ORDER OF THE BOARD OF AGRICULTURE.

(DATED 22ND MAY 1901.)

RETFORD (SWINE-FEVER) ORDER OF 1901.

THE Board of Agriculture, by virtue and in exercise of the powers in them vested under the Diseases of Animals Acts, 1894 and 1896, and of every other power enabling them in this behalf, do order, and it is hereby ordered, as follows:

Premises to which this Order applies.

1.—(1.) This Order shall apply to the premises described in the Schedule hereto and also to any other premises in the borough of Retford to which the Order may be applied by a Notice to that effect signed by an Inspector of the Board or of the Local Authority of the county of Nottingham and served upon the occupier of the premises described in such Notice.

(2.) This Order shall cease to apply to any premises upon service on the occupier thereof of a Notice to that effect signed by an Inspector of the Board or of the said Local Authority.

Restriction on Movement of Swine from or to Premises to which this Order applies.

2. Swine shall not, except as expressly authorized by this Order, be moved from or to any premises to which this Order applies.

Movement of Swine for Immediate Slaughter.

3.—(1.) Swine (not being in a Swine-Fever Infected Place and their movement not being prohibited by Notice of an Inspector of the Local Authority or of the Board given under any Order of the Board) may be moved from any premises to which this Order applies in a suitable vehicle to a slaughter-house situate in the borough of Retford, for the purpose of immediate slaughter, with a Movement Licence of the Local Authority, which Licence shall be in force for not more than two days inclusive of the day of issue and shall specify the name and address of the person to whom the Licence is granted, the number and description of the swine to be moved, and the name or description of the place or premises from which and the slaughter-house to which the swine are to be moved.

(2.) The swine shall, before the movement is commenced, be marked by and at the expense of the owner by the painting with an indelible composition of red colour of a broad line down the back and another broad line across the loins of each of the swine thus +, each line being not less than nine inches long.

(3.) The swine moved under this Article shall be accompanied by the Licence required by this Article, and shall be moved by the nearest available route and shall be slaughtered after their arrival at the slaughter-house without unnecessary delay.

Cleansing and Disinfection of Vehicle used for Movement of Swine.

4.—(1.) Any vehicle which has been used for the conveyance of swine under the preceding Article, shall immediately after each occasion of such use be cleansed and disinfected by and at the expense of the owner of the vehicle as follows:

- (i.) The floor of the vehicle and all other parts thereof with which the swine, or their droppings, have come in contact shall be scraped and swept, and the scrapings and sweepings, and all dung, sawdust, litter, and other matter shall be effectually removed therefrom; then
 - (ii.) The same parts of the vehicle shall be thoroughly washed or scrubbed or scoured with water; then
 - (iii.) The same parts of the vehicle shall have applied to them a coating of limewash.
- (2.) The scrapings and sweepings of the vehicle, and all dung, sawdust, litter, and other matter removed therefrom, shall forthwith be well mixed with quicklime, and be effectually removed from contact with animals.

Movement of Swine to Premises to which this Order applies.

5.—(1.) Swine may be moved to any premises to which this Order applies with a Movement Licence of the Local Authority of the county of Nottingham, which Licence shall be in force for not more than four days inclusive of the day of issue and shall specify the name and address of the person to whom the Licence is granted, the number and description of the swine to be moved, and the name or description of the place or premises from which and the premises to which the swine are to be moved, and shall only be granted on a Declaration of the owner of the swine or of his agent authorized in writing for this purpose to the following effect—

- (i.) that the swine to be moved have been on the premises from which they are to be moved for a period of at least twenty-eight days immediately before the granting of the Licence, and that no other pig has been brought on to those premises within such period; and
- (ii.) that the swine are not affected with swine-fever, and have not during the period of twenty-eight days as aforesaid been in any way exposed to the infection of swine-fever; and
- (iii.) that the swine are not in a Swine-Fever Infected Place and their movement is not prohibited by Notice of an Inspector of a Local Authority or of the Board given under any Order of the Board.

(2.) The swine moved under this Article shall be accompanied by the Licence and Declaration required by this Article, and shall be moved by the nearest available route and without unnecessary delay.

Saving for Regulations of Local Authority.

6. Movement of swine under this Order is subject to any Regulation made by a Local Authority under any Order of the Board for prohibiting or regulating the movement of swine, but nothing in any such Regulation shall permit the movement of swine in contravention of this Order.

Movement of Swine by Licence of Board.

