FRIDAY, 21 MARCH, 1913.

Whitehall, March 17, 1913.

The following Addresses were presented to the KING on Saturday, the 15th March, on the occasion of Their Majesties' visit to Chingford to inaugurate the New Reservoir of the Metropolitan Water Board:—

Upon Their Majesties' arrival at the West Ham Town Hall the following Addresses were presented:—

COUNTY BOROUGH OF WEST HAM.

To His Most Excellent Majesty King George V.

May it graciously please your Majesty,

We, Your Majesty's most dutiful and faithful subjects, the Mayor, Aldermen and Burgesses of the County Borough of West Ham, not only on our own account but also on behalf of all other the inhabitants of the Borough, beg to tender to Your Majesty a most loyal, hearty and warm welcome to the County Borough on the occasion of Your Majesty's visit to Chingford for the purpose of inaugurating the new Reservoir constructed there on behalf of the Metropolitan Water Board.

It is with a sense of deep gratification that we avail ourselves of the opportunity thus afforded of approaching Your Majesty with the expression of our loyal and sincere attachment both to Your Majesty's throne and person.

It is a source of especial pleasure to us on this auspicious occasion when Your Majesty is to inaugurate an undertaking from which great and lasting benefits are expected to be derived more especially by Your Majesty's subjects living in the East of the Metropolis and the Eastern Districts of Greater London in whose welfare Your Majesty has always evinced so deep and continual an interest, that Your Majesty is accompanied by Her Most Gracious Majesty The Queen, whose great interest in all that affects the poorer classes of Your Majesty's subjects is so well known and to whom we venture to offer a most loyal, enthusiastic and sincere welcome.

We pray that to Your Majesties may be granted many years of health and happiness, and that Your Majesty may enjoy the blessings of peace and long reign over a prosperous and devoted people.

To which Address His Majesty was pleased to return the following gracious Answer:—

I thank you most heartily on behalf of the Queen and Myself for your loyal and dutiful Address. We are much gratified at the warmth of the welcome which the great Borough of West Ham has extended to Us.

No ceremony affords Me greater pleasure than to inaugurate an undertaking such as the new Reservoir which We are to open to-day—a work which cannot fail to prove beneficial in the highest degree to the health and welfare of the dense population of My Metropolis.

I rejoice that the people of West Ham will share in the benefit derived from this work, and you may rest assured that I shall always have at heart the well-being and prosperity of this great industrial centre which has risen so swiftly to a place among the largest Boroughs of My Dominions.

WEST HAM BOARD OF GUARDIANS.

To Their Most Gracious Majesties
King George V. and Queen Mary.

The Humble, Loyal and Dutiful Address of the Guardians of the Poor of the West Ham Union, in the County Borough of West Ham and the County of Essex.

Most Gracious Sovereigns,

We, the Board of Guardians of the West Ham Union, most humbly and respectfully beg to lay before Your Majesties an expression of our loyal and dutiful attachment, and to tender our sincere appreciation of Your illustrious presence here to-day, and our grateful thanks for the happiness and privilege afforded to us of welcoming You.

We recall with pleasure the many proofs which Your Majesties have given of Your active sympathy with and deep interest in the Poor and the Sick, with whose care and welfare we are more especially identified. We humbly venture to remind Your Majesties that day by day over 17,000 of these less fortunate of Your subjects are being directly assisted by us from public funds, and Your repeated acts of beneficence and of kindness in alleviating distress, encourage and stimulate us in our difficult and at times depressing work of administering the laws for the relief of the poor in this exceedingly needy and densely-populated Union area.

We take this opportunity of assuring Your Majesties that Your gracious visit will ever remain a pleasant memory in the minds of the people, and we earnestly pray that Your Majesties may long be spared to rule over Your loyal and devoted subjects.

To which Address His Majesty was pleased to return the following gracious Answer:—

The Queen and I have much pleasure in receiving your loyal and dutiful Address, and We thank you heartily for the warmth of your welcome and the sincerity of your good wishes.

Your exacting and responsible duties as Guardians of the Poor are increased in a large Union like that of West Ham inhabited by a great industrial population among whom the fluctuations of fortune are keenly felt. The honourable task of ministering to the poor and the sick demands wisdom, sympathy and courage in a high degree. We are confident that you will continue to carry out your obligations with a strong sense of public duty, and We earnestly hope that your endeavours may help to relieve distress and improve the lot of those who have fallen on evil days.

