Lord Chamberlain.

Mr. Secretary Bonar Law.

Mr. W. M. Hughes.

WHEREAS by Treaty, grant, usage, sufferance, and other lawful means, His Majesty the King has jurisdiction within the Dominions of His Highness the Sultan of Zanzibar:

AND WHEREAS by an Order in Council bearing date the 21st day of January, 1914, and known as "The Zanzibar Order in Council, 1914," (herein-after referred to as the Principal Order), provision was made for the exercise of His Majesty's said jurisdiction:

AND WHEREAS by Article 25 of the Principal Order the enactments described in the first Schedule to the Foreign Jurisdiction Act, 1890, were extended to Zanzibar as if Zanzibar were a British Colony or Possession, but subject to the provisions of the said Order, and to the exceptions, adaptations, and modifications in the said Article mentioned:

AND WHEREAS by the Foreign Jurisdiction Act, 1913, certain enactments mentioned in the Schedule thereto were added to the enactments mentioned in the first Schedule to the Foreign Jurisdiction Act, 1890:

AND WHEREAS doubts have arisen as to the meaning and effect of Article 25 of the Principal Order:

Now, therefore, His Majesty, by virtue and in exercise of the powers in this behalf by the Foreign Jurisdiction Acts, 1890 and 1913, or otherwise in His Majesty vested, is pleased, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, to order, and it is hereby ordered, as follows:—

(1) This Order may be cited as "The Zanzibar Order in Council, 1916."

(2) Article 25 of the Principal Order shall be read as if there were inserted at the end of the said Article the following proviso:—

"Provided always that nothing in this Article contained shall be taken to extend to Zanzibar the enactments mentioned in the Schedule to the Foreign Jurisdiction Act, 1913, or any of them."

(3) This Order shall be deemed to have commenced and come into operation as part of the Principal Order on the 20th day of April, 1914.

And The Right Honourable Andrew Bonar Law, His Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for the Colonies, is to give the necessary directions herein accordingly.

Almeric FitzRoy.

And whereas by Section one, sub-section two, of the said Act, it is provided that any List of persons and bodies of persons, incorporated or unincorporated, with whom such trading is prohibited by a Proclamation under the said Act may be varied or added to by an Order made by the Lords of the Council on the recommendation of a Secretary of State, such

List as so varied or added to, being in the said Proclamation referred to as the "Statutory List":

And whereas the List contained in the said Proclamation was amended by an Order of Council dated the 16th day of March, 1916:

And whereas there was this day read at the Board a recommendation from the Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs to the following effect:—

That the List of persons and bodies of persons, incorporated or unincorporated, with whom trading is prohibited by the Proclamation dated the 29th day of February, 1916, as amended by the Order of Council of the 16th day of March, 1916, should be further amended by the addition of the names set forth in the Schedule hereto.

Now, therefore, Their Lordships, having taken the said recommendation into consideration, are pleased to order, and it is hereby ordered, that the same be approved.

Whereof the Right Honourable Sir Edward Grey, Bart., K.G., one of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, the Controller of the Foreign Trade Department, and all other persons whom it may concern, are to take notice and govern themselves accordingly.

CENTRAL CHANCERY OF THE ORDERS OF KNIGHTHOOD.

*Lord Chamberlain's Office,
 St. James's Palace, S.W.,
 24th March, 1916.*

The KING has been graciously pleased to appoint The Right Honourable Sir Charles, Baron Hardinge of Penshurst, G.C.B., G.C.S.I., G.C.M.G., G.C.I.E., G.C.V.O., I.S.O., to be a Knight of the Most Noble Order of the Garter.

AMERICAN DOLLAR SECURITIES.

DEPOSIT ON LOAN WITH THE TREASURY.

The Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury announce that as from 27th March, 1916, they will be prepared to accept Dollar Securities on Deposit. The present arrangements for the purchase of securities will continue, and, as already stated, the Treasury regard purchase as the preferable alternative. Those holders, however, who are not in a position to sell, but are able to assist the Government by lending their securities, are invited to offer them to the Treasury for deposit, subject to the right of purchase in certain contingencies, on the terms set forth below.

It will be seen that these terms are similar to those already set forth in the Treasury Memorandum published in the London Gazette of the 17th December, 1915, but in order to facilitate the practical working of the scheme and the prompt payment of dividends when collected, it has been decided to convert the interest, &c., received from dollars into sterling at the rate of exchange of the day on which the Treasury Books are closed for the purpose of preparing the Treasury Warrants, which will be three weeks before the dividends are payable.

