Whitehall, October 28, 1902.

The following Addresses were presented to His Majesty on the occasion of Their Majesties' Progress in State through London, on Saturday, the 25th instant:—

To Their Most Excellent Majesties the King and Queen.

The dutiful and loyal Address of the Chairman, Aldermen, and Councillors of the Council of the Administrative County of London:—

May it please Your Majesties,

We, the Chairman, Aldermen, and Councillors of the London County Council, entrusted with the central municipal government of the capital of the Empire, desire respectfully to express our thanks for the opportunity which has been graciously afforded us of approaching Your Majesties on this occasion.

We dutifully call to mind that Your Majesty succeeds to a Throne which rests on the free institutions of our country, and is strengthened by the affection of a loyal and contented people; and that the first act of Your Majesty was the expression of determination to reign as a constitutional Sovereign and to work for the good and amelioration of Your people.

The ceremony by which Your Majesty has in due form confirmed the promise thus freely and graciously given has always connected London in a special manner with the Throne of this Kingdom, and the London which we administer is sensible of this and the many privileges which it enjoys, among which we venture to include the frequent residence of Your Majesties therein, and the personal interest which Your Majesties have taken in its most pressing needs. We are assured by the marks of Royal favour which have been bestowed upon reforms and improvements which we have carried out, especially upon those which have for their object the welfare of the poorer inhabitants under our charge, that Your Majesties will continue to regard with approbation our efforts to make and keep London worthy of the important position it holds in the Government, the commerce, and the intellectual activity of this great Empire.

The occasion on which we address Your Majesties will be memorable to London in a special degree by reason of the illness which prostrated Your Majesty in its midst on the eve of the Coronation. At that critical moment the grief and anxiety of London were universally manifest, and now we express in its name the joy with which it receives its crowned King and Queen.

We pray that Your Majesties may live long and happily to reign over a people who have extended and confirmed the authority of their Sovereign in all parts of the world, and we trust that the cares of Government will be lightened by the affection and loyalty of the Empire and by the prosperity and peaceful progress of our beloved country.

John M'Dougall, Chairman of the Council.

Countersigned,

G. L. Gomme, Clerk of the Council.

25th October, 1902.

To which Address His Majesty was pleased to return the following gracious Answer:—

"It gives much pleasure both to Myself and to the Queen to receive in person the loyal and dutiful congratulations of the central municipal authority on the occasion of Our Progress through the Capital of Our Empire to receive the greetings of Our people on Our Coronation.

"Your confidence that My favour will be extended to every measure calculated to ameliorate the condition of My subjects is well founded; and of the numerous and important questions which come under your consideration none appeal more strongly to My interest and sympathy than those which regard directly the welfare of the poorer classes, especially in this and other great cities.

"I thank you for your good wishes for Myself and My House. I cordially share your aspiration that it may be granted to Me by the Divine Providence which has preserved My life from imminent danger to reign over a firmly-established and peaceful Empire and in the loyal hearts of a contented and prosperous people."

To Their Most Excellent-Majesties King Edward
and Queen Alexandra.

May it please Your Majesties,

We, the Mayor, Aldermen and Councillors of the City of Westminster, desire respectfully to approach Your Majesties with our loyal and heartfelt congratulations upon Your Majesties' Coronation.

We take this opportunity of expressing to Your Majesties our thankfulness that Almighty God has been pleased to respond to the Empire's prayer and has restored Your Majesty the King from a dangerous illness throughout which Your Majesty displayed a patient courage which has won the admiration of Your Majesty's loving subjects and the civilized world.

We recall with pleasurable satisfaction the long and close association of the ancient city of Westminster with the doings and destinies of the Sovereigns of this realm, and feel an especial pride in the fact that Westminster enjoys the pre-eminent distinction of being the birth-place and home of Your Majesty the King and the scene of Your Majesties' Coronation.

The deep and active interest which Your Majesties have evinced in the social life of the nation, the support which our great charitable and other institutions have always received at the hands of Your Majesties, and the warm sympathy and assistance which Your Majesties have ever extended to the poor and distressed, encourage us to believe that Your Majesties' reign will be marked by an uninterrupted continuance of that national advancement and that unswerving loyalty to the Throne which were such conspicuous and happy features of the beneficent reign of Your Majesty the King's illustrious and lamented mother of revered memory.