METROPOLITAN BOROUGH OF STEPNEY.

To Their Most Excellent Majesties
King George and Queen Mary.

The Loyal and Dutiful Address of the Mayor, Aldermen and Councillors of the Metropolitan Borough of Stepney.

May it please Your Majesties,

On behalf of the inhabitants of the above-named Borough, consisting of nearly 300,000 persons, and also on our own behalf, we desire to express to You our sincere gratitude for this opportunity, so graciously afforded us, of conveying to You an expression of the loyalty and devotion which we, and those we represent, entertain to Your Thrones and Persons.

The Borough with which we are privileged to be associated contains within its area, in addition to the Royal Mint, that great monument of English History and former Royal Palace, the Tower of London. In addition, it has within its confines the London Hospital, which reminds us of Your practical sympathy and co-operation in the work of that and similar philanthropic institutions established for the alleviation of sickness and distress.

Since our incorporation, Your Majesties have honoured the Borough of Stepney with Your presence on several occasions. Particularly, we pray leave to refer to Your visit to us in the month of June, 1902, when approximately 45,000 persons in humble circumstances participated, as guests of Your Royal and illustrious Father, in celebration of the Coronation of Himself and Queen Alexandra.

We recognise, in the inauguration by You of the new Chingford Reservoir of the Metropolitan Water Board, a further illustration of the great interest You so consistently take in all objects designed to meet the necessities, and which conduce to the well-being of those whose lot is cast in and around this vast capital of Your Dominions.

In conclusion, we earnestly pray that Your Majesties may long be spared to continue Your unceasing efforts in aid of the beneficent projects so dear to Your hearts and which have drawn to You the sincere affection and gratitude of Your loyal and dutiful subjects throughout Your vast Dominions.

To which Address His Majesty was pleased to return the following gracious Answer:—

I thank you most heartily on behalf of the Queen and Myself for your loyal and dutiful Address.

We remember with pleasure Our previous visits to the Borough of Stepney to which you so kindly refer, and shall always follow with sympathy the fortunes of your Borough, which contains within its boundaries the ancient fortress and palace of My Ancestors.

The welfare of all the great Cities and Boroughs which compose the Metropolis will always be a matter of deep interest to Me, and I trust that the new Reservoir which We are to inaugurate to-day will contribute in no small measure to the health and well-being of the inhabitants of Stepney and of the neighbouring areas.

METROPOLITAN BOROUGH OF HACKNEY.

To the King's Most Excellent Majesty.

May it please Your Majesty,

We, the Mayor, Aldermen and Councillors of the Metropolitan Borough of Hackney, on behalf of the inhabitants, humbly and loyally offer to Your Majesties our dutiful and glad welcome, on this most important occasion of Your Majesty's inauguration of the Chingford Reservoir.

The inhabitants of this loyal Borough remember with gratitude the many occasions on which Your Royal House have honoured Hackney by Their presence; and especially Your Majesties' visit to open the Central Public Library on the 28th May, 1908.

That Your Majesties may long be spared to perpetuate the kindly deeds which have so endeared You to the Nation, and that You may be blessed with long and happy years to reign over us, is the earnest prayer of Your Majesty's loyal subjects.

To which Address His Majesty was pleased to return the following gracious Answer:—

The Queen and I are glad to accept your loyal Address, and We thank you sincerely for your good wishes.

I remember very well Our visit to Hackney in 1908 to open the Central Public Library and the warm welcome which We then received. It gives Us much pleasure to renew Our associations with your Borough, and We shall always continue to feel close interest in your welfare and progress.

The following Addresses were presented upon Their Majesties' arrival at Leytonstone:—

LEYTON URBAN DISTRICT COUNCIL.

To Their Most Gracious Majesties
The King and Queen.

May it please Your Majesties,

We, the Chairman, Vice-Chairman and Members of the Urban District Council of Leyton, in the County of Essex, desire to avail ourselves of the opportunity of expressing our grateful remembrance of the interest shown by Your Majesties in the development of the District of Leyton (now having a population of 128,000) by Your visit in 1896 to open the Town Hall and Technical Institute then recently erected, and our appreciation of the continued interest in the welfare of Your subjects in the Metropolitan and Greater London area shown by Your Majesties' visit to-day to inaugurate the opening of one of the most important undertakings of the Metropolitan Water Board, which it is hoped and believed will be so conducive to the public health and good of Your people.

