“The Lords Commissioners of Your Majesty's Treasury have signified their concurrence in these proposals.”

His Majesty, having taken the said Memorial into consideration, was pleased, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, to approve of what is therein proposed.

4. A special constable shall throughout the police district for which he is appointed, and also in any adjoining police district, have all the powers, privileges and duties which any constable duly appointed has within his constableness by virtue of the common law or of any statute for the time being in force.

5.—(1) All special constables shall in the execution of their duty act under the direction and control of the Chief Officer of Police of the police district for which they are appointed,

6. Subject to the provisions of this Order, the Police Authority may make such Regulations as may seem to them expedient for fixing the conditions of appointment, resignation and discharge of the special constables, for securing that only fit and proper persons shall be appointed special constables, for rendering the special constables efficient in the discharge of their duties, and for preventing neglect or abuse.

7.—(1) Provision may be made by the Police Authority for grants to special constables by way of—

(a) reimbursement of out-of-pocket expenses necessarily incurred in the execution of duty, or an allowance in lieu thereof, including a Subsistence, Lodging or Refreshment Allowance not exceeding the amounts specified in Regulations 70 and 71 of the Police Regulations;

(b) an allowance in consideration of wages lost by a special constable while required for duty, or during a period of temporary incapacitation for following his ordinary employment by infirmity of mind or body occasioned by an injury received in the execution of his duty without his own default, or by illness contracted in the execution of his duty without his own default; provided that any such payment shall not exceed the amount of the wages lost and in no case shall exceed 10s. per diem;

(2) Any such grants shall be paid out of the Police Fund.

8. Any allowance or other grant for which a special constable may be eligible under the preceding paragraph of this Order may be withheld by the Chief Officer of Police in any case where he is not satisfied that the special constable is well-conducted and efficient in the discharge of his duties; provided that, in the case of a Borough Police Force, any such decision of the Chief Officer of Police shall be subject to the approval of the Watch Committee.

9. A special constable may resign his office subject to his giving to the Chief Officer of Police, or such other person or authority under whose direction and control he acts, notice of such period as may have been fixed by the Police Authority or such other person or authority, as the case may be: provided that, if he has undertaken to serve as a special constable for any definite period, his resignation before the expiration of such period shall be subject to the consent of the Chief Officer of Police.

10. The Chief Officer of Police, or such other person or authority under whose direction and control he acts, may at his discretion determine the service of or suspend or dismiss any special constable.

(c) Any grant the amount of which is dependent, in the case of a member of a police force, on his rank, shall be assessed in the case of a special constable at the amount appropriate to the rank of constable.

(d) Section 28 of the Police Pensions Act, 1921, shall not apply.

(3) All pensions and gratuities granted to special constables or their widows and any allowances granted to their children under the provisions of this Order shall be paid out of the Police Fund.

14. Any person who, for any unlawful purpose or without proper authority, puts on the dress or accoutrements or takes the name, designation, or character of a special constable, shall be liable on summary conviction to a fine not exceeding ten pounds.

17. This Order shall apply as respects special constables appointed under the Special Constables Order, 1914, but nothing in this Order shall be construed as requiring special constables appointed before the date thereof to make a new declaration under this Order.

18. The Special Constables Order, 1914, is hereby revoked, but any appointment made or other act done in pursuance of that Order shall have effect as if made or done in pursuance of this Order.

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 30th day of July, 1923.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the 6th and 7th years of His late Majesty King William the Fourth, Chapter 77, and of the Act of the 5th and 6th years of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria, Chapter 26, duly prepared, and laid before His Majesty in Council, a Scheme bearing date the 12th day of July, 1923, in the words and figures following, that is to say:—

“ We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the 6th and 7th years of His late Majesty King William the Fourth, Chapter 77, and of the Act of the 5th and 6th years of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria, Chapter 26, have prepared, and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council, the following Scheme for authorizing certain improvements at the Archbishop's House of Residence belonging to the See of York, which is situate at Bishopthorpe, in the County of York:—

“ Whereas the Right Honourable and Most Reverend Cosmo Gordon, now Archbishop of York, is desirous that certain improvements should be made at the said Archbishop's House of Residence, and has submitted to us the particulars of such improvements and we have specified our general approval of the same:

“ And whereas the said Archbishop is also desirous and it appears to us to be expedient that towards the cost of effecting the said improvements a sum of £1,600 (being a sum which, together with the outstanding balance of the sums already borrowed upon the same security under the authority of the statutes hereinbefore mentioned, does not exceed 2 years' income of the See), should be provided by his borrowing the same by way of mortgage upon the security of all and every part of the lands, tenements and hereditaments, endowments or emoluments which now belong or may hereafter belong to the Archbishopric of York:

“ Now, therefore, with the consent of the said Cosmo Gordon, Archbishop of York (testified by his having affixed his signature and Archbishop's Seal to this Scheme), we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, humbly recommend and propose that the said Archbishop be authorized to borrow from the Governors of the Bounty of Queen Anne, and that the said Governors be empowered to lend under the provisions of the above mentioned Acts any sum not exceeding £1,600, and that as a security for the same the said Archbishop do mortgage all and every part of the lands, tenements and hereditaments and endowments or emoluments which now belong or may hereafter belong to his said See to the said Governors by Deed for a term of 25 years or until the said sum of £1,600, with interest for the same as hereinafter mentioned, and all costs and charges which may attend the recovery thereof, shall be fully paid and satisfied and that such principal sum shall be repaid with interest in the manner following, that is to say, during and in respect of the first period of 12 months of the said term computed from the day of the date of the mortgage, no part of the said principal sum shall be repayable but the said Archbishop or his successors shall yearly at the end of the second period of 12 months so computed and at the end of every such like period of 12 months thereafter, pay to the said Governors their successors or assigns one-twentieth part of the said principal sum of £1,600 until the whole thereof shall be paid, and shall also at the end of the first and each succeeding period of 12 months, computed as aforesaid, pay interest at the rate of 4 per centum per annum on the said principal sum or on so much thereof as shall from time to time remain unpaid. And that, if and when it shall happen that either the principal or the interest directed to be paid as hereinbefore mentioned shall be in arrear and unpaid for the space of 40 days after the same shall have become due, it shall and may be lawful for the said Governors their successors and assigns to recover the same and the costs and charges attending the recovery thereof by distress and sale in the like manner as rents may be recovered by landlords or lessors from their tenants by the laws in force at the time of such distress and sale. And that such mortgage deed shall be in the form and to the effect to be approved by us, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners, and shall bind as well the said Cosmo Gordon, now Archbishop of York, as every succeeding Archbishop of York, until the principal money and interest costs and charges shall have been paid off and discharged.

“ And we further recommend and propose that the said sum of £1,600 so to be borrowed as aforesaid shall be paid to us, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners, that the said Governors and their successors shall not be bound or required to see to the application thereof, and that upon the receipt of the said sum so to be borrowed as aforesaid the whole or any part or parts thereof shall be applied by us at such time or times and in such manner as shall appear to us to be expedient towards effecting the said proposed improvements at the Archbishop's House of Residence aforesaid.

“ And we further recommend and propose that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid, or any of them, in conformity with the provisions of the herein named Acts, or either of them, or of any other Act of Parliament."

And whereas the said Scheme has been approved by His Majesty in Council:

Now, therefore, His Majesty, by and with the advice of His said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said Scheme, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Acts.

And His Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said Diocese of York.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the 33rd and 34th years of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria, Chapter 39, and of the Acts therein mentioned, that is to say, the Act of the 3rd and 4th years of Her said late Majesty, Chapter 113, the Act of the 4th and 5th years of Her said late Majesty, Chapter 39, and the Act of the 31st and 32nd years of Her said late Majesty, Chapter 114, duly prepared, and laid before His Majesty in Council, a Scheme, bearing date the 12th day of July, 1923, in the words and figures following, that is to say:—

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the 33rd and 34th years of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria, Chapter 39, and of the Acts therein mentioned, that is to say, the Act of the 3rd and 4th years of Her said late Majesty, Chapter 113, the Act of the 4th and 5th years of Her said late Majesty, Chapter 39, and the Act of the 31st and 32nd years of Her said late Majesty, Chapter 114, have prepared, and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council, the following Scheme for effecting a transfer of the ownership of the Advowson or perpetual right of Patronage of and presentation to the Church and Cure (hereinafter called 'the said Benefice') of Titchwell, in the County of Norfolk and in the Diocese of Norwich:

"Whereas the Advowson or perpetual right of Patronage of and presentation to the said Benefice of Titchwell is vested for an estate in fee simple without incumbrances in the Provost and Fellows of the College Royal of the Blessed Mary of Eton near unto Windsor (hereinafter called 'the Provost and Fellows of Eton College'):

"And whereas the Provost and Fellows of Eton College are desirous that the whole Advowson or perpetual right of Patronage of and presentation to the said Benefice of Titchwell, now vested in them as aforesaid, should be transferred to and be vested in the Bishop of Norwich for the time being:

"And whereas the Right Reverend Bertram, now Bishop of Norwich, is willing to accept such transfer, and in token of such his willingness and also in token that the same transfer has that consent of the Bishop of the Diocese which by the Acts in the hereinbefore mentioned Act recited or by some or one of them is made necessary he, the said Bertram, Bishop of Norwich, has executed this Scheme as hereinafter mentioned:

"And whereas the transfer of the Patronage of the said Benefice of Titchwell which is hereinbefore mentioned and hereinafter recommended and proposed will in our opinion tend to make better provision for the cure of souls in the Parish or District in or in respect of which the right of Patronage or Advowson so recommended and proposed to be transferred as aforesaid arises or exists, that is to say, in the Parish of Titchwell:

"Now, therefore, with the consent of the Provost and Fellows of Eton College (in testimony whereof they have caused their Common Seal to be affixed to this Scheme), and with the consent of the said Bertram, Bishop of Norwich (in testimony whereof he has signed this Scheme and sealed the same with his Episcopal Seal), we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, humbly recommend and propose that upon and from the day of the date of the publication in the London Gazette of any Order of Your Majesty in Council ratifying this Scheme and without any conveyance or assurance in the law other than such duly gazetted Order the whole Advowson or perpetual right of Patronage of and presentation to the said Benefice of Titchwell now vested in them, the Provost and Fellows of Eton College, as aforesaid, shall be transferred to the said Bertram, Bishop of Norwich, and his successors in the same Bishopric, and shall thereupon and thenceforth become and be absolutely vested in and shall and may from time to time be exercised by the said Bertram, Bishop of Norwich, and by his successors in the same Bishopric for ever.

"And we further recommend and propose that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any further or other measures relating to the matters aforesaid, or any of them, in accordance with the provisions of the said Acts, or of any of them, or of any other Act of Parliament."

And whereas the said Scheme has been approved by His Majesty in Council:

Now, therefore, His Majesty, by and with the advice of His said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said Scheme, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Acts.

Foreign Office,
July 15, 1923.

The KING has been graciously pleased to appoint:—

Reginald Hervey Hoare, Esquire, to be a Counsellor of Embassy in His Majesty's Diplomatic Service.

Whitehall, July 31, 1923.

The KING has been pleased, by Warrant under His Majesty's Royal Sign Manual, bearing date the 31st instant, to appoint the Reverend Henry Thomas Robinson Briggs, Rector of St. Mary Magdalene, Cricket-Malherbie, in the County of Somerset, to the Living of St. Paul, Ramsbottom, in the County of Lancaster and Diocese of Manchester, void by the cession of the Reverend James Preston, M. A.

Whitehall, 1st August, 1923.

His Majesty The KING has been graciously pleased to award the Edward Medal to George Livermore, a trainee at the Enham Village Centre for Disabled Ex-Service Men, in the following circumstances:—

Livermore served in the Royal Air Force during the war and was discharged in 1919 with a disability pension on account of a gun-shot wound in the foot. He was undergoing a course of training in French polishing at the Enham Village Centre, Andover, and on March 7th, 1923, was, together with other disabled men, in a room where some beeswax mixed with turpentine was being heated on a stove. This caught fire, and Livermore, realising the danger, seized a walking stick and with the crooked end lifted the blazing bucket and made for the door. His clothing was alight, but notwithstanding serious burns he gallantly made his way to the doorway, when he was compelled to drop the bucket. When the fire occurred some of the men in the room managed to escape through the windows but all the men were in various degrees disabled and some were unable to escape. As it was, some of the men were slightly burnt, while Livermore himself sustained severe injuries causing him intense suffering. He had to lose part of his left arm while his right hand and arm were severely burnt. There is no doubt that Livermore realised the danger to his comrades if the building caught fire and without hesitation risked his life on their behalf.

