At the Court at Saint James's, the 22nd day of April, 1910.

PRESENT,

HIS ROYAL HIGHNESS THE PRINCE OF WALES.

Lord President.
 Lord Steward.
 Sir Fleetwood Edwards.
 Colonel Seely.

WHEREAS His Majesty was pleased, by His Commission dated the fifth day of March, one thousand nine hundred and ten, to nominate and appoint His Royal Highness the Prince of Wales, in His Majesty's absence from His Realm in Foreign Parts, to hold on His Majesty's behalf, His Privy Council, and to signify thereat His approval of any matter or thing whereunto His Royal Highness should be authorized by writing under His Majesty's Sign Manual, and to do further on His Majesty's behalf any matter or thing for the purposes of the said Commission whereunto His Royal Highness should be authorized in manner aforesaid.

And whereas the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have in pursuance of the Act of the thirty-third and thirty-fourth years of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria, chapter thirty-nine, and of the Acts therein mentioned, that is to say, the Act of the third and fourth years of Her said late Majesty, chapter one hundred and thirteen, the Act of the fourth and fifth years of Her said late Majesty, chapter thirty-nine, and the Act of the thirty-first and thirty-second years of Her said late Majesty, chapter one hundred and fourteen, prepared and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council the following scheme for effecting a transfer of the ownership of the advowson or perpetual right of patronage of and presentation to the church and cure (hereinafter called 'the said benefice') of Saint Blazey, in the county of Cornwall and in the diocese of Truro.

hundred and fourteen, duly prepared and laid before His Majesty in Council a scheme bearing date the second day of December, in the year one thousand nine hundred and nine, in the words following, that is to say:—

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the thirty-third and thirty-fourth years of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria, chapter thirty-nine, and of the Acts therein mentioned, that is to say, the Act of the third and fourth years of Her said late Majesty, chapter one hundred and thirteen, the Act of the fourth and fifth years of Her said late Majesty, chapter thirty-nine, and the Act of the thirty-first and thirty-second years of Her said late Majesty, chapter one hundred and fourteen, have prepared and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council the following scheme for effecting a transfer of the ownership of the advowson or perpetual right of patronage of and presentation to the church and cure (hereinafter called 'the said benefice') of Saint Blazey, in the county of Cornwall and in the diocese of Truro.

"Whereas the advowson or perpetual right of patronage of and presentation to the said benefice of Saint Blazey is vested for an estate in fee simple in possession free from incumbrances in Arthur Spry Gwavas Carlyon, of Tregrehan, in the parish of Saint Blazey, in the said county of Cornwall, and of Gwavas, in the provincial district of Hawkes Bay, in Your Majesty's dominion of New Zealand, Esquire.

"And whereas the said Arthur Spry Gwavas Carlyon is desirous that the whole advowson or perpetual right of patronage of and presentation to the said benefice of Saint Blazey, now vested in him as aforesaid, should be transferred to and be vested in the Right Reverend Charles William, now Bishop of Truro, and his successors in the same bishoprick.

"And whereas the said Charles William, now Bishop of Truro, is willing to accept such transfer, and in token of such his willingness, and also in token that the same transfer has that consent of the Bishop of the diocese which by the Acts in the hereinbefore mentioned Act recited or by some or one of them is made necessary he, the said Charles William, Bishop of Truro, has executed this scheme as hereinafter mentioned.

"And whereas the transfer of the patronage of the said benefice of Saint Blazey, which is hereinbefore mentioned and hereinafter recommended and proposed, will render the same benefice more eligible for augmentation out of funds under our control, and this circumstance will, in our opinion, tend to make better provision for the cure of souls in the parish or district in or in respect of which the right of patronage or advowson so recommended and proposed to be transferred as aforesaid arises or exists, that is to say, in the said parish of Saint Blazey.