We are assured that the inhabitants of the District are very highly gratified in having the opportunity afforded by Your Majesties' progress through the District of showing their loyal attachment to the Throne, and on their behalf we humbly beg to express their earnest hope that Your Majesties may long be spared to reign in peace over the British Empire.

To which Address His Majesty was pleased to return the following gracious Answer:—

I thank you on behalf of the Queen and Myself for your loyal and dutiful Address.

I remember with pleasure My former visit to Leyton in 1896, on the occasion of the opening of your Town Hall; and I observe with interest the great growth and development of the Urban District since that date.

I confidently hope that the inhabitants of Leyton will share to the full the benefits which are to be expected from the completion of the great work which We are inaugurating to-day; and you may be assured of Our sincere good wishes for the future welfare of the Urban District.

URBAN DISTRICT COUNCILS OF BUCKHURST HILL, CHINGFORD, LOUGHTON, WALTHAM HOLY CROSS, WANSTEAD, AND WOODFORD.

To Their Most Gracious Majesties
King George V. and Queen Mary.

May it please Your Majesties,

We, the Urban District Councils of Buckhurst Hill, Chingford, Loughton, Waltham Holy Cross, Wanstead, and Woodford, in the County of Essex, on behalf of the inhabitants of our several Districts, desire respectfully to offer a most loyal and hearty welcome on the occasion of the visit of Your Majesties for the purpose of inaugurating the new Chingford Reservoir of the Metropolitan Water Board.

We gratefully acknowledge the warm and sympathetic interest which Your Majesty, like Your illustrious Father, has always shown in the important and ever-extending work of local government in which it is our privilege to share; and as constituent authorities of the Metropolitan Water Board, we are proud that Your Majesties have honoured with Your presence the inauguration of a work the magnitude of which is commensurate with its value to the great Metropolis of Your Majesty's Empire.

We humbly tender to Your Majesties the confident assurance of the loyal devotion of all classes of Your Majesty's subjects in the Districts which we have the honour to represent, and we sincerely pray that for many years a peaceful and united Empire may continue to flourish under Your Majesty's gracious rule.

To which Address His Majesty was pleased to return the following gracious Answer:—

The Queen and I are glad to receive your loyal Address on behalf of the inhabitants of the six Urban Districts which you represent, and We thank you sincerely for your welcome and good wishes.

Sharing in the beneficent work of the Metropolitan Water Board, you may be proud to see the completion of the great Reservoir which We have come to-day to inaugurate, and We hope that as part of an unrivalled water system it may prove a source of health and well-being to the citizens of London no less than your beautiful Forest of Epping, dedicated to the nation by Queen Victoria in 1882, which has provided them with the benefits of country air and opportunities for recreation.

I pray that success may constantly attend your efforts in the difficult and important work of local government with which you are entrusted.

Upon Their Majesties' arrival at the Reservoir the following Addresses were presented:—

THE LEE CONSERVANCY BOARD.

To Their Most Excellent Majesties
The King and Queen.

May it please Your Majesties,

We, the Chairman, Vice-Chairman and Members of the Board of Conservators for the River Lee, desire to express to Your Majesties our great appreciation of the opportunity afforded us of presenting an Address of loyalty and devotion and of welcoming Your Most Gracious Majesties upon the occasion of the opening of the Chingford Reservoir of the Metropolitan Water Board.

Acting in pursuance of Statutes, some of which are of considerable antiquity, we have charge of the maintenance and administration of one of the most ancient waterways of England, the watershed of which extends over an area of about 600 square miles within the Counties of Bedford, Hertford, Essex and Middlesex.

In its course the River Lee passes through country rich in historical associations. The ancient Town of Ware was destroyed by the Danes, whose fleet sailed up the Lee from the Thames. The strategy of King Alfred subsequently overcame the invaders, who, under the treaty of peace which was concluded in A.D. 879, were compelled to retire within an area of which the River formed one of the western boundaries. It is of interest to recall the words of the treaty which defined the line of demarcation:—

“ Let the bounds of our dominions stretch to the River Thames and from thence to the water of Lee even unto the head of the same water and thence straight unto Bedford, and finally going along by the River Ouse let them end at Watling Street.”

✓ The first stone road bridge in England was erected over the Lee by Queen Matilda, and from the circular form of its arches was called Bow Bridge.