7. Notwithstanding anything in this Order, a Licence for the movement of swine may be granted by an Inspector of the Board, but such Licence will only be granted where the Board, after inquiry, are satisfied that exceptional circumstances render the granting thereof necessary or expedient.

Granting of Movement Licences.

8.—(1.) The Local Authority may appoint fit and proper persons for the purpose of granting, subject to the provisions of this Article, Movement Licences for the purposes of this Order.

(2.) A Movement Licence granted under this Order shall not be available if granted by the owner of the swine to be moved, or by his agent, or by the consignee of the swine, or by the occupier of the farm or premises or slaughter-house from or to which the swine are to be moved, or by any individual member of an executive Committee or Sub-Committee of the Local Authority.

Delivery of Declarations.

9.—(1.) A Licence granted under this Order for the movement of swine to any premises to which this Order applies is not available except when accompanied by the Declaration on which it is granted.

(2.) The person granting such Licence under this Order shall for the identification of the Declaration produced to him mark the same by signing his name thereon with the date of the production thereof to him.

(3.) The person granting such Licence shall deliver the Declaration produced to him, when so marked, with the Licence, to the person receiving the Licence from him.

Production of Licences; Names and Addresses.

10.—(1.) Any person in charge of a pig being moved, where under this Order a Movement Licence is necessary, shall, on demand of a Justice, or of a constable, or of an Inspector or other officer of the Board or of a Local Authority, produce and show to him the Licence, if any, necessary for the movement, and shall allow it to be read and a copy of or extract from it to be taken by the person to whom it is produced.

(2.) Any person so in charge shall, on demand as aforesaid, give his name and address to the Justice, or constable, or Inspector or other officer.

Local Authority to enforce Order.

11. The provisions of this Order, except where it is otherwise provided, shall be executed and enforced by the Local Authority.

Offences.

12.—(1.) If a pig is moved in contravention of this Order, or of the conditions of a Movement Licence thereunder, the owner of the pig, and the person for the time being in charge thereof, and the person causing, directing, or permitting the movement, and the person moving or conveying the pig, and the consignee or other person receiving or keeping it knowing it to have been moved in contravention as aforesaid, and the occupier of the place from which the pig is moved, shall, each according to and in respect of his own acts and defaults, be deemed guilty of an offence against the Act of 1894.

(2.) If a pig is not marked as required by this Order, the owner, consignee, or other person for the time being in charge thereof, shall, each according to and in respect of his own acts and defaults, be deemed guilty of an offence against the Act of 1894.

(3.) If anything is done or omitted to be done in contravention of this Order in respect of the cleansing and disinfection of any vehicle used for the movement of swine, the owner, or other person for the time being in charge of the vehicle, shall, each according to and in respect of his own acts and defaults, be deemed guilty of an offence against the Act of 1894.

(4.) If any person, with a view to unlawfully evade or defeat the operation of this Order, by washing, or in any other manner, takes out, effaces, or obliterates, or attempts to take out, efface, or obliterate, any mark painted on any pig as required by this Order, the person doing the same, and the person causing, directing, or permitting the same to be done, and the owner of the pig, and the person for the time being in charge thereof, shall, each according to and in respect of his own acts and defaults, be deemed guilty of an offence against the Act of 1894.

(5.) If a pig is not slaughtered as required by this Order, the person to whom the Licence is granted, and the owner of the pig, and the person for the time being in charge thereof, and the person failing to cause the same to be so slaughtered, shall, each according to and in respect of his own acts and defaults, be deemed guilty of an offence against the Act of 1894.

(6.) If a person in charge of a pig being moved, where under this Order a Movement Licence is necessary, on demand made under this Order, fails to give his true name and address, or gives a false name or address, he shall be deemed guilty of an offence against the Act of 1894.

Interpretation.

Buenos Aires—Beacons and Buoys Replaced by Light-Buoys.

THE Argentine Government has given notice, dated January, 1901, that the beacons and buoys in the undermentioned positions have been replaced by light-buoys in the dredged channels leading to North Basin and Port Del Riachuelo.

North Channel:—

1. The two beacons situated about 5 cables E. by N. from the northern pier head, North Basin, by two light-buoys showing a green fixed light on the northern side of the channel, and a red fixed light on the southern side.

2. The two beacons situated about $2\frac{3}{10}$ miles, east from the north pier head, North Basin, by two light buoys exhibiting similar lights.

