

AUSTRALIAN IMPERIAL FORCE.

2338 Pte. S. G. Bond, Infy.

For conspicuous gallantry and devotion to duty. He picked up a machine gun and took it up to the front line under heavy fire, thereby saving a critical situation.

329 Cpl. C. Boyle, Infy.

For conspicuous gallantry and devotion to duty. He personally killed an enemy sniper and rescued a wounded comrade under heavy fire. He set a fine example to all ranks.

2815 Sjt. R. A. Calder, Infy.

For conspicuous gallantry and devotion to duty. He gallantly led a flank attack under very heavy fire, and succeeded in dispersing a party of 20 of the enemy. He set a fine example to his men.

645 Tpr. A. Currie, Light Horse Regt.

For conspicuous gallantry and devotion to duty. Although himself wounded he tended a wounded comrade under very heavy fire.

841 Cpl. T. W. Eales, Infy.

For conspicuous gallantry and devotion to duty. He volunteered to go forward alone and located an enemy machine gun which was then silenced by our rifle fire, with several casualties.

413 Sjt. S. Gwynne, Light Horse Regt.

For conspicuous gallantry and devotion to duty. He gallantly went to the assistance of his troop officer, whose horse had been killed. He set a fine example to all ranks.

361 L./Cpl. C. G. Harrington, Light Horse Regt.

For conspicuous gallantry and devotion to duty. He has performed consistent good work throughout and has at all times set a fine example of courage and determination.

587 Bombr. H. J. Light, T.M. By.

For conspicuous gallantry and devotion to duty. He handled his party with marked ability and succeeded in getting two mortars into action under the most trying conditions.

147 Sjt. W. S. Macansh, Light Horse Regt.

For conspicuous gallantry and devotion to duty. He has performed consistent good work throughout, and has at all times set a fine example of courage and determination.

3573 Temp. Cpl. F. MacDonald, Infy.

For conspicuous gallantry and devotion to duty. Although slightly wounded he volunteered to accompany an officer on patrol. Later, although himself wounded a second time he assisted in rescuing a wounded comrade.

302 Tpr. F. Moore, Light Horse Regt.

For conspicuous gallantry and devotion to duty. He displayed great bravery in bringing up ammunition and in carrying important messages under very heavy fire.

26 L./Sjt. J. F. Nagle, Light Horse Regt.

For conspicuous gallantry and devotion to duty. He displayed great courage under very heavy fire and set a splendid example to his men.

838 Sjt. J. W. Robinson, Light Horse Fld. Amb.

For conspicuous gallantry and devotion to duty. He displayed great courage and determination in tending the wounded under very heavy fire.

1614 Sjt. R. J. Scott, Infy.

For conspicuous gallantry and devotion to duty. He led a bombing party in the attack with great gallantry and materially assisted in establishing a block at a critical time.

2902 Sjt. J. W. Whittle, Infy.

For conspicuous gallantry and devotion to duty. He showed great initiative in re-organising his men and capturing an enemy strong point, which was holding up the advance.

5660 Gnr. W. S. Wickens, Fld. Arty.

For conspicuous gallantry and devotion to duty. At great personal risk he entered a gun pit which was on fire and assisted the three occupants to escape, himself remaining in the pit alone and fighting the flames until further assistance arrived.

CANADIAN CONTINGENT.

130214 L./Cpl. T. K. Hall, Infy.

For conspicuous gallantry and devotion to duty when an undischarged gas cylinder was hit by an enemy shell. At great personal risk he immediately rushed into a dense cloud of gas and succeeded in rescuing two helpless men, thereby undoubtedly saving their lives.

NEW ZEALAND FORCE.

11/1109 Sjt. J. Chadwick, Wellington Mtd. Rif. Regt.

For conspicuous gallantry and devotion to duty. He led his troop in a most gallant manner, and set a fine example of courage and good leadership to his men.

7/643 L./Sjt. W. H. P. Creed, N. Zealand Mach. Gun Co.

For conspicuous gallantry and devotion to duty. He handled his machine gun in the attack with great courage and ability. He set a fine example to his men.

7/250 Sjt. M. J. O'Brien, Canterbury Mtd. Rif. Regt.

For conspicuous gallantry and devotion to duty. He took command of his troop and led them forward in a most gallant manner. He has at all times set a fine example of courage and determination.

His Majesty the KING-EMPEROR has been graciously pleased to approve of the undermentioned Rewards to Officers, Non-Commissioned Officers and Men of the Indian Army for gallantry and devotion to duty in the Field:—

Indian Order of Merit, 2nd Class.

2782 Duffadar Amir Muhammad, Lrs., I.A., attd. Hodson's Horse.

2764 Duffadar Hakim Singh, Hodson's Horse, I.A.