the remaining part of the north-east, by an imaginary line commencing upon the boundary which divides the said parish of All Saints, Gorton, from the said parish of Saint James, Gorton, at the junction of Church-lane with Hyde-road, and extending thence south-eastward along the middle of Hyde-road for a distance of sixty-two chains or thereabouts to the centre of the bridge which carries the Manchester Central Station Line of the Great Central Railway across Hyde-road, upon the boundary which divides the said parish of Saint James, Gorton, from the said district of Saint Agnes, North Reddish."

And whereas drafts of the said scheme have, in accordance with the provisions of the firstly hereinbefore mentioned Act, been transmitted to the patrons and to the Incumbent of the parish out of which it is intended that the district recommended in such scheme to be constituted shall be taken, and such patrons and Incumbent have respectively signified their assent to such scheme.

And whereas the said scheme has been approved by His Majesty in Council: now, therefore, His Majesty, by and with the advice of His said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Acts; and His Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said diocese of Manchester.

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 21st day of April, 1904.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the sixth and seventh years of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria, chapter thirty-seven, and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Her said late Majesty, chapter one hundred and four, duly prepared and laid before His Majesty in Council a scheme, bearing date the twenty-fourth day of March, in the year one thousand nine hundred and four, in the words and figures following, that is to say:—

"We the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England in pursuance of the Act of the sixth and seventh years of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria, chapter thirty-seven, and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Her said late Majesty, chapter one hundred and four, have prepared and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council the following scheme for constituting a separate district for spiritual purposes to be taken partly out of the parish of Saint Swithin, Lincoln, and partly out of the extra-parochial place called the Monks Liberty, Lincoln; both in the county of Lincoln and in the diocese of Lincoln.

"Whereas we are satisfied that the said parish of Saint Swithin, Lincoln, is a parish wherein or in parts whereof the provision for public worship and for pastoral superintendence is insufficient for the spiritual wants of the inhabitants thereof and it has been made to appear to us that it would promote the interests of religion that the particular portions of the said parish of Saint Swithin, Lincoln, and of the said extra-parochial place called the Monks Liberty, Lincoln, which are hereinafter mentioned and described should be constituted a separate district in the manner which is hereinafter set forth.

"And whereas there is not at present within the limits of the said proposed separate district any consecrated church or chapel in use for the purpose of Divine worship.

"And whereas it is intended by us the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners so soon as the said proposed separate district shall be duly constituted to submit to Your Majesty in Council a scheme for apportioning the revenues of the rectory of the parish of Algarkirk in the said county of Lincoln and in the said diocese of Lincoln in favour of the said proposed separate district so as to provide for the same an endowment of not less than one hundred and fifty pounds per annum as from the next avoidance of the said rectory of Algarkirk.

"And whereas a sum of two thousand pounds has been provided by Alfred Shuttleworth of Eastgate House, in the city of Lincoln, Esquire, as a security that a sum of not less than one hundred and fifty pounds per annum will be available for the maintenance of the minister or Incumbent of the said proposed separate district and when such district shall have become a new parish then of such new parish until the said proposed endowment out of the revenues of the rectory of Algarkirk shall become payable to such minister or Incumbent.

"And whereas by a deed dated the twenty-second day of March in the year one thousand nine hundred and four a certain piece of land situate within the said proposed separate district has been conveyed to us the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners to be held by us for the purposes of the Church Building Acts and to be appropriated as the site for an intended new church, and the said Alfred Shuttleworth is at his own cost erecting upon such site a permanent church for the use of the inhabitants of the said proposed separate district.

"And whereas the said proposed permanent church is now being erected upon the said site in accordance with plans which have been approved by us the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners.

"And whereas the said church is being built by the said Alfred Shuttleworth upon the understanding that (such arrangement appearing to us to be expedient) the whole right of patronage of the said proposed district or new parish and of the nomination of the minister or Incumbent thereto should be assigned in the manner which is hereinafter set forth.

"And whereas the said Alfred Shuttleworth has nominated the Bishop of Lincoln for the time being as the person in whom he desires that the whole right of patronage of the said proposed district or new parish (as the case may be) shall be vested.

