And whereas paragraph 6 of the Principal Order provided that after the expiration of three years from the date of that Order the constitution of the Council should be such as might be determined by Order in Council.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by section six hundred and fifty-nine of "The Merchant Shipping Act, 1894" (which is a section in Part XI of that Act and which re-enacts similar provisions by the said Act repealed of the Merchant Shipping Act, 1854), it is (among other things) enacted that His Majesty may by Order in Council fix the establishments to be maintained by each of the General Lighthouse Authorities on account of the services of lighthouses, buoys, and beacons, or the annual or other sums to be paid out of the Mercantile Marine Fund in respect of these establishments, and that an increase of any establishment or part of an establishment so fixed shall not be made without the consent of the Board of Trade.

And whereas by section one of the Merchant Shipping (Mercantile Marine Fund) Act, 1898, it is (among other things) provided that references in Part XI of the Merchant Shipping Act, 1894, to the Mercantile Marine Fund shall be construed as references to the General Lighthouse Fund by the now reciting Act constituted.

And whereas Her late Majesty, by Orders in Council dated the twenty-eighth day of June, one thousand eight hundred and ninety-two, and the eighth day of March, one thousand eight hundred and ninety-five, was pleased to fix the establishment which might be maintained by the Commissioners of Irish Lights, and the amount of the salaries to be paid to the officers of the said establishment.

And whereas it is expedient that the establishment of the said Commissioners should be varied in manner hereinafter appearing.

And whereas it has been made to appear to His Majesty that the Board of Trade have consented to such variation of the establishment.

Now, therefore, His Majesty, by virtue of the power vested in Him by the Merchant Shipping Act, 1894, and of any other powers Him thereunto enabling, and by and with the advice of His Privy Council, is pleased to fix as follows, that is to say:—

The establishment of the Commissioners of Irish Lights shall, as from the first day of January, one thousand nine hundred and four, consist of the officers named in the schedule to this Order at the salaries of which the minimum, annual increase, and maximum are respectively mentioned in the same schedule, but the annual increase of such salaries shall (except in the case of the Secretary, the Engineers and the Inspector of Lights) be only granted on a certificate by the Commissioners of Irish Lights that the preceding period of the officer's service has been distinguished by zeal, industry, and regularity.

Provided that—

- (1) The salary of Mr. Owen Armstrong, the present Secretary, shall be eight hundred pounds per annum.
- (2) While Mr. G. N. McMurdo holds a clerkship on the said establishment, the class of clerks next above the Lower Grade Clerks in the schedule shall be three in number instead of two, and the number of Lower Grade Clerks shall be two instead of three.
- (3) Mr. E. A. Leggett, one of the present Lower Grade Clerks, shall be eligible for promotion to a clerkship in the class of clerks next above the Lower Grade Clerks in the schedule as from the first day of January, one thousand nine hundred and four. And His Majesty, by virtue and in further exercise of the powers so vested in Him as aforesaid, and by and with the advice aforesaid, is further pleased to fix, and doth hereby fix, that the salaries payable under the provisions of this Order shall be paid out of the General Lighthouse Fund,

WHEREAS by the Burial Act, 1857, it is, amongst other things, enacted, that in case it appears to His Majesty in Council, upon the petition of the Local Board of Health of any district established under the Public Health Act, or upon the petition of any Commissioners elected by the ratepayers, and acting under or by virtue of the powers of any Local Act of Parliament for the improvement of any town, parish, or borough, stating that the district of such Local Board of Health or of such Commissioners is co-extensive with a district for which it is proposed to provide a burial-ground, and that no Burial Board has been appointed for such district, and that an Order in Council has been made for closing all or any of the burial-grounds within the said district, it shall be lawful for His Majesty, with the advice of His Privy Council, in case His Majesty see fit so to do, to order that such Local Board shall be a Burial Board for the district of such Local Board, or that such Commissioners shall be a Burial Board for the district of such Commissioners, and thereupon such Local Board or such Commissioners, as the case may be, shall be a Burial Board for such district accordingly, and the powers and provisions of the Acts thereinbefore mentioned (except the provisions relating to the constitution or appointment and resignation of members of Burial Boards), and the provisions therein contained, shall extend to the district of such Board and to such Board, or to the district of such Commissioners and to such Commissioners, and to any burial-ground and places for the reception of the bodies of the dead previously to interment which may be provided by such Board or by such Commissioners, in like manner as to any parish or parishes, and the Burial Board thereof and any burial-ground and any such places as aforesaid provided by such last-mentioned Board; save that no approval, sanction, or authorization of any vestry shall be requisite; Provided always, that notice of such petition, and of the time when it shall please His Majesty to order the same to be taken into consideration by the Privy Council, shall be published in the London Gazette, and in one of the newspapers usually circulating in the district of such Local Board or of such Commissioners, one month at least before such petition is so considered:

And whereas by the Local Government Act, 1894, Urban Sanitary Authorities became Urban District Councils, and their Districts Urban Districts:

And whereas the Urban District Council of Beaconsfield presented a petition to His Majesty in Council, stating that the district of the said Council is co-extensive with the district for which it is proposed to provide a burial-ground, that no Burial Board has been appointed for such district, and that an Order in Council was made on the seventh day of October, one thousand eight hundred and ninety-nine, for closing, for burials, the Parish Church of Beaconsfield and the old part of the churchyard, and the Congregational Chapel and chapelyard at Beaconsfield, and praying that His Majesty would order that the said Urban District Council should be a Burial Board for the Urban District of such Council:

And whereas notice of such petition, and of the time when His Majesty was pleased to order the same to be taken into consideration by a Committee of the Lords of His Majesty's most Honourable Privy Council, has been duly published as required by the said first recited Act:

Now, therefore, His Majesty, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, is pleased to order, and it is hereby ordered, that the said Urban District Council for the Urban District of Beaconsfield shall be a Burial Board for such Urban District, in accordance with the provisions of the Burial Act, 1857.

A. W. FitzRoy.

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 20th day of March, 1905.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by the Burial Act, 1855, it was, amongst other things, enacted that it should be lawful for His Majesty, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, from time to time to postpone the time appointed by any Order in Council for the discontinuance of burials, or otherwise to vary any Order in Council made under any of the Acts recited in the said Act, or under the said Act (whether the time thereby appointed for the discontinuance of burials thereunder, or other operation of such Order, should or should not have arrived), as to His Majesty, with such advice as aforesaid, might seem fit:

And whereas an Order in Council was made on the nineteenth day of May, one thousand eight hundred and ninety-nine, directing the discontinuance of burials in the Parish Church and churchyard of Cosby, in the county of Leicester:

And whereas it seems fit to His Majesty, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, that the said Order be varied:

Now, therefore, His Majesty, by and with the advice aforesaid, is pleased to order, and it is hereby ordered, that the said Order of the nineteenth day of May, one thousand eight hundred and ninety-nine, be varied so that, notwithstanding anything therein, it shall be lawful to bury the body of William Armston, at his decease, in the Parish Churchyard of Cosby, in the county of Leicester, in a grave space in which no interment has heretofore taken place and which forms part of the space reserved and appropriated as a burial place for the Armston family, at or below the depth of five feet from the surface of the ground.

Privy Council Office, March 20, 1905.

The following Statute made by the Governing Body of Balliol College, Oxford, on the twenty-third day of November, one thousand nine hundred and four (and sealed on eighth day of March, one thousand nine hundred and five), has been submitted for the approval of His Majesty in Council, and notice of its having been so submitted is published in accordance with the provisions contained in "The Universities of Oxford and Cambridge Act, 1877":—

STATUTE to alter and amend the Statutes framed by the Commissioners appointed under "The Universities of Oxford and Cambridge Act, 1877" (40 and 41 Vict., c. 48), and approved by Her late Majesty in Council on the third day of May, one thousand eight hundred and eighty-two, in relation to Balliol College, in the University of Oxford.

In the matter of a Statute concerning "The Scholars and Exhibitioners" such amending Statute being duly made at a General Meeting of the Governing Body of the said College specially summoned for this purpose, held on the twenty-third day of November, one thousand nine hundred and four, and passed by the unanimous vote of those present:—

In Statute IV, Clause 9, the words "two years" where they last occur shall be struck out and the words "one year" shall be substituted, and after the words "two years" where they last occur the following words shall be inserted:—

"At the end of this period if the Master and Fellows shall by resolution have declared themselves satisfied with the industry and good conduct of the Scholar or Exhibitioner the tenure of his Scholarship or Exhibition shall be renewed for a further term of one year."

In Clause 12 of the same Statute the words "The Blundell Scholarships and the Newte" shall be struck out and the word "The" shall be substituted; in the same clause after the word "regulations" the words "contained in Clauses 9, 10, and 11 of this Statute and also to the regulations" shall be inserted; and in the same clause the words "and that Schedule shall have effect as part of these Statutes" shall be struck out.

After Clause 12 the following two new clauses shall be added:—

"The Blundell Scholarships and the Newte Exhibition shall be subject to the regulations contained in Schedule B of these Statutes.

"Schedule B shall have effect as part of these Statutes."

For Schedule B §§ 1 and 2 the following single clause shall be substituted:—

"1. Blundell Scholarships and Newte's Exhibition.

"(a) There shall be five Scholarships within the College, called Blundell Scholarships, to each of which shall be attached an annual stipend of not less than sixty pounds, and there shall be one exhibition called the Newte Exhibition to which shall be attached an annual stipend of forty-eight pounds ten shillings and six pence.

"(b) The Master and Fellows shall not be bound to fill up more than one Blundell Scholarship in any one year.

"(c) The elections to the Blundell Scholarships and to the Newte Exhibition shall be held at Mr. Peter Blundell's School at Tiverton in the county of Devon, on such day in each year between the fifteenth and thirty-first days of July, both inclusive, as the Master and Fellows appoint, after a competitive examination of the candidates in subjects connected with the studies of the School.

"(d) Notice of the day appointed for the election shall be given not less than thirty days previously by the Master of the College to the Head Master of the School.

