PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England did in pursuance of the Union of Benefices Acts 1860 and 1898, namely the Act of the twenty-third and twenty-fourth years of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria chapter one hundred and forty-two, and of the Act of the sixty-first and sixty-second years of Her said late Majesty, chapter twenty-three duly prepare for the purpose of being laid before Her said late Majesty in Council a scheme bearing date the twenty-sixth day of July, in the year one thousand nine hundred, in the words and figures following, that is to say:—

“We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Union of Benefices Acts 1860 and 1898, namely, the Act of the twenty-third and twenty-fourth years of Your Majesty chapter one hundred and forty-two and of the Act of the sixty-first and sixty-second years of Your Majesty chapter twenty-three have prepared and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council the following scheme for effecting an union of two contiguous benefices within the metropolis and within the city of Westminster and diocese of London, namely, the benefice (being a vicarage) of All Saints Knightsbridge and the benefice (being a vicarage) of the Holy Trinity, Knightsbridge, and for effecting certain other measures incidental to or arising out of such union.

“Whereas the patronage of the said benefice of All Saints Knightsbridge is vested in the Rector for the time being of the rectory of the parish of Saint Margaret in the said city of Westminster.

“And whereas the patronage of the said benefice of the Holy Trinity Knightsbridge is vested in the Dean and Chapter of the Collegiate Church of Saint Peter in Westminster.

“And whereas the Right Honourable and Right Reverend Mandell Bishop of the said diocese of London has caused proposals for a scheme for effecting an union of the said two benefices to be laid before us, which proposals are prepared under the seventh and eighth sections of the firstly hereinbefore mentioned Act and are approved by the said Mandell Bishop of London and are assented to by the Reverend Joseph Armitage Robinson, Doctor in Divinity a Canon of the said Collegiate Church of Saint Peter in Westminster and the present Rector of the said rectory of the parish of Saint Margaret in the said city of Westminster as the patron of the said benefice of All Saints Knightsbridge and by the said Dean and Chapter of the Collegiate Church of Saint Peter in Westminster as the patrons of the said benefice of the Holy Trinity Knightsbridge and the same proposals are also assented to, subject to certain modifications, by the Vestry of the new parish of All Saints Knightsbridge and by the Vestry of the new parish of the Holy Trinity Knightsbridge.

“And whereas it appears to us the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England to be expedient that the said proposed union of the said two benefices should be effected and that such arrangements relating thereto and to the other matters hereinafter referred to should be made as hereinafter mentioned.

“And whereas the said Mandell Bishop of London as such Bishop and the patrons of the said two benefices and the vestries of the said two new parishes respectively, are willing that the scheme for effecting the said union should embody certain modifications of the said proposals, and this present scheme does embody the same modifications accordingly but otherwise is based upon the said proposals.

“Now therefore with the consent of the said Mandell Bishop of London (in testimony whereof he has to this scheme set his hand and his episcopal seal) and with the consent of the said Joseph Armitage Robinson (in testimony whereof he has signed and sealed this scheme) and with the consent of the said Dean and Chapter of the Collegiate Church of Saint Peter in Westminster (in testimony whereof they have to this scheme set their common or capitular seal) and with the consents of the vestries of the said new parishes of All Saints Knightsbridge and the Holy Trinity Knightsbridge (in testimony of which consent this scheme is signed in the case of each of the said vestries by the Chairman of a meeting of the same vestry duly convened for the purpose of giving such consent) we the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England humbly recommend and propose to Your Majesty in Council all that is in this scheme contained under the several parts or headings hereinafter mentioned as follows:—

“PART I.

“As to the proposed union itself and certain immediate incidents thereof we recommend and propose:—

“1. That the said benefice of All Saints Knightsbridge and the said benefice of the Holy Trinity Knightsbridge be united into one benefice under the style of ‘The benefice of All Saints Knightsbridge’ which said united benefice is hereinafter called the united benefice.

“2. That if upon the day when any Order of Your Majesty in Council ratifying this scheme shall be published in the London Gazette the said benefice of the Holy Trinity Knightsbridge shall be vacant the union shall forthwith take effect, and if such benefice shall not then be vacant the said union shall take effect upon the then next avoidance of the said benefice of the Holy Trinity Knightsbridge whether such avoidance shall be caused in the manner contemplated by clause five of Part IV of this scheme or otherwise.