(1) The securities will be transferred to the Treasury for a period of two years from the date of deposit.

(2) Holders of Bearer Bonds (or share certificates transferable by delivery) will be required to lodge the bonds and coupons with the Treasury, and holders of registered stock will be required to execute a transfer of the stock in favour of the Treasury. Bonds upon which British stamp duty has not previously been paid may be deposited unstamped. When the bonds have been lodged with the Treasury, or when the transfer of the stock has been registered in the Company's books, the bonds or stock will be entered in the holder's name in a register kept by the Treasury for the purpose, and a certificate of entry in this register will be issued to the holder. The title to bonds or stock entered in the Treasury Register may be transferred upon that register by deed in the ordinary way. In the case of registered stock, the Treasury will bear all charges in respect of the original transfer into their name in the Company's books, and of the re-transfer in the Company's books into the name of the person in whose name the stock stands in the Treasury Register when it is finally released; transfer deeds for intermediate transfers in the Treasury Register will be subject to stamp duty in ordinary course, and to a registration fee of 2s. 6d. All transfer deeds in respect of Bearer Bonds or share certificates transferable by delivery will be free of stamp duty and registration fee. At the end of the period of the loan the bonds or certificates deposited (or bonds or certificates identical as far as possible in all respects with those deposited) will be delivered to the depositor in exchange for the surrender of the Treasury Certificate.

The Treasury will, if desired, exercise as far as possible the voting and other rights attached to the securities in the way the owner of the deposited securities may indicate.

(3) While the securities are on deposit under this arrangement the lender will receive from the Treasury all interest and dividends paid in respect of them, and also, by way of consideration for the loan, a payment at the rate of one-half of one per cent. per annum calculated on the face value of the securities.

(4) If the depositor at any time during the currency of the loan desires to realise all or any of his securities, the Treasury will, upon receipt of a notification from him specifying the securities which he desires to realise, either—

(i) sell (subject to any limit as to price which may be specified in the notification) the securities on his behalf in New York, and pay over to him the proceeds in London in sterling at the exchange of the day on which such proceeds are received in New York, without any deduction for brokerage or commission, or (at the depositor's option)

(ii) release the securities in New York against payment to the Treasury Agent in New York of a sum in dollars not less than the lowest market price of the securities on the day and pay to him in London the equivalent in sterling of the said sum at the exchange of the day without any deduction for brokerage or commission.

Alternatively the Treasury will, at any time during the currency of the loan, be prepared to consider proposals that they should themselves take over all or any of the securities from the depositor at the New York Stock Exchange closing quotation of the day upon which the proposal is received; the purchase money to be paid in sterling at the exchange of the day without any deduction for brokerage or commission.

The purchase money will in each case be payable in London against the surrender of the Treasury Certificate.

(5) In case the Treasury should find it necessary to sell all or any of the securities deposited, the Treasury may take over all or any of such securities on sending notification in writing to the registered address of the holder of the certificate. The Treasury will in that case pay the value of the securities mentioned in the notification, calculated at the New York Stock Exchange closing quotation of the day the notification is sent, with an addition of 2½ per cent. on the value so calculated. Payment to be made in London in sterling at the exchange of the day, without any deduction for brokerage and commission, against the surrender of the Treasury Certificate.

(6) So far as circumstances may permit, arrangements will be made for enabling a depositor at any time to obtain the release of deposited securities in exchange for the deposit of other suitable American securities of equal value.

(7) Arrangements have been made by the Stock Exchange Committee for dealings on the Stock Exchange in the Treasury Certificates of securities deposited under the scheme.

(8) The interest and dividends on all deposited securities, together with the additional payment at the rate of one-half of one per cent. per annum, will be paid by Treasury Warrant to the holder for the time being on the Treasury Register, as soon as they have been collected, in sterling at the exchange of the day on which the Treasury Books are closed for the purpose of preparing the Treasury Warrants. For convenience of payment, in cases where interest or dividends are payable half-yearly, a full half-year's additional payment will be added to the first dividend payment and (when the deposit continues for the whole period of two years) no additional payment will be made in respect of the period from the last dividend payment to the end of the period. A similar procedure, mutatis mutandis, will be applied in cases of quarterly or other periodical payments of interest or dividends. In the event of earlier release, the amount due from the date of deposit to the date of release will be calculated, and any over-payment or under-payment will be adjusted when the release is effected.