3. A light-buoy painted in black and white horizontal bands marked C, and exhibiting a green fixed light, is moored at the intersection of the channels, situated with northern pier head bearing about east, distant $5\frac{1}{10}$ miles.

Riachuelo or Southern Channel:—

1. The two buoys situated about $2\frac{1}{2}$ miles N.E. by E. $\frac{1}{2}$ E. from the southern pier heads by two light-buoys exhibiting a green fixed light on the northern side of the channel, and a red fixed light on the southern side.

2. The two buoys situated at the elbow of the channel at a distance of about 6 miles N.E. by E. $\frac{1}{2}$ E. from the southern pier heads by two similar light-buoys.

3. The two buoys situated at a distance of about $7\frac{1}{2}$ miles E.N.E. from the southern pier heads by two similar light-buoys.

4. A light-buoy exhibiting a white fixed light has been established on the northern side of the channel, situated with the southern pier heads bearing about N. $72^{\circ} E.$, distant 9 miles, and a light-buoy, exhibiting a red fixed light, opposite to it on the south side of the channel.

These light-buoys consequently exhibit green lights on the starboard side in entering and red lights on the port side. The outer buoy on the starboard side shows a white instead of a green light.

Registration of Births and Deaths.

NOTICE is hereby given, that in pursuance of the provisions of the twenty-first section of an Act passed in the thirty-eighth year of the reign of Her late Majesty, intituled "The Births and Deaths Registration Act, 1874," I, Reginald MacLeod, C.B., Registrar-General of Births, Deaths, and Marriages in England, have, with the sanction of the Local Government Board, ordered and declared that on and after the 1st day of June next, in order that the boundaries of Plympton St. Mary and Devonport Registration Districts may again be made conterminous with those of Plympton St. Mary and Devonport Poor Law Unions as altered by the operation of the Devonport Corporation Act, 1900, the part of the Civil Parish of Weston Peverill, which was by the said Act added to Devonport Civil Parish, shall be transferred from Plympton Sub-District of Plympton St. Mary Registration District to Stoke Sub-District of Devonport Registration District.

—Witness my hand this 23rd day of May, 1901.

Reginald MacLeod, Registrar-General.

General Register Office,
Somerset House, London.

NOTICE is hereby given, that the Chief Registrar of Friendly Societies has, pursuant to s. 77 of the Friendly Societies Act, 1896, by writing under his hand, dated the 23rd day of May, 1901, suspended for three months the Registry of the Amicable Friendly Society, Register No. 162, held at Prince of Waterloo Inn, Minster Sheppey, in the county of Kent, on the ground that the Society has wilfully, and after notice from a Registrar, violated the provisions of the above mentioned Act, in respect of the valuation of its assets and liabilities. The Society ceases to enjoy during such suspension the privileges of a registered Society, but without prejudice to any liability incurred by the Society, which may be enforced against it as if such suspension had not taken place.

In Parliament.—Session 1901.

City and North East Suburban Electric Railway. (Petition for Additional Provision to authorize an Alteration of Levels of a portion of the proposed Railway and the use of Lands at Low Leyton for the construction of a Generating Station.)

NOTICE is hereby given, that the Promoters of the Bill which is now pending in Parliament under the name or title of the City and North East Suburban Electric Railway Bill (hereinafter called "the Bill") intend to apply to Parliament by Petition for Additional Provision for leave to introduce into the Bill clauses and provisions to effect all or some of the following purposes (that is to say):—

To authorize an alteration of the levels of a portion of Railway No. 1 proposed to be authorized by the Bill and shown on the plans and sections deposited for the purposes of the said Bill in the month of November last with the Clerk of the Peace for the county of London at his office at Clerkenwell, and with the Clerk of the Peace for the county of Essex at his office at Chelmsford, and with the Town Clerk of the Metropolitan Borough of Hackney at his office at the Town Hall, Hackney, and with the Clerk to the Urban District Council of Leyton at his office (hereinafter called "thesaid deposited plans") so as to carry the same in tunnel under the common or commonable lands known as the Hackney Marshes, in the parish of St. John at Hackney, in the county of London, and, so far as may be necessary or expedient, an alteration within the limits of deviation shown on the said deposited plans of the line of the said railway. The said alteration of levels will be situate in the said parish of Saint John at Hackney, and in the parish of Low Leyton, in the county of Essex, and will commence in Victoria Park, in the said parish of Saint John at Hackney, at a point marked on the said deposited plans 3 miles 3 furlongs from the commencement of the railway, and distant 55 yards or thereabouts measured in a north-easterly direction from the eastern angle of Saint Augustine's Church, and 66 yards or thereabouts measured in a south-easterly direction from the eastern angle of the Congregational Chapel in Horner-road, and will terminate in the said parish of Low Leyton at a point marked on the said plans 5 miles 0 furlongs 6.40 chains from the commencement of the said railway, and on the northern boundary fence of Walter Fairhead's nursery ground, distant 44 yards or thereabouts measured along the said fence from the footbridge over the stream at the north-western angle of the grounds attached to Saint Agnes's Orphanage.