"Now therefore with the consent of the Right Reverend Edward Bishop of Lincoln (in testimony whereof he has signed and sealed this scheme) we the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners humbly recommend and propose that all those portions of the said parish of Saint Swithin, Lincoln, and of the said extra-parochial place called the Monks Liberty, Lincoln, which are described in the schedule hereunder written, all which portions together with the boundaries thereof are delineated and set forth on the map or plan hereunto annexed shall upon and from the day of the date of the publication in the London Gazette of any Order of Your Majesty in Council ratifying this scheme become and be constituted a separate district for spiritual purposes and that the same shall be named 'The District of All Saints Lincoln.'

"And we further recommend and propose that without any assurance in the law other than this scheme and any duly gazetted Order of Your Majesty in Council ratifying the same and upon and from the day of the date of the publication of such Order in the London Gazette as aforesaid the whole right of patronage of the said proposed district and when the said district shall have become a new parish as aforesaid then of the said new parish and of the nomination of the minister or Incumbent thereto shall be assigned to and be absolutely vested in and shall and may from time to time be exercised by the said Edward Bishop of Lincoln and his successors in the same Bishoprick for ever.

"And we further recommend and propose that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid or any of them in accordance with the provisions of the said Acts or of either of them or of any other Act of Parliament.

"The SCHEDULE to which the foregoing Scheme has reference.

"The District of All Saints, Lincoln, comprising:—

"All those contiguous portions of the parish of Saint Swithin, Lincoln, and of the extra-parochial place called the Monks Liberty, Lincoln both in the county and diocese of Lincoln, which are comprised within and are bounded by an imaginary line commencing at the point where the boundary which divides the parish of Saint Margaret-in-the-Close, Lincoln, in the said county and diocese from the said parish of Saint Swithin, Lincoln, crosses the middle of the passage which leads from the road called Lindum-terrace to the road called Lindum-avenue and the road called Arboretum-avenue, and extending thence southward along the middle of the said passage for a distance of two chains or thereabouts to its junction with Lindum-avenue near the junction of Lindum-avenue with Arboretum-avenue and extending thence first south-eastward to and then southward along the middle of Arboretum-avenue for a distance of eight chains or thereabouts to its junction with Monks-road, and extending thence eastward along the middle of Monks-road for a distance of two chains and a half or thereabouts to its junction with Thomas-street and extending thence southward along the middle of Thomas-street for a distance of eight chains or thereabouts to the junction of Thomas-street with Winn-street, and extending thence south-eastward and in a straight line across Winn-street for a distance of three-quarters of a chain or thereabouts to a point on the south side of Winn-street at the northern end of the wall or fence forming the western boundary of the house and premises called Number 49, Winn-street, and extending thence southward along the said wall or fence for a distance of three-quarters of a chain or thereabouts to the point where such wall or fence meets the wall or fence forming the southern boundary of the houses and premises on the south side of Winn-street, and extending thence generally eastward along the wall or fence forming the southern boundary of the houses and premises on the south side of Winn-street from the said house called Number 49, Winn-street, to the house called Number one hundred and sixty-nine, Winn-street, inclusive for a distance of thirteen chains to the point where such last-mentioned wall or fence meets the wall or fence forming the boundary of the houses and premises on the western side of Ashfield-street, and extending thence southward along the last-mentioned wall or fence for a distance of four chains or thereabouts to the point where it meets the wall or fence forming the north-western boundary of the Market Rasen Branch Line of the Great Central Railway, and extending thence first southward to and then north-eastward along the middle of the said branch line of railway for a distance of eight chains or thereabouts to the point where such branch line of railway crosses the boundary which divides the said parish of Saint Swithin, Lincoln, from the said extra-parochial place called the Monks Liberty, Lincoln, and extending thence first south-eastward and then north-eastward along the said boundary for a distance of eleven chains or thereabouts to the point in the middle of the River Witham where such boundary meets the boundary of the city of Lincoln, and extending thence first north-eastward then south-eastward, then northward, then westward and then again northward along the said boundary of the city of Lincoln for a distance of one mile and twenty-two chains or thereabouts to the point on the southern side of Greetwell-road where the boundary of the said extra-parochial place called the Monks Liberty, Lincoln, diverges from the said boundary of the city of Lincoln and extending thence along the boundary of the said extra-parochial place called the Monks Liberty, Lincoln, first westward for a distance of fifty chains or thereabouts thereby following the southern side of Greetwell-road, then southward for a distance of fourteen chains or thereabouts thereby following the eastern side of the road leading to the County Hospital, and the wall or fence forming the eastern boundary of the said County Hospital, and the eastern end of Sewell-road, then again westward for a distance of twenty-six chains or thereabouts thereby following the southern side of Sewell-road, the boundary of the extra-parochial place called the Cold Bath House, and the southern side of the road called Lindum-terrace, to the point where the boundary of the said extra-parochial place called the Monks Liberty, Lincoln, meets the firstly hereinbefore mentioned boundary which divides the said parish of Saint Margaret-in-the-Close, Lincoln, from the said parish of Saint Swithin, Lincoln, and extending thence south-westward along the last-mentioned boundary for a distance of two chains and a half or thereabouts to the point where such boundary crosses the middle of the passage which leads from Lindum-terrace to Lindum-avenue and Arboretum-avenue, at which point the said imaginary line commenced."