"Now, therefore, with the consent of the said Arthur Spry Gwavas Carlyon (in testimony whereof he has signed and sealed this scheme), and with the consent of the said Charles William, Bishop of Truro (in testimony whereof he has signed this scheme and sealed the same with his episcopal seal), we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, humbly recommend and propose that upon and from the day of the date of the publication in the London Gazette of any Order of Your Majesty in Council ratifying this scheme, and without any conveyance or assurance in the law other than such duly gazetted Order, the whole advowson or perpetual right of patronage of and presentation to the said benefice of Saint Blazey now vested in him, the said Arthur Spry Gwavas Carlyon as aforesaid, shall be transferred to the said Charles William, Bishop of Truro, and his successors in the same bishoprick, and shall thereupon and thenceforth become and be absolutely vested in and shall and may from time to time be exercised by the said Charles William, Bishop of Truro, and his successors in the same bishoprick for ever.

"And we further recommend and propose that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any further or other measures relating to the matters aforesaid, or any of them, in accordance with the provisions of the said Acts, or of any of them, or of any other Act of Parliament."

And whereas the said scheme has been approved at a Council held by His Royal Highness The Prince of Wales under the authority of the said Commission:

Now, therefore, His Royal Highness The Prince of Wales, being authorized thereto by writing under His Majesty's Sign Manual, doth hereby, by and with the advice of His Majesty's Privy Council, on behalf of His Majesty, ratify the said scheme, and order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Acts; and His Royal Highness doth further, on behalf of His Majesty, by and with the like advice, direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said diocese of Truro.

PRESENT,
HIS ROYAL HIGHNESS THE PRINCE OF WALES.

Lord President.
Lord Steward.
Sir Fleetwood Edwards.
Colonel Seely.

WHEREAS His Majesty was pleased, by His Commission dated the fifth day of March, one thousand nine hundred and ten, to nominate and appoint His Royal Highness the Prince of Wales, in His Majesty's absence from His Realm in Foreign Parts, to hold, on His Majesty's behalf, His Privy Council, and to signify thereat His approval of any matter or thing whereunto His Royal Highness should be authorised by writing under His Majesty's Sign Manual, and to do further on His Majesty's behalf any matter or thing for the purposes of the said Commission whereunto His Royal Highness should be authorized in manner aforesaid.

And whereas the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the thirty-third and thirty-fourth years of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria, chapter thirty-nine, and of the Acts therein mentioned, that is to say, the Act of the third and fourth years of Her said late Majesty, chapter one hundred and thirteen, the Act of the fourth and fifth years of Her said late Majesty, chapter thirty-nine, and the Act of the thirty-first and thirty-second years of Her said late Majesty, chapter one hundred and fourteen, duly prepared and laid before His Majesty in Council a scheme bearing date the twentieth day of January, in the year one thousand nine hundred and ten, in the words following, that is to say:—

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the thirty-third and thirty-fourth years of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria, chapter thirty-nine, and of the Acts therein mentioned, that is to say, the Act of the third and fourth years of Her said late Majesty, chapter one hundred and thirteen, the Act of the fourth and fifth years of Her said late Majesty, chapter thirty-nine, and the Act of the thirty-first and thirty-second years of Her said late Majesty, chapter one hundred and fourteen, have prepared and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council the following scheme for effecting a transfer of the ownership of the advowson or perpetual right of patronage of and presentation to the church and cure (hereinafter called 'the said benefice') of Saint Bride's Minor, in the county of Glamorgan and in the diocese of Llandaff.

"Whereas the advowson or perpetual right of patronage of and presentation to the said benefice of Saint Bride's Minor is settled to certain uses under which the Right Honourable Windham Thomas, Earl of Dunraven and Mountearl, a Knight of the Most Illustrious Order of Saint Patrick, and a Member of Your Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council in Ireland (hereinafter called the said Earl of Dunraven) is tenant for life in possession, and the said Earl of Dunraven is therefore the patron or person entitled to present or nominate to the said benefice in case the same were now vacant.

