BANK OF ENGLAND.

2nd March, 1939.

The Court of Directors of the Governor and Company of the Bank of England give notice:—

That a General Court will be held at the Bank on Thursday, the 23rd March, at 12 o'clock precisely, to consider of a dividend. This will also be one of the half-yearly General Courts.

The Court of Directors also give notice:—

That another General Court will be held at the Bank on Tuesday, the 18th April, from 11 o'clock in the forenoon until 4 in the afternoon, for the election of a Governor and Deputy Governor for the year ensuing (which will be declared that evening): and the same Court will be continued by adjournment and held at the same place and during the same hours on Wednesday, the 19th April, for the election of twenty-four Directors, which election will be declared as soon as the scrutiny is over.

No person other than those recommended for election by the Court of Directors shall be qualified to be elected at any General Court to the office of Governor, Deputy Governor or Director unless he shall have been nominated as a candidate for such office by notice in writing signed by a member or members qualified to vote at such General Court and delivered to the Secretary of the Bank at its head office not less than fourteen days before such General Court.

A Member is not qualified to vote in any General Court unless he holds £500 stock whether in his own right or in trust for another person, and has been possessed thereof for at least six calendar months unless he has acquired the said stock by transmission on death or by marriage.

Where stock stands in the joint names of two or more Members, they may by writing under their hands, in a form provided on application at the Bank of England, nominate one of their number to vote in respect of such stock; and if none of them is so nominated the one whose name stands first in the register of Members shall be qualified to vote.

The nomination referred to must be lodged at the head office of the Bank in London, for examination, not less than 10 clear days before the first General Court at which the nominee desires to vote.