To empower the Company to be incorporated by the Bill (hereinafter called "the Company") to enter upon, take, and use for the purposes of a station for generating electrical power, with all necessary or convenient buildings, works, engines, dynamos, apparatus, and conveniences, the lands hereinafter described delineated on the deposited plans, and described in the deposited book of reference referred to in the said Bill (that is to say):—

Certain lands situate in Leyton Marshes, in the parish of Low Leyton and county of Essex, and containing 3 acres or thereabouts, lying between the old River Lea and the old Cambridge main line of the Great Eastern Railway Company, and between the centre line of Railway No. 1 and the northern limit of deviation as shown on the plans deposited as hereinafter mentioned and extending for a distance of 300 feet or thereabouts along the said railway in a northerly direction from northern end of the Temple Mills sidings on the said line, and for about the same distance along the said river, and to empower the Company on such lands, or any part thereof, to erect, work, maintain, and use a station or stations for generating, transforming, and transmitting electrical energy, with all dynamos, batteries, transformers, accumulators, condensers, engines, apparatus, plant, machinery, and other works, appliances, and conveniences for that purpose, and to generate, transform, and transmit such energy accordingly.

The said lands are a portion wholly within the limits of deviation of certain lands numbered 2 in the parish of Low Leyton on the said deposited plans and in the book of reference relating thereto.

To extend and make applicable to the said alteration of levels and to the said lands, and to any works erected thereon, all or some of the provisions contained in the Bill with reference to the railway described in the Bill, and to the lands which by the Bill the Company are seeking power to acquire for the purpose of generating stations.

To vary and extinguish all or any existing rights and privileges connected with such lands.

Amended sections, showing the proposed alteration of levels, and in connection therewith a plan showing the proposed altered line, and also showing the said lands, and a copy of this notice as published in the London Gazette, have been deposited with the before-mentioned Clerks of the Peace, Town Clerk, and Clerk to Urban District Council at their said respective offices.

Light Railway Commission.—May, 1901.

Lizard Light Railway.

Level Crossings instead of Bridges over certain roads specified in Lizard Light Railway Order, 1898, and amending certain sections of that Order as to Gates, &c., Electrical Power for working the authorized Railway and other Powers.

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to the Light Railway Commissioners in the present month of May, by the Lizard Light Railway Company, incorporated by the Lizard Light Railway Order, 1898 (hereinafter called "the Company"), whose office is at Helston, in the county of Cornwall, for an Order under the Light Railways Act, 1896, for the purposes or some of the purposes following (that is to say):—

To empower the Company in the construction of the railway authorized by the said Order of 1898, to substitute level crossings in lieu of bridges, as prescribed by the Order of 1898, and as shown upon the plans and sections deposited in respect of that Order at the following points:—

Parish.	No. on Plan deposited May, 1897.
Wendron	14
Mawgan-in-Mencage	23
" "	41
" "	64
" "	73
" "	82
Mullion	24

and to provide that notwithstanding anything shown in the said deposited plans or prescribed by the said Order of 1898 or the Acts incorporated therewith, it shall not be necessary for the Company to erect and maintain gates or lodges or gatekeepers' houses at any of the said level crossings, and in lieu thereof to provide such screens or guards for cattle or other appliances for the public and for cattle using such crossings as the Board of Trade may prescribe.

To empower the Company to apply the provisions, if need be, of the Order of 1898, for the electrical working of the railway instead of steam, and for the purposes thereof to acquire by agreement either within or without the limits of deviation defined upon the original deposited plans, a piece or parcel of land of about one acre in extent and thereon to construct a station for generating electrical energy; and in connection therewith to lay down such cables, wires, apparatus, machinery, and appliances as may be necessary for the purpose.