"And whereas the said Earl of Dunraven is desirous that the whole advowson or perpetual right of patronage of and presentation to the said benefice of Saint Bride's Minor should be transferred to and be vested in the Right Reverend Joshua Pritchard, now Bishop of Llandaff, and his successors in the same Bishoprick.

‘And whereas the said Joshua Pritchard, Bishop of Llandaff, is willing to accept such transfer, and in token of such his willingness, and also in token that the same transfer has that consent of the Bishop of the diocese which by the Acts in the hereinbefore mentioned Act recited or by some or one of them is made necessary, he the said Joshua Pritchard, Bishop of Llandaff, has executed this scheme as herein-after mentioned.

“And whereas the transfer of the patronage of the said benefice of Saint Bride’s Minor, which is hereinbefore mentioned and hereinafter recommended and proposed, will render the same benefice more eligible for augmentation out of funds under our control and this circumstance will in our opinion tend to make better provision for the cure of souls in the parish or district in or in respect of which the right of patronage or advowson so recommended and proposed to be transferred as aforesaid arises or exists, that is to say, in the parish of Saint Bride’s Minor.

“Now therefore with the consent of the said Earl of Dunraven, being the person whose consent as patron is required by the provisions of the hereinbefore mentioned Acts, and of the Act of the first and second years of Her said late Majesty, chapter one hundred and six (in testimony of which consent he has signed and sealed this scheme) and with the consent of the said Joshua Pritchard, Bishop of Llandaff (in testimony whereof he has signed this scheme and sealed the same with his episcopal seal), we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, humbly recommend and propose that upon and from the day of the date of the publication in the London Gazette of any Order of Your Majesty in Council ratifying this scheme and without any conveyance or assurance in the law other than such duly gazetted Order the whole advowson or perpetual right of patronage of and presentation to the said benefice of Saint Bride’s Minor, shall be transferred to the said Joshua Pritchard, Bishop of Llandaff, and his successors in the same Bishoprick, and shall thereupon and thenceforth become and be absolutely vested in and shall and may from time to time be exercised by the said Joshua Pritchard, Bishop of Llandaff, and his successors in the same Bishoprick for ever.

“And we further recommend and propose that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any further or other measures relating to the matters aforesaid or any of them in accordance with the provisions of the said Acts or of any of them or of any other Act of Parliament.”

And whereas the said scheme has been approved at a Council held by His Royal Highness the Prince of Wales, under the authority of the said Commission :

Now, therefore, His Royal Highness the Prince of Wales, being authorized thereto by writing under His Majesty’s Sign Manual, doth hereby by and with the advice of His Majesty’s Privy Council, on behalf of His Majesty, ratify the said scheme, and order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Acts: and His Royal Highness doth further, on behalf of His Majesty, by and with the like advice, direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said diocese of Llandaff.

PRESENT,

HIS ROYAL HIGHNESS THE PRINCE OF WALES.

Lord President.

Lord Steward.

Sir Fleetwood Edwards.

Colonel Seely.

WHEREAS His Majesty was pleased, by His Commission dated the fifth day of March, one thousand nine hundred and ten, to nominate and appoint His Royal Highness The Prince of Wales, in His Majesty’s absence from His Realm in Foreign Parts, to hold on His Majesty’s behalf, His Privy Council, and to signify thereat His approval of any matter or thing whereunto His Royal Highness should be authorized by writing’ under His Majesty’s Sign Manual, and to do further on His Majesty’s behalf any matter or thing for the purposes of the said Commission whereunto His Royal Highness should be authorized in manner aforesaid.

