

that Burials should be discontinued therein as herein-after directed:

And whereas by an Order in Council of the 2nd day of May, 1917, Notice of such Representation was given, and it was ordered that the same should be taken into consideration by the Privy Council on the 13th day of June, 1917, and such Order has been published in the London Gazette, and copies thereof have been affixed, as required by the said first-mentioned Act:

Now, therefore, His Majesty in exercise of the powers in that behalf conferred upon Him by the said Act, is pleased, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, to order, as it is hereby ordered, that no new Burial Ground shall be opened in the said Civil Parish save with the previous approval of the Local Government Board, and that Burials shall be discontinued therein as follows, viz. :—

MOLDASH (OTHERWISE MOLASH).—Forthwith and entirely in the Church of St. Peter, Moldash, in the County of Kent, and in the old Churchyard attached thereto, that is to say, the Churchyard as it existed prior to the year 1916; Provided that in the earthen grave now existing in the said Churchyard in which the remains of the father of Miss Mercy West are interred, the burial may be allowed of the body of the said Miss Mercy West at her decease, subject to the condition that no part of the coffin containing the body shall be at a depth less than 3 feet below the level of the surface of the ground adjoining the grave.

*Privy Council Office,
28th June, 1917.*

The following Statute made by the University of Oxford, on the 19th day of June, 1917 (and sealed on the 26th day of June, 1917), has been submitted for the approval of His Majesty in Council, and notice of its having been so submitted is published in accordance with the provisions of "The Universities of Oxford and Cambridge Act, 1877."

STATUTE APPROVED BY THE CONVOCATION OF THE UNIVERSITY OF OXFORD, ON TUESDAY, JUNE 19, 1917.

Whereas it is expedient to amend certain Clauses of Sections I. and II. of Title IV., of Sections I., III., VI., XI., and XII. of Title V. and of Section II. of Title XIII. of the Statutes of the University of Oxford, so as to bring them into accordance with the Statute concerning the number of Terms in the Academic Year which was made by the University on May 8, 1917:

Now the said University, in exercise of the powers conferred on it by the Universities of Oxford and Cambridge Act, 1877, and of any other power enabling it, hereby enacts, subject to the approval of His Majesty in Council, as follows:—

1. In Statt. Tit. IV. Sect. I. § 3 (p. 65, ed. 1914), the words "In the construction of this Statute Easter and Trinity Terms are (except where either of them is expressly mentioned) to be counted together as one Term" shall be struck out.

2. In Statt. Tit. IV. Sect. II. A. § 4. cl. 5 and cl. 6 (p. 78), F. § 3. cl. 6 (pp. 113, 114), and H. § 9. cl. 4 (p. 132), in each case the words "Easter and Trinity Terms being counted as one" shall be struck out.

3. In Statt. Tit. V. Sect. I (p. 137), clause 3 shall be struck out.

4. In Statt. Tit. V. Sect. III. cl. I. (p. 138), Sect. VI. § 4. cl. I (p. 142), Sect. XI. § 5. cl. 2 (a) (p. 149), and Sect. XII. § 1. cl. 5 (p. 151), in each case the words "Easter or" shall be struck out.

5. In Statt. Tit. XIII. Sect. II. cl. 8 (Statt. Univ. Oxon., Addenda, 1914-15, p. 7), the words "in Easter or" shall be struck out.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

Lord President.

Lord Chamberlain.

Lord Newton.

Sir Frederick Ponsonby.

WHEREAS by treaty, grant, usage, sufferance, and other lawful means His Majesty the King has jurisdiction in China:

Now, therefore, His Majesty, by virtue and in exercise of the powers in this behalf by "The Foreign Jurisdiction Act, 1890," or otherwise, in His Majesty vested, is pleased, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, to order, and it is hereby ordered, as follows:—

1. This Order may be cited as "The China (War Powers) Order in Council, 1917," and shall be read as one with the "China Order in Council, 1904" (hereinafter called the "Principal Order"), and with any Order amending the same.

2. Where in the opinion of the Minister there are reasonable grounds for believing that any British subject has acted, is acting, or is about to act in a manner prejudicial to the public safety, or to the defence, peace, or security of His Majesty's dominions or of any part of them, the Minister may by order in writing direct that such person—

(a) Shall not enter, reside, or remain in any area specified in the order;

(b) Shall reside or remain in any area so specified;

(c) Shall conduct himself in such manner, or abstain from such acts, or take such order with any property in his possession or under his control, as may be specified in such order;

(d) Shall be detained in custody in such place as may be specified in the order; and the person so detained shall be deemed for all purposes to be in legal custody.

3. If any person in respect of whom an order is made under paragraph (a), (b), or (c) of the preceding article fails to comply with any of the provisions of the order, he shall be guilty of an offence against this Order, and shall be liable on conviction by the Court to imprisonment with or without hard labour for a term not exceeding three years; provided, however, that nothing in this article shall be deemed to