And whereas drafts of the said scheme have, in accordance with the provisions of the firstly hereinbefore mentioned Act, been transmitted to the patron and to the Incumbent of the cure out of which it is intended that the district recommended in such scheme to be constituted shall be taken, and such patron and Incumbent have respectively signified their assent to such scheme:

And whereas the said scheme has been approved by His Majesty in Council: now, therefore, His Majesty, by and with the advice of His said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Acts; and His Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said diocese of Lincoln.

WHEREAS by the Coroners Act, 1844, it is (amongst other things) enacted that when and as often as it shall seem expedient to the Justices of any County that such County should be divided into two or more districts for the purposes of that Act, or that any alteration should be made of any division theretofore made under that Act, it shall be lawful for the said Justices in General or Quarter Session assembled to resolve that a petition shall be presented to His Majesty, praying that such division or alteration be made, and thereupon to adjourn the further consideration of such petition until notice thereof shall be given to the Coroner or Coroners of such County as hereinafter provided. And that the Clerk of the Peace shall give notice of any such resolution to every Coroner for such County, and of the time when the petition will be taken by the said Justices into consideration, and the Justices shall confer with every such Coroner who shall attend the meeting of the Justices for that purpose touching such petition, having due regard to the size and nature of each proposed district, the number of the inhabitants, the nature of their employment, and such other circumstances as shall appear to the Justices fit to be considered in carrying into execution the provisions of the said Act; and such petition, with a description of the several proposed districts and of the boundaries thereof, with the reasons upon which the petition is founded, shall be certified to His Majesty under the hands and seals of two or more of the Justices present when such petition shall be agreed to, and the Clerk of the Peace for such County shall forthwith give or send a true copy of such petition, certified under his hand to every Coroner for such County. And that it shall be lawful for His Majesty, if He shall think fit, with the advice of His Privy Council, after taking into consideration any such petition, and also any petition which may be presented to Him by any Coroner of the same County concerning such proposed division or alteration, or whenever it shall seem fit to His Majesty to direct the issue of a Writ de Coronatore Eligendo for the purpose of authorizing the election of an additional Coroner above the number of those who have been theretofore customarily elected in such County, to order that such County shall be divided into such and so many districts for the purposes of the said Act as to His Majesty, with the advice aforesaid, shall seem expedient, and to give a name to each of such districts, and every such Order shall be published in the London Gazette.

And whereas by the Local Government Act, 1888, the powers and business of the said Justices in respect of the matters aforesaid in each County were transferred to the Council of such County.

And whereas by an Order in Council made the twenty-sixth day of September, one thousand eight hundred and forty-six, under and in accordance with the said Coroners Act of 1844, the county of Devon was divided into six districts for the purposes of the said Act, respectively named the "Honiton District," "Crediton District," "Barnstaple District," "Okehampton District," "Stoke Damerel District," and "Totnes District," and such districts were respectively to comprise the several parishes and places, and have the boundaries named and set forth in the said Order.

