PRIVY COUNCIL OFFICE

At the Court at Buckingham Palace the 28th day of July 1967.

PRESENT

The QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty in Council

Whereas provision has been made for the award of a temporary allowance to the widows of officers and men who received a pension from the Ministry of Social Security in respect of severe disablement attributable to or aggravated by service in the Royal Navy or Royal Marines during the 1914 World War or after 2nd September 1939:

And whereas it is considered expedient that similar provision should be made for an allowance to widows of severely disabled pensioners of the Ministry of Defence whose disablement was attributable to or aggravated by peace-time service before 3rd September 1939 in the Royal Navy or Royal Marines:

Now, therefore, Her Majesty, in exercise of the powers conferred upon Her by section 11 of the Naval and Marine Pay and Pensions Act 1865, and of all other powers enabling Her in that behalf, is pleased, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, to order, and it is hereby ordered, as follows:

1. This Order may be cited as the Naval and Marine Pay and Pensions (Temporary Allowance to Widows) Order 1967.

2. Where an officer, rating or marine dies on or after 2nd December 1963, and a constant attendance allowance or unemployability supplement was payable to him for any period ending with his death, or a constant attendance allowance ceased to be payable within 13 weeks of his death following his entry as an in-patient into a hospital or other institution, his widow may be awarded a personal allowance and additional allowances in respect of children in accordance with the regulations set out below.

3. Where death takes place between 2nd December 1963 and 5th July 1966 the personal allowance shall be payable for a period of 13 weeks commencing, in the case of the widow of an officer, with the day, and in the case of the widow of a rating or marine with the Wednesday, next following the day of his death.

4. Where death takes place on or after 6th July 1966 the allowance shall be payable for a period of 26 weeks from the day specified in Clause 3.

5. The personal allowance shall be payable at a weekly rate equal to the total amount of the disability retired pay, pension and allowances payable to the officer, rating or marine for the 7 days immediately preceding the day of his death, with the exception of any allowance payable in respect of wear and tear of clothing, any increased personal allowance paid in addition to the 100 per cent. rate of Treatment allowance, any additional allowance over the 100 per cent. rate payable in respect of the wife of a pensioner in receipt of Treatment allowance, any increased allowance over the 100 per cent. rate payable in respect of the wife of an unemployable pensioner, and any allowance payable in respect of a child.

No account shall be taken of any pension awarded in respect of service or rank (or both) for which the officer, rating or marine was eligible but the temporary allowance will be related to the disability retired pay which would otherwise have been payable.

6. Where the widow is awarded a personal allowance under this Order, she may be awarded an additional allowance in respect of any child for whom an allowance was payable to the officer rating or marine immediately before his death. Any such additional allowance shall be payable for so long as the personal allowance is payable and the child would have been eligible for an allowance if the officer, rating or marine had not died.

7. The child's allowance shall be payable at the weekly rate at which the allowance or allowances for the child (other than an Education allowance), was or were payable in respect of the 7 days immediately preceding the day of death of the officer, rating or marine.

8. Where the aggregate amount of any payments made to a dependant under this Order for any period is equal to or exceeds the aggregate amount of any pension, allowance (other than an Education allowance) or grant which, apart from the provisions of this Order, might be awarded to that dependant for that period, no award of such pension, allowance or grant shall be made for that period; but where the aggregate amount of any such payment is less than the aggregate amount of any such pension, allowance or grant, the said pension, allowance or grant may be awarded for that period instead of the said payments.

9. Notwithstanding anything in the foregoing provisions of this Order the Defence Council may, if in their opinion the exceptional circumstances of the case so require, at their discretion—

(a) vary the conditions for the award of a personal allowance in so far as they relate to a period in respect of which a constant attendance allowance or unemployability supplement is required to have been payable;

(b) award a personal allowance or an additional allowance for any week at a weekly rate other than that prescribed in Clauses 5 and 7 above, but not exceeding the maximum rate which would have been payable in accordance with those Clauses had the officer, rating or marine died at any time not earlier than 13 weeks before the date of his death.

Gratuities for Minor Injuries for which Hurt Certificates are Granted

7. At the discretion of the Ministry of Defence gratuities may be granted on discharge in respect of slight permanent injury attributable to naval service for which a Hurt Certificate has been issued, when discharge is totally unconnected with the injury and any other award which may be made is based on length of service only.

