RUMANIAN CLAIMS

The Agreement between the Governments of the United Kingdom and Roumania of 10th November 1960 provides in Article 10 that the Contracting Governments "shall enter into negotiations in the course of the year 1966 for the settlement of all claims of the United Kingdom Government and of British Nationals and of all obligations of the Roumanian Government including those arising out of the nationalisation of companies in Roumania, which are specifically excluded from or not covered by the present Agreement. During such negotiations any other claims of British nationals against Roumanian nationals may be examined."

Any British national having a claim against the Rumanian Government or a Rumanian National not discharged or covered by the above Agreement is invited to apply not later than 30th November 1965 to the Under Secretary of State, Foreign Office, Whitehall, London S.W.1, for the appropriate form on which to record details of such claim.

Holders of Sterling Bonds or anyone acting on their behalf should communicate with the Council of Foreign Bondholders at 17 Moorgate, London E.C.2, giving the full title of the bond, the bond number and the nominal amount of the bond in each case.

THE FAIRS ACT 1871

Fairs—Sheffield

Whereas on 5th May a representation was made to me as Secretary of State for the Home Department, by the Sheffield Corporation the owners of the Fairs which have been held from time to time on land formerly known as the Smithfield Market, Blonk Street, Sheffield, and on the streets adjoining such land, that it would be for the convenience and advantage of the public that the said Fairs should be abolished:

And whereas notice of the said representation and of the time when the same would be taken into consideration has been duly published in pursuance of the Fairs Act 1871:

And whereas it appears to me after considering the said representation that it would be for the convenience and advantage of the public that the said Fairs should be abolished:

Now, therefore, I the Right Honourable Sir Frank Soskice, Q.C., M.P., one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, in exercise of the powers conferred upon me, by section 3 of the Fairs Act 1871, do hereby Order that the Fairs which have been held from time to time on land formerly known as Smithfield Market, Blonk Street, Sheffield, and on the streets adjoining such land shall be abolished.

Frank Soskice, One of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State.
