

- Helen Margaret, Mrs. CAREY, D.L. For services to the National Federation of Women's Institutes and to the Environment.
- John Graham CARRINGTON, Conflict and Humanitarian Adviser, Department for International Development.
- Professor Judith Mary CHESSELLS. For services to Leukaemia Research.
- Dr. Marjorie McCallum CHIBNALL, Medieval Historian, Clare Hall, University of Cambridge. For services to History.
- Miss Sarah CHILD, Chairman, Addaction. For services to Drug and Alcohol Treatment.
- Mohammed Jehangir CHOUDHRY, Chairman, Puretone plc. For services to the Hearing Aid Industry and to Businesses in Kent.
- Richard Anthony CLARK, Chief Executive, Prime Focus. For services to Housing in the West Midlands.
- Robert Lawrence CLARK, Director, Cumbria Rural Enterprise Agency. For services to the Rural Community.
- Robert CLARKE, lately Chair, Advisory Panel, Beacon Councils. For services to Local Government.
- Alan Malcolm CLARKSON. For services to Swimming.
- Roger Paul CLAYDON, Grade B1, Ministry of Defence.
- Malcolm John CLAYTON, Headteacher, Fred Nicholson School, Dereham, Norfolk. For services to Special Needs Education.
- Catherine Mary, Mrs. COLE, lately Principal, Hereward College of Further Education, Coventry. For services to Education for Disabled People.
- Maureen Ada, Mrs. COLE. For services to the Women's Section, Royal British Legion.
- Robert James COLEMAN, Grade B2, Ministry of Defence.
- Paul Robert COLLEY, lately Superintendent, Hampshire Constabulary. For services to the Police.
- Ms Joyce CONNOR, Scottish Secretary, Workers' Educational Association. For services to Adult Education.
- Janet Clouston Bewley (Poppy), Lady COOKSEY, D.L. For services to Fencing.
- Diana Elissa, Lady COPISAROW. For Public Service.
- Michael James COUNSELL, Principal Youth Officer for Gloucestershire. For services to Young People.
- Christopher Thomas CROOK, Chair, Sussex Probation Board. For services to the National Probation Service.
- Michael John CROSTA, lately Crown Prosecutor, Crown Prosecution Service.
- Professor Christopher John Stokes DAMERELL. For services to Particle Physics Research, Rutherford Appleton Laboratory, Oxfordshire.
- Michael DAVEY, Leader, Northumberland County Council. For services to Local Government.
- Hywel Gethin DAVIES, lately Chairman, Llangollen International Musical Eisteddfod. For services to Music and to International Relations.
- John Thomas Ronald DAVIES, Photographer. For services to Photography.
- Elspeth Freda, Mrs. DAVIS, Divisional Manager, South West Early Years, Office for Standards in Education.
- Paul Bernard DERMODY, lately Chief Executive Officer, De Vere Group plc. For services to the Hospitality Industry.
- Professor Charles Walter DESFORGES, Emeritus Professor of Education, University of Exeter. For services to Education.
- Philip Lloyd DINHAM. For services to Youth and Community Justice.
- Raphael DJANOGLY, J.P. For Charitable Services.
- David Christopher Curtis DULY, Director, Habinteg Housing Association (Ulster) Limited. For services to Housing in Northern Ireland.
- Ron EGGINTON, Head, UKAEA Corporate Governance and Business Relations Team, Department of Trade and Industry.
- Geoffrey Leonard ESSERY. For services to Health and Safety in the Chemical Industry.
- Dr. Meirion Rhys EVANS, Clinical Senior Lecturer, University of Wales College of Medicine. For services to the WHO in China and to the Hong Kong Government during the SARS Outbreak.
- Professor David Philip FARRINGTON, Professor of Psychological Criminology, Institute of Criminology, Cambridge. For services to Criminology.
- Ms Hazel FARROW, Headteacher, Loxford School of Science and Technology, Redbridge, London. For services to Education.
- John David FLACK, Vice Chairman, Federation of Independent Mines. For services to Health and Safety in the Mining Industry.
- Raymond Norman FLETCHER, Personnel Director, Rempoy. For services to Disabled People.
- Paul FORBES, Director, Department of Training, Leeds City Council. For services to Training and Employment for Disadvantaged Groups.
- Professor Janet FORD, Pro-Vice Chancellor, York University. For services to Housing.
- Joan, Mrs. FORD, Chair, West Middlesbrough Neighbourhood Trust. For services to Social Inclusion.
- Margaret Susan, Mrs. FOSTER, Chief Executive, Pontypridd and Rhondda NHS Trust. For services to the NHS in Wales and to Equal Opportunities.
- Miss Karen FOULDS, District Manager, Jobcentre Plus, Department for Work and Pensions.
- Mary Dawn, Mrs. FOULKES, Director, Human Resources Customer Operations, Ford Europe. For services to Diversity.
- Maurice FRANKEL, Director, Campaign for Freedom of Information. For services to Open Government.
- Simon Andrew FRASER, Chairman, North Areas Board, Scottish Natural Heritage. For services to the Environment and to the Highlands and Islands.
- Professor Judith Wordsworth GEORGE, Deputy Director, Open University Scotland. For services to Higher Education.
- Richard Henry GIBBON, lately Head of Engineering Collections, National Railway Museum. For services to Museums.
- John GILLILAND, Farmer. For services to the Environment.
- Peter John GILROY, Director, Social Services, Kent. For services to Social Care.
- John GODFREY. For services to Consumer Food Interests.
- Miss Margaret Elizabeth GOOSE, Chief Executive, The Stroke Association. For services to Healthcare.
- William GRADY, Principal, Isle of Wight College. For services to Education.
- Ian GRAHAM, Principal, John Wheatley College, Glasgow. For services to Further Education and to Community Development.