During the great plague of 1665 the watermen of the River conveyed provisions to supply the inhabitants of London, and in return for these services, which were rendered at great risk to themselves, they received various privileges which they still enjoy.

The regulation of the River has been controlled by statute from early times. A record in the rolls of Parliament, 2nd Henry V (1415), shews that the Corporation of London were given representation on all Commissions touching the waters of the Lee, and in the 22nd year of Edward IV (1483) a verdict was given against the Abbot of Waltham for obstructions in the river preventing corn, malt and other commodities from reaching London. The first statutes for improving the Navigation of the River were passed in the reign of King Henry the Sixth, and they were succeeded by many similar enactments, notably during the reign of Queen Elizabeth.

Shortly after the accession of King George the Third a statute vesting the control of the River in a Board of Trustees was passed, and they continued in office until by an Act of 1868 their powers and duties were transferred to the Lee Conservancy Board which was then established.

We, as Conservators, exercise jurisdiction not only over the waterway, but have extensive powers to prevent pollution of the river and its tributaries, and, inasmuch as a large proportion of the water supplied to the Eastern and Northern districts of London is taken from the River, our duties are intimately associated with the work of the Metropolitan Water Board. We witness with pleasure and gratification the completion of the vast water reservoir which Your Majesties have graciously consented to declare open.

We desire, in conclusion, to express our loyalty and devotion to Your Majesties, to whom, with Your Royal Family, we pray that all blessings may be vouchsafed.

To which Address His Majesty was pleased to return the following gracious Answer:—

I thank you very cordially in behalf of the Queen and Myself for your expressions of loyalty and for your good wishes.

The River Lee over which you exercise so wise a jurisdiction has claims on Our grateful remembrance, not only for its remarkable historic associations, to which you refer in your interesting Address, but also for its beneficial service in securing to London an ample supply of pure water.

Your labours, as you remind Us, are united to those of the Metropolitan Water Board in the control of London's vast water system, and for this reason you have a special interest in the inauguration of the great Reservoir at Chingford which We are here to-day to celebrate.

You will, I am sure, meet the increased responsibilities which the opening of this Reservoir cannot fail to create with zeal and wisdom, and I wish you every success in your labours.

To His Most Excellent Majesty King George V.

The Loyal and Dutiful Address of the Metropolitan Water Board, presented the 15th day of March, 1913.

The Metropolitan Water Board respectfully beg to express their gratitude for the gracious condescension of Your Majesty and Her Majesty the Queen in visiting the newly-constructed Chingford Reservoir in the Valley of the Lee. Three hundred years ago the royal solicitude and financial succour of King James the First enabled the waters of that Valley to be brought by the New River from the Springs of Amwell and Chadwell to London, and it is a coincidence of great interest and a circumstance of distinguished favour to the Water Board that, in the Tercentenary of the New River, Your Majesties should graciously honour the Board by inaugurating the last and greatest of the Reservoirs constructed in the Valley of the Lee for the purpose of meeting the ever-increasing demands of the Metropolis and parts adjacent for a copious supply of pure and wholesome water. In the furtherance of that purpose the Board have expended on new works at Chingford and elsewhere a sum approaching £3,000,000 since they assumed the control of the water undertaking in the year 1904, and additional works involving a further cost of £1,600,000 will shortly be commenced in the Valley of the Thames. The laying out of such large sums of public money involves many anxieties and great responsibilities, but these the Board bear willingly, heartened and encouraged as they are by the gracious sympathy and interest of Your Majesties. The Board most humbly pray that Your Majesties may long be spared to stimulate and assist the local authorities of the Kingdom with "the King's most gracious love" for enterprises great and small in furtherance of the public weal.

Given under the Common Seal of the Board the day and year aforesaid.

To which Address His Majesty was pleased to return the following gracious Answer:—

The Queen and I are very glad to be present to-day to inaugurate the Chingford Reservoir and to witness the completion of this part of your enterprise.

It is interesting to recall the association of My Ancestor with the inception of London's water supply, when the New River was formed to carry the springs of the River Lee to the heart of the City.

The accomplishment of this arduous task in the year 1613 was largely due to a distinguished Welshman, Sir Hugh Myddelton, whose dauntless nature overcame unending difficulties and opposition; and the first official act of his brother, Sir Thomas Myddelton, who was elected Lord Mayor of London the same year, was to perform a ceremony such as I have undertaken to-day.

The Citizens of London will do well to remember that after three centuries they still owe a debt of gratitude to the Lee for the remarkable purity of their water supply.