"(e) The examination shall be conducted by three Examiners, one appointed by the Master and Fellows, another (not being a Master of the School) by the Governing Body of the School, and the third by the Master and Fellows of Sidney Sussex College in the University of Cambridge, or, in default of appointment by them, by the Master and Fellows of Balliol College.

"(f) The expenses of the Examiner or Examiners appointed by the Master and Fellows of Balliol College shall be defrayed out of the corporate revenues of the College.

"(g) No person shall be admitted as a candidate (1) for a Blundell Scholarship who has not been educated at the School for the three years immediately preceding the election or who has attained the age of nineteen years; (2) for a Newte Exhibition who has not been educated at the School for the two years immediately preceding the election; (3) for either a Scholarship or an Exhibition whom the said Governing Body do not deem to be a proper candidate, having regard to his moral character and pecuniary circumstances.

"(h) The Examiners shall elect that candidate who on the Examination appears to them to be of the greatest merit, and most fit to be a Scholar of the College.

"(i) The Blundell Scholarships, and the Exhibition of the foundation of John Newte, shall be tenable until the beginning of the term following the expiration of two years from the day of the election of each Scholar and Exhibitioner, and shall then determine, unless the Master and Fellows have by resolution, declared themselves satisfied with the industry and good conduct of the Scholar or Exhibitioner, in which case the tenure of the Scholarship or Exhibition shall be renewed for a further term of three years, to be reckoned from the expiration of two years from the day of his election.

"(k) Before declaring themselves satisfied with the industry and good conduct of any Scholar or Exhibitioner the Master and Fellows shall receive and consider a Report concerning him laid before them by the Tutors and Lecturers of the College at or immediately before the stated meeting.

"(l) Nothing herein contained shall prevent the exercise at any time, for any sufficient cause, of the powers of deprivation, and of inflicting fines, next hereinafter mentioned.

"(m) The holders of these Scholarships and Exhibitions shall be liable to deprivation, or fine by the loss of part of their emoluments, by the same authority, for the same causes and in the same manner, as the Scholars of the College."

In Schedule B, § 5 (Greaves Exhibition) the paragraph beginning with the words "The Exhibitions of the foundations of John Warner" down to the end of the clause shall be struck out.

In Schedule B, § 5 (General) all the words from the beginning down to the word "College" where it secondly occurs shall be struck out; and at the end of this clause the following words shall be added:—"Any provisions heretofore in this Schedule or in the principal Statutes to the contrary notwithstanding."

Privy Council Office, March 20, 1905.

The following Statute made by the Governing Body of University College, Oxford, on the eleventh day of March, one thousand nine hundred and five (and sealed on thirteenth day of March, one thousand nine hundred and five), has been submitted for the approval of His Majesty in Council, and notice of its having been so submitted is published in accordance with the provisions contained in "The Universities of Oxford and Cambridge Act, 1877":—

Ex parte the Master and Fellows of the Great Hall of the University commonly called University College in the University of Oxford.

A STATUTE to amend the Ordinance in relation to the Travelling Fellowships of the Foundation of Dr. John Radcliffe, framed by the Commissioners appointed under the Universities of Oxford and Cambridge Act, 1877 (40 and 41 Vic., c. 48), in relation to the College of the Great Hall of the University commonly called University College, in the University of Oxford, duly made at an Extraordinary General Meeting of the Master and Fellows, being the Governing Body of the said College, specially summoned for this purpose, held on the eleventh day of March, one thousand nine hundred and five, and passed at such meeting by the unanimous votes of those present and voting, and submitted for the approval of His Majesty in Council.

Whereas the Ordinance regulating the Radcliffe Travelling Fellowships forms an integral part of the Statutes of University College, and the power of amending it rests with the College, as in the case of the other Statutes, and whereas the College has been informed by the Board of the Faculty of Medicine of the University that the restriction of the Fellowships to candidates who have won certain specified honours in the University excludes from the benefit of Dr. Radcliffe's foundation many men whose work for the advance of medical science it is highly desirable to recognize and assist:

We, therefore, the Master and Fellows of University College in the University of Oxford, desiring to carry out the wishes of the Medical Board, hereby, in exercise of the power given us by the 54th section of the said Act, and by Statute XI of the Statutes of the said College:

In the first place alter and amend paragraph 3 of the Ordinance relating to Dr. Radcliffe's Travelling Fellows, by substituting for all the words following the words "Bachelor of Medicine and" the words "shall not have exceeded four years from the time of passing the last Examination required for the above-named Degree."

And in the second place, whereas the surplus of the fund arising from vacancies and other sources, and allocated by the Ordinance to the increase of the stipends of the Fellows after meeting the expenses of Examination, is insufficient to allow of any substantial addition to those stipends, and might, in the opinion of the College, be much more usefully employed for the advancement of medical science in other ways, such as the establishment of a yearly prize or prize essay, or the assistance and remuneration of definite pieces of research among the younger members of the profession.

We alter and amend Clause 10 of the same Ordinance by substituting for the words "shall be added to the emoluments of the 3 Fellowships" the words "shall be used for the furtherance of medical science in such ways as the College shall, after consultation with the Board of the Medical Faculty, from time to time appoint."

Given under our Common Seal this thirteenth day of March, one thousand nine hundred and five.