“PART II.

“As to the parish church of the united benefice and certain officers of the same, and certain matters connected therewith or with the church of the Holy Trinity Knightsbridge we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners, further recommend and propose:—

“1. That upon the union taking effect the Church of All Saints Knightsbridge shall become and thereafter continue to be the parish church of the united benefice.

“2. That upon the union taking effect the font the communion table and the sacramental plate or any portion thereof used in the church of the Holy Trinity Knightsbridge shall if the Bishop of London shall approve, be offered to the incumbent and churchwardens of the church of the new benefice hereinafter mentioned and if accepted by the said incumbent and churchwardens shall be transferred to the church of such new benefice but if not so offered or accepted then such font, communion table and sacramental plate or any portion thereof which shall not be needed for the church of the said new benefice shall be transferred to any other church or chapel or churches or chapels within the diocese of London which the Bishop may select.

“3. That upon the union taking effect the whole of the carved work and fittings and furniture now in the church of the Holy Trinity Knightsbridge shall with the approval of the Bishop of London be transferred to the church of the new benefice hereinafter mentioned but if the whole or a part of such carved work fittings and furniture shall not be needed for such church that which is not so needed shall be sold and the proceeds to arise from such sale shall in such case be added to the proceeds to arise from the sale hereinafter recommended of the materials and site of the church of the Holy Trinity Knightsbridge.

“4. That upon the union taking effect if the tables of fees used in the two churches be alike in all particulars the table of fees used in the church which will become the church of the united benefice shall (until revised or altered by proper authority) be the table of fees for the united new parishes, but if such tables of fees be not alike in all particulars the same shall be of no authority and a new table of fees shall be made by the proper authority for the use of the united new parishes as if the same were one new parish.

"5. That if upon the union taking effect the persons who are at the present time church servants of the church of All Saints Knightsbridge shall at that time hold their respective offices such persons shall be church servants of the united benefice but no church servant of the united benefice shall have any larger estate and interest in his office than he possessed in his original office before the union.

"6. That upon the final closing of the church of the Holy Trinity Knightsbridge the register books of baptisms marriages and burials of the new parish of the Holy Trinity Knightsbridge shall be transferred to the church of the united benefice.

1. "That out of the proceeds of the sales hereinafter recommended a new church be erected on a site which has been offered for sale by Your Majesty's Commissioners for the Exhibition of the year one thousand eight hundred and fifty-one and which is situate in Prince Consort-road within the limits of the new parish of Saint Stephen South Kensington within the metropolis and in the diocese of London aforesaid.

"2. That when such church has been built out of the proceeds of the sales hereinafter recommended it shall be consecrated by such name and style as may appear to the Bishop of London to be expedient.

"3. That we the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners shall have full power (if we think fit) to advance the sums necessary for the purchase of the said site and for the erection of the said new church out of the funds under our control and that any sums so advanced and interest in respect thereof at the rate of three pounds per centum per annum shall be repaid to us out of the proceeds of the sales hereinafter recommended.

"4. That an ecclesiastical district within the limits of the metropolis shall be legally assigned to or constituted for the said new church under some or one of the Acts of Parliament administered by us the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners and authorizing the assignment or constitution of such district.

"5. That upon the assignment or constitution of such district the then incumbent (if any) of the said benefice of the Holy Trinity Knightsbridge (if he be willing and if he be not in the opinion of the Bishop of London disqualified by age or otherwise) shall be appointed the first incumbent of the said new church and district and upon his being instituted or otherwise becoming such first incumbent the said benefice of the Holy Trinity Knightsbridge shall become vacant and the union hereinbefore recommended shall thereupon take effect as contemplated by clause 2 of Part I of this Scheme.

"PART V.

"As to the church of the Holy Trinity Knightsbridge and the site and appurtenances thereof and as to the proceeds of any sale or sales of the materials and site of the same church we the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners recommend and propose:—

"1. That upon the union taking effect the church of the Holy Trinity Knightsbridge be taken down.