Since the days of King James the First the problem has become immeasurably greater with the constant widening of London's boundaries and the vast increase of her population. The large sums, which the Metropolitan Water Board have found it necessary to spend in new works, bear witness to the magnitude of their task, and it is easy to realise the heavy burden which falls on those responsible for the policy and administration of such great undertakings.

You are justly proud of this Reservoir, which is a splendid monument to the energy of your officers, the skill of your engineers and the industry of your workmen. We congratulate you warmly on the success of your labours, and we shall ever follow with interest the continued progress of this important undertaking so vital to the health and well-being of the Capital of My Empire.

ALTERING GENERAL CONSOLIDATED ORDER: Appointment of Nurses.

PARISH OF BRISTOL.

To the Guardians of the Poor of the Parish of Bristol;—

And to all others whom it may concern.

WHEREAS by a General Order (hereinafter referred to as "the General Consolidated Order") dated the 24th day of July, 1847, and addressed to the Guardians of the Poor of the several Unions named in the Schedule thereunto annexed, the Poor Law Commissioners made certain Regulations applicable to the government of the Workhouse of each of those Unions;

And whereas by Article 153 of the General Consolidated Order provision was made for the appointment by the Guardians of persons to hold certain offices in the Workhouse, including the office of Nurse, and by Articles 155 and 172 of the General Consolidated Order it was further directed that every such appointment should be reported to the Poor Law Commissioners, and that the Guardians should pay to the officers so appointed such salaries or remuneration as the said Commissioners might from time to time direct or approve;

And, whereas the General Consolidated Order is applicable to and in force in the Parish of Bristol;

And whereas it is expedient that further provision should be made with regard to the appointment of persons to hold the office of Nurse in the Workhouses of the said Parish:

NOW THEREFORE, We, the Local Government Board, in pursuance of the powers given to Us by the Statutes in that behalf, hereby Order and Direct that, notwithstanding anything contained in the General Consolidated Order, as applicable as aforesaid to the Parish of Bristol, if the Guardians of the Poor of the said Parish shall submit to Us for Our approval a statement showing the total numbers of persons which the said Guardians consider it necessary to appoint to hold the office of Nurse at each of the Workhouses of the said Parish respectively, and the salaries or scales of salaries to be assigned to those Nurses, and We approve that statement, it shall not be necessary for the said Guardians to report to Us each appointment under the General Consolidated Order of a person to hold the office of Nurse in either of the said Workhouses, nor to obtain Our approval to the remuneration of any person so appointed, so long as the numbers of persons so appointed in relation to each of the said Workhouses and their salaries do not exceed the numbers of persons and the scales of salaries shown in the said statement and approved by Us:

Provided as follows—

(1) This Order shall not apply to the appointment of any Superintendent Nurse appointed subject to the provisions of the Nursing in Workhouses Order, 1897.

(2) A person who has not reached the age of twenty-one years shall not be employed in the capacity of Probationary Nurse.

Given under the Seal of Office of the Local Government Board, this thirteenth day of March, in the year one thousand nine hundred and thirteen.

John Burns,
President.

Walter T. Jerred, Assistant Secretary.

MOTOR CAR ACT, 1903.

COUNTY OF LONDON.

Whereas by sub-section 1 of Section 9 of the Motor Car Act, 1903, it is enacted that within any limits or place referred to in regulations made by the Local Government Board with a view to the safety of the public, on the application of the local authority of the area in which the limits or place are situate, a person shall not drive a motor car at a speed exceeding ten miles per hour:

And whereas the London County Council have made application to the Local Government Board for a regulation to be made in pursuance of the said sub-section, putting the above-mentioned provisions of that sub-section in force within the limits comprising the following roads or parts of roads at Balham and Tooting, that is to say:—

So much of Clapham Common, South Side, as extends from the south side of Cavendish Road to Balham Hill;

Balham Hill;

So much of Balham High Road as extends from Balham Hill to the north side of Balham Park Road;

Upper Tooting Road, extending from the south side of Tooting Bec Road to Tooting High Street; and

So much of Tooting High Street as extends from Upper Tooting Road to the southern extremity of the premises of the Council School near Tooting Broadway.