(9) Under Section 2 of the Government War Obligations Act, 1915 (5 & 6 Geo. V, c. 96) trustees and companies are enabled to take advantage of the scheme notwithstanding any provisions of their trust or constitution, and are not liable for any loss arising from so doing.

(10) The Treasury reserve the right to refuse either in whole or in part any offer to deposit securities under the scheme.

NOTE.—Full particulars of the arrangements made for the administration of the scheme for the deposit of securities may be obtained from the Secretary to the Treasury, National Debt Office, 19, Old Jewry, E.C., to whom all enquiries and correspondence should be addressed. For the present the minimum nominal amount of any one security that will be accepted for deposit is fixed at $5,000 (or £1,000).

Treasury, 22nd March, 1916.

Order under Section 7 of the War Loan (Supplemental Provisions) Act, 1915. (5 & 6 Geo. V, c. 93.)

In exercise of the powers conferred upon them by section 7 (1) of the War Loan (Supplemental Provisions) Act, 1915, the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury hereby direct that the provisions of section 148 (1) of the Merchant Shipping Act, 1894, and any other provisions in any Act by which a limit is imposed on the amount which may be deposited in the Seamen's Savings Bank shall cease to have effect for the period of the war and for a period of six months thereafter.

In accordance with the provisions of the section first above recited, the amount (if any) by which the deposit at the time when this Order ceases to have effect of any person affected by the Order exceeds the deposit of that person at the time when the Order was made will, as from the time when the Order ceases to have effect, be disregarded in calculating for the purposes of any limit on the total amount which may be deposited the amount deposited by that person.

They further direct that the provisions of section 11 (3) of the Savings Banks Act, 1891, shall cease to have effect for the same period.

This Order shall take effect as from the first day of January, 1916.

Given under the hands of Us, being Two of the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, this 17th day of March, 1916.

All vessels proceeding from the Cattewater or Sutton Pool to Plymouth Sound, and vice versa, are to pass between the Mallard Shoal and Mount Batten breakwater.

2. A limited number of moorings for yachts may be laid in the following places and nowhere else:

Off West Hoe, on application to King's Harbour Master, Sound; in the Cattewater, above Turnchapel, on application to the Harbour Master of Cattewater.

Yachts, &c., and pleasure boats may cruise in the waters of the Sound as laid down in the Public Traffic Regulations with the following exception:

No yacht, &c., or pleasure boat may proceed to the westward of a line joining the east end of Drake's island and the west side of the entrance to Millbay docks, nor may they proceed more than two miles outside the breakwater.

All persons going afloat in charge of yachts or boats are to make themselves thoroughly acquainted with these orders, the Public Traffic Regulations, and the Notices that have been published from time to time in the Public Press defining prohibited areas.

Special notice is drawn to the following points in the Regulations:

No yacht or boat may be under way after dark; there can, therefore, be no traffic after dark between yachts at their moorings and the shore.

Although it is only laid down that no craft may leave or enter by the East Channel, no craft is to approach anywhere near the East Channel buoys, as such action would be likely to draw the fire of the forts.

All excursion steamer traffic is prohibited in the Sound.

Note.

Yachts that are only fitting out at Plymouth, and that may wish to proceed to their Summer Base harbour, must obtain permission to leave for that purpose.

(b) HAMOAZE.

2. With the exception of steam ferry boats, which have obtained special permits, no craft of any description is to be under way during the hours of official night, i.e., between the sunset gun and daylight gun fired from H.M.S. "Impregnable." Any craft under way between these times may be fired on by the Naval patrol boats or H.M. ships in harbour without notice.

Persons owning craft of any description which they may wish to use for pleasure purposes will be allowed to remove the same to approved places outside the above limits. No permits will be granted for use of pleasure craft within the limits defined.

5. With the undermentioned exception at (i), the following areas are prohibited to all craft of every description:

Coombe bay, Kiln bay, Wilcove lake, Thanckes lake, South of Gravesend point to Pound at Torpoint, St. John's lake, Millbrook lake (inside a line from Palmer point to Little Southdown).

(i) With regard to Millbrook lake inside the line specified, special permits will be given to steam or motor ferry craft, for public traffic only, at the discretion of the King's Harbour Master of Hamoaze.