NAVAL PRIZE FUND.

SUPPLEMENTARY DISTRIBUTION.

It has been decided to make a Supplementary distribution of Naval Prize Money, to begin on Wednesday, the 8th instant. No applications should be made earlier. The full value of one share in the supplementary distribution earned by thirty months' qualifying service is ten shillings, with a minimum allocation of five shillings, and the arrangements for the payment of those entitled to participate who are not now serving are as under:—

2. Applications are first invited in respect of those whose surnames begin with the letters A, E, L and S, and should be made in accordance with the instructions in paragraph 4. Public notice will be given in the Press as it becomes possible to deal with further groups, and no action can be taken on applications made out of order.

3. The qualifications for participation are the same as for the first distribution, and only those entitled to share in the previous distributions should apply.

4. Payment to the Imperial Naval Forces will be made in the following manner:—

(a) To Warrant Officers and men of the Royal Naval Reserve resident in Great Britain or the Northern Government Area, Ireland, through Registrars, R.N.R., from whom they will receive notifications of the sums due without application. Should they not receive such notification within a month of the appearance of the Admiralty notices relating to their particular cases (see paragraph 2) they should then make application, either in person or by letter, to the Registrar, R.N.R. (Superintendent of Mercantile Marine Office), nearest to their place of residence.

(Men who have changed the address given on their Protection and Identity Certificate or on final discharge from the Naval Reserve, should—if they have not already done so—at once notify the change to the nearest Registrar, R.N.R., or, if more convenient, direct to the Registrar-General of Shipping and Seamen, Tower Hill, London, E. 1, quoting the number and letter of their Certificate R.V.2).

(b) To all other Officers, and to men of the Royal Navy, Royal Marines, Royal Naval Air Service, Royal Naval Reserve except as provided in (a), Royal Naval Volunteer Reserve and Mercantile Marine serving under Naval Engagements, by the Accountant-General of the Navy, Prize Branch, Cornwall House, Stamford Street, London, S.E. 1.

Applications for which no official forms are required, should be made as follows:—

Officers: By letter, signed by claimant and accompanied by a Certificate of Service or Appointment or other evidence of Identity.

Men: By letter, signed by claimant, stating the address of nearest Money Order Office, and in all Royal Navy, Royal Marine, Royal Naval Air Service and Royal Naval Volunteer Reserve cases, enclosing Service Certificate, and when notation of previous payments was made on any other Certificate, that one as well. In Mercantile Marine cases the Continuous Discharge Certificate, or war period extract therefrom, certified at a Mercantile Marine Office with impressed Stamp of Office, must be forwarded with the application, and in Royal Naval Reserve cases the R.N.R. Certificate of Discharge (R.V.8 or variants), or Protection and Identity Certificate or Certificate R.V.2, if in the possession of the applicant.

(c) To representatives of all Officers and men deceased, by the Accountant-General of the Navy, to whom applications should be made by letter signed by the actual claimant, addressed as shown in (b) above.

5. In all cases in which by reason of an adjustment having been necessary, the supplementary payment is not strictly proportionate to the previous ones, an explanation will be given for the information of the claimant, but while the distribution is in progress it will not be possible to undertake correspondence without delaying payments and holding up the return of Service Certificates, etc., and the acceptance of the amounts remitted will not prejudice a further adjustment later if required.

6. No assignments of Prize Money can be recognised.

7. Payment to those still serving (including Officers on Half Pay and Royal Air Force, late Royal Naval Air Service) will be made later through the Ships or Depots, etc., in which they are borne, except that Officers on Half Pay will be paid by the Accountant-General of the Navy. No applications should be made pending the issue of specific directions in Fleet Orders on the subject.

8. Payment to ex-Ranks and ratings of the Royal Indian Marine and the Naval Forces of the Dominions will be made by the Indian and respective Dominion Authorities, and application should be made to the Government of India or to the High Commissioner of the Dominion concerned, except that:—

(a) Officers Royal Indian Marine who were granted Imperial Commissions will be paid by the Accountant-General of the Navy.

(b) Payments to members of the South African Division, Royal Naval Volunteer Reserve, will be authorised by the Accountant-General of the Navy through the R.N. Depot, Simonstown.

9. All applications to the Prize Branch must be in writing, personal applications cannot be accepted.