And whereas notice of the said application and of the time and manner in which objections should be made to any such regulation appeared in the London Gazette of the 23rd day of February, 1912, and in the Clapham Observer and the Wandsworth Borough News of the 1st day of March, 1912:

And whereas certain objections to the making of any regulation in pursuance of the said provisions have been received by the Local Government Board, and it is expedient that further inquiry should be made in the matter of the said application:

Notice is hereby given, that R. C. Maxwell, Esquire, Barrister-at-Law, one of the Inspectors of the Local Government Board, will attend at the County Hall, Spring Gardens, S.W., on Wednesday, the 16th day of April, 1913, at a quarter past 10 o'clock in the forenoon, to hold a Local Inquiry into the subject-matter of the said application:

And notice is hereby further given, that any person interested may attend at such inquiry and be heard with reference to the said application.

As witness my hand this nineteenth day of March, 1913, at the office of the Local Government Board, Whitehall, London.

Walter T. Jerred,

Assistant Secretary.

HOUSING, TOWN PLANNING, &c. ACT, 1909.

Approval of Town Planning Scheme.

CITY OF BIRMINGHAM.

THE QUINTON, HARBORNE AND EDGEBASTON TOWN PLANNING SCHEME.

Notice is hereby given, in pursuance of sub-section (4) of section 54 of the Housing, Town Planning, &c. Act, 1909, that the Local Government Board intend to approve the above-mentioned scheme, subject to certain modifications, and have caused a draft Order for approving the scheme to be prepared and to be transmitted to the Town Council of the City of Birmingham for deposit for the purposes of inspection; and that any person or authority interested and deciding to object to the scheme being approved should, within twenty-one days from the date of the publication of this notice, make his or their objection in the manner prescribed by Article XXVI of the Town Planning Procedure Regulations (England and Wales), 1910, that is to say:—

The objection shall be made to and be brought before the Board by means of a letter, or other representation in writing, which shall be addressed and posted, or shall be otherwise given, sent, or delivered to the Board at their office. The letter or representation shall indicate clearly the scheme to which the objection is taken, and shall state fully in what respects the person or authority objecting claims or claim to be interested in the scheme and the grounds on which the objection is made.

The Companies (Consolidation) Act, 1908.
The BISHOPSGATE SYNDICATE Limited.

A Company limited by Shares.
Special Resolutions.

Passed 4th March, 1913.

Confirmed 19th March, 1913.

AT an Extraordinary General Meeting of the Bishopsgate Syndicate Limited, duly convened, and held at the registered offices of the Company, No. 1, London Wall-buildings, London, E.C., on Tuesday, the 4th day of March, 1913, at 2.30 o'clock in the afternoon, the following Resolutions were duly passed; and at a subsequent Extraordinary General Meeting of the Company, also duly convened, and held at the same place on the 19th March, 1913, the same Resolutions were duly confirmed as Special Resolutions, viz. :—

1. That the Articles of Association of the Company be, and the same are, hereby modified by inserting the following Articles after the existing Article 146, namely :—

146A. In a winding-up of the Company no call shall be made upon the shares Nos. 25,001 to 75,000, or any of them, in respect of any uncalled liability on such shares at the date of the commencement of the winding-up, except for the purpose of and to the extent necessary for providing moneys required for paying or discharging such part (if any) of the debts and liabilities of the Company to creditors, and the costs of winding-up, as the moneys and assets of the Company (other than and except any uncalled liability upon the said shares) are not sufficient to pay and discharge, and no call shall be made on any of the said shares for the purpose of equalizing the rights of the contributories inter se.

146B. The moneys and assets of the Company available for distribution amongst the members in a winding-up thereof (which expression shall not include any uncalled liability upon the shares Nos. 25,001 to 75,000, or any moneys arising from any call made thereon during the winding-up) shall be applied, in the first place, in repaying the capital paid up on any of the shares of the Company in excess of that paid up on any other of such shares, until the amount remaining paid up on all the shares is equal, and any balance of such moneys and assets then remaining shall be distributed pari passu amongst the members in proportion to the number of shares held by them respectively.

2. That the conditional Agreement, dated the 21st February, 1913, and made between the Company of the first part; Messrs. George Tweedy and Co., Messrs. Alfred Hicks and Co., Messrs. Baker, Mason and Co., the Anglo-Maikop Corporation Limited, Messrs. Otto Krishaber and Co., and Messrs. Tomkinson, Brunton and Co., of the second part; and George Tweedy, Otto Krishaber, and Frank Russell of the third part, be and the same is hereby approved and declared binding upon the Company.