And whereas previous to and at the date of the said Order, and thenceforward until the coming into operation of the Local Government Act 1888, the boroughs of Bideford and Dartmouth, in the said county respectively, were municipal boroughs within the meaning of the Municipal Corporations Act 1835, and the Municipal Corporations Act 1882, respectively, and a separate Court of Quarter Sessions was at the said times holden in and for each of the said boroughs.

And whereas previous to and at the date of the said Order, and since, the borough of South Molton, in the said county, was a municipal borough within the meaning of the said two last-mentioned Acts, and since the date of the said Order and before the passing of the Local Government Act 1888, Her late Majesty was pleased to and did grant that a separate Court of Quarter Sessions be holden in and for the said borough.

And whereas the said boroughs, each having a separate Court of Quarter Sessions as aforesaid, and each containing, according to the census of 1881, a population of less than 10,000, became, under and by virtue of the Local Government Act 1888, on the first day of April, one thousand eight hundred and eighty-nine, and since have been parts of the county of Devon for all purposes relating to Coroners and subject to the jurisdiction of the County Coroners.

And whereas by an Order in Council made the twenty-first day of March, one thousand eight hundred and ninety, it was ordered, directed, and declared, that Writs de Coronatore Eligendo for the election of three additional Coroners for the said county, should forthwith be directed to the Devon County Council, and that from the date of the said Order the county of Devon should be divided into nine districts for Coroners' purposes, which said nine districts should be named, as was in the Schedule to the said Order directed, and should respectively comprise the several parishes and places and have the boundaries prescribed and mentioned in the said Schedule.

And whereas by a further Order in Council made the twenty-third day of June, one thousand eight hundred and ninety-one, it was ordered, directed, and declared, that the district described in the said Order in Council of the twenty-first day of March, one thousand eight hundred and ninety, as the "Bideford District," should be annexed to and form part of, and be included in the district described in the said Order as the "Barnstaple District," that the said county of Devon should be divided into eight districts for Coroners' purposes and for the purposes of the said first-mentioned Act, and that the said eight districts should be named as in the Schedule to such Order directed, and should respectively comprise the several parishes and places, and have the boundaries prescribed and mentioned in that behalf in the Schedule thereto.

And whereas a petition dated the seventeenth day of December, one thousand nine hundred and three, was presented to His Majesty by the County Council of the county of Devon, praying that an alteration should be made in the division of the said county into Coroners' districts as provided by the aforesaid Order in Council of the twenty-third day of June, one thousand eight hundred and ninety-one, by including the South Molton Coroner's District in the Barnstaple Coroner's District.

And whereas the said petition, with a description of the said proposed district and of the boundaries thereof with the reasons upon which the said petition is founded, has been duly certified to His Majesty.

And whereas all the provisions in that behalf of the hereinbefore first recited Act have been duly complied with:

And whereas the Coroners for the said county have not presented any petition to His Majesty concerning the said proposed alteration.

And whereas His Majesty has, with the advice of His Privy Council, taken into consideration the said petition and is minded to make such alteration as aforesaid:

Now, therefore, His Majesty, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, is pleased to order, direct and declare, as it is hereby ordered, directed and declared:—

1. That from and after the date hereof alteration shall be made of the division heretofore made of the county of Devon for Coroners' purposes and for the purposes of the Coroners Act 1844, as follows, that is to say:—The district described in the Order in Council of the twenty-third day of June, one thousand eight hundred and ninety-one, as the "South Molton District" shall be annexed to, and form part of, and be included in the district described in the said Order as the "Barnstaple District."

2. That the said "Barnstaple District" shall comprise the several parishes and places mentioned and set forth in the Schedule hereto in lieu of the parishes and places mentioned and set forth in the Schedule to the said Order in Council of the twenty-third day of June, one thousand eight hundred and ninety-one.

