llangeinor for ecclesiastical purposes only under the provisions of the Pluralities Acts 1838 and 1887.