"2. That subject to the provisions contained in Part II of this scheme the site and materials of the said church shall be sold and disposed of by us the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners at such time or times and in such manner in all respects as to us shall seem expedient such sale or disposal being made in all respects subject to the provisions contained in the seventeenth section of the said Act of the twenty-third and twenty-fourth years of Your Majesty chapter one hundred and forty-two.

"3. That the net proceeds to arise from the sales to be made as aforesaid of the site and materials and furniture or fittings of the said church shall form one aggregate fund, and shall be applied in payment of the sums necessary for the purchase of the site for the said new church and for the erection of such new church, and of all sums due to us in respect of moneys which may have been advanced as contemplated by clause three of Part IV of this scheme, and if the amount of such fund shall be sufficient for or towards the acquisition of a suitable site for, and the erection of a parsonage house (or the purchase enlargement or alteration of any existing house suitable with or without enlargement or alteration for a parsonage house) within the limits of the said new district constituted or to be constituted as aforesaid, and as the parsonage house of such new district, and the remainder (if any) of such fund shall be added to the endowment of the incumbent of the said new church and district to be erected and constituted as recommended in Part IV of this scheme.

"PART VI.

"2. That the patronage of the said new church and district shall be vested in the Dean and Chapter of the Collegiate Church of Saint Peter in Westminster and their successors.

"Provided always that this scheme shall not take effect until the consents and approval which by the seventeenth section of the said Act of the twenty-third and twenty-fourth years of Your Majesty chapter one hundred and forty-two are made requisite to the sale or letting or appropriation under the powers conferred by that Act of the site of any church shall be obtained to the sale and appropriation hereby proposed of the church of the Holy Trinity Knightsbridge and of the site thereof together with any ground annexed thereto and necessary for the use and enjoyment thereof and to the mode of dealing with such site which is hereby proposed.

"And provided also that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid or any of them in accordance with the provisions of the said Acts or of either of them or of any other Act of Parliament."

And whereas the said scheme has been laid before both Houses of Parliament for the space of two calendar months.

And whereas the said scheme has been laid before and approved by His Majesty in Council: now, therefore, His Majesty, by and with the advice of His said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Acts; and His Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said diocese of London.

(Translation.)

Extract from "El Eco de las Aduanas,"
May 7th, 1901.

Ministry of the Interior,

Office of the Director-General of Health,
Circular giving Instructions for the Issue and Countersigning of Bills of Health, April 25th, 1901.

In consequence of questions arisen at the various sanitary stations, as to the application of the regulations referring to the issue and countersigning of bills of health, and the payment of the duties ordered by the tariff in the sanitary regulations of October 27th, 1899. Having taken under consideration Articles 91, 92, 93, and the tariff of the said regulations :

The Director-General of Health in conformity with the said articles, has thought it convenient to order :—

1. A bill of health should only be issued when a vessel begins a voyage, in accordance with Regulation 8 of the Royal Order of March 31st, 1888. It is understood that in the case of coasting and ocean-going vessels, even when they leave in ballast, a bill of health should be issued to them, which will be exchanged gratuitously for others, at the Spanish port where cargo is taken on board.

2. The bill of health of vessels from abroad will be countersigned at all Spanish ports where the voyage does not terminate.

3. The word "visado" used in Article 92 of the said regulations, must be understood in the sense of "refrendo" countersigned. It is understood that the vise, in its real sense, is the statement signed by the Consuls in foreign bills of health to certify to the signature of the authorities issuing the bills, and to the sanitary condition of the port of departure.

4. If the ship Captains produce bills of health issued at any foreign port touched at, on account of the original document having been taken away, in spite of the voyage not being finished, the Chief Officers of sanitary stations will examine the log book for the exact data about sanitary matters, in the same manner as is done with vessels that are exempted from having bills of health, mentioned in Article 90 of the said regulations.

5. The payment of the duties for the issue of bills of health is only carried out at Spanish sanitary stations, where the vessel begins the voyage or leaves in ballast, in the case mentioned in Regulation I, and not for others issued abroad. The duties for countersigning are imposed at the first Spanish port at which the vessel touches when coming from abroad, when the voyage is not finished and the vessel has not put into harbour in distress.

In other Spanish ports touched at the countersigning will be gratuitous.

Madrid, April 25, 1901.

The Director-General.