3. That this Order shall be published in the London Gazette.

A. W. FitzRoy.

Privy Council Office, April 21, 1904.

The following Statute made by the Governing Body of Worcester College, Oxford, on the 4th day of March, 1904 (and sealed on 7th April, 1904), amending certain of the Statutes of the College, has been submitted for the approval of His Majesty in Council, and notice of its having been so submitted is published in accordance with the provisions contained in "The Universities of Oxford and Cambridge Act, 1877" :—
Ex parte the Provost and Fellows of Worcester College in the University of Oxford.

A STATUTE made to amend certain Statutes framed by the Commissioners appointed under the Universities of Oxford and Cambridge Act, 1877 (40 and 41 Vict., c. 48), in relation to Worcester College, in the University of Oxford, duly passed at a General Meeting of the Governing Body of the said College specially summoned for this purpose on the fourth day of March, one thousand nine hundred and four, by the votes of the whole number of persons present and voting and submitted to His Majesty the King in Council.

Whereas in Statute II, 7, of the said Statutes it is enacted (inter alia) as follows: "The Provost shall receive a fixed annual emolument of one thousand pounds free of income tax."

And whereas in Statute III, 1, it is enacted (inter alia) "There shall not be fewer than nine nor more than ten Fellows of the College," and "The Emoluments of a Fellowship shall be such a yearly sum not less than £150 nor more than £200 as the revenues of the College available for the time being will permit," and in Statute III, 6, "The Provost and Fellows may, if they think fit, before holding an election to any Fellowship under Clause 4 give notice of their intention to elect a person who will be required to take part for two years in the educational work of the College. A Fellow elected in pursuance of such notice shall during those years undertake such educational work as a Lecturer of the College as the Provost and Fellows may assign to him, provided that the aggregate number of persons holding Fellowships subject to this requirement and of persons holding Fellowships by election or re-election under Clauses 7 and 8, or either of them, shall not at any time exceed Six." And in Statute III, 9, "There shall not be at any one time in the College more than four Fellows elected or re-elected under the two last preceding clauses, or either of them, in respect of the Offices of Tutor, Lecturer, Bursar, or any of them, nor more than one Fellow elected or re-elected under the same Clauses, or either of them, in respect of the Office of Professor or Public Reader in the University." And in Statute III, 13 (inter alia), "A Fellow elected under this Clause shall not be reckoned in the number of four mentioned in Clause 9." And in Statute III, 17 (inter alia), "Every Fellow not elected under Clause 7 nor re-elected under Clause 8 who shall be institute 1 to an Ecclesiastical benefice, or shall become possessed of property, or entitled to any Government pension, or shall be admitted to any office tenable for life or during good behaviour (not being an academical office within the University of Oxford), or to any Office in the permanent Civil Service of the State, and who shall retain such benefice, property, pension, or office for twelve calendar months from the day of his institution, accession, or admission thereto, or acquisition thereof, shall, if the annual income derivable by him from such benefice, property, pension, or office, or from any two or more of the above-mentioned sources, clear of deductions, except for property or income tax, shall exceed £500, vacate his Fellowship at the expiration of such twelve calendar months, and for this purpose the income which the estimated value of any property would produce, if invested in £3 per centum Consolidated Annuities at the price current at the time of the acquisition thereof, shall, in case of doubt, be considered to be income derivable from such property."

And whereas in Statute IV, 1, it is enacted "There shall be in all eighteen Scholarships, namely: five of the foundation of Sir Thomas Cookes, four of that of Mrs. Sarah Eaton, five of that of Dr. George Clarke, one of that of Dr. Finney, and three established out of the revenues of the College. The number of Scholarships established by the College may, at any time hereafter, should the College think fit, and have revenue available for the purpose, be increased to five. Such Scholarships are exclusive of the Barnes Foundation, which (having been established within fifty years before the 10th day of August, 1877) shall continue to be governed by the terms of the original trust concerning the same." And in Statute IV, 3 (inter alia), "Every Scholarship shall be tenable for two years from the day of election, if the person elected be then a Member of the University, but if he be not already a member of the University then from a day not later than six months after his election to be fixed by the Provost and Fellows." And at the end of the same clause, "Provided also that, unless a Scholar declare his need of assistance at the University, he shall receive no more than £20 per annum and free rooms." And in Statute IV, 7, "The three Scholarships established by the College, or any of them, may (if the Provost and Fellows shall think fit, and according to regulations from time to time made), be filled up by selection from candidates at any public examination, conducted under the authority of the University, of persons not members of the University, or may be filled up by election after examination under the Clause next following."