And whereas there was this day read at a Council held by His Royal Highness under the authority of the said Commission a Memorial from the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty, dated the twenty-fourth day of March, one thousand nine hundred and ten, in the words following, viz. :—

“Whereas by Section 3 of the Naval and Marine Pay and Pensions Act, 1865, it is enacted, inter alia that all pay, pensions, or other allowances in the nature thereof payable in respect of services in Your Majesty’s Naval or Marine Force to a person being or having been an Officer, seaman or marine therein shall be paid in such manner and subject to such restrictions, conditions and provisions as are from time to time directed by Order in Council :

“And whereas by Your Majesty’s Order in Council bearing date the eighteenth October, one thousand nine hundred and nine, we are empowered to offer temporarily to Captains, Commanders and Lieutenants exceptional terms of retirement, with the reservation that such terms are not to be applicable to Officers retired for misconduct, nor to Officers retired for non-service after being placed on half-pay by Order of the Admiralty :

“And whereas we consider it desirable that the benefits of the scale of retired pay sanctioned by the above-mentioned Order in Council shall be restricted to Officers who, in our opinion, are worthy to receive them :

“We beg leave humbly to recommend that Your Majesty may be graciously pleased by Your Order in Council to authorize us at our discretion to grant retired pay at the rates laid down in the Order in Council of the twenty-second February, one thousand eight hundred and seventy, as amended by the Order in Council of the eighth December, one thousand nine hundred and three, in the cases of Officers who, in our opinion, are unworthy to receive the benefits of the new scale :

“The Lords Commissioners of Your Majesty’s Treasury have signified their concurrence in this proposal.”

Now, therefore, His Royal Highness the Prince of Wales, being authorized thereto by writing under His Majesty’s Sign Manual, having taken the said Memorial into consideration, was pleased, by and with the advice of His Majesty’s Privy Council, on behalf of His Majesty, to approve of what is therein proposed, and the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty are to give the necessary directions herein accordingly.

PRESENT,

HIS ROYAL HIGHNESS THE PRINCE OF WALES.

WHEREAS His Majesty was pleased, by His Commission dated the fifth day of March, one thousand nine hundred and ten, to nominate and appoint His Royal Highness The Prince of Wales, in His Majesty's absence from His Realm in Foreign Parts, to hold on His Majesty's behalf, His Privy Council, and to signify thereat His approval of any matter or thing whereunto His Royal Highness should be authorized by writing under His Majesty's Sign Manual, and to do further on His Majesty's behalf any matter or thing for the purposes of the said Commission whereunto His Royal Highness should be authorized in manner aforesaid:

And whereas there was this day read at a Council held by His Royal Highness under the authority of the said Commission a Memorial from the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty, dated the second day of April, one thousand nine hundred and ten, in the words following, viz. :—

"Whereas by section three of the Naval and Marine Pay and Pensions Act, 1865, it is enacted, inter alia; that all pay, pensions, and other allowances in the nature thereof, payable in respect of services in Your Majesty's Naval or Marine Force to a person being or having been an Officer, seaman, or marine therein, shall be paid in such manner and subject to such restrictions, conditions, and provisions, as are from time to time directed by Order in Council:

"And whereas by Order in Council of Her late Majesty bearing date the fifth day of February, one thousand eight hundred and seventy-two, Sub-Lieutenants of three years' seniority who are placed upon the Retired List on account of physical unfitness may be granted retired pay at the rate of three shillings and sixpence per diem, an additional sixpence being given for each complete year beyond three served as a Sub-Lieutenant until the maximum is reached, i.e. six shillings per diem:

"And whereas we consider it desirable that Sub-Lieutenants of less than three years seniority who are placed upon the Retired List for physical unfitness should be eligible for the grant of retired pay:

"We beg leave humbly to recommend that Your Majesty may be graciously pleased by Your Order in Council to authorize us to grant retired pay at the rate of two shillings and sixpence per diem to Sub-Lieutenants of less than three years' seniority who are placed on the Retired List on account of permanent sickness or disability contracted in the Service.

"We would further recommend that this provision should take effect as from the second day of June, one thousand nine hundred and nine:

"The Lords Commissioners of Your Majesty's Treasury have signified their concurrence in these proposals."

