

there has been a trial with or without a jury shall be made to the Court of Appeal.

On hearing of Application Court of Appeal to have Same Powers as upon hearing of an Appeal.

2. Every such application shall be brought before the Court of Appeal in like manner as an Appeal, and on the hearing of such application the Court of Appeal shall have all such powers as are exercisable by it upon the hearing of an Appeal.

Mode of Application for New Trial, &c.

3. Every such application shall be made by notice of motion. The notice of motion shall state whether the whole or part only, and if part only what part, of the verdict, finding, or judgment is complained of; and when there has been a trial with a jury shall also state the grounds of the application, but where there has been a trial without a jury it shall not be necessary in the notice of motion to ask specifically for a new trial or to state the grounds of the application.

Time for Service of Notice of Motion.

4. The notice of motion shall be a fourteen days' notice, and shall be served within six weeks after the trial, or where the trial has been adjourned for further consideration, within six weeks after judgment has been given on such further consideration.

Amendment of Notice of Motion.

5. The notice of motion may be amended at any time in such manner and upon such terms as the Court of Appeal shall think fit.

New Trial not to be granted on Ground of Misdirection, &c., unless Substantial Wrong or Miscarriage thereby occasioned.

6. A new trial shall not be granted on the ground of misdirection or of the improper admission or rejection of evidence, or because the verdict of the jury was not taken upon a question which the Judge at the trial was not asked to leave to them, unless in the opinion of the Court of Appeal some substantial wrong or miscarriage has been thereby occasioned; and if it appears to the Court of Appeal that such wrong or miscarriage affects part only of the matter in controversy or some or one only of the parties, the Court of Appeal may give final judgment as to part thereof or as to some or one only of the parties and direct a new trial as to the other part only or as to the other party or parties.

New Trial may be ordered on any one question.

7. A new trial may be ordered on any question without interfering with the finding or decision upon any other question.

New Trial not to be granted on Wrong Rulings as to Stamps.

8. A new trial shall not be granted by reason of the ruling of any Judge that the stamp upon any document is sufficient, or that the document does not require a stamp.

ORDER LVIII.

Order LVIII, Rule 15, shall be read as if instead of the words "three months" the words "six weeks unless the Court or a Judge, at the time of making the Order or at any time subsequently, or the Court of Appeal shall enlarge the time," were inserted.

Copies may be obtained on application at the Lord Chancellor's Office, House of Lords, S.W.