And whereas in Statute V it is enacted "The Provost and Fellows shall have power to award ten Exhibitions each of £20 per annum and tenable for the same time and on the same conditions as the Scholarships. There shall always be six Exhibitioners, of whom three shall be named the Cookes Exhibitioners, one the Kay Exhibitioner, and two the Holford Exhibitioners. The Holford Exhibitions shall be awarded to persons duly qualified for election to Holford Exhibitions according to the instrument of Foundation, being otherwise qualified to be Exhibitioners of the College, if such persons shall present themselves, and in the awarding of the Cookes Exhibitions such persons educated wholly or in part at the Grammar School of King Edward the Sixth at Bromsgrove and not holding a Cookes Scholarship as may satisfy the Provost and Fellows that they are in need of assistance at the University shall, if otherwise qualified, be entitled to a preference. Subject to the foregoing provisions, the Exhibitions shall be awarded by the Provost and Fellows in such manner and on such conditions as they shall from time to time determine for the encouragement of study and learning in the College. In the awarding of the Kay Exhibition no person shall be entitled to preference by reason of his place of birth."

And whereas in Statute VI, 10, it is enacted (inter alia): "The Provost and Fellows shall, subject to the provisions of the Universities Tests Act, 1871, provide religious instruction for all members of the College in statu pupillari."

And whereas in Statute VII, 2, it is enacted (inter alia): "The Vice-Provost shall be one of the three Senior Resident Fellows, and shall exercise, in the absence of the Provost, all the powers and authorities of the Provost."

And whereas it appears to us the said Provost and Fellows of the said College that it is desirable that the said Statutes shall be altered and amended in manner hereinafter appearing.

Now we, the Provost and Fellows of the said College, in exercise of the powers vested in us under and by virtue of the 54th Section of the Universities of Oxford and Cambridge Act, 1877, do, by this present instrument under our Seal, alter and amend the Statutes of the said College as hereinbefore set out in manner following, that is to say:

In Statute II, 7, by substituting for the words "One thousand pounds" the words "Six hundred pounds, together with an amount equal to the emoluments of two Fellowships."

In Statute III, 1, by substituting for the word "nine" the word "six," and by omitting the words "less than £150 nor."

In Statute III, 6, by omitting the words "for two years" and also the words "during those years," and by inserting at the end of the same clause the words "Provided also that if any Fellow elected subject to this requirement shall decline or cease to take part in such educational work his Fellowship shall forthwith determine."

In Statute III, 9, by omitting the whole clause, and by substituting for it the words "There shall not be at any time in the College more than one Fellow elected or re-elected in respect of the Office of Professor or Public Reader in the University."

In Statute III, 13, by omitting at the end of the clause, the words, "A Fellow elected under this Clause shall not be reckoned in the number of four mentioned in Clause 9."

In Statute III, 17, by substituting for the words "Clause 7" the words "Clause 6 or 7" and by omitting the words "£3 per centum."

In Statute IV, 1, by omitting the whole clause, and by substituting for it the words, "There shall be not less than ten nor more than eighteen Scholarships chargeable on the revenues of the College, namely, not more than the following: five on the foundation of Sir Thomas Cookes, four on that of Mrs. Sarah Eaton, five on that of Dr. George Clarke, one on that of Dr. Finney, and three Scholarships to be called College Scholarships. Subject to this provision, the Provost and Fellows shall have power taking into account the financial resources of the College to regulate from time to time, at its discretion, the number of Scholarships on each foundation. Such Scholarships are exclusive of the Barnes Foundation, which (having been established within fifty years before the 10th day of August, 1877) shall continue to be governed by the terms of the original trust concerning the same."