We tender to Your Majesties our dutiful homage, and beg to assure Your Majesties of our sincere devotion to Your Majesties' Persons and Throne, and we pray that the King of Kings, the Protector of all mankind, may vouchsafe to Your Majesties a happy and glorious reign over a prosperous, contented, and loyal people.

Given under our Common Seal this twenty-fifth day of October, 1902.

John Hunt, Town Clerk.

To which Address His Majesty was pleased to return the following gracious Answer:—

"Your loyal congratulations and the devotion which you express on behalf of the citizens of Westminster are most gratifying both to Myself and to the Queen, and We are deeply touched by your reference to the recovery which it has pleased God to grant Me from a dangerous illness.

"The warm good wishes of the inhabitants of the City which is the seat of My Government, and where I was born and reside, could not fail to be especially welcome to Us on this happy occasion.

"Be assured that the welfare of Our people and the promotion of every social and charitable movement which makes for the amelioration of their condition will ever be the objects closest to Our hearts."

and Queen Alexandra.

The loyal and dutiful Address of the Mayors, Aldermen, and Councillors of the Royal Borough of Kensington, and of the Metropolitan Boroughs of Bethnal Green, Chelsea, Finsbury, Fulham, Hackney, Hammersmith, Hampstead, Holborn, Islington, Paddington, Poplar, Shoreditch, Stepney, Stoke Newington, St. Marylebone, and St. Pancras:—

May it please Your Majesties,

We, Your Majesties' loyal and dutiful subjects, the Mayors, Aldermen and Councillors of the Royal Borough of Kensington and of the other Metropolitan Boroughs North of the Thames, representing the inhabitants of these boroughs, avail ourselves of Your gracious permission to approach You and to offer, in connection with Your recent Coronation, our heartfelt congratulations upon His Majesty the King's complete restoration to health and strength.

We recognize all that Your Coronation symbolizes, and we trust that during the reign commenced under circumstances which have been so auspiciously changed, the ties which knit Sovereign and people together in the reign of our late beloved Queen may be if possible strengthened.

We are deeply sensible of the interest which Your Majesties have ever shown in the local government of Your people, and feel assured that the honour which Your Majesties this day confer upon the municipalities of London by receiving in person this and other expressions of their loyalty and devotion will tend to enhance the value of such government in the opinion of those we represent and of the country generally.

We highly appreciate Your Royal bounty to the poorer of our fellow-citizens, a further evidence, if such were needed, of the interest You take in the welfare of Your subjects as suffer from want or distress.

We especially rejoice with Your Majesties at the recently concluded peace in South Africa, and earnestly hope that the "blessing of peace" may long continue throughout this vast Empire.

We beg, in conclusion, to assure Your Majesties of the attachment of the inhabitants of London north of the Thames to Your Persons, and we earnestly pray that the guidance and favour of the Almighty may be vouchsafed to Your Majesties, and to the Members of Your Family, and that You may long reign over a united, prosperous, and contented people.

day of October, 1902.

To which Address His Majesty was pleased to return the following gracious Answer:—

"I thank you heartily on My own behalf and on behalf of the Queen for your cordial expression of the good wishes of My loyal subjects, inhabitants of the Metropolitan Boroughs North of the Thames, whom you represent, and for your congratulations on Our Coronation, on the restoration of peace in South Africa, and on My recovery, by God's mercy, from a dangerous illness.

"Through you I acknowledge the welcome greetings of this vast concourse of Londoners and of visitors to Our capital. I pray that Almighty God may vouchsafe peace, contentment, and prosperity to My people, and may bless and guide you who are entrusted with the management of the municipal affairs of so large a portion of the Metropolis."

To Their Most Excellent Majesties the King and Queen.

The dutiful and loyal Address of the Lord Mayor, Aldermen and Commons of the City of London in Common Council assembled.