Now therefore, His Royal Highness the Prince of Wales, being authorized thereto by writing under His Majesty's Sign Manual, hath taken the said Memorial into consideration, and doth hereby, by and with the advice of His Majesty's Privy Council, signify His Majesty's approval of what is therein proposed, and doth, on behalf of His Majesty, order, as it is hereby ordered, that the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty do give the necessary directions herein accordingly.

PRESENT,

HIS ROYAL HIGHNESS THE PRINCE OF WALES.

Lord President.
Lord Steward.
Sir Fleetwood Edwards.
Colonel Seely.

WHEREAS His Majesty was pleased, by His Commission dated the fifth day of March, one thousand nine hundred and ten, to nominate and appoint His Royal Highness The Prince of Wales, in His Majesty's absence from His Realm in Foreign Parts, to hold on His Majesty's behalf, His Privy Council, and to signify thereat His approval of any matter or thing whereunto His Royal Highness should be authorized by writing under His Majesty's Sign Manual, and to do further on His Majesty's behalf any matter or thing for the purposes of the said Commission whereunto His Royal Highness should be authorized in manner aforesaid:

And whereas by section 1 of the Burial Act, 1855, it is provided that it shall be lawful for His Majesty, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, from time to time to postpone the time appointed by any Order in Council for the discontinuance of burials, or otherwise to vary any Order in Council made under any of the Acts recited in the said Act, or under the said Act (whether the time thereby appointed for the discontinuance of burials thereunder, or other operation of such Order, shall or shall not have arrived), as to His Majesty, with such advice as aforesaid, may seem fit:

And whereas an Order in Council was made on the twenty-first day of August, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-six, directing the discontinuance of burials in, among other places, the Vicarage Croft, Wakefield, in the county of York, from and after the first day of May, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-seven.

And whereas Orders in Council were made on the twentieth day of March, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-seven, the fourth day of November, one thousand eight hundred and fifty seven, the second day of September, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-eight, and the twelfth day of April, one thousand eight hundred and fifty-nine, postponing the time for the discontinuance of burials in the said Vicarage Croft, Wakefield:

And whereas it is expedient that the said Orders in Council so far as they affect the said

At the Court at Saint James's, the 22nd day of April, 1910.

PRESENT,

HIS ROYAL HIGHNESS THE PRINCE OF WALES.

Lord President.
Lord Steward.

Colonel Seely.

WHEREAS His Majesty was pleased, by His Commission dated the fifth day of March, one thousand nine hundred and ten, to nominate and appoint His Royal Highness the Prince of Wales, in His Majesty's absence from His Realm in Foreign Parts, to hold, on His Majesty's behalf, His Privy Council, and to signify thereat His approval of any matter or thing whereunto His Royal Highness should be authorized by writing under His Majesty's Sign Manual, and to do further on His Majesty's behalf any matter or thing for the purposes of the said Commission whereunto His Royal Highness should be authorized in manner aforesaid.

And whereas by section 1 of the Burial Act, 1855, it is provided that it shall be lawful for His Majesty, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, from time to time to postpone the time appointed by any Order in Council for the discontinuance of burials, or otherwise to vary any Order in Council made under any of the Acts recited in the said Act, or under the said Act (whether the time thereby appointed for the discontinuance of burials thereunder, or other operation of such Order, shall or shall not have arrived), as to His Majesty, with such advice as aforesaid, may seem fit:

And whereas His Majesty was pleased by His Order in Council, dated the tenth day of August, one thousand nine hundred and nine, to direct the discontinuance of burials, with certain exceptions, in the parish churchyard of Saint Oswald, Askrigg, in the county of York, as from the time appointed by the said Order in Council:

And whereas His Majesty was pleased by and with the advice of His Privy Council, from time to time to postpone the time appointed by the said Order in Council for the discontinuance of burials in the said churchyard:

And whereas it seems fit to His Majesty, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, that the time appointed by the said Order in Council for the discontinuance of burials in the said churchyard should be further postponed:

Now, therefore, His Royal Highness The Prince of Wales, being authorized thereto by writing under His Majesty's Sign Manual, doth by and with the advice of His Majesty's Privy Council, on behalf of His Majesty, order, as it is hereby ordered, that the time appointed for the discontinuance of burials in the parish churchyard of Saint Oswald, Askrigg, in the county of York, be postponed to the thirtieth day of April, one thousand nine hundred and ten.