To alter, extend, incorporate, amend or repeal, so far as may be necessary or desirable for the purposes of the intended Order, the provisions of the above-mentioned Lizard Light Railway Order, 1898, the Railways Clauses Acts, 1845 and 1863, the Lands Clauses Acts and any Acts amending the same.

Plans and sections of the railways authorized by the said Order of 1898, with a map showing the course of the railway, with a book of reference thereto, were in the month of May, 1897, deposited for public inspection with the Clerk of the Peace for the county of Cornwall and with the respective local authorities, through whose districts the railway will be made or pass, and such plans can be seen at all reasonable hours at the office of J. Walker Tyacke, Solicitor, Helston, and at the office of the Clerk of the Peace, and at the offices of the several local authorities.

Copies of the draft of the intended Order will be deposited on or before the 30th day of this present month of May, and may be obtained at the office of the Company aforesaid, and also at the office of the undersigned Solicitors and Parliamentary Agents on payment of one shilling for each copy.

Any objections to the application should be made in writing to the Light Railway Commissioners, and should be written on foolscap paper on one side only, and addressed to "The Secretary, Light Railway Commission," 54, Parliament-street, Westminster, S.W., and a copy of such objections should at the same time be sent to the Promoters or the undersigned, their Solicitors and Parliamentary Agents.

Dated this 10th day of May, 1901.

Light Railway Commissioners.—May, 1901.

Woodbridge District and Bawdsey Light Railway.

NOTICE is hereby given that application is intended to be made in the month of May, 1901, to the Light Railway Commissioners by Sir William Cuthbert Quilter, Bart., of Bawdsey Manor, Woodbridge, Suffolk, Major Algernon Waller Cobbold, of The Lodge, Hollesley, Woodbridge, Suffolk, and Robert Johnson, of the Colonial College, Hollesley Bay, Woodbridge, Suffolk, Gentleman (hereinafter called the Promoters) for an Order under the Light Railways Act, 1896, to authorize the construction and maintenance of the following railways in the county of East Suffolk (that is to say):—

- (1.) A Railway (No. 1) 8 miles 3 furlongs 8·80 chains or thereabouts in length commencing in the parish of Melton, in the rural district of Woodbridge, in a field numbered 42 on the $\frac{1}{2500}$ inch Ordnance map, 1892, at a point 4 yards or thereabouts measured at right angles to the shelter on the up-platform of the Melton Station of the Great Eastern Railway Company from the west end of the said shelter, and terminating in a field numbered 156 on the $\frac{1}{2500}$ inch Ordnance map, 1895, at a point 11 yards or thereabouts measured in an easterly direction from the south-western corner of the said field along the fence dividing the said field from the road leading from Bawdsey Village to the Coastguard Station and known as East-lane. This railway passes in, through, or into the parishes of Melton, Bromeswell, Sutton, Shottisham, Hollesley, Alderton and Bawdsey, all in the rural district of Woodbridge.

(2.) A Railway (No. 2) 2 furlongs or thereabouts in length, commencing by a junction with the Great Eastern Railway Company's up main line at a point 46 yards or thereabouts measured in a north-easterly direction from the centre of the public road level crossing east of Melton Station, and terminating by a junction with Railway (No. 1) at a point 2 furlongs 7·50 chains or thereabouts measured from the commencement of Railway (No. 1) in a field numbered 10 on the $\frac{1}{2500}$ inch Ordnance map, 1881, at a point 47 yards or thereabouts, measured in a southerly direction from the north-east corner of the said field and 107 yards or thereabouts measured at a right angle to the fence in a westerly direction from the said point. This railway is wholly within the parish of Melton, in the rural district of Woodbridge.

The railways will be constructed on a gauge of 4 feet 8½ inches or such other gauge as the Order may prescribe, and will be worked and used by means of steam or such other motive power as the Order may authorize.

Maps, plans, and sections of the proposed railways, a book of reference to the plans and a copy of the draft Order, will be deposited on or before the 31st May instant, at the offices of the Clerk of the County Council of East Suffolk, at Ipswich, and at the offices of the Clerk of the Rural District Council of Woodbridge, at Woodbridge, and also at the offices of the undermentioned Solicitors to the Promoters.

Any objection to the application must be made in writing to the Light Railway Commissioners, and be written on foolscap paper on one side only, and should be addressed and sent to the Secretary, Light Railway Commission, 54, Parliament-street, London, S.W., as soon after the 31st May instant as possible, and at the same time a copy of such objections must be sent to the undermentioned Solicitors to the Promoters.