May it please Your Majesties,

We, Your Majesties' ever dutiful and loyal subjects, the Lord Mayor, Aldermen and Commons of Your City of London in Common Council assembled, approach Your presence with feelings of unmingled joy and thankfulness humbly to offer to Your Majesties our sincere and heartfelt congratulations upon the happy recovery of Your Majesty the King from the dangerous illness which so suddenly fell upon You, and to express our sense of Your Majesties' gracious condescension in visiting to-day Your ancient and loyal City of London.

We, together with all Your Majesties' loyal subjects, expressed our heartfelt sympathy with Your Majesties and your Royal House, and reverently joined in the prayers which were offered up to Almighty God for Your Majesty's speedy recovery and restoration to health, and desire now to express our deep thankfulness that the prayers of Your people have been heard and answered.

We would also offer to Your Majesties our loyal and dutiful congratulations on the Coronation of your Majesties the King and Queen—performed with so much solemnity in the Abbey Church of Westminster in accordance with the ancient custom of these realms, and the deep signification of which was nowhere more fully realized than in Your loyal city of London.

With renewed assurances of our dutiful loyalty to Your Majesties and Your Royal House, we humbly pray that every happiness may in the future attend Your Majesties, and that You may be long spared to reign over a happy, prosperous, and contented people.

(Signed by order of the Court)

To which Address His Majesty was pleased to return the following gracious Answer:—

"Your warm testimonies of loyalty and affection, and the cordial welcome given to Us by you on behalf of Our ancient and loyal City of London, are profoundly gratifying to Myself and to the Queen.

"I am deeply touched by your congratulations on Our Coronation, and on My restoration to health, which Heaven has been pleased to grant in answer to the prayers of My people.

"I join with you in praying that prosperity and contentment may reign henceforth throughout My Empire."

To Their Most Excellent Majesties King Edward and Queen Alexandra.

The loyal and dutiful Address of the Mayors, Aldermen and Councillors of the Metropolitan Boroughs of Bermondsey, Camberwell, Deptford, Greenwich, Lambeth, Lewisham, Southwark, Wandsworth, and Woolwich.

May it please Your Majesties,

We, your Majesties' most loyal and dutiful subjects, humbly approach Your Majesties with the expression of our heartfelt congratulation upon the occasion of Your Majesties' Coronation.

The Empire over which Your Majesties reign is unique alike in its vast extent and in the preponderating influence it exercises over the nations and peoples of the world; but the burden of responsibility which Your Majesties have been called upon to bear will to some extent be lightened by the continued support and devoted attachment of the free and loyal people of Your Majesties' dominions.

We recall with pleasure the arrival of Your Majesty the Queen in England, on the 7th March, 1863, and the cordial enthusiasm with which Your Majesty was received when passing through South London, and we also remember the many occasions on which Your Majesties have graciously manifested an interest in the municipal and other institutions associated with this part of the Metropolis.

When Her late lamented Majesty ascended the Throne in 1837, the provincial municipalities, which under Her beneficent rule so powerfully influenced the progress and development of the arts and manufactures of the country and the well-being of the people, had recently been established, and we venture to hope that the constitution of the metropolitan boroughs may bring about equally beneficial results to the vast populations committed to their care.

In particular we humbly trust that, encouraged by the deep personal interest which Your Majesties have always shown in the provision of better housing and healthier surroundings for Your Majesties' subjects, these Councils may, during Your Majesties' reign, be instrumental in ameliorating the conditions under which large numbers of those subjects are compelled to live, and in developing, improving, and beautifying the Metropolis of Your Empire.

We would especially desire to tender to Your Majesties the assurance of the gratification which the recognition of the metropolitan municipalities on recent State occasions has caused to the inhabitants of the boroughs we represent, and such recognition will, we feel confident, help to create a new and lively interest in municipal work and duty.

We feel deeply thankful that the application of medical and surgical science has resulted in the complete recovery to health of Your Majesty the King, and we humbly pray that Your Majesty may be sustained, strengthened, and preserved for many years.

While assuring Your Majesties of our unabated loyalty and devotion to Your Majesties' Persons and Throne, we earnestly hope that the Divine Blessing may attend Your Majesties' reign and that You may long live to rule over a loyal, contented, and prosperous people.