Compensation in respect of Death Attributable to Service

8. Provided the conditions regarding relationship, age and dependency are satisfied, a gratuity not exceeding the amount of two years' pay attaching to the substantive rating and any Good Conduct Badges held at the time of his death subject to a maximum of £315 may be granted at the discretion of the Ministry of Defence to dependent relatives of a deceased rating whose death is certified by the competent naval medical authority to have been caused by the conditions of his service.

(2) Brevet or honorary rank shall not count, except where otherwise specifically stated, but the rank of Commodore 1st or 2nd Class shall be regarded as substantive rank. Brevet rank held on the Active List prior to 25th June 1925 shall also be regarded as a substantive rank.

(4) A Chaplain shall be treated as holding such rank as is, in the opinion of the Defence Council, appropriate in his case having regard to his length of service. In the case of a Chaplain on the retired list, seniority for this purpose shall be taken as seniority at date of original retirement increased by the amount of actual service (if any) after retirement during war or emergency.

- (a) "child" means a child who is eligible for an allowance under clauses 5 or 6 and any other child who in the opinion of the Defence Council having regard to the child's relationship to or connection with the deceased member and the other circumstances of the case should be treated as covered by this provision;

- (c) "accommodation" means living accommodation without any service or benefit not ordinarily provided by the landlord to the tenant of an unfurnished dwelling house, but may include accommodation reasonably required for the storage of furniture.

SECTION II

CONDITIONS GOVERNING THE AWARD

9. Pension cannot be claimed as a right

- (a) A pension cannot be claimed as a right and will not be granted or continued when the applicant is shown to be living with a man as his wife, nor will it be granted if the service of the officer, rating or marine has not been such as in the opinion of the Defence Council to justify the award.
- (b) If the death of an officer, rating or marine, or the wound, injury or disease which resulted in his death was due wholly or in part to his own negligence or misconduct or to any cause within his own control, any grant which might otherwise be made to his widow or other dependents may be withheld or reduced in amount at the discretion of the Defence Council.
- (c) If the applicant is granted any other pension or allowance from public funds on account of the service of the deceased, any pension which might otherwise be granted under this Schedule may be withheld or reduced as the Defence Council may determine.

10. Third Party Compensation

If an officer, rating or marine is killed or dies in such circumstances that any grant is payable in respect of him under this Order in Council and his widow, child or other dependent relative receives compensation from or on behalf of a third party for the act, omission or circumstances which caused the death, any such compensation may be taken into consideration in assessing any grant which might be made under this Order in Council; and if the compensation is received after assessment, it may be taken into consideration and the assessment may be amended or cancelled.

11. Effect of Separation on Widows' Pension

Subject to any exception which the Defence Council may approve in a particular case, a pension will not be awarded to a widow who was separated from her husband at the time of his death. Should such an exception be approved the award will be at such a rate, and subject to such conditions, as the Defence Council may determine.

12. Date of commencement of pension

The date of commencement of pension will be determined according to the circumstances of the case and will normally if application is not unduly delayed, be the date following the date of cessation of the husband's disablement pension.

13. Belated claims

If a widow dies before establishing her claim to pension, arrears of pension will not, save in exceptional circumstances, be allowed to her estate.

14. Remarriage

If the widow of a rating or marine who has been granted a pension under these regulations remarries, her pension will cease on the date of her remarriage, but at the discretion of the Defence Council, she may then be granted a gratuity equal to one year's pension in full discharge of all claims.

The pension of an officer's widow who remarries shall be suspended from the date following that of her remarriage, but in the event of her again becoming a widow her pension may be restored at the discretion of the Defence Council for such time as she remains a widow, provided that she is otherwise qualified and that her pecuniary circumstances are such as, in the opinion of the Defence Council, justify the award. Should she become eligible by remarriage for a pension at a different rate, she may be awarded that which is more to her advantage.