Almeric FitzRoy.

At the Court at Saint James's, the 22nd day of April, 1910.

PRESENT,

HIS ROYAL HIGHNESS THE PRINCE OF WALES.

Lord President.
Lord Steward.
Sir Fleetwood Edwards.
Colonel Seely.

WHEREAS His Majesty was pleased, by His Commission, dated the fifth day of March, one thousand nine hundred and ten, to nominate and appoint His Royal Highness the Prince of Wales, in His Majesty's absence from His Realm in Foreign Parts, to hold on His Majesty's behalf His Privy Council, and to signify thereat His approval of any matter or thing whereunto His Royal Highness should be authorized by writing under His Majesty's Sign Manual, and to do further on His Majesty's behalf any matter or thing for the purposes of the said Commission whereunto His Royal Highness should be authorized in manner aforesaid:

And whereas by the Burial Act, 1853, as amended by the Burial Act, 1900, it is provided that, in case it appears to His Majesty in Council, upon the representation of the Local Government Board, that, for the protection of the public health, the opening of any new burial-ground in any city or town, or within any other limits, save with the previous approval of the Local Government Board, should be prohibited, or that burials in any city or town, or within any other limits, or in any burial-grounds or places of burial, should be wholly discontinued, or should be discontinued subject to any exception or qualification, it shall be lawful for His Majesty, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, to order that no new burial-ground shall be opened in any city or town, or within such limits, without such previous approval, or (as the case may require) that, after a time mentioned in the Order, burials in such city or town, or within such limits, or in such burial-grounds or places of burial, shall be discontinued wholly, or subject to any exceptions or qualifications mentioned in such Order, and so from time to time as circumstances may require; Provided always that notice of such representation, and of the time when it shall please His Majesty to order the same to be taken into consideration by the Privy Council, shall be published in the London Gazette, and shall be affixed on the doors of the churches or chapels of, or on some other

And whereas the Local Government Board, after giving to the Incumbent and the Churchwardens of the parish of Erbistock, in the county of Denbigh, of the parish of Whickham, in the county of Durham; and of the parish of Stoke Bishop in the city of Bristol, ten days' previous notice of their intention in that behalf have made representations to His Majesty in Council, stating that, for the protection of the public health, the opening of any new burial-ground in the civil parishes of Erbistock and Whickham, and in the city of Bristol, save with the previous approval of the Local Government Board, should be prohibited, and that burials should be discontinued in the said parishes as hereinafter directed.

And whereas His Majesty was pleased, by His Order in Council of the nineteenth day of February last, to give notice of such representations, and to order that the same should be taken into consideration by a Committee of the Lords of His Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council, on the thirty-first day of March, one thousand nine hundred and ten, and to direct the said Order in Council to be forthwith published in the London Gazette, and copies thereof to be affixed on the doors of the churches or chapels of, or on some other conspicuous places within the parishes affected by such representations one month before the said thirty-first day of March, one thousand nine hundred and ten.

And whereas the said Order in Council of the nineteenth day of February, one thousand nine hundred and ten, has been published in the London Gazette and copies thereof have been affixed in the manner directed by the said Order:

Now therefore, His Royal Highness the Prince of Wales, being authorized thereto by writing under His Majesty's Sign Manual, doth, by and with the advice of His Majesty's Privy Council, on behalf of His Majesty, order, as it is hereby ordered, that the opening of any new burial-ground in the said civil parishes of Erbistock and Whickham, and in the said city of Bristol, save with the previous approval of the Local Government Board, be and the same is hereby prohibited and that burials in the said parishes be discontinued as follows, viz.:
