Almeric FitzRoy.

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 4th day of March, 1911.

PRESENT,

The KING'S Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the thirty-third and thirty-fourth years of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria, chapter thirty-nine, and of the Acts therein mentioned, that is to say, the Act of the third and fourth years of Her said late Majesty, chapter one hundred and thirteen, the Act of the fourth and fifth years of Her said late Majesty, chapter thirty-nine, and the Act of the thirty-first and thirty-second years of Her said late Majesty, chapter one hundred and fourteen, duly prepared and laid before His Majesty in Council a scheme, bearing date the nineteenth day of January, in the year one thousand nine hundred and eleven, in the words and figures following, that is to say:—

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the thirty-third and thirty-fourth years of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria, chapter thirty-nine, and of the Acts therein mentioned, that is to say, the Act of the third and fourth years of Her said late Majesty, chapter one hundred and thirteen, the Act of the fourth and fifth years of Her said late Majesty, chapter thirty-nine, and the Act of the thirty-first and thirty-second years of Her said late Majesty, chapter one hundred and fourteen, have prepared and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council the following scheme for effecting a transfer of the ownership of the advowson or perpetual right of patronage of and presentation to the church and cure (hereinafter called 'the said benefice') of Abbotsbury, in the county of Dorset and in the diocese of Salisbury.

"Whereas by the last will and testament of the Right Honourable Henry Edward, Fifth Earl of Ilchester, who died on the sixth day of December, one thousand nine hundred and five, the advowson or perpetual right of patronage of and presentation to the said benefice of Abbotsbury was devised to certain trustees to the use (in the first place) of the Right Honourable Giles Stephen Holland, Earl of Ilchester (hereinafter called 'the said Lord Ilchester'), during his life, and the said Lord Ilchester is therefore the patron or person entitled to present or nominate to the said benefice in case the same were now vacant.

"And whereas the said Lord Ilchester is desirous that the whole advowson or perpetual right of patronage of and presentation to the said benefice of Abbotsbury should be transferred in the manner which is hereinafter recommended and proposed:

"And whereas the Right Reverend John, now Bishop of Salisbury, is consenting to the said transfer and in token that the same transfer has that consent of the Bishop of the diocese which by the Acts in the hereinbefore-mentioned Act recited or by some or one of them is made necessary, he, the said John, Bishop of Salisbury, has executed this scheme as hereinafter mentioned.

"And whereas the transfer of the patronage of the said benefice of Abbotsbury, which is