15. Children

- (a) A "child" for the purposes of the award of a pension under this Schedule means:—

(1) A legitimate child of the Officer, R.N. rating, or R.M. other rank; or

(2) a step-child of the Officer, R.N. rating, or R.M. other rank who was mainly dependent on him at the time of his death; or

(3) a child adopted by the Officer, R.N. rating or R.M. other rank; or

(4) an illegitimate child of the Officer, R.N. rating or R.M. other rank, born before or within nine months after the date on which he sustained the wound or injury, or the date on which he was removed from duty on account of the disease in respect of which his disablement pension was granted, and who was regularly maintained by the officer, rating or other rank up to the date of his death, or who was the subject of an affiliation order which was in force at the date of his death.

- (b) A child's pension will normally cease when the child attains the age of 18 years in the case of the child of an Officer or a Regimental Sergeant Major, Royal Marines, or the age of 16 years in the case of all other ratings and ranks, but may be granted or continued after those ages:—

(1) if the child continues to receive full-time education, or is an apprentice not receiving more than nominal wages; or

(2) if, before attaining the age referred to above the child was, and continues to be afflicted by mental or bodily infirmity and is therefore incapable of earning his, or her own living, provided the Defence Council considers that the pecuniary circumstances of the child and family are such as to justify the award.

- (c) Children's pensions will be paid to the widow or mother of the child, or other person responsible for the child's maintenance, or to the child direct, as may be decided by the Defence Council.

- (d) Pensions of children of Officers and of Regimental Sergeant Majors, Royal Marines, may be issued quarterly in advance.

- (e) Children's allowances will not be payable for any period during which the children are maintained in the Royal Navy, the Army or the Royal Air Force.

C. The expressions "removed from duty" or "removal from duty" shall be interpreted with reference to the date of the first removal from duty on account of the disease upon which the claim in respect of disablement is based, provided that if, as the result of service subsequent to the date of receipt of the wound or injury or of removal from duty, not being service after the 2nd September 1939, the member suffered material aggravation of his disability, the date of removal from duty shall be that of the later removal on account of the disability: or, if there was no such removal, the date of termination of full pay service of the member.

E. Family additions to disablement pension in respect of an individual may be withheld if in the opinion of the Ministry of Defence the circumstances are not such as to justify a grant.

F. Where an individual in respect of whom family addition to disablement pension is admissible is not residing with the member, the addition may, at the discretion of the Ministry of Defence, be granted independently, for the benefit of that individual, to some person other than the member.

4. EDUCATION ALLOWANCES

Provided that in an exceptional case of very severe disablement the allowance may, subject to such conditions as the Ministry of Defence may determine, be increased to a rate not exceeding £286 a year in the case of an officer or 110s. a week in the case of a rating.

6. EXCEPTIONALLY SEVERE DISABLEMENT ALLOWANCE

Where the disablement of a member of the naval forces is, and in the opinion of the Ministry of Defence is likely permanently to remain, such that he is, or if he were not in a hospital or other institution would be, in receipt of an allowance for constant attendance at a rate increased under the proviso to Clause 5, he may be awarded an allowance at the rate of £156 a year in the case of an officer or 60s. a week in the case of a rating.

7. SEVERE DISABLEMENT OCCUPATIONAL ALLOWANCE

9. ALLOWANCES FOR UNEMPLOYABLE PENSIONERS

A. Eligibility

Where a member of the naval forces is in receipt of retired pay or a pension under Clause 1 in respect of disablement so serious as to make him unemployed, he may be awarded allowances in accordance with such of the provisions of this Clause as may be appropriate in his case:

Provided that—

- (i) such a member may be deemed to be unemployed although in receipt of earnings which are, in the opinion of the Ministry of Defence, unlikely to exceed £104 a year;
- (ii) such a member shall not be eligible for any award under this Clause if he is in receipt of a retirement pension (not being contributory old age pension) under the National Insurance Acts 1946 to 1964 or under any legislation in Northern Ireland corresponding to those Acts.

A member coming within paragraph A of this Clause may be awarded an allowance, by way of supplement to his retired pay or pension, at the rate of £227 10s. 0d. a year in the case of an officer, or 87s. 6d. a week in any other case:

Provided that, in computing the said rates, account shall be taken, to such extent as the Ministry of Defence may think fit, of a contributory old age pension under the National Insurance Act 1946, or under any legislation in Northern Ireland corresponding to that Act for which the member may be eligible.

C. Additional allowances for dependants

Where a member is awarded an allowance in accordance with paragraph B of this Clause, he may also be awarded additional allowances in accordance with the following provisions of this paragraph:

- (a) Where an allowance has been awarded under Clause 3 in respect of a wife and the degree of disablement of the member is less than 100 per cent., that allowance may be increased to the rate which would be appropriate under that Clause if the degree of the disablement of the member were 100 per cent.
- (b) Where an allowance has been awarded under Clause 3 in respect of a wife and the degree of the disablement of the member is 100 per cent., or where an allowance for such person has been increased or awarded under subparagraph (a) of this paragraph, the rate of the allowance may be increased, or further increased, as the case may be, by £94 a year in the case of an officer, or 40s. a week in any other case, if the Ministry of Defence thinks fit having regard to the financial circumstances of the person in respect of whom the allowance has been granted.
- (c) Where the member is not in receipt of an allowance under Clause 3 in respect of a wife, an allowance may be awarded in respect of an adult dependant at the rate of £130 a year in the case of an officer, or 50s. a week in any other case, if the Ministry of Defence thinks fit having regard to the financial circumstances of the person in respect of whom the allowance is claimed; provided that the member shall not be awarded an allowance in respect of more than one adult dependant.
- (d) (i) Where an allowance has been awarded under Clause 3 in respect of a child and the degree of disablement of the member is less than 100 per cent., that allowance may be increased to the rate which would be appropriate under that Clause if the degree of the disablement of the member were 100 per cent.

(ii) an allowance may be awarded in respect of any child, not being an eligible member of the family, who should, in the opinion of the Ministry of Defence, be treated as such having regard to the child's relationship to, or connection with, the pensioner and other circumstances of the case, provided that any such allowance shall be at the rate and subject to the conditions which would be appropriate under Clause 3 if the child were an eligible member of the family and the degree of the disablement of the member were 100 per cent.;

(e) where an allowance has been awarded under Clause 3 or sub-clause (d) of this Clause in respect of the child or children of an officer, the rate thereof in respect of that child or the elder or eldest of those children may be increased to £58 10s. a year, and in respect of each other of those children to £37 14s. a year, and where an allowance has been so awarded in respect of the child or children of a member not being an officer the rate thereof in respect of that child or the elder or eldest of those children may be increased to 22s. 6d. a week and in respect of each other of those children to 14s. 6d. a week.

D. Adjustment of allowances in respect of benefit payable out of public funds abroad

Where a person to or in respect of whom an allowance or increase may be or has been awarded under the foregoing provisions of this Clause is eligible for benefit payable out of public funds under the law of any place outside the United Kingdom being benefit which, in the opinion of the Ministry of Defence, is analogous to a benefit under the National Insurance Acts 1946 to 1964, the Ministry of Defence may take the benefit into account against the allowance or increase in such manner and to such extent as may be thought appropriate having regard to any adjustment which would be made if the person were eligible for the analogous benefit under the said Acts.

10. ALLOWANCES FOR COMFORTS

A. A member of the naval forces who is in receipt of retired pay or pension under Clause 1 may be awarded an allowance for the provision of comforts:

(i) in receipt of an allowance under Clause 9; or

(ii) in receipt of retired pay or pension in respect of disablement the degree of which is 100 per cent. and which has been awarded in respect of multiple injuries which, in the opinion of the Ministry of Defence, render his disablement so severe as to justify the award of an allowance at the aforementioned rate;

(b) at the rate of £26 a year in the case of an officer or 10s. a week in any other case if he does not qualify for an award under subparagraph (a) of this Clause but is in receipt of an allowance under Clause 5 or under Clause 9.

B. For the purposes of this Clause, a member who would be in receipt of an allowance under Clause 5 if he were not in a hospital or other institution shall be deemed to be in receipt of an allowance under that Clause.

11. ALLOWANCES FOR LOWERED STANDARD OF OCCUPATION

A member of the naval forces who is in receipt of retired pay or pension under Clause 1 the degree of which is less than 100 per cent. who has been compelled after 1st July 1945, by reason of his disability, to adopt an occupation not equivalent to that regularly followed by him for a reasonable period before that date may be granted at Ministry of Defence discretion a special allowance at a rate not exceeding 54s. 0d. a week (£140 8s. 0d. a year) so however that the aggregate rate of his retired pay or pension under Clause 1 together with the allowance under this Clause shall not exceed the rate of award which would have been appropriate in his case under Clause 1 if the degree of his disablement had been 100 per cent.

This Clause shall not apply to a member who is eligible for an allowance under Clause 9.

Provided that—

(a) a treatment allowance shall be subject to such deductions or adjustments as the Ministry of Defence may think fit having regard to all the circumstances of the case;

(b) where a member is in receipt of a treatment allowance under this clause in respect of any period, no payment shall be made in respect of that period of any other award under Schedule 1 except an award under Clauses 4, 6, 8, 9B or 10 or, in the case of treatment other than approved institutional treatment under Clause 5, or, under Clause 7 subject to the provisions of sub-clause (b) of the proviso to that Clause.

C. Where the member has attained the age of 65 years he may be awarded an increase of the allowance under paragraph B of this Clause:

(a) at a rate equal to that of the allowance which he would be receiving under Clause 12 but for proviso (b) to paragraph A of this Clause or at such higher rate as the Ministry of Defence may determine having regard to the circumstances of the case, or

(b) at such rate as the Ministry of Defence may determine if of opinion that an award should be made to a person who is not eligible for an award under the preceding sub-paragraph.

Provided that the rate of any increase under this paragraph shall not exceed £39 a year in the case of an officer or 15s. a week in the case of a rating.

D. The allowance under paragraph B of this Clause may be increased by whichever of the following amounts is appropriate:

(ii) a member who is receiving approved institutional treatment and is not entitled to an allowance under the following provisions of this Clause.

E. An additional allowance may be awarded in respect of an eligible dependant at the rate and subject to the conditions which would be appropriate under Clause 3 if that dependant were an eligible member of the family and the degree of the member's disablement were 100 per cent.:

Provided that:

- (a) where that eligible dependant is a wife (whether married to the member before or after the material date) the rate of the additional allowance in respect of that person may be increased to the rate of £130 a year in the case of an officer, or the rate of 50s. 0d. a week in any other case, as the Ministry of Defence may think fit having regard to the financial circumstances of that person;
- (b) the rate of the allowance awarded under the foregoing provisions of this sub-clause in respect of the child or children of an officer may, in respect of that child or the elder or eldest of those children be increased to £58 10s. 0d. a year, and in respect of each other of these children to £37 14s. 0d. a year, and where an allowance has been so awarded in respect of the child or children of a member not being an officer, the rate thereof in respect of that child or the elder or eldest of those children may be increased to 22s. 6d. a week and in respect of each other of those children to 14s. 6d. a week.

Provided that the member of the naval forces shall not be awarded an additional allowance in respect of more than one adult dependant.

G The benefit referred to in paragraph D of this Clause is personal benefit under the National Insurance (Industrial Injuries) Acts 1946 to 1964, sickness benefit, retirement pension or contributory old age pension under the National Insurance Acts 1946 to 1964, or under any legislation in Northern Ireland corresponding to those Acts, or under the law of any place outside the United Kingdom which in the opinion of the Ministry of Defence is analogous to those Acts.

Where it is certified that a member of the naval forces should on completion of a course of approved institutional treatment abstain from work for a prolonged period in consequence of the condition which necessitated that treatment, he may be treated as if he were eligible for a treatment allowance under Clause 13.

B. This Clause shall not apply to a member of the naval forces who is in receipt of an allowance under Clause 9B.

15. ALLOWANCES FOR PART-TIME TREATMENT

Where a member of the naval forces receives treatment which would be approved treatment but for the fact that it involves only occasional interruptions of the member's normal employment, a treatment allowance may be awarded to the member at such rate as the Ministry of Defence may think appropriate having regard to any loss of remunerative time by the member as a result of those interruptions, provided that the rate does not exceed 50s. 0d. a day for treatment before 1st August 1966, or 65s. 0d. a day for treatment on or after 1st August 1966, and provided that the rate of a treatment allowance awarded to a member under this Clause in respect of any period of a week or less shall not exceed the amount by which the weekly value of the member's existing award under Schedule 1 (excluding any award under Clauses 4, 5, 7, 8, 9B, 10 or 12) falls short of the weekly value of the award which would have been appropriate in the case of that member under Clause 13 (excluding any award under paragraph C of that Clause) if he had been eligible for an award under that Clause.

16. MEDICAL EXPENSES