In Statute IV, 3, by substituting for the words "six months" the words "twelve calendar months" in the first paragraph of the clause, and by omitting at the end of the clause the words "Provided also that, unless a Scholar declare his need of assistance at the University, he shall receive no more than £20 per annum and free rooms," and by substituting the words "Provided also that if it shall appear to the Provost and Fellows that a Candidate for a Scholarship is not in need of assistance at the University, they may, in electing such a Candidate, make such diminution of the emoluments of the Scholarship as they shall think fit."

In Statute IV, 7, by substituting for the words "Scholarships established by the College" the words "College Scholarships."

In Statute V, by omitting the whole of the Statute and by substituting the following: "V. Exhibitions. The Provost and Fellows shall have power to award from the revenues of the College five or more Exhibitions of such value as they may from time to time determine. Three of these Exhibitions shall be called the Cookes Exhibitions, and two shall be called the Holford Exhibitions. The Holford Exhibitions shall be awarded to persons duly qualified for election to Holford Exhibitions according to the instrument of foundation, being otherwise qualified to be Exhibitors of the College, if such persons shall present themselves, and in awarding the Cookes Exhibitions such persons educated wholly or in part at the Grammar School of King Edward VI at Bromsgrove, and not holding another Scholarship or Exhibition at the College, as may satisfy the Provost and Fellows that they are in need of assistance at the University, shall, if otherwise qualified, be entitled to a preference. Subject to the foregoing provisions, the Exhibitions shall be awarded by the Provost and Fellows on such conditions as they may from time to time determine for the encouragement of study and learning in the College. Any other Exhibitions established in the College by special gift or bequest, such as the Kay Exhibition and the Warner Exhibitions, shall be awarded in accordance with the conditions, if any, of such gift or bequest; provided that in the awarding of the Kay Exhibition no person shall be entitled to preference by reason of his place of birth."

In Statute VI, 10, by omitting the word "all."

In Statute VII, 2, by omitting the words "shall be one of the three Senior Resident Fellows and."

ORDER of the Local Government Board: Altering General Consolidated Order: Appointment of Nurses:—

BOLTON UNION.

To the Guardians of the Poor of the Bolton
Union;—

And to all others whom it may concern.

Whereas by a General Order dated the 24th day of July, 1847, addressed to the Guardians of the Poor of the Bolton Union (amongst others), the Poor Law Commissioners made certain Regulations for the government of the Workhouse of that Union;

And whereas by Article 153 of the said Order provision was made for the appointment by the said Guardians of persons to hold certain offices in the said Workhouse, including the office of Nurse, and by Articles 155 and 172 of such Order it was further directed that every such appointment should be reported to the Poor Law Commissioners, and that the Guardians should pay to the officers so appointed such salaries or remuneration as the said Commissioners might from time to time direct or approve;

And whereas it is expedient that further provision should be made with regard to the appointment of persons to hold the office of Nurse at the said Workhouse:

Now therefore, We, the Local Government Board in pursuance of the powers given to Us by the Statutes in that behalf, hereby Order and Direct that, notwithstanding anything contained in the above-cited Order, if the Guardians of the Poor of the said Union shall submit to Us for Our approval a Statement showing the total number of persons which the said Guardians consider it necessary to appoint to hold the office of Nurse at the said Workhouse, and the salaries or scale of salaries to be assigned to such Nurses, and We approve such Statement, it shall not be necessary for the said Guardians to report to Us each appointment under the said Order of a person to hold the office of Nurse in the said Workhouse, nor to obtain Our approval to the remuneration of any such person, so long as the number of persons so appointed and their salaries do not exceed the number of persons and the scale of salaries shown in the said Statement and approved by Us:

Provided as follows:—

(1.) This Order shall not apply to the appointment of any Superintendent Nurse appointed subject to the provisions of the Nursing in Workhouses Order, 1897.

(2.) A person who has not reached the age of twenty-one years shall not be employed in the capacity of Probationary Nurse.

Given under the Seal of Office of the Local Government Board, this sixteenth day of March, in the year one thousand nine hundred and four.
