

of Durweston should be held in plurality with the benefice of Stourpaine and that the said benefice of Bryanston should be held in plurality with the benefice of Blandford, Saint Mary, all of which benefices are situate in the said diocese of Salisbury:

"And whereas effect can be given to the said proposals so far as they relate to the dissolution of the said union by Scheme prepared by us and confirmed by Order of Your Majesty in Council pursuant to the said Union of Benefices Measures and in so far as they relate to the said pluralities by subsequent orders made by the said Bishop pursuant to the said Pastoral Reorganisation Measure:

"Now, therefore, we, the said Church Commissioners, do humbly recommend and propose to Your Majesty as follows, that is to say:—

"1. The union of the benefice of Durweston and the benefice of Bryanston in the said united benefice of Durweston with Bryanston shall be dissolved and the said benefices of Durweston and Bryanston shall thereupon each become a separate benefice with cure of souls within the limits of its separate parish.

"2. The disunion of the said united benefice shall take effect upon the date when any Order of Your Majesty in Council affirming this Scheme is published in the London Gazette.

"3. The parsonage house of the said united benefice shall belong to the benefice of Durweston.

"4. The endowments and property of the said united benefice shall be divided and distributed as follows, that is to say, a capital fund of £4,091 2s. 0d. being part of a larger capital fund held by us, the said Church Commissioners, on behalf of the said united benefice shall be assigned and annexed to the benefice of Bryanston and all other the endowments and property of the said united benefice shall be assigned and annexed to the benefice of Durweston."

And whereas the provisions of the Union of Benefices Measures, 1923 to 1936, and the Union of Benefices Rules, 1926 and 1930, and the Pastoral Reorganisation Measure, 1949, relating to the preparation and submission of this Scheme have been duly complied with:

And whereas the said Scheme has been approved by Her Majesty in Council:

Now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to affirm the said Scheme and to order that it shall be and become effectual in law immediately upon the publication of this Order in the London Gazette.

F. J. Fernau.

At the Court at Clarence House, the 10th day of March, 1952.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Church Commissioners have duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a Scheme bearing date the 28th day of February, 1952, in the words and figures following, that is to say:

"We, the Church Commissioners, acting in pursuance of the Pastoral Reorganisation Measure, 1949, and of the Union of Benefices Measures, 1923 to 1936, now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council the following Scheme which we have prepared with the consent of the Right Reverend William, Bishop of Salisbury (in witness whereof he has signed this Scheme) for effecting the union of the benefice of Broadchalke and the benefice of Bowerchalke, both situate in the diocese of Salisbury.

"SCHEME

"1. Union of Benefices. The said benefice of Broadchalke and the said benefice of Bowerchalke shall be permanently united together and form one benefice with cure of souls under the style of 'The United Benefice of Broadchalke and Bowerchalke' but the parishes of the said benefices shall continue distinct in all respects.

"2. Taking effect of union. Upon the day when any Order of Your Majesty in Council affirming this Scheme is published in the London Gazette the union shall forthwith take effect, and the Reverend Donald Leslie Band if he is then incumbent of the said benefice of Broadchalke shall, with his consent (testified by his signature hereto) be the first incumbent of the united benefice.

"3. Parsonage House. Pending the provision of a more suitable house at Broadchalke for the united benefice the parsonage house at present belonging to the benefice of Bowerchalke shall be the house of residence of the incumbent of the united benefice."

And whereas the provisions of the Union of Benefices Measures, 1923 to 1936, and the Union of Benefices Rules, 1926 and 1930, and the Pastoral Reorganisation Measure, 1949, relating to the preparation and submission of this Scheme have been duly complied with:

And whereas the said Scheme has been approved by Her Majesty in Council:

Now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to affirm the said Scheme and to order that it shall be and become effectual in law immediately upon the publication of this Order in the London Gazette.